50 This day the court, having jurisdiction of the subject-matter of this proceed-

Sec. 1081. RESTRAINING ORDER—FORMS.] The court by whom any citation or 2 warrant is ordered to issue, or any court before whom any judgment debtor or 3 other person is required to appear or be brought for examination, upon the peti-4 tion of the judgment creditor setting forth that the judgment creditor verily be-5 lieves, and has reason to believe, that there is danger that the judgment debtor, 6 or any other person or corporation to be cited, may transfer or otherwise dispose 7 of the property of the judgment debtor, or the property or debt concerning 8 which a citation for examination has been or is about to be issued, may make 9 an order restraining such judgment debtor, or other person or corporation, from 10 making or suffering any transfer or other disposition of or interference with 11 the property of the judgment debtor, or the property or debt concerning which 12 any person or corporation is required to attend and be examined, until further 13 direction in the premises. The court, before entering any such order against 14 any person or corporation, other than the judgment debtor, shall require the 15 plaintiff to execute and file in the action an injunction bond conditioned, as 16 near as may be, as other injunction bonds, in such penalty as the court may deem 17 reasonable and with security to be approved by the court. The following forms 18 of petitions, orders and bond provided for in this section shall be deemed sufficient 19 and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other petitions, orders 20 and bonds may be properly framed:

Sec. 1082. BOND BY JUDGMENT DEBTOR—FORMS.] When any judgment debtor has been arrested and brought before the court by virtue of a warrant issued as hereinbefore provided, and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court from his examination or other proof that there is danger that he will leave the state, or conceal himself, and that he has property which he has unjustly refused to apply to the satisfaction of the judgment, the court may make an order requiring him to give a bond, with one or more sureties, in a sum fixed and within a time specified in the order, conditioned that he will, from time to time, as the court may direct, attend before the court, or before some officer appointed or to be appointed for that purpose, and that he will not, until discharged from arrest by virtue of the warrant, dispose of any of his property which is not exempt from execution or garnishment, and, if he fails to comply with such order, the court shall forthwith order him committed to the county jail, there to remain until the close of the examination or the execution of the required undertaking, excepting that the court may direct the sheriff or other officer to produce him, from time to time, as required in the course of the proceedings. The following forms of order for the giving of a bond, of bond, and of order committing the defendant for failing to give such bond provided for in this section, shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other orders and bonds may be properly framed:

 51 against said Richard Roe on the 10th day of February, 1908, for the sum of five 52 hundred dollars ($500) and costs of the action, in favor of John Doe, did enter 53 an order requiring said Richard Roe to give a bond to attend before the court,

 57 fore the circuit court of Cook county, Illinois, as the court may direct and shall 58 not, until discharged from arrest by virtue of the warrant issued in such pro-59 ceeding, dispose of any of his property which is not exempt from execution or

 5 of either party, report the evidence, either with or without his conclusions 6 thereon, and may order the issuance of a citation for the attendance of the judg-7 ment debtor or any other person before the master for examination. The following

 3 regulated by such rules as may be adopted by the supreme court, and the su-4 preme court shall have power to adopt all further rules and regulations, not in-

5 consistent with the provisions of this act or otherwise inconsistent with law, 6 which the court may deem necessary to carry into effect the intention of this 7 act, which is to enable the judgment creditor to collect the amount of his judg-

 9 garnishment, or out of any moneys due to the judgment debtor exceeding the 10 amount exempt by law from garnishment, or out of any property which the judg-

Sec. 1088. JUDGMENTS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE—FORMS OF PETITION AND CITATION.] Any judgment rendered by any justice of the peace, when the amount due thereon, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds twenty-five dollars ($25), and when an execution has been issued thereon and returned unsatisfied, may, at any time within seven years after the rendition thereof, be enforced by supplementary proceedings in any court of record of original jurisdiction, other than a probate court, by the filing of a petition for a citation in such court of record accompanied by a duly certified transcript of such judgment. Upon the filing of such petition the same proceedings may be had, as near as may be, as are hereinbefore provided for with respect to proceedings for the enforcement of judgments of courts of record. 50 The People of the State of Illinois—GREETING to Richard Roe:

51 We hereby command you to personally be and appear before the circuit 52 court of Cook county, Illinois, at the county court-house in Chicago in said

53 county at ten o'clock, A. M., on Thursday, February 12, 1908, to be examined un-54 der oath concerning your property in a certain supplementary proceeding 55 therein pending under a certain judgment rendered by Henry Brown, Esq., a 56 justice of the peace of said county of Cook, against you on October 5, 1907, for 57 the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) and costs of the action in favor of John 58 Doe.

59 Witness John Smith, clerk of said circuit court and the seal thereof, at 60 Chicago, Illinois, this first day of February, 1908.

Sec. 1089. CREDITORS' BILLS.] Whenever an execution shall have been issued 2 against the property of a defendant on a judgment at law or a decree in equity 3 and shall have been returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the party suing 4 out such execution, in lieu of proceeding by citation as hereinbefore provided, 5 may file a bill of complaint in equity against such defendant and any other per-6 son or persons to compel the discovery of any property, money or things in action 7 due to him or held in trust for him, and to prevent the transfer of any such prop-8 erty, money or things in action, or the payment or delivery thereof to the de-9 fendant, except when such trust has in good faith been created by or the fund so 10 held in trust has proceeded from some person other than the defendant himself.
11 The court shall have power to compel such discovery and to prevent such trans-12 fer, payment or delivery, and to decree satisfaction of the sum remaining due on 13 such judgment out of any personal property, money or thing in action belonging 14 to the defendant or held in trust for him, with the exception above stated, which 15 shall be discovered by the proceedings in equity, whether the same were originally 16 liable to be taken in execution at law or not: Provided, however, that no answer 17 made to any bill filed under this section shall be read in evidence against the de-18 fendant on the trial of any indictment or information for fraud charged in the bill.
19 This section shall not, however, be construed to authorize any lien upon or sale 20 of those articles in possession of the defendant which are exempt from execution

21 by law and not released or waived by the party entitled to such exemption, nor 22 to authorize the application to the payment of the plaintiff's judgment of any 23 money or property exempt by law from garnishment. Any bill of complaint in 24 equity hereunder shall be sufficient if it sets forth the recovery of the plaintiff's 25 judgment, including the date thereof, the court in which rendered and the names 26 of the parties thereto and the issuance of an execution thereon and the return 27 of the same unsatisfied in whole or in part, and is filed within seven years after 28 the rendition of such judgment and sets forth that the plaintiff claims from the 29 defendants in such bill of complaint discovery of all property, money or things 30 in action within their possession, knowledge or control or within the possession, 31 knowledge or control of either of them, which in equity ought to be applied to the 32 satisfaction of the judgment, and if the bill shall be verified by the oath of the 33 plaintiff, his agent or attorney, that the same is true in substance and in fact.
34 Every answer to any such bill shall be under the oath of the defendants, but the 35 same shall not be evidence in their favor and notwithstanding any defendant shall, 36 in his answer, deny that he has possession, knowledge or control of any property, 37 money or thing in action which ought in equity to be applied in satisfaction of the 38 judgment, the court may proceed to hear the evidence and to render such decree 39 as the law and evidence may require. The plaintiff shall also be at liberty, in any 40 such bill, to set forth and describe any specific property, which he may seek to 41 have applied in satisfaction of his judgment, and may claim relief with respect 42 to any conveyance thereof or other transaction with respect thereto.

 9 the same manner that probate of wills is required to be made in other cases. And 10 it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court aforesaid, forthwith to certify 11 such will proven as aforesaid, to the county court or probate court of the county; 12 and said will shall, thereupon, have the same force and effect that it would have 13 had if it had been proven by one credible witness before the county court or pro-

 7 interested shall, within one (1) year after the probate of any such will, testament

 13 to the practice in courts of equity in similar cases; but if no such person shall ap-14 pear within the time aforesaid, the probate shall be forever binding and conclu-15 sive on all of the parties concerned, saving to infants or non compotes mentis the 16 like period after the removal of their respective disabilities. And in all such trials

 4 such devise, legacy or interest shall, as to such subscribing witness, and all per-5 sons claiming under him, be null and void, unless such will, testament or codicil 6 be otherwise duly attested by a sufficient number of witnesses exclusive of such 7 person, according to this act; and he or she shall be compellable to appear and 8 give testimony on the residue of such will, testament or codicil, in like manner as 9 if no such devise or bequest had been made. But if such witness would have been 10 entitled to any share of the testator's estate, in case the will, testament or codicil 11 was not established, then so much of such share shall be saved to such witness as 12 shall not exceed the value of the said devise or bequest made to him or her as 13 aforesaid.

 5 or in which his personal estate or part thereof shall lie, at the time of his death, 6 in the same manner, and upon like proof, as if the same had been made, executed

8 been probated in the state, territory or country in which it was made and de-9 clared or not. And all original wills, or copies thereof, duly certified accord-10 ing to law, or exemplifications from records in pursuance of the law of Congress 11 in relation to records in foreign states, may be recorded as aforesaid, and shall 13 probate court. For the purpose of granting administration of both testate and 3 court of the county wherein such mansion house or place of residence shall be.

4 If he or she has no place of residence, and lands be devised in his or her will, it 5 shall be proved in the court of the county wherein the lands lie, or in one of them, 6 where there shall be land in several different counties; and if he or she have no 7 such known place of residence, and there be no lands devised in such will, the 8 same may be proved either in the county where the testator or testatrix shall have 9 died, or that wherein his or her estate, or the greater part thereof, shall lie.

4 or testatrix, deliver up said will to the county court or probate court of the 5 proper county; and upon a failure or refusal so to do, the court may issue an 6 attachment, and compel the production of the same; and the person or persons 7 thus withholding any such will, testament or codicil, as aforesaid, shall forfeit and 8 pay twenty dollars ($20) per month, from the time the same shall be thus wrong-9 fully withheld, to be recovered by action of debt for the use of the estate, by any 10 person who will sue for the same, in any court having jurisdiction thereof; and if 11 any person to whom a will, testament or codicil hath been or shall be delivered by 12 the party making it, for safe custody as aforesaid, shall alter or destroy the same 13 without the direction of the said party, or shall wilfully secrete it for the space

 5 of the proper county, as provided by law, it shall be lawful for the party seeking 6 probate of such will, to support the same, on the hearing in such circuit court, 7 by any evidence competent to establish a will in chancery; and in case probate

 9 liable, however, to be subsequently contested, as provided in the case of wills

 17 manner as other wills are directed to be recorded by this act: Provided, that no 18 certificate of administration shall be granted on such will, until the expiration of 19 sixty days after the death of the testator or testatrix.

Sec. 1107. PROCEDURE FOR PROBATE OF NUNCUPATIVE WILL—PETITION—NO-
 2 TICE TO HEIRS AND LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES.] Before any such nuncupative will shall 3 be admitted to probate the person desiring to have the same probated shall file a 4 petition in the county court or probate court of the proper county asking that 5 said will be admitted to probate, which petition shall be in the form, as near as 6 may be, hereinbefore prescribed for a petition for the probate of a last will and 7 testament in writing, and thereupon the same notice shall be given to the heirs 8 and legal representative of the deceased person and the same proceedings shall 9 be had, as near as may be, as in case of an application for the probate of a last 10 will and testament in writing.

Sec. 1108. MANNER OF REVOKING WILL.] No will, testament or codicil shall 2 be revoked otherwise than by burning, canceling, tearing or obliterating the 3 same, by the testator himself, or in his presence, by his direction and consent, 4 or by some other will, testament or codicil in writing, declaring the same, signed 5 by the testator or testatrix, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and by 6 them attested in his or her presence; and no words spoken shall revoke or annul 7 any will, testament or codicil in writing, executed as aforesaid, in due form of 8 law.

Sec. 1109. WILLS TO REMAIN WITH CLERK—COPIES—EVIDENCE.] All original 2 wills, together with the probate thereof, shall remain in the office of the clerk of 3 the county court or probate court of the proper county; and copies of the record

 5 in said office, as in this act provided, duly certified under the hand of the clerk 6 and the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of law or equity in this 7 state.

Sec. 1110. DEBTOR AS EXECUTOR.] In no case hereafter, within this State, 2 where any testator or testatrix shall, by his or her will, appoint his or her debtor 3 to be his or her executor or executrix, shall such appointment operate as a re-4 lease or extinguishment of any debt due from such executor or executrix, to such 5 testator or testatrix, unless the testator or testatrix shall, in such will, expressly 6 declare his intention to devise, bequeath or release such debt; nor even in that 7 case, unless the estate of such testator or testatrix is sufficient to discharge the 8 whole of his or her just debts, over and above the debt due from such executor 9 or executrix.

Sec. 1111. CREDITOR AS WITNESS.] If any lands, tenements or hereditaments 2 shall be charged with any debts, by any will, testament or codicil, and the credi-

Sec. 1112. CERTIFICATE OF ADMINISTRATION UPON PROBATE OF WILL.] When a 2 will has been duly proved and allowed, the county court or probate court shall 3 grant a certificate of administration thereon to the executor named in such will, if 4 he is legally competent and accepts the trust, and gives bond to discharge the 5 same; and when there is no executor named in such will, or the executor named 6 therein dies, refuses to act, or is otherwise disqualified, the court shall commit 7 the administration of the estate unto the widow, surviving husband, next of kin,

8 creditor or public administrator, the same as if the testate had died intestate. In 9 all cases copies of the will shall go out with the certificate of administration.

Sec. 1113. DUTY OF PERSON NAMED AS EXECUTOR—PENALTY.] It shall be the 2 duty of any person, knowing that he is named or appointed as the executor of 5 the proper county; or to present the will and declare his refusal to accept of 6 the executorship; and every such executor neglecting to do so, without just 7 excuse for such delay, shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars ($20) per month 8 from and after the expiration of said term of thirty days, until he shall cause 9 probate of said will to be made, or present the same as aforesaid, to be recov-

11 in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Sec. 1114. WHEN MINOR OR MARRIED WOMAN EXECUTOR.] Persons of the age
2 of seventeen years, of sound mind and memory, may be appointed executors; 3 but when a person appointed executor is, at the time of proving the will, un-

5 rendering him infamous, administration may be granted during his minority or 6 other disability, unless there is another executor who accepts the trust, in which 7 case the estate shall be administered by such other executor until the minor ar-8 rives at full age or the other disability is removed, when, upon giving bond as in 9 other cases, he may be admitted as joint executor with the former. When a mar-

11 performance of the trust as in other cases.

Sec. 1115. POWER OF EXECUTOR BEFORE PROBATE—WASTE, ETC.] The power of 2 the executor over the testator's estate, before probate of the will and obtaining 3 a certificate of administration, shall extend to the burial of the deceased, the pay-

 5 such cases if the will is rejected when presented for probate, and such executor 6 thereby never qualifies, he shall not be liable as an executor of his own wrong, 7 unless upon refusal to deliver up the estate to the person authorized to receive 8 the same: Provided, that this section shall not be construed to exempt any per-9 son, claiming to be executor as aforesaid, for any waste or misapplication of 10 such estate.

Sec. 1116. DEATH, ETC., OF PART OF EXECUTORS.] Where two or more execu-2 tors are appointed in and by the same will, and one or more of them dies, re-

 2 unless the testator shall otherwise direct in the will, and all administrators with 3 the will annexed, shall, before entering upon their duties, enter into bond with good

 12 William Doe and Henry Doe, as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the 13 People of the State of Illinois in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,- 14 000) for the payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our 15 heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by 16 these presents.

17 Witness our hands and seals this 10th day of February, 1908.

18 The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden John 19 Doe shall faithfully perform all his duties as administrator of the estate of 20 Richard Roe, late of the County of Grundy and State of Illinois, deceased, and 21 shall faithfully account for all property which may, or by the exercise of due 22 diligence might have, come into his possession, custody or control as such ad-23 ministrator and dispose of the same in the manner required by law, then this 24 obligation is to be void; otherwise the same is to be and remain in full force and 25 effect.

28 HENRY DOE. (SEAL.)

29 Approved by me this 10th day of February, 1908.

30 JAMES BROWN, Judge.

Sec. 1134. ADDITIONAL BOND FOR SALE OF REAL ESTATE.] When it becomes 2 necessary to sell the real estate of any intestate for the payment of debts 3 against his estate under the provisions of law the court shall require the ad-4 ministrator to give further and additional bond with good and sufficient surety 5 to be approved by the court in a sum double the value of the real estate of the 6 decedent sought to be sold and payable to the People of the State of Illinois, 7 for the use of the parties interested, in the form above prescribed, and in all 8 cases where bond shall be taken from any administrator de bonis non or in any 9 other case where a form shall not be prescribed in this act the same shall be 10 made, as nearly as may be, in conformity with the form above prescribed with 11 corresponding variations to suit each particular case.

Sec. 1135. JOINT OR SEVERAL BONDS.] When two or more persons are ap-2 pointed executors or administrators of the same estate, the court may take a 3 separate bond, with sureties, from each, or a joint bond, with sureties, from all.

Sec. 1136. ACTION ON BOND.] All bonds which may at any time be given 2 by any executor or administrator, either with or without the will annexed, or de 3 bonis non, to collect, or public administrator, may be put in suit and prosecuted 4 against all or any one or more of the obligors named therein, in the name of the 5 People of the State of Illinois, for the use of any person who may have been in-6 jured by reason of the neglect or improper conduct of any such executor or ad-7 ministrator, and such bonds shall not become void on the first recovery thereon,

8 but may be sued upon, from time to time, until the whole penalty shall be re-9 covered: Provided, that the person for whose use the same is prosecuted shall 10 be liable for all costs which may acerue in the prosecution of the same, in case 11 the plaintiffs fail in their action; and certified copies of all such bonds, or of 12 the entries in the probate register and minute book pertaining thereto, under 13 the seal of the clerk of the county court, shall be received as evidence to author-14 ize such recovery in any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 1137. REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE OF ADMINISTRATION.] The county 2 court or probate court shall revoke the certificate of administration in each of 3 the following cases:

4 First—GRANT UPON FALSE PRETENSES.] When the same has been granted to 5 any person upon the false and fraudulent pretense of being a creditor of the es-6 tate upon which administration is granted or upon any other false pretense 7 whatever.

8 Second—SUBSEQUENT PROBATE OF WILL.] When at any time after a certifi-9 cate of administration has been granted without the probate of any will, a will 10 of the deceased shall be produced and probate thereof granted according to law.

11 Third—WHEN WILL SET ASIDE.] When a will, testament or codicil shall 12 have been approved and a certificate of administration granted thereon as afore-13 said and such will shall thereafter be set aside by due course of law.

14 Fourth—WHEN CERTIFICATE GRANTED TO PERSON INSANE, ETC.] When a cer-15 tificate of administration has been granted to a person who becomes insane, 16 lunatic or of unsound mind, an habitual drunkard; is convicted of an infamous 17 crime, wastes or mismanages the estate, or who conducts himself in such man-18 ner as to endanger his co-executor, co-administrator or sureties.

Sec. 1138. PROCEEDINGS WHEN EXECUTOR, ETC., REMOVED.] When it shall 2 come to the knowledge of the county court or probate court, by affidavit or 3 otherwise, that any executor or administrator of an estate is about to remove

4 or has removed beyond the limits of this state, it shall be the duty of such court 5 to cause a notice to be published in some newspaper in the county where admin-6 istration was granted, for four weeks successively, and if no newspaper is pub-7 lished in said county, then by posting up a notice at the court house door, notify-8 ing the said executor or administrator to appear before him within thirty days 9 after the date of such notice, and make a settlement of his accounts, as required 10 by law. If the executor or administrator neglects or refuses to make such settle-11 ment, it shall be the duty of said county court or probate court to remove him 12 from office.

Sec. 1139. REQUIRING OTHER SECURITY.] When any court grants a certifi-2 cate of administration of the estate of any person deceased, without taking 3 good security as aforesaid, or when any security heretofore or hereafter taken 4 becomes insufficient, the court may, on the application of any person entitled to 5 distribution, or otherwise interested in such estate, require such executor or ad-6 ministrator to give other and sufficient security; and in default thereof the cer-7 tificate of administration shall be revoked, and administration de bonis non 8 granted; but all acts done according to law by the executor or administrator so 9 removed prior to such revocation, shall be valid.

Sec. 1140. COUNTER OR OTHER SECURITY.] When a surety for an executor 2 or an administrator, or his representatives, may conceive himself or themselves 3 in danger of suffering by the mismanagement of such executor or administrator, 4 and shall petition the county court or probate court for relief, in writing, setting 5 forth the cause of such apprehension, the said court shall examine such petition, 6 and if the court shall deem the causes therein set forth sufficient to entitle 7 such petitioner or petitioners to relief, if true, he shall summon such executor 8 or administrator to show cause against such petition, and may dismiss the same, 9 or direct such executor or administrator either to give good counter security to 10 save such petitioner or petitioners harmless, or to give a new bond in the like

11 penalty as the first; and upon refusal or neglect to give such counter security 12 or new bond, the certificate granted to such executor or administrator may be 13 revoked.

Sec. 1141. NEW BOND—FORM.] Whenever a new bond is required to be 2 given by an executor or administrator under either of the two preceding sec-3 tions the same may be in substantially the following form, to-wit:

4 IN THE COUNTY COURT OF GRUNDY COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

5 In the matter of the estate of { Administration. No. 200.
 6 Richard Roe, deceased.

7 NEW ADMINISTRATION BOND.

8 KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, John Doe, as principal, and 9 John Smith and William Brown, as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto 10 the People of the State of Illinois in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars 11 ($20,000) for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind our-12 selves, our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, jointly and severally, 13 firmly by these presents.

14 Witness our hands and seals this 24th day of March, 1908.

15 The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above 16 bounden John Doe, executor of the last will and testament of Richard Roe, de-17 ceased, (or administrator of the goods and chattels, rights and credits of 18 Richard Roe, deceased, as the case may be,) has heretofore executed a bond pay-19 able to the People of the State of Illinois and for the faithful performance of 20 all his duties as such executor (or administrator, as the case may be,) as afore-21 said, which said bond bears date on the 10th day of February, 1908, and 22 whereas by an order of the county court (or probate court, as the case may be), 23 made on the 17th day of March, 1908, other bond and security has been required 24 of said executor (or administrator, as the case may be);

25 Now, therefore, if the said executor (or administrator, as the case may be) 26 shall well and truly have kept and performed, and shall well and truly keep and 27 perform, the conditions of the bond first given as aforesaid in all respects ac-28 cording to law, and shall in all respects have performed and shall continue to 29 perform the duties of his office as aforesaid, then this obligation is to be void; 30 otherwise the same is to be and remain in full force and effect.

31 JOHN DOE. (Seal.)

32 WILLIAM SMITH. (Seal.)

33 WILLIAM BROWN. (Seal.)

34 Approved by me this 24th day of March, 1908.

35 JAMES BROWN, Judge.

36 Which bond shall be signed, sealed, approved, attested, filed and recorded 37 in the same manner as other executors' or administrators' bonds, and shall 38 have relation back to the time of granting the certificate of administration.

Sec. 1142. RELEASE OF SURETY.] Whenever any surety on the bond of any 2 executor or administrator desires to be released from further liability upon any 3 such bond, he may petition the court in which said bond is filed for that pur-4 pose, and upon notice being given to the executor or administrator as the court 5 may direct, the court shall compel such executor or administrator, within a 6 reasonable time, to be fixed by the court, to settle and adjust his accounts, and 7 pay over whatever balance may be found in his hands, and file in such court a 8 new bond, in such penalty and security as may be approved by the court—which 9 being done, the surety may be discharged from all liability on such bond.

Sec. 1143. FAILURE OF EXECUTOR, ETC., TO COMPLY OR SETTLE—SUCCESSOR.] If 2 such executor or administrator shall fail to comply with such order within the 3 time fixed by the court, the court shall order that such executor or administra-4 tor be removed from his office, and shall appoint some other fit person as ad-5 ministrator, with the will annexed, or de bonis non, who shall give a bond as 6 required by law. And in case of the failure of the former executor or adminis-7 trator to settle his accounts and to pay over to the person so appointed all

8 moneys, effects or choses in action in his hands by reason of his said office, then 9 such successor shall proceed to collect the same by action against such executor 10 or administrator, or by action upon his bond; and upon collection thereof such 11 surety shall be discharged.

Sec. 1144. DEATH OF SOLE EXECUTOR.] When a sole or surviving executor or 2 administrator dies without having fully administered the estate, if there is per-3 sonal property not administered, or are debts due from the estate, or there is 4 anything remaining to be performed in the execution of the will, the county 5 court or probate court shall grant a certificate of administration with the will 6 annexed, or otherwise, as the case may require, to some suitable person, to ad-7 minister the estate of the deceased not already administered, and the securities 8 on the bond of such deceased administrator shall be liable on the same to such 9 subsequent administrator or to any other person aggrieved for any mismanage-10 ment of the estate committed to his care, and such subsequent administrator 11 may have and maintain all necessary and proper actions against the securities 12 of such former executor or administrator for all such goods, chattels, debts and 13 credits as shall have come to his possession and are withheld or may have been 14 wasted, embezzled or misapplied and no satisfaction made for the same: Pro- 15 vided, that where there is still a surviving executor or administrator he may 16 proceed to administer the estate unless otherwise provided.

Sec. 1145. REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE—DEATH OR DISQUALIFICATION OF EXECU-2 TOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.] Where the certificate of one of several executors or 3 administrators is revoked, or one or more of the executors or administrators 4 die or become disqualified, after the execution of any will, but before the pro-5 bate thereof, or one or more of the executors or administrators die or become 6 disqualified after their appointment by the court, the court shall, on petition of 7 the surviving husband, or wife, or next of kin of the testator, or, if there are 8 none such, then upon the petition of any of the beneficiaries named in such will,

9 appoint others in their place, and require additional bonds from the new ad-10 ministrator, or administrators; or the survivor, or survivors, or such as shall 11 not have their powers revoked, shall proceed to manage the estate. When the 12 certificates of all of them are revoked, or all of such executors or administra-13 tors die before final settlement and distribution of the estate, administration, 14 with the will annexed, or de bonis non, shall be granted to the person next en-15 titled thereto: Provided, that in making any appointment under this section, 16 the court shall give preference to the surviving husband, or wife, or next of kin 17 of the deceased, or beneficiaries named in the will, in the order named.

Sec. 1146. BOND OF FORMER EXECUTOR, ETC.—LIABILITY.] In all cases where 2 any such executor or administrator shall have his certificate revoked, he shall 3 be liable on his bond to such subsequent administrator, or to any other person 4 aggrieved, for any mismanagement of the estate committed to his care; and the 5 subsequent administrator may have and maintain actions against such former 6 executor or administrator for all such goods, chattels, debts and credits as shall 7 have come to his possession, and which are withheld or have been wasted, em-8 bezzled or misapplied, and no satisfaction made for the same.

Sec. 1147. RESIGNATION—SETTLEMENT.] An executor or administrator may, 2 upon his petition and upon giving such notice to the legatees, devisees or dis-3 tributees, as the court shall direct, be allowed to resign his trust when it appears 4 to the county court or probate court to be proper; and upon such resignation 5 the court shall grant a certificate of administration, with the will annexed, or de 6 bonis non, to some suitable person, to administer the goods and estate not already 7 administered. But no administrator or executor shall be discharged till he shall 8 have made full settlement with the court and complied with its orders, and shall 9 deliver to his successor all money, chattels and effects of the estate in his hands 10 not paid over according to the orders of the court. The applicant for discharge 11 shall pay all costs incurred thereby, and the court shall render a judgment

12 against him for all such costs, which may be collected by execution, as in case 13 of other judgments.

Sec. 1148. POWERS OF FOREIGN EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS IN THIS STATE.]

2 When any person has proved or may prove the last will and testament of any 3 deceased person, and taken on himself the execution of said will, or has ob-4 tained or may obtain administration of the estate of an intestate in any state in 5 the United States, or in any territory thereof, such person shall be enabled to 6 prosecute actions to enforce claims of the estate of the deceased, or to sell lands 7 to pay debts, in any court in this state, in the same manner as if a certificate 8 of administration had been granted to him under the provisions of the laws of 9 this state: Provided, that such persons shall produce a copy of the certificate 10 of administration or other authority for his acting as executor or administra-11 tor, authenticated in the manner prescribed by the laws of Congress of the 12 United States for authenticating the records of judicial acts in any one state, in 13 order to give them validity in other states: And, provided, that said executor or 14 administrator shall give a bond for costs, as in case of other non-residents.

Sec. 1149. EXCEPTION WHEN CERTIFICATE GRANTED IN THIS STATE.] Nothing

2 contained in the preceding section shall be so construed as to apply to cases 3 where administration is obtained upon the estate of any intestate nor where a 4 certificate of administration is granted in this state; and when, after any ac-5 tion is commenced by any administrator or executor under the provisions of the 6 preceding section, and before final judgment thereon, administration is had, or 7 execution undertaken within this state, under the laws of the same, upon the 8 estate of any decedent, upon suggestion of such fact, entered of record, the 9 said resident administrator or executor shall, upon motion, be substituted as 10 party to such action; and thereupon the court shall proceed to hear and de-11 termine the same, as if it had been originally instituted in the name of the said 12 resident executor or administrator and the benefits of the judgment, order or 13 decree shall enure to him, and be assets in his hands.

Sec. 1150. GOVERNOR TO APPOINT PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR—TERM OF OFFICE—

2 DUTIES.] The governor of this state, by and with the advice and consent of the 3 senate, shall, before the first Monday of December, 1912, and every four years 4 thereafter, and as often as any vacancy may occur, appoint in each county in 5 this state a suitable person to be known as public administrator of such county, 6 who shall hold his office for the term of four years from the first Monday of 7 December, 1912, or until his successor is appointed and qualified; and the public 8 administrators in office at the time of the first appointment under the provi-9 sions of this section shall, immediately upon the qualification of the persons 10 appointed under the provisions hereof, turn over all moneys, books and papers 11 appertaining to their offices respectively to the persons so appointed; and such 12 public administrators shall proceed to settle up all unsettled estates in accord-13 ance with the provisions of this act.

Sec. 1151. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS IN OFFICE JANUARY 1, 1912, TO HOLD UNTIL

2 SUCCESSORS APPOINTED, ETC.] Every public administrator in office on the first day 3 of January, 1912, shall continue to hold his office until the first Monday of Decem-4 ber, 1912, or until his successor is appointed and qualified in accordance with the 5 provisions of the previous section, and shall continue to receive for his services 6 such compensation as may be allowed by the county court or probate court 7 under the provisions of this act relating to the compensation of executors and 8 administrators.

Sec. 1152. SALARIES OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS—HOW FIXED.] Commencing

2 with the first Monday of December, 1912, every public administrator shall receive 3 a salary payable quarterly out of the county treasury of the county in and for 4 which he is appointed. Such salary shall be fixed by the judges, or a majority 5 of them, of the circuit court of the judicial circuit in which such county is sit-6 uated, and the same shall in no case amount to more than ninety (90) per 7 cent. of the salary fixed, from time to time, by law for a judge of the circuit

8 court of such county. Whenever the salary of any public administrator fixed as 9 aforesaid shall amount to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per an-10 num or more, such public administrator shall be required to devote his entire 11 time and attention to the discharge of the duties of his office.

Sec. 1153. OATH.] Every person appointed as a public administrator shall, 2 before entering upon the duties of his office, take, subscribe and file in the of-3 fice of the clerk of the county court, or, in counties in which a probate court is 4 established, in the office of the clerk of the probate court, the following oath or 5 affirmation, to-wit:

6 I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will support the 7 Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Illinois
 8 and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of public administra-9 tor of (here insert name of county) county according to the best of my ability.

Sec. 1154. BOND—ADDITIONAL SECURITY—NEGLECT—REMOVAL.] It shall be 2 the duty of the county court or probate court to require a public administrator, 3 before entering upon the duties of his office, to enter into a bond payable to the 4 People of the State of Illinois in a sum not less than five thousand dollars ($5,- 5 000), with security to be approved by the court and conditioned that he will 6 faithfully discharge all of the duties of his office, and the court may, from time 7 to time as occasion shall require, demand additional security of such adminis-8 trator and may require him to give the usual bond required of administrators in 9 other cases touching any particular estate in his charge; and in default of giving 10 such bond within sixty days after receiving his commission, or in default of giv-11 ing additional security within sixty days after being duly ordered by said court 12 so to do, his office shall be deemed vacant, and, upon certificate of the county 13 judge or probate judge of such fact, the governor shall fill the vacancy as afore-14 said. The expenses incurred by any public administrator for securing any such 15 bond or bonds, when the amount of such expense is, in the opinion of the county

16 judge or the judge of the probate court, reasonable, shall be payable out of the 17 county treasury upon the certificate of such county judge or judge of the probate 18 court.

Sec. 1155. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR MAY APPOINT ASSISTANTS WHEN—SALARIES
2 OF ASSISTANTS—BONDS, ETC.] Whenever, in the opinion of a majority of the 3 judges of the circuit court of any county, the business of any public administrator 4 is such as to justify it, such public administrator may appoint such number of 5 assistants and other employees, one or more of which assistants may be a com-6 petent attorney at law, as may be determined from time to time by a majority of 7 said judges, whose salaries shall be fixed, from time to time, by a majority of said 8 judges and shall be subject to be increased or diminished from time to time in 9 their discretion. Each of such assistants and employees shall give bond to be ap-10 proved by the judge of the county court or probate court, conditioned, as near 11 as may be, like the bond required by the public administrator, and shall be sub-12 ject to removal at any time by an order of a majority of the judges of such circuit 13 court. Whenever any one or more of the assistants of a public administrator 14 shall be a competent attorney at law, all business of such public administrator re-15 quiring the services of an attorney at law shall be attended to by such assistant 16 or assistants: Provided, however, that in any case of unusual importance and 17 difficulty the county court or probate court may specially authorize the employ-18 ment by the public administrator of an attorney at law who is not an assistant of 19 such public administrator; and provided, further, that, in every action brought 20 by any public administrator to recover damages on account of any wrongful act, 21 neglect or default resulting in the death of the testate or intestate of such public 22 administrator, the next of kin, or a majority of such of them as may not be under 23 disability, shall have the right to select the attorney at law to be employed by such 24 public administrator to prosecute such action.

Sec. 1156. SUITABLE ROOMS, STATIONERY, ETC., FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.] Suit-

2 able rooms shall be provided for such public administrator by the judges of the 3 circuit court making the appointment and also all necessary books and station-4 ery, the expenses thereof to be paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

Sec. 1157. COMPENSATION OTHER THAN SALARY FORBIDDEN.] No public admin-

2 istrator, assistant or employee shall receive, directly or indirectly, any profit, 3 emolument, compensation or gratuity of any kind or character by virtue, or by 4 means, or by reason of, his office or employment, other than his salary hereinbe-5 fore provided for.

Sec. 1158. EXPENSES OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR—HOW PAID.] All expenses in-

2 curred by such public administrator in and about each estate, the same to be fixed 3 and allowed by the county court or probate court, shall be paid by him out of the 4 moneys or property which may come into his hands as administrator of such 5 estate, and shall be a first lien upon all the property of such estate.

Sec. 1159. DEPOSITORIES FOR MONEYS OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.] The county

2 court or probate court of each county shall, whenever practicable, designate one 3 or more depositories for the deposit and safe-keeping of the moneys which may 4 come into the hands of such public administrator by virtue of his appointment 5 and may, in its discretion, require any person or persons, corporation or corpo-6 rations, appointed as such depository or depositories to give a bond or bonds 7 with good and sufficient sureties for the safe-keeping of the moneys deposited by 8 such public administrator, and it shall be the duty of the court, whenever prac-9 ticable, to require every such depository to pay to such public administrator 10 upon the moneys deposited with such depositories, such rate of interest as may 11 be from time to time the prevailing rate of interest paid by bankers and banking 12 corporations upon similar deposits and the interest so paid shall be accounted for 13 by such public administrator as a part of the earnings of his office.

Sec. 1160. FEES AND ALLOWANCES OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.] Each public

2 administrator, in addition to reimbursement on account of the expenditures made 3 or liabilities incurred by him with respect to the property of each estate of which 4 he is appointed administrator, which expenditures and liabilities are to be deter-5 mined by the court by which he is appointed, shall receive from the property of 6 each estate the following fees and allowances and no others:

7 First—COMMISSION.] A commission upon the money and other personal 8 property, including the proceeds of the sale of real estate, which may come into 9 his hands, which shall be the same as the commission which may be allowed by the 10 court to other executors or administrators under similar circumstances.

11 Second—ALLOWANCE FOR WORK OF ASSISTANTS AND EMPLOYEES EXCEPT ATTOR-12 NEY.] An allowance to be fixed by the court upon the final settlement of the 13 estate sufficient to compensate for the time actually devoted to the business of 14 the estate by the assistants and salaried employees of such public administrator, 15 not including assistants performing services of attorneys at law, of which an accu-16 rate account shall be kept by such public administrator, assistants and salaried 17 employees.

18 Third—ALLOWANCE TO ATTORNEY ASSISTANTS OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.] An al-19 lowance to be fixed by the court at the final settlement of the estate, or allow-20 ances to be fixed, from time to time, during the continuance of the administration, 21 for services of the assistant or assistants of the public administrator who are at-22 torneys at law.

23 Fourth—ALLOWANCE TO OTHER ATTORNEYS.] Allowances to be fixed by the 24 court, from time to time, for the services of attorneys at law specially employed 25 as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 1161. HOW RECEIPTS OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR ON ACCOUNT OF FEES AND

2 ALLOWANCES DISPOSED OF.] All receipts of every public administrator of fees and 3 allowances as aforesaid, excepting allowances to attorneys at law not assistants

4 of such public administrator, shall, at the end of each three months, be paid into 5 the county treasury of the county in and for which such public administrator is ap-6 pointed.

Sec. 1162. CERTIFICATE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR REVOKED IN FAVOR OF PERSON

2 ENTITLED TO PREFERENCE WHEN.] Whenever administration is granted to any 3 public administrator and it shall afterwards appear that there is another person 4 who was entitled to the preference of administration under this act, and such 5 preference shall be claimed within sixty (60) days from the death of the intes-6 tate, it shall be the duty of the county court or probate court to revoke the cer-7 tificate granted to such public administrator and to grant the same to the person 8 so entitled, saving to such public administrator, in all cases, all such sums of 9 money, on account of commissions, allowances or expenses as are due to, or in-10 curred by him, in the management of the estate.

Sec. 1163. DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED ESTATE.] If any balance of any such 2 intestate estate as may, at any time, be committed to any public administrator, 3 shall remain in the hands of such administrator, after all just debts and charges 4 against such estate, which have come to the knowledge of such public administra-5 tor within two years after the administration of such estate was committed to 6 him, are fully paid, such administrator shall cause the amount thereof, with the 7 name of the intestate and the time and place of his decease, to be published in 8 some newspaper published in his county, or if no newspaper is published in his 9 county, then in the nearest newspaper published in this state, for eight weeks 10 successively, notifying all persons having claims or demands against such estate 11 to exhibit the same, together with the evidence in support thereof, before the 12 county court or probate court of the proper county, within six months after the 13 date of such notice, or that the same will be forever barred; and if no such claim 14 is presented for payment or distribution within the said time of six months, such 15 balance shall be paid into the treasury of said county; and the county shall be an 16 swerable for the same, without interest, to such persons as shall thereafter ap-17 pear to be legally entitled, on order of the county court or probate court, to the 18 same, if any such shall ever appear.

Sec. 1164. WHEN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR TO PROTECT ESTATE.] Upon the death 2 of any person intestate, not leaving a widow, or next of kin, or creditor, within 3 this state, the public administrator of the county wherein such person may have 4 died, or when the decedent is a non-resident, the public administrator of the 5 county wherein the goods and chattels, rights and credits of such decedent shall 6 be, may take such measures as he may deem proper to protect and secure the ef-7 fects of such intestate from waste or embezzlement, until administration thereon 8 is granted to the person entitled thereto—the expenses whereof shall be paid to 9 such public administrator, upon the allowance of the county court or probate 10 court, in preference to all other demands against such estate, funeral expenses 11 excepted.

Sec. 1165. INVENTORY.] Whenever a certificate of administration is granted, 2 the executor or administrator shall make out a full, complete and perfect inven-
 3 tory of all of the estate, both real and personal, of which the deceased person 4 died seized or possessed, or in which he was in any manner interested, so far as 5 the same may come to the hands, possession or knowledge of such executor or ad-6 ministrator. Such inventory shall contain the following particulars:

7 First—REAL ESTATE.] A proper description, sufficiently accurate for the pur-8 pose of a conveyance, of each piece or parcel of real estate of which the deceased 9 person died seized or possessed, or in which he was in any manner interested at 10 the time of his death, together with the following particulars respecting the same:

11 a—NATURE OF INTEREST.] The nature and extent of the interest of the de-12 ceased therein.

13 b—DATE OF ACQUISITION, ETC.] The date when, and the person or persons 14 from whom, and the nature of the instrument by which, the deceased acquired 15 his title, and if any such instrument be recorded, the book, page and office in 16 which the same is so recorded.

17 c -VALUE.] The value of the interest of the deceased therein unincumbered.

18 d—DESCRIPTION OF INCUMBRANCES, ETC.] A description of every incumbrance 19 thereon specifying the nature thereof, how and when created and the amount 20 thereof, and all such particulars as may be necessary to enable the court to ascer-21 tain the value of such incumbrance.

22 Second—PERSONAL ESTATE.] A description of each item of personal property, 23 together with such particulars in reference thereto as will reasonably identify the 24 same and enable the court to ascertain the value thereof.

25 Every such inventory shall be verified by the affidavit of the executor or ad-26 ministrator.

Sec. 1166. SUPPLEMENTARY INVENTORY.] If, after the executor or adminis-2 trator makes the first inventory, any real or personal estate of the deceased comes 3 to his possession or knowledge, he shall file a similar additional inventory thereof, 4 verified by a like affidavit.

Sec. 1167. COURT TO EXAMINE INVENTORY.] Upon the filing of any inventory 2 the court shall examine the same and hear the evidence in respect thereto, and, if 3 the same be found correct, shall affirm the same, or, if the same be found incor-4 rect, shall cause the same to be corrected.

Sec. 1168. INVENTORIES AS EVIDENCE.] Inventories and authenticated copies 2 thereof, may be given in evidence in any action by or against the executor or ad-3 ministrator, but shall not be conclusive for or against him, if any other testimony 4 be given that the estate was really worth, or was bona fide sold for more or less 5 than the inventory value thereof. But no inventory shall operate as notice of any 6 kind to any person as to the title to real estate therein mentioned.

Sec. 1169. LIABILITIES OF EXECUTORS, ETC.] Executors and administrators

2 shall be chargeable with so much of the estate of the decedent, personal or real, 3 as they, after due and proper diligence, might or shall receive.

Sec. 1170. WHEN ASSETS DO NOT EXCEED WIDOW'S ALLOWANCE—NEW ASSETS.]

2 If the administrator or executor of an estate discovers, at any time after an in-3 ventory of the property is made, that the personal property and assets of the 4 estate do not exceed the amount of the widow's allowance, after deducting the 5 necessary expenses incurred, such administrator or executor shall report the 6 facts to the court, and if the court finds the report to be true, he shall order said 7 property and assets to be delivered to the widow by the administrator or exec-8 utor, and discharge the executor or administrator from further duty; but such 9 executor or administrator shall first pay out of the property and assets the 10 costs and expenses of administration. After the court orders the delivery of such 11 property and assets to the widow, the clerk of said court shall make and deliver 12 to her a certified copy of the order, under seal, which shall vest her with com-13 plete title to said property and assets, and enable her to sue for and recover the 14 same in her own name and for her own use. Such widow shall not be liable for 15 any of decedent's debts or liabilities, excepting the funeral expenses of the de-16 ceased. Upon petition being filed with the clerk of said court, that such admin-17 istrator or executor fails or refuses to report in any case provided for in this 18 section, the court may order a citation and attachment to issue as in other cases 19 of a failure of administrators to report. And on a discovery of new assets, ad-20 ministration may be granted as in other cases, and charged to the account of the 21 estate.

Sec. 1171. NOTICE OF ADJUSTMENT OF CLAIMS.] Every administrator or ex-

2 ecutor shall fix upon a time, within six months from the time of his being quali-3 fied as such administrator or executor, for the adjustment of all claims against 4 such decedent and shall publish a notice thereof for three successive weeks in 5 some public newspaper published in the county, or, if no newspaper is published 6 in the county, then in the nearest newspaper in this state, and also by putting up 7 a written or printed notice on the door of the court-house and in five other of the 8 most public places in the county, notifying and requesting all persons having 9 claims against such estate to attend at said time for the purpose of having the 10 same adjusted (the first publication of said notice to be given at least six weeks 11 previous to said time), when and where such claimant shall produce his claim in 12 writing; and if no objection is made to said claim by the executor, administrator, 13 widow, heirs or others interested in said estate, and the claimant, his agent or at-14 torney, swears that such claim is just and unpaid after allowing all just credits, 15 the court may allow such claim without further evidence, but, if objection is made 16 to such claim, the same shall not be allowed without other sufficient evidence: 17 Provided, however, that no claim against an estate arising out of a tort shall be 18 allowed without proof, in addition to the evidence of the claimant, of the liability 19 of the estate therefor and of the amount of damages to which the claimant is en-20 titled. Whoever has a claim against an estate and fails to present the same for 21 adjustment at the time thus selected by the executor or administrator may, at 22 any time within one year after the grant of administration, file the same with the 23 clerk of the court and serve a copy thereof upon the executor or administrator, 24 together with a notice of the filing of the same, and thereupon the same proceed-25 ings may be had with respect to the allowance or disallowance thereof as if the 26 same had been filed at the time fixed by the executor or administrator for the ad-27 justment of the same.

Sec. 1172. FORM OF CLAIM.] The following shall be deemed a sufficient form 2 of claim and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other forms of 3 claims may be properly framed:

4 IN THE PROBATE COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

5 In the matter of the es- }
 6 tate of Richard Roe, } Administration. No. 200.
 7 deceased.

 10 deceased, as maker of a promissory note of which and of the endorsements there-11 on the following is a copy: (Here give copy of note and of the endorsements 12 thereon.)

13 The amount due the claimant is one thousand and sixty dollars ($1,060).

14 JOHN DOE.

15 John Doe on his oath says that he is the claimant in the foregoing claim 16 and that the same is just and unpaid and that there is due thereon to him from 17 the estate of Richard Roe, deceased, after allowing to said estate all just credits 18 the sum of one thousand and sixty dollars ($1,060).

20 Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of February, 1908.

21 HENRY SMITH, Clerk.

Sec. 1173. FORMS OF CLAIMS IN ACTIONS AT LAW SUFFICIENT.] The forms of 2 claims prescribed by this act for actions at law shall be deemed sufficient forms 3 of claims against estates of deceased persons, when verified by the affidavits of the 4 claimants, their agents or attorneys, as hereinbefore provided, and preceded by 5 the specification of the courts in which the proceedings are pending and the titles, 6 classifications and numbers of the proceedings.

Sec. 1174. CLAIMS TO BE IN QUADRUPLICATE.] Every claimant, upon filing any 2 claim against the estate of a deceased person, shall also deliver, in addition to the 3 original, one copy thereof to the clerk, and shall also deliver one copy thereof to 4 the executor or administrator, and one copy thereof shall be retained by such 5 claimant.

Sec. 1175. TRIAL BY COURT UNLESS JURY DEMANDED, ETC.] Every such claim, 2 when objected to, shall be tried by the court without a jury, unless the claimant, 3 at the time he files his claim, or the executor or administrator, within five days 4 after notice of the filing of such claim, shall file with the clerk of the county court 5 or probate court, as the case may be, a demand in writing of a trial thereof by 6 jury, which demand, however, may be withdrawn by the party filing the same at 7 any time before trial, and shall, at the same time, pay to the clerk the same costs 8 which such party would be required to pay were said claim prosecuted by action 9 at law in the circuit court of such county and a demand in writing of a trial by jury 10 were filed by such party in such circuit court.

Sec. 1176. TRIAL IN CIRCUIT COURT WHEN JURY DEMANDED.] Whenever a trial

2 by jury of any such claim shall be demanded by either party, the clerk of the 3 county court or probate court shall forthwith transmit such claim, with his cer-4 tificate of the filing thereof and the demand of a trial by jury, to the clerk of the 5 circuit court who shall file the same and shall docket the same as an action in 6 said court in the name of the claimant and against the estate of the deceased per-7 son, and the same shall thereupon be tried and determined in said circuit court as 8 other actions in said court, and the final judgment therein shall be certified by the 9 clerk of the circuit court to the county court or probate court, as the case may be, 10 and the same effect shall be given thereto by said county court or probate court 11 as if the same had been entered therein: Provided, however, such county court 12 or probate court may, by rule, provide for the trial by jury of claims in said 13 county court or probate court, in which case such claims shall not be certified to 14 the circuit court, but shall be tried by jury and disposed of in such county court 15 or probate court.

Sec. 1177. OATH OF CLAIMANT MAY BE REQUIRED.] The county court or pro-

2 bate court may, in its discretion, in any case, before giving judgment against any 3 executor or administrator, require the claimant to make oath that such claim is 4 just and unpaid: Provided, that the amount of such judgment shall not in such 5 case be increased upon the testimony of the claimant

Sec. 1178. EVIDENCE.] A judgment regularly obtained, or a copy thereof
2 duly sworn to or certified and filed with the court, shall be taken as duly proven; 3 and all instruments in writing, signed by the testator or intestate, if the hand-4 writing is proven and nothing is shown to the contrary, shall be deemed duly 5 proved.

Sec. 1179. DEMAND AGAINST CLAIMANT.] When a claim is filed, or action 2 brought, against an executor or administrator, and it appears on trial that such 3 claimant or plaintiff is indebted to such executor or administrator, the court may 4 give judgment therefor, and execution may issue thereon in favor of the executor 5 or administrator.

Sec. 1180. CLAIMS NOT DUE.] Any creditor, whose debt or claim against the 2 estate is not due, may, nevertheless, present the same for allowance and settle-3 ment, and shall, thereupon, be considered as a creditor under this act, and shall 4 receive a dividend of the said decedent's estate, after deducting a rebate of inter-5 est for what he shall receive on such debt, to be computed from the time of the 6 allowance thereof to the time such debt would have become due, according to the 7 tenor and effect of the contract.

Sec. 1181. DEMANDS CLASSIFIED—LIMITATIONS.] All demands against the es-2 tate of any testator or intestate shall be divided into classes in the manner fol-3 lowing, to wit:

4 First—Funeral expenses and necessary costs of administration.

5 Second—The widow's award if there be a widow, or, the children's award, if 6 there are children and no widow.

7 Third—Expenses attending last illness, not including physician's bill, and de-8 mands due common laborers or household servants of deceased for labor.

9 Fourth—Debts due the common school fund or township.

10 Fifth—The physician's bill in the last illness of the deceased.

11 Sixth—Money received by the deceased in trust for any purpose and not ac-12 counted for.

13 Seventh—All other debts and demands of whatever kind, without regard to 14 quality or dignity, which shall be exhibited to the court within one year from the 15 granting of administration as aforesaid, saving, however, to infants, persons of 16 unsound mind, persons without the United States in the employment of the United 17 States or of this state, the term of one year after their respective disabilities are 18 removed to exhibit their claims. The bringing of an action upon a claim in any 19 court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed an exhibition of the same to the 20 court within the meaning of this section.

Sec. 1182. MANNER OF PAYMENT.] All claims against estates, when allowed 2 by the county court or probate court, shall be classed and paid by the executor 3 or administrator, in the manner provided in this act, commencing with the first 4 class; and when the estate is insufficient to pay the whole of the demands, the de-5 mands in any one class shall be paid, pro rata, whether the same are due by 6 judgment, writing obligatory, or otherwise, except as otherwise provided.

Sec. 1183. DEMANDS OF EXECUTOR, ETC.] When an executor or administrator 2 has a demand against his testator or intestate's estate, he shall file his demand as 3 other persons; and the court shall appoint some discreet person to appear and 4 defend for the estate, and, upon the hearing, the court or jury shall allow such 5 demand, or such part thereof as is legally established, or reject the same, as shall 6 appear just. Should any executor or administrator appeal or prosecute a writ 7 of error in such case, the court shall appoint some person to defend as aforesaid.

Sec. 1184. ENTRIES—CLASSING—PAYMENT BEFORE ALLOWANCE.] The county
2 court or probate court shall make an entry of all demands against estates, classing the same as above provided, and file and preserve the papers belonging to the same. If an executor or administrator pays a claim before the same is allowed as aforesaid, said court shall require such executor or administrator to establish the validity of such claim by the like evidence as is required in other cases, before the same is classed, and he credited therewith.

Sec. 1185. WHEN CLAIMS MUST BE EXHIBITED.] Every person having a claim against the estate of a deceased person and not under disability shall be bound to exhibit the same, in the manner provided by this act, within one year after the granting of a certificate of administration, or in default thereof such claim shall be forever barred: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any claimant whose claim shall not have become due and payable more than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of said one year, nor to any claimant who shall not have acquired actual notice of the death of the testator or intestate more than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of said one year, nor to any claim upon a recognizance or penal bond signed by the testator or intestate either as principal or surety.

Sec. 1186. ENFORCEMENT OF CLAIM EXHIBITED AFTER LAPSE OF ONE YEAR BUT BEFORE DISTRIBUTION, ETC.] When any claim included within the proviso of the preceding section shall be exhibited either by the filing of the same in the county court or probate court, as the case may be, and the service of notice upon the executor or administrator of such filing, or by the commencement of an action thereon at law or in equity, and the service of the summons in such action upon the executor or administrator, after the lapse of one year from the grant of administration, but before the distribution of the personal estate or any portion thereof, including the proceeds of real estate, to the heirs, or legatees of the intestate or testator, and before the transfer, conveyance or encumbrance by any heir or devisee of any portion of the real estate of the testator or intestate, the same, when allowed or established shall be enforced in due course of administration out of the property hereinafter declared subject to the payment of the same in the same manner as is provided in this act for the enforcement of other claims of the seventh class.

Sec. 1187. ENFORCEMENT OF CLAIM EXHIBITED AFTER LAPSE OF ONE YEAR AND AFTER DISTRIBUTION, ETC.] Any claim included within said proviso, when the same shall not be exhibited in the manner and within the time provided for in the preceding section, may be enforced by bill in equity filed in the county court or probate court, as the case may be, by the claimant as plaintiff against the heirs, legatees and devisees of such deceased person, or such of them as may be liable, in whole or in part, for the payment of such claim, and, if such bill be filed prior to the final settlement of the estate and the discharge of the executor or administrator, also against such executor or administrator as defendants, which bill shall specify the court in which the action is pending, the names of the parties thereto and the number and classification thereof, and shall set forth the nature and amount of the plaintiff's claim and the facts relied upon by the plaintiff for the enforcement of the same by such bill in equity. All proceedings under such bill after the filing of the same, including the issuance and service of summons and publication of notice, the filing and disposition of exceptions, demurrers, pleas, answers, amendments, supplemental bills, cross-bills and bills of intervention, and also including references to masters in chancery, shall be the same, as near as may be, as is prescribed in this act for actions in equity.

Sec. 1188. HOW PAYMENT OF CLAIM ESTABLISHED BY BILL IN EQUITY ENFORCED.] When any such claim shall be established against the estate of any deceased person by a bill in equity as aforesaid, payment of the same shall be enforced out of the property which would have been applicable to the payment of the same had the same been exhibited within one year after the grant of administration, after deducting therefrom the amount necessary for the payment of the widow's or children's award, all expenses of administration, all claims of other creditors,

8 which may have been exhibited within one year after the granting of adminis-9 tration, and other claims of persons under disability as hereinbefore provided.
 10 All heirs, devisees and legatees, of the deceased person who shall have received 11 their distributive shares of the estate, or their devises, or legacies, or any por-12 tion thereof, may be compelled to pay their pro rata shares of the amount of such 13 claim out of such distributive shares, devises or legacies; but no heir, devisee or 14 legatee shall be compelled out of his distributive share, devise or legacy to con-15 tribute to the payment of the pro rata share of any heir, devisee or legatee from 16 whom such pro rata share or any portion thereof may not be collectible.

Sec. 1189. WHAT PROPERTY SUBJECT TO SUCH CLAIM.] No such claim shall be 2 enforced nor shall payment thereof be required excepting out of so much of the 3 estate of the deceased person as may remain after the payment of the widow's or 4 children's award, all expenses of administration, all claims of other creditors 5 which may have been exhibited within one year after the granting of administra-6 tion and all claims of persons under disability as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 1190. PURCHASER FROM HEIR, DEVISEE OF LEGATEE TO TAKE TITLE FREE
 2 FROM LIEN, ETC.] Any purchaser of real or personal property from an heir, de-3 visee or legatee, when such purchase is made prior to the filing of the bill in 4 equity as hereinbefore provided for and the service of the summons or the first 5 publication of notice therein, shall take the same free from the claims of all cred-6 itors who shall not have exhibited their claims within one year after the grant of 7 administration.

Sec. 1191. WIDOW'S OR CHILDRENS'S AWARD.] The widow, residing in this 2 state, of a deceased husband whose estate is administered in this state, whether 3 her husband died testate or intestate, shall, in all cases, in exclusion of all debts, 4 claims, charges, legacies and bequests, except funeral expenses, be allowed, as 5 her sole and exclusive property forever, except as herein otherwise provided, 6 the same to be known as the widow's award, the following, to-wit:

7 First—FAMILY PICTURES, ETC.] The family pictures and the wearing ap-8 parel, jewels and ornaments of herself and her minor children.

9 Second—CASH.] Such sum in cash as the court may deem reasonable for 10 the proper support of the widow and minor children, if any, for the period of 11 one year after the death of the testator or intestate, in a manner suited to her 12 condition in life, taking into account the condition of the estate of the testator or 13 intestate. Such allowance shall in no case be less than five hundred dollars 14 ($500) together with an additional two hundred dollars ($200) for each minor 15 child of the testator or intestate under the age of eighteen years at the time 16 of his death. The widow shall be entitled to receive the amount of such award 17 in cash or she may, at her election, accept payment thereof in whole or in part 18 in personal property of the testator at the inventory value thereof, and for 19 that purpose the court may make all necessary orders. The amount so allowed 20 for the support of the minor or minors shall be, by the executor or adminis-21 trator, paid to the widow in quarterly payments due and payable at the end of 22 each quarter of the year for which the allowance is made. In case such widow 23 dies or abandons such minor child or children before the expiration of the year, 24 the amount allowed on account of said minor child or children and remaining 25 unpaid to the widow, shall become the property of such minor or minors.

 Sec. 1192. RIGHT TO AWARD NOT AFFECTED BY RENUNCIATION, ETC.] The right 2 of a widow to her award shall in no case be affected by her renouncing or failing 3 to renounce the benefit of the provisions made for her in the will of her husband, 4 or otherwise.

 Sec. 1193. ALLOWANCE TO CHILDREN.] When the person dying is at the time 2 of his or her death, a housekeeper, the head of a family, and leaves no widow 3 or surviving husband, there shall be allowed to the children of the deceased, re-4 siding with him or her at the time of his or her death (including all males un-5 der eighteen years of age, and all females), the same amount of property and 6 money as is allowed to the widow by this act, the same to be apportioned as the 7 court may direct.

Sec. 1194. EQUALIZING LEGACIES, ETC., ON RENUNCIATION.] In all cases where 2 a widow or surviving husband shall renounce all benefits under the will, and the 3 legacies and bequests therein contained, to other persons, shall, in consequence 4 thereof, become diminished or increased in amount, quantity or value, it shall be 5 the duty of the court, upon settlement of such estate, to abate from or add to 6 such legacies and bequests in such manner as to equalize the loss sustained or ad-7 vantage derived thereby, in a corresponding ratio to the several amounts of such 8 legacies and bequests, according to the amount or intrinsic value of each.

Sec. 1195. WHO LIABLE FOR WASTE.] If the widow commits waste in the lands 2 and tenements, or the personal estate of the deceased, she shall be liable to an 3 action by the heir or devisee, or his or her guardian, if of real estate, or by the 4 executor or administrator, if of personal estate; and if she marry a subsequent 5 husband, he shall be answerable with her, in damages, for any waste committed 6 by her or by himself, after such marriage.

Sec. 1196. CONCEALED, ETC., GOODS, ETC.—DISCLOSURE, ETC.] If any executor 2 or administrator, or other person interested in any estate, shall state upon oath, 3 to any county court, or probate court, that he believes that any person has in his 4 possession, or has concealed or embezzled, any goods, chattels, moneys or effects, 5 books of account, papers or any evidences of debt whatever, or titles to lands be-6 longing to any deceased person; or that he believes that any person has any 7 knowledge or information of or concerning any indebtedness or evidences of in-8 debtedness, or property, titles or effects, belonging to any deceased person, which 9 knowledge or information is necessary to the recovery of the same, by action or 10 otherwise, by the executor or administrator, of which the executor or adminis-11 trator is ignorant, and that such person refuses to give to the executor or admin-12 istrator such knowledge or information, the court shall require such person to 13 appear before it by citation, and may examine him on oath, and hear the testi-14 mony of such executor or administrator, and other evidence offered by either 15 party, and make such order in the premises as the case may require.

Sec. 1197. REFUSAL TO ANSWER, ETC.—COMMITMENT.] If such person refuses 2 to answer such proper interrogatories as may be propounded to him, or refuses 3 to deliver up such property or effects, or in case the same has been converted, the 4 proceeds or value thereof, upon a requisition being made for that purpose by 5 an order of the said court, such court may commit such person to jail until he 6 shall comply with the order of the court therein.

Sec. 1198. DESPERATE CLAIMS.] Upon suggestion made by an executor or ad-2 ministrator to the county court, or probate court, that any claim, debt or demand 3 whatever belonging to the estate in his hands to be administered, and accruing 4 in the lifetime of the decedent, is desperate on account of the insolvency or doubt-5 ful solvency of the person or persons owing the same, or on account of the debtor 6 having availed himself of the bankrupt law of the United States, or on account of 7 some legal or equitable defense which such person or persons may allege against 8 the same, or because of the smallness of such claim, debt or demand, and the dif-9 ficulty of finding the debtors, owing to the remoteness of their residence, or such 10 executor's or administrator's ignorance of the same, the said court may order 11 such claim, debt or demand to be compounded or sold, or to be filed in the said 12 court, for the benefit of such of the heirs, devisees or creditors of such decedent 13 as will sue for and recover the same, giving the creditors the preference, if they 14 or any of them apply for the same before the final settlement of such estate: Pro- 15 vided, that no order for the sale or compounding of any such debts, claims or de-16 mands, or any of them, shall be made until two weeks' public notice shall have 17 been given, to all whom it may concern, of the time and place when the said order 18 will be applied for—which notice shall be given by the administrator or executor, 19 in a newspaper published in the county where such application is to be made, or 20 if no such newspaper is published in such county, then by posting up such notices 21 in not less than three public places in the county, of which one shall be at the 22 office of the clerk of the county court or probate court—which notice shall be so 23 posted at least two weeks previous to the time of said application. The executor 24 or administrator shall report to the said county court, for its approval, the terms 25 upon which he has settled or disposed of any such claim, debt or demand.

Sec. 1199. AVAILS OF DESPERATE CLAIMS.] And if such claim is compounded 2 or sold, such executor or administrator shall be chargeable with the avails of 3 such compounding, and if the same is taken by any of the creditors, heirs or de-4 visees, he or they may maintain an action for the recovery thereof, in the name 5 of such executor or administrator, for the use hereinafter mentioned; and upon 6 recovering the same, or any part thereof, he or they shall be chargeable therewith, 7 after deducting his claim or distributive share, with reasonable compensation 8 for collecting the same; and upon such actions the executor or administrator 9 shall not be liable for costs.

Sec. 1200. COURT MAY ORDER CERTAIN CLAIMS COMPOUNDED.] The county court 2 or probate court may order claims, debts and demands, due at so remote a period 3 as to prevent their collection within the time required for the final settlement of 4 estates, and the collection or disposition of which is necessary to the payment of 5 the debts against the estates, to be compounded or sold in the same manner and 6 upon like conditions as though such claims, debts or demands were desperate or 7 doubtful: Provided, that no such claim, debt or demand shall be sold or com-8 pounded for less than ten per cent. below the value thereof.

Sec. 1201. REMOVAL OF PROPERTY BY EXECUTOR, ETC.—PENALTY.] No executor
 2 or administrator shall, without the order of the court, remove any property 3 wherewith he is charged, by virtue of his letters, beyond the limits of this state.
 4 And in case any such executor or administrator shall remove such property with-5 out such order, the court shall, on notice, forthwith revoke his certificate of ad-

6 ministration and appoint a successor, and cause an action to be instituted on his 7 bond against him and his security, for the use of the person interested in the 8 estate; and if it shall appear, upon the trial of such action, that the executor or 9 administrator has so removed such property, judgment shall be rendered against 10 the offender and his securities for the full value thereof, and such other damages 11 as the parties interested may have sustained by reason thereof.

Sec. 1202. COURT MAY ORDER EXECUTOR, ETC., TO DELIVER PROPERTY, ETC.] The 2 county court or probate court may, upon the application of any person, order 3 any executor or administrator to deliver property in his hands or under his 4 control as such executor or administrator to such person, upon proof to the 5 satisfaction of the court that such person is entitled to the possession thereof, 6 and the court shall have power to adjudicate upon all controversies between 7 executors or administrators and other persons respecting any property or as-8 sets in the hands of such executors or administrators and held by them in their 9 respective representative capacities.

Sec. 1203. DUTY OF SURVIVING PARTNER.] In case of the death of one partner, 2 the surviving partner or partners shall proceed to make a full, true and complete 3 inventory of the estate of the co-partnership within his knowledge; and shall 4 also make a full, true and complete list of all the liabilities thereof at the time of 5 the death of the deceased partner.

Sec. 1204. RETURN OF INVENTORY, ETC.] He or they shall return, under oath, 2 such inventory and list of liabilities within sixty days after the death 3 of the co-partner, to the county court or probate court of the county of 4 which the deceased was a resident or carried on the partnership business at the 5 time of his death; if the deceased shall have been a non-resident, then such re-6 turn shall be made to the county court or probate court granting administration

7 upon the effects of the deceased. Upon neglect or refusal to make such return, 8 he shall, after citation, be liable to attachment.

Sec. 1205. RIGHTS OF SURVIVING PARTNER—ACCOUNT.] Such surviving part-2 ner or partners shall have the right to continue in possession of the effects of the 3 partnership, pay its debts out of the same, and settle its business, but shall pro-4 ceed thereto without delay, and shall account with the executor or administrator, 5 and pay over such balances as may, from time to time, be payable to him in the 6 right of his testator or intestate. Upon the application of the executor or ad-7 ministrator, the county court or probate court may, whenever it may appear 8 necessary, order such surviving partner to render an account to said county court 9 or probate court, and in case of neglect or refusal may, after citation, compel the 10 rendition of such account by attachment.

Sec. 1206. WASTE—CITATION—SECURITY—COSTS.] Upon the committal of 2 waste by the surviving partner or partners, the court may, upon proper applica-3 tion, under oath, setting forth specifically the facts and circumstances relied on, 4 protect the estate of the deceased partner, by citing forthwith the surviving part-5 ner or partners to give security for the faithful settlement of the affairs of the 6 co-partnership, and for his accounting for and paying over to the executor or ad-7 ministrator of the deceased whatever shall be found to be due, after paying part-8 nership debts and costs of settlement, within such time as shall be fixed by the 9 court. The giving of such security may be enforced by attachment, or, upon re-10 fusals to give such security, the court may appoint a receiver of the partnership 11 property and effects, with like powers and duties of receivers in courts of equity; 12 the costs of proceedings under this section to be paid by the executor or admin-13 istrator, out of the estate of the deceased, or by the surviving partner, or partly 14 by each, as the court may order.

Sec. 1207. PUBLIC SALE—NOTICE—PRIVATE SALE.] When it is necessary for the 2 proper administration of the estate, the executor or administrator shall, as soon

3 as convenient, after making the inventory, sell at public sale all the personal 4 property, goods and chattels of the decedent, when ordered to do so by the county 5 court or probate court (not reserved to the widow, or included in specific 6 legacies and bequests, when the sale of such legacies and bequests is not neces-7 sary to pay debts), upon giving three weeks' notice of the time and place of 8 such sale, by at least four advertisements, set up in the most public places in the 9 county where the sale is to be made, or by inserting an advertisement in some 10 newspaper published in the county where the sale is to be made, at least four 11 weeks successively previous thereto. The sale may be upon a credit of not less 12 than six nor more than twelve months' time, by taking note with good security of 13 the purchasers at such sale. The sale may be for all cash, or part cash and part 14 on time: Provided, that any part or all of such personal property may, where so 15 directed by the court, be sold at private sale.

Sec. 1208. DISTRIBUTION IN KIND.] If any testator directs that his estate 2 shall not be sold, the same shall be preserved in kind, and distributed according-3 ly, unless such sale becomes absolutely necessary for the payment of the debts 4 and charges against the estate of such testator, or if the sale of the personal 5 property is not necessary for the payment of debts or legacies, or the proper 6 distribution of the effects of the estate, the court may order that the property 7 be preserved and distributed in kind.

Sec. 1209. GROWING CROPS.] If any executor or administrator is of opinion 2 that it would be of advantage to the estate of the decedent to dispose of the crop 3 growing, and not devised at the time of his decease, the same shall be inven-4 toried and sold, in like manner as other personal property; but the executor or 5 administrator may, if he believes it would be of more advantage to the estate, cul-6 tivate such crop to maturity, and the proceeds of such crop, after deducting all 7 necessary expenses for cultivating, gathering and making sale of the same, shall 8 be assets in his hands, and subject to the payment of debts and legacies, and to 9 distribution as aforesaid.

Sec. 1210. CLERK—CRIER.] In all public sales of such property the executor 2 or administrator may employ necessary clerks, who shall receive such compensa-3 tion as the court may deem reasonable for their services, not exceeding five dol-4 lars per day, and also a crier or auctioneer who shall receive such compensation 5 as the court may deem reasonable, not exceeding ten dollars per day, to be paid 6 by such executor or administrator and charged to the estate.

Sec. 1214. BILL OF SALES—RETURN.] All executors and administrators shall 2 immediately after making such sales, make, or cause to be made, a bill of the 3 sales of said estate, under oath, describing particularly each article of property 4 sold, to whom sold, and at what price; which sale bill, when thus made and certi-5 fied by the clerk of such sale and the crier thereof, if any such was employed, as 6 true and correct, shall be returned into the office of the clerk of the county court in 7 the like time as is required in cases of inventories.

Sec. 1212. SALE OF REAL ESTATE PURSUANT TO WILL—SURVIVING EXECUTOR.] In 2 all cases where power is given in any will to sell and dispose of any real estate 3 or interest therein and the same is sold in the manner and by the persons ap-4 pointed in such will the sale shall be good and valid; and where one or more ex-5 ecutors shall fail or refuse to qualify or depart this life before such sales are 6 made, the survivor or survivors shall have the same power and their sales shall 7 be as good and valid as if they all joined in such sales.

Sec. 1213. SALE OF REAL ESTATE TO PAY DEBTS.] When the executor or admin-2 istrator has made a just and true account of the personal estate and debts to 3 the county court or probate court and it is ascertained that the personal estate 4 of a decedent is insufficient to pay the just claims against his estate, and there is 5 real estate to which such decedent had claim or title, such real estate, or such 6 portion thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the indebtedness of such decedent 7 and the expenses of administration may be sold in the manner hereinafter pro-8 vided.

Sec. 1214. HOW PROCEEDING COMMENCED—BILL—PARTIES.] A proceeding for 2 the sale of real estate for the payment of debts shall be commenced by the filing 3 of a bill, to be known as a bill for the sale of real estate, in the county court or 4 probate court of the county in which the certificate of administration has been 5 granted. The plaintiff in such bill shall be the executor or administrator and 6 the defendants shall be the widow, heirs, and devisees of the testator or intestate, 7 the guardian of any such as are minors, the conservators of such as have conver-8 sors and all other persons holding liens against the real estate sought to be sold 9 or any part thereof, or having or claiming any interest therein in possession or 10 otherwise. If there are persons interested in such real estate whose names are 11 not known they shall be made parties by the name of unknown owners thereof 12 or unknown heirs or devisees of any deceased person who may have been inter-13 ested therein.

Sec. 1215. REQUISITES OF BILL—FORM.] The bill shall specify the court in 2 which the action is pending, the names of the parties thereto and the number and 3 classification thereof and shall contain an introduction stating that the plaintiff 4 brings his action in equity for the sale of real estate to pay debts against the de-5 fendants and thereafter a narrative of the material facts, matters and circum-6 stances on which the plaintiff relies, such narrative to be divided into paragraphs 7 numbered consecutively and each paragraph to contain, as nearly as may be, a 8 separate and distinct allegation, and to conform in other respects to the provi-9 sions of this act pertaining to the framing of bills of complaint in equity. It shall 10 state the amount of claims allowed, with an estimate of the amount of just claims 11 to be presented, and it shall also contain a statement of the amount of personal 12 estate which has come to the hands of the plaintiff as executor or administrator

13 and the manner in which he has disposed of the same, with a statement of the 14 amount of claims paid, a particular description of the real estate to be sold, 15 and the nature and extent of all liens upon said real estate and of all adverse 16 claims of every kind and character asserted thereto, so far as the same may be 17 known to the plaintiff; it shall be signed by the plaintiff as executor or adminis-
18 trator and verified by his affidavit. The following shall be deemed a sufficient 19 form of bill and shall be taken as a suggestion from which other bills may be prop-20 erly framed:

21 IN THE PROBATE COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

22	John Doe, as Administrator of	} Sale of Real Estate to
23	Estate of William Doe, de-		} pay Debts. No. 75.
24	ceased
25	v.
26	Henry Doe, Jane Doe, Richard
27	Roe and Thomas Jones.

28 BILL FOR SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

29 The plaintiff brings this his action in equity for the sale of real estate 30 against the defendants and says:

- 31 1. William Doe died January 15, 1907, in Cook county, Illinois, intestate 32 and a resident of said Cook county.
- 33 2. On February 15, 1907, plaintiff was duly appointed administrator of the 34 estate of said William Doe by the probate court of Cook county and since then and 35 down to the present time has acted as such administrator.
- 36 3. Plaintiff has made a just and true account of the personal estate and 37 debts to said probate court from which it appears that the personal estate amounts 38 to $4,700 and the debts to $15,000.
- 39 4. Said William Doe at the time of his death was seized in fee simple of the 40 south-west quarter of section four (4), township thirteen (13) north of range five 41 (5) east of the Third Principal Meridian in said Cook county.

42 5. The heirs at law of said William Doe and their relationship to him are as 43 follows:

44 Jane Doe, widow.

45 Henry Doe, son.

46 John Doe, the plaintiff, son.

6. The defendants Richard Roe and Thomas Jones claim some interest in said real estate, but the plaintiff says that such interest, whatever it may be, is subject and inferior to the title of said William Doe.

50 Wherefore plaintiff prays as follows:

51 First—For a decree for the sale of said real estate.

52 Second—For general relief.

53 JOHN DOE,

54 As Administrator of the Estate of William Doe, deceased,

55

By SOLOMON SMITH,

56 His Attorney.

57 John Doe on his oath says that the foregoing petition by him subscribed is 58 true. JOHN DOE.

59 Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of February, 1908.

60 SAMUEL JONES, Clerk.

Sec. 1216. SUBSEQUENT PROCEDURE TO BE SAME AS IN EQUITY.] All proceedings 2 under such bill after the filing of the same, including the issuance and service of 3 summons or publication of notice, the filing and disposition of exceptions, demur-4 rers, pleas, answers, amendments, supplemental bills, cross-bills and bills of in-5 tervention, the forms and effect of orders, decrees and reports of proceedings, and 6 also including references to masters in chancery, shall be the same, as near as 7 may be, as is prescribed in this act for actions in equity. The masters in chan-8 cery of the circuit courts of the respective counties, and, in Cook county, the mas-9 ters in chancery of the superior court of Cook county, shall be ex officio masters

10 in chancery of the county and probate courts of such counties, and shall per-11 form the duties of such masters in all actions in said courts the procedure in 12 which is required by this act to conform, as near as may be, to the procedure in 13 actions in equity.

Sec. 1217. POWER OF COURT AS TO MORTGAGES, LIENS, PRIORITIES, CONFLICTING 2 TITLES, ETC.] The court in any such proceeding may direct the sale of such real 3 estate disencumbered of all mortgage, judgment or other money liens that are 4 due, and may provide for the satisfaction of all such liens out of the proceeds of 5 the sale and may also settle and adjust all equities and all the questions of prior-6 ity between all parties interested therein, and may also investigate and determine 7 all questions of conflicting and controverted titles arising between any of the 8 parties to such proceeding, and may remove clouds from the title to any real es-9 tate sought to be sold and invest purchasers with a good and indefeasible title 10 to the premises sold. The court may, with the assent of any mortgagee of the 11 whole or any part of such estate whose debt is not due, sell such real estate dis-12 encumbered of such mortgage and provide for the payment of such mortgage 13 out of the proceeds of such sale; and may also, with the assent of the person 14 entitled to an estate in dower, or by the courtesy, or for life, or for years or of 15 homestead, to the whole or part of the premises, who is a party to the action, 16 sell such estate with the rest; but such assent shall be in writing and signed by 17 such person and filed in the court wherein the said proceedings are pending.
 18 When any such estate is sold the value thereof shall be ascertained and paid over 19 in gross or the proper proportion of the funds invested and the income paid over 20 to the party entitled thereto during the continuance of the estate.

Sec. 1218. HEARING—DECREE OF SALE OVERPLUS.] Upon the hearing of the 2 action upon the issues formed or taken, the court shall hear and examine the al-3 legations and proofs of the parties and of all other persons interested in the es-4 tate who may appear and become parties; and if, upon due examination, the 5 court shall find that the executor or administrator has made a just and true ac-6 count of the condition of the estate and that the personal estate of the decedent is 7 not sufficient to pay the debts against such estate, the court shall ascertain, as 8 nearly as may be, the amount of the deficiency and how much of the real estate 9 described in the petition it is necessary to sell to pay such deficiency, with the ex-10 penses of administration then due or to accrue, and make a decree for the sale 11 thereof: Provided, however, that where any houses and lots or other real estate 12 are so situated that a part thereof cannot be sold without manifest prejudice to 13 the heirs, devisees or owners, the court may order the sale of the whole, or such 14 part as it may deem best, and the overplus arising from such sale shall be dis-15 tributed among the heirs, devisees, owners or such other persons as may be en-16 titled thereto.

Sec. 1219. SALES TO BE MADE BY EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR—CONVEYANCES.]

2 All such sales of real estate shall be made and conveyances executed for the 3 same by the executor or administrator applying for such order and shall be valid 4 and effectual against the heirs and devisees of such decedent and all other per-5 sons claiming by, through or under him or them. In case of the death of the ex-6 ecutor or administrator applying for an order of sale before conveyance is made, 7 the administrator de bonis non shall proceed in the premises and make convey-8 ance in the same manner as if he had originally applied for such order; which 9 conveyance shall be good and valid.

Sec. 1220. NOTICE—PENALTY—RETURN—CONFIRMATION.] No lands or tene-

2 ments shall be sold by virtue of any such order of the county court or probate 3 court, unless such sale is at public vendue, and between the hours of ten o'clock 4 in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, nor unless 5 the time, place and terms of holding such sale shall have been previously pub-6 lished for the space of four weeks, by putting up notices thereof in at least four 7 of the most public places in the county where such real estate shall be sold, and 8 also by causing a similar notice thereof to be published four successive weeks 9 prior to the sale, in some newspaper published in such county, or, if there be no 10 such newspaper, then in such other newspaper in this state as the court shall di-11 rect, nor unless such real estate shall be described with common certainty in 12 such notices. And if any executor or administrator, so ordered to make sale of 13 any real estate, shall sell the same contrary to the provisions of this act, he shall 14 forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action of 15 debt, in the name of the People of the State of Illinois, for the use of any per-16 son interested, who may prosecute the same: Provided, that no such offense shall 17 affect the validity of such sale: And provided further, that such executor or ad-18 ministrator may sell the same on a credit of not less than six, nor more than 19 twelve months, by taking notes, with good personal security, and a mortgage, on 20 the premises sold, to secure the payment of the purchase money. It shall be the 21 duty of the executor or administrator making such sale, on or before twenty days 22 thereafter, to file in the office of the clerk of said court a complete report of said 23 sale, giving a description of the premises sold, to whom, where, and upon what 24 terms sold, in substantially the same form as is required by this act for a report 25 of sale made by a master in chancery in an action in equity, and the same pro-26 ceedings may be had upon such report as in case of a report of sale by a master 27 in chancery.

Sec. 1221. PROCEEDS OF SALE.] When real estate is sold, the moneys arising 2 from such sale shall be received by the executor or administrator applying for the 3 order to sell, and shall be assets in his hands for the payment of debts, and shall 4 be applied in the same manner as assets arising from the sale of personal prop-5 erty.

Sec. 1222. SALE OF LAND NOT FULLY PAID FOR—COMPLETING PURCHASE.] In all 2 cases where a decedent is seized of a legal or equitable title to real estate, the 3 payment whereof has not been completed, and the estate of such decedent is un-

4 able to make complete payment therefor, with advantage to such estate, the ad-5 ministrator or executor may sell or dispose of such real estate upon the order of 6 the county court or probate court and the money arising from such sale shall be 7 assets in the hands of such executor or administrator, as in other cases. But in 8 all cases where the estate of any such decedent shall be solvent, and such lands 9 as aforesaid may be paid for without prejudice to the creditors, heirs and devisees 10 of the estate, the executor or administrator shall complete the payment for the 11 same out of the proceeds of the personal property, in the name of the heirs or 12 legal representatives of the decedent entitled thereto; and he shall be allowed a 13 credit for the amount of such payments, and all reasonable expenses incurred in 14 making the same, upon final settlement of such estate: Provided, that the pro-15 visions of this section shall, in nowise, interfere with the provisions of any last 16 will or testament.

Sec. 1223. SETTLEMENTS ENFORCED—CONTEMPTS—INTEREST ON ASSETS.] The 2 county courts and probate courts of this state shall enforce the settlements of es-3 tates within the time prescribed by law, and upon the failure of an executor or 4 administrator to make settlement within thirty days after the expiration of said 5 time, the court shall order a citation to issue to said executor or administrator 6 requiring him to appear at a time to be specified in such citation before the court 7 and make settlement of the estate, or show cause why the same is not done; 8 and if an executor or administrator fails to appear at the time required by such 9 citation, the court shall order an attachment requiring the sheriff of the county 10 where the executor or administrator resides, or may be found, to bring the body 11 of said executor or administrator before the court; and upon a failure of an ad-12 ministrator or executor to make settlement under the order of the court after 13 having been so attached, he may be dealt with as for contempt, and shall be 14 forthwith removed by the court, and some discreet person appointed in his stead, 15 the costs of such citation or attachment to be paid by the delinquent executor or 16 administrator, and the court shall enter a judgment therefor, and a fee bill may 17 issue thereon. All moneys, bonds, notes and credits which any administrator or 18 executor may have in his possession or control as property or assets of the es-19 tate, at a period of two years and six months from the date of his certificate of 20 administration, shall bear interest, and the executor or administrator shall be 21 charged interest thereon from said period at the rate of ten per cent., or after 22 two years and six months from any subsequent time that he may have discovered 23 and received the same, unless good cause is shown to the court why such inter-24 est should not be taxed.

Sec. 1224. FAILURE TO PAY OVER.] If any executor or administrator shall 2 fail or refuse to pay over any moneys or dividends to any person entitled there-3 to, in pursuance of the order of the county court or probate court, lawfully made, 4 within thirty days after demand made for such moneys or dividends, the court, 5 upon application, may attach such delinquent executor or administrator, and may 6 cause him to be imprisoned until he shall comply with the order aforesaid, or un-7 til such delinquent is discharged by due course of law; and moreover, such fail-8 ure or refusal on the part of such executor or administrator shall be deemed and 9 taken in law to amount to a devastavit, and an action upon such executor's or 10 administrator's bond, and against his securities, may be forthwith instituted and 11 maintained; and the failure aforesaid to pay such moneys or dividend, shall be a 12 sufficient breach to authorize a recovery thereon.

Sec. 1225. ANNUAL AND FINAL SETTLEMENTS—NOTICE TO HEIRS.] All execu-2 tors and administrators shall exhibit accounts of their administration for settle-3 ment, to the county court or probate court from which the certificate of adminis-4 tration was obtained, at the first term thereof after the expiration of one year 5 after the date of their certificate and in like manner every twelve months there-6 after, or sooner, if required, until the duties of their administration are fully 7 completed: Provided, that no final settlement shall be made and approved by the 8 court, unless the heirs of the decedent have been notified thereof, in such manner 9 as the court may direct.

Sec. 1226. DISTRIBUTION.] Upon every such settlement of the accounts of 2 an executor or administrator, the court shall ascertain the whole amount of mon-3 eys and assets belonging to the estate of the deceased, which have come into 4 the hands of such executor or administrator, and the whole amount of debts es-5 tablished against such estate; and if there is not sufficient to pay the whole of the 6 debts, the moneys aforesaid shall be apportioned among the several creditors pro 7 rata, according to their several rights, as established by this act; and thereupon 8 the court shall order such executor or administrator to pay the claims which have 9 been allowed by the court, according to such apportionments. And the court, 10 upon every settlement, shall proceed in like manner until all the debts are paid, 11 or the assets exhausted.

Sec. 1227. PAYMENT OF LEGACIES.] Whenever it shall appear that there are 2 sufficient assets to satisfy all demands against the estate, the court shall order 3 the payment of all legacies mentioned in the will of the testator, the specific lega-4 cies being the first to be satisfied.

Sec. 1228. BOND FROM LEGATEES, ETC.] Executors and administrators shall 2 not be compelled to pay legatees or distributees until bond and security is given 3 by such legatees or distributees to refund the due proportion of any debt which 4 may afterwards appear against the estate, and the costs attending the recovery 5 thereof; such bond shall be made payable to such executor or administrator, and 6 shall be for his indemnity and filed in the court.

Sec. 1229. REFUNDING BY LEGATEES, ETC.] When, at any time after the pay-2 ment of legacies or distributive shares, it shall be necessary that the same or any 3 part thereof be refunded for the payment of debts, the county court or probate 4 court, on application made, shall apportion the same among the several legatees

5 or distributees according to the amount received by them, except the specific lega-6 cies, which shall not be required to be refunded, unless the residue is insufficient 7 to satisfy such debts; and if any distributee or legatee refuses to refund accord-8 ing to the order of the court, within sixty days thereafter, and upon demand 9 made, such a refusal shall be deemed a breach of his bond given to the executor 10 and administrator as aforesaid, and an action may be instituted thereon for the 11 use of the party entitled thereto; and in all cases where there is no bond, an 12 action may be maintained against such distributee or legatee, and the order of the 13 court shall be evidence of the amount due.

Sec. 1230. ACTIONS BETWEEN EXECUTORS, ETC.] Where there are two or more 2 executors or administrators of an estate, and any one of them takes all or a 3 greater part of such estate and refuses to pay the debts of the decedent, or re-4 fuses to account with the other executor or administrator, in such case the ex-5 ecutor or administrator so aggrieved may have his action in equity against such 6 delinquent executor or administrator, and recover such proportionate share of 7 said estate as shall belong to him; and every executor, being a residuary legatee, 8 may have an action in equity against his co-executor or co-executors and recover 9 his part of the estate in his or their hands. Any other legatee may have the like 10 remedy against the executors: Provided, that before any action shall be com-11 menced for legacies as aforesaid, the court shall order them to be paid.

Sec. 1231. JURISDICTION OVER ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES TO INCLUDE ADMINIS-2 TRATION OF TESTAMENTARY TRUSTS, ETC.] The jurisdiction of county courts and 3 probate courts over the administration of the estates of deceased persons shall 4 include jurisdiction to enforce and administer testamentary trusts and super-5 vise the accounts of trustees and to direct and control them in the exercise of 6 their powers and the performance of their duties as such trustees, and also 7 to order the sale of real estate of the testator for the payment of legacies or 8 other charges and in all cases where the court shall find it necessary or expedient, for the complete execution of the will of the testator and the equitable distribution of his estate in accordance therewith, that such real estate or part thereof be sold. The jurisdiction provided for in this section shall be co-extensive with that heretofore exercised by courts of equity in similar cases, the same, however, not to be exclusive of, but merely concurrent with, that exercised by the courts of this State having equity jurisdiction. The methods of procedure in such cases in county courts and probate courts shall be the same as that in courts exercising equity jurisdiction.

Sec. 1232. JURISDICTION OF ACTIONS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF WILLS.] All courts having equity jurisdiction, and also county courts and probate courts, shall have power to entertain and determine actions in equity for the construction of any last will and testament, and to declare the rights of all persons interested therein whenever controversies have arisen or are likely to arise respecting the construction thereof which render it expedient or advantageous to any person interested therein that the construction and effect of such last will and testament should be settled and determined. The procedure in such cases shall be the same as in other actions in equity.

Sec. 1233. WHEN AND HOW MORTGAGE OR LEASE OF REAL ESTATE BY EXECUTORS MADE.] Real estate may be mortgaged in fee or for a term of years, or leased by executors: Provided, that the term of such lease, or the time of maturity of the indebtedness secured by such mortgage, shall not be extended beyond the time when the heir entitled to such estate shall attain the age of twenty-one years, if a male, or eighteen years, if a female: And, provided, also, that before any mortgage or lease shall be made, the executors shall petition the county court or probate court for an order authorizing such mortgage or lease to be made, and which the court may grant, if the interests of the estate may require it. Provided, further, that the executor making application as aforesaid, upon obtaining such order, shall enter into bond, with good security, faithfully to apply the 12 moneys to be raised upon such mortgage or lease, to the payment of the debts 13 of the testator; and all money so raised shall be assets in the hands of such ex-14 ecutor for the payment of debts, and shall be subject to the order of the court 15 in the same manner as other assets.

Sec. 1234. FORECLOSURES.] Foreclosures of such mortgages shall only be 2 made by an action in equity in the county court or probate court of the county in 3 which the premises, or a major part thereof, are situated; and any sale made by 4 virtue of any order or decree of foreclosure, may, at any time before confirma-5 tion, be set aside by the court for inadequacy of price or other good cause, and 6 shall not be binding upon the executor until confirmed by the court. The pro-7 cedure in such action shall be the same, as near as may be, as is provided by this 8 act for other actions in equity, excepting as may be in this act expressly other-9 wise provided.

Sec. 1235. NO STRICT FORECLOSURE.] No decree of strict foreclosure shall be 2 made upon any such mortgage, but redemption shall be allowed as is provided by 3 law in cases of sales under executions issued upon judgments in actions at law.

Sec. 1236. WHAT ACTIONS SURVIVE.] In addition to the actions which sur-
 2 vive by the common law, the following shall also survive: Actions of replevin,

 2 his ward, and demand and sue for, and receive in his own name as guardian, all 3 personal property of and demands due the ward, or, with the approbation of 4 the court, compound for the same, and give a discharge to the debtor upon re-5 receiving a fair and just dividend of his estate and effects.

Sec. 1268. APPEARANCE FOR WARD IN ACTION.] He shall appear for and rep-2 resent his ward in all legal actions and proceedings, unless another person is ap-3 pointed for that purpose, as guardian or next friend, but nothing contained in 4 this act shall impair or affect the power of any court or justice of the peace to 5 appoint a guardian to defend the interest of a minor impleaded in such court, or 6 interested in an action or matter therein pending, nor their power to appoint 7 or allow any person as next friend for a minor to commence, prosecute or de-8 fend any action in his behalf: Provided, that any action or proceeding may 9 be commenced and prosecuted by any minor by his next friend, without any 10 previous authority or appointment by the court, subject to the power of the 11 court to remove such next friend or to substitute another person as next friend, 12 whenever the court may deem it for the best interest of the minor.

Sec. 1269. MANAGEMENT OF ESTATE.] The guardian shall manage the es-
 2 tate of his ward frugally and without waste, and apply the income and profits 3 thereof, so far as the same may be necessary, to the comfort and suitable sup-4 port and education of his ward.

Sec. 1270. EDUCATION OF WARD.] The guardian shall educate his ward, and 2 it is made the duty of all civil officers to give information to the county court 3 or probate court of any neglect of the guardian to his ward.

Sec. 1271. WARD PUT OUT AND EDUCATED.] When there is not money of the 2 ward sufficient to teach him to read and write, and the elementary rules of arith-3 metic, and the guardian fails or neglects to have him so educated, the court shall 4 have power to put out the ward to any other person for the purpose of having 5 him so educated.

Sec. 1272. INVESTMENT OF WARD'S MONEY.] It shall be the duty of the 2 guardian to put and keep his ward's money at interest upon security to be ap-3 proved by the court, or by investing, on approval of the court, the same in 4 United States bonds, or in the bonds of any county or city, which are not issued 5 in aid of railroads, and where the laws do not permit said counties or cities to 6 become indebted in excess of five per cent. of the assessed valuation of prop-7 erty for taxation therein, and where the total indebtedness of such county or 8 city does not exceed five per cent. of the assessed valuation of property for taxa-9 tion at the time of such investment. Personal security may be taken for loans 10 not exceeding one hundred dollars. Loans upon real estate shall be secured by 11 first mortgage thereof, and not to exceed one-half the value thereof. No mort-12 gage loan shall be made for a longer time than three years, nor beyond the mi-13 nority of the ward: Provided, the same may be extended from year to year with-14 out the approval of the court. The guardian shall be chargeable with interest 15 upon any money which he shall wrongfully or negligently allow to remain in his 16 hands uninvested after same might have been invested.

Sec. 1273. LEASING REAL ESTATE.] The guardian may lease the real estate

2 of the ward upon such terms and for such length of time, not extending beyond 3 the minority of the ward, as the county court or probate court shall approve.

Sec. 1274. MORTGAGING REAL ESTATE.] The guardian may, by leave of the 2 county court or probate court, mortgage the real estate of the ward for a term 3 of years not exceeding the minority of the ward, or in fee; but the time of the 4 maturity of the indebtedness secured by such mortgage shall not be extended 5 beyond the time of the minority of the ward.

Sec. 1275. PETITION TO MORTGAGE.] Before any mortgage shall be made,

2 the guardian shall petition the county court for an order authorizing such mort-3 gage to be made, in which petition shall be set out the condition of the estate, and 4 the facts and circumstances on which the petition is founded, and a description 5 of the premises sought to be mortgaged.

Sec. 1276. FORECLOSURES.] Foreclosures of mortgages authorized by this 2 act shall only be made by petition to the county court of the county where the 3 certificate of guardianship was granted, or in case of non-resident minors, in the 4 county in which the premises, or some part thereof, are situated, in which pro-5 ceeding the guardian and ward shall be made defendants; and any sale made by 6 virtue of any order or decree of foreclosure of such mortgage may, at any time 7 before confirmation, be set aside by the court for inadequacy of price, or other 8 good cause, and shall not be binding upon the guardian or ward until confirmed 9 by the court.

Sec. 1277. NO STRICT FORECLOSURE.] No decree of strict foreclosure shall 2 be made upon any such mortgage, but redemption shall be allowed as is now 3 provided by law in cases of sales under executions upon common law judgments.

Sec. 1278. PROCEEDINGS TO SELL REAL ESTATE—PETITION.] On the petition 2 of the guardian the county court of the county where the ward resides, or if the 3 ward does not reside in the state, of the county where the real estate, or some 4 part of it is situated, may order the sale of the real estate of the ward, for his 5 support and education, when the court shall deem it necessary, or to invest the 6 proceeds in other real estate or for the purpose of otherwise investing the same: 7 Provided, the said county court shall make no order for a sale under said peti-8 tion until the said guardian shall have executed and filed a bond, payable to the 9 People of the State of Illinois, with at least two sufficient sureties to be approved 10 by the court, in double the value of the real estate by said petition sought to be 11 sold, conditioned for the due and faithful accounting for, and disposition of the 12 proceeds of all real estate that may be sold by him, under such order, in the 13 manner provided by law; which bond may be put in suit in the name of the 14 People of the State of Illinois, to the use of any person entitled to recover on 15 a breach thereof, and damages assessed and proceedings had thereon as in 16 other cases of penal bonds. The petition shall set forth the condition of the 17 estate and the facts and circumstances on which the petition is founded and 18 shall be signed by the guardian and verified by his affidavit.

Sec. 1279. NOTICE.] Notice of such application shall be given to all per-2 sons concerned, by publication in some newspaper published in the county where 3 the application is made, at least once each week for three successive weeks, or 4 by setting up written or printed notices in three of the most public places in 5 the county, at least three weeks before the day on which such application shall 6 be made. The ward shall be served with a copy of such notice at least ten days 7 before the hearing of such application. Such service may be proven in the same 8 manner as the service of a copy of a bill in equity.

Sec. 1280. PRACTICE.] Such application shall be docketed as other causes, 2 and the petition may be amended, heard or continued for further notice, or for 3 other cause. The practice in such cases shall be the same as in other cases in 4 equity.

Sec. 1281. SALE.] The court shall direct notice of the time and place of 2 sale to be given, and may direct the sale to be made on reasonable credit, and 3 require such security of the guardian or purchaser as the interests of the ward 4 may require.

Sec. 1282. RETURN—SALE APPROVED—TITLE.] It shall be the duty of the 2 guardian making such sale, as soon as may be, to make return of such sale to the 3 court granting the order, which, if approved, shall be recorded, and shall vest in 4 the purchaser or purchasers all the interest of the ward in the estate so sold.

Sec. 1283. PROCEEDS—ACCOUNTING FOR—RE-INVESTMENT.] An account of all 2 moneys and securities received by any guardian for the sale of real estate of 3 his ward shall be returned, on oath of such guardian, to the county court or 4 probate court of the county where the certificate of guardianship was obtained, 5 and such money shall be accounted for, and subject to the order of the county 6 court or probate court, in like manner as other moneys belonging to such minor.

 7 In case of sale for re-investment in this state, the money shall be re-invested 8 under the direction of the court.

Sec. 1284. SUFFICIENCY OF SURETIES—COURT TO INQUIRE INTO.] It shall be 2 the duty of the county court or probate court, at each accounting of the guar-3 dian, to inquire into the sufficiency of his sureties. And if, at any time, it has 4 cause to believe that the sureties of a guardian are insufficient or in failing cir-5 cumstances, it shall, after summoning the guardian, if he be not before the 6 court, require him to give additional security.

Sec. 1285. COUNTER-SECURITY.] Upon the application of the surety of any 2 guardian, and after summoning the guardian, the court may, if it believes him 3 to be insolvent or in doubtful circumstances, require him to give counter-secur-4 ity to his sureties.

Sec. 1286. REMOVAL OF GUARDIAN.] The county court or probate court may 2 remove a guardian for his failure to give bond or security, or additional or coun-3 ter security, when required, or for failure to make inventory, or to account and 4 make settlement, or support or educate the ward, or when he shall have become 5 insane, or have removed out of the state, or become incapable or unsuitable for 6 the discharge of his duties, or for failure to discharge any duty required of him 7 by law or the order of the court, or for other good cause.

Sec. 1287. SUMMONS TO SHOW CAUSE—NOTICE.] Before removing a guard-2 ian the court shall summon him to show cause why he should not be removed 3 for the cause alleged. If the guardian has left the state, or cannot be served 4 with process, he may be notified in the same manner as non-resident defendants 5 in equity.

Sec. 1288. RESIGNATION.] When it appears proper, the court may permit 2 the guardian to resign his trust, if he first settles his accounts and delivers over 3 the estate as by the court directed.

Sec. 1289. SUCCESSOR—DELIVERY OF PROPERTY, ETC., TO.] Upon the re-2 moval, resignation or death of a guardian, another may be appointed, who shall 3 give bond and security and perform the duties prescribed in this act. And the 4 court shall have power to compel the guardian so removed or resigned, or the 5 executor or administrator of a deceased guardian, or the conservator of an in-6 sane person, or other person, to deliver up to such successor all the goods, chat-7 tels, moneys, title papers, and other effects in his custody or control, belonging 8 to such minor, and upon failure to so deliver the same, to commit the person 9 offending to jail, until he shall comply with the order of the court.

Sec. 1290. MARRIAGE OF FEMALE WARD.] The marriage of a female ward 2 shall discharge her guardian from all right to her custody and education, but 3 not to her property.

Sec. 1291. COMPENSATION.] Guardians, on settlement, shall be allowed 2 such fees and compensation for their services as shall seem reasonable and 3 just to the court.

Sec. 1292. NON-RESIDENT GUARDIAN—POWER TO COLLECT.] When there is no 2 guardian in this state of a non-resident minor, his guardian appointed and 3 qualified according to the law of the place where the minor resides, having first 4 obtained the authority of the county court or probate court of the county in this 5 state where any of the personal estate of such minor may be so to do, may col-6 lect, by action or otherwise, receive and remove to such place of residence of the 7 minor, any personal estate of such minor.

Sec. 1293. TRANSFER OF ESTATE TO NON-RESIDENT GUARDIAN.] When there is 2 a guardian in this state of a non-resident minor, the court may authorize such

3 guardian to pay over and transfer the whole or any part of the ward's prop-4 erty to the non-resident guardian of such ward, appointed and qualified accord-5 ing to the law of the place where the ward resides, upon such terms as shall 6 be proper in the premises, requiring receipts to be passed; and when the whole 7 estate in the hands of a resident guardian shall be so transferred, may discharge 8 him.

Sec. 1294. CONDITIONS.] But the court shall not grant the authority men-2 tioned in the two preceding sections except upon petition of such foreign guard-3 ian, signed by him and verified by his affidavit, and unless he shall file with the 4 court properly authenticated copies of his letters or certificate of guardianship 5 and bond, with security in double the amount of the value of the property and 6 estate sought, which shall have been executed and filed in the court which ap-7 pointed such guardian. And, unless it shall appear to the court that a removal 8 of such estate will not conflict with the interest of the ward, or the terms of limi-9 tation attending the right by which the ward owns the same or the rights of 10 creditors, the resident guardian shall have ten days' previous notice of such ap-11 plication.

Sec. 1295. SALE OF REAL ESTATE BY NON-RESIDENT GUARDIAN.] When any 2 person residing in any other state of the United States, or any territory thereof, 3 shall have been or may hereafter be appointed guardian, in the state or territory 4 in which such person resides, of any infant or other person owning real estate 5 within this state, not having any guardian in this state, it shall and may be law-6 ful for every such guardian to file his or her petition in the circuit court of the 7 county in which said real estate, or the major part thereof, may lie, for sale of 8 said real estate, for the purpose of educating and supporting such infant or other 9 persons under guardianship, or for the purpose of investing the proceeds of such 10 real estate in such manner as the court which appointed such guardian may or-11 der and direct; and the said circuit court is hereby fully authorized and empowered to order a sale of such real estate, conformably to the prayer of said petition: Provided, that every such guardian applying for such sale, shall file with his or her petition an authenticated copy of his or her certificate of guardianship: And, provided, further, that the said circuit court shall make no order for a sale under said petition, until the said guardian shall have executed and filed, in the court which appointed said guardian, a bond, with sufficient security, approved by said last mentioned court, for the due and faithful application of the proceeds of every such sale, in such manner as the said last mentioned court may direct, an authenticated copy of which said bond, and the approval thereof, shall be deemed and taken by the circuit court as sufficient evidence of the execution and filing of the same.

Sec. 1296. NOTICE—TERMS OF SALE.] Every guardian applying for an order of sale under the foregoing section shall be required to give notice of his or her petition in the same manner as is now required by law in cases of applications for sales of lands belonging to minors, by resident guardians; and in every order for the sale of real estate under this act, it shall be the duty of the court to prescribe the terms of said sale, and the notice which shall be given thereof, and the place where such sale shall be made.

Sec. 1297. DEEDS—TITLE.] All sales of real estate, under the provisions of this act, are hereby declared to be good and valid; and all deeds executed by such guardian to the purchaser or purchasers under such sales, shall convey to and vest in such purchaser or purchasers all the estate, right, title and interest, in law or equity, of said infant or others in and to the land so sold.

Sec. 1298. BOND FOR COSTS.] In all actions and petitions by non-resident guardians, they shall give bonds for costs, as in cases of other non-residents.

Sec. 1299. FINAL SETTLEMENT—UNCLAIMED MONEYS IN HANDS OF GUARDIANS—DEPOSIT OF.] When any guardian shall have made final settlement with the

3 county court or probate court it shall be the duty of the court to order such 4 guardian to deposit with the county treasurer such moneys as he may have be-5 longing to any ward whose whereabouts may be unknown, or belonging to the 6 unknown heir or heirs of any deceased ward, or the heirs of any ward whose 7 whereabouts may be unknown, and to take the receipt of such treasurer there-8 for, and to file such receipt in the office of the clerk of the county court or pro-9 bate court where such settlement has been made.

Sec. 1300. HOW MONEYS SO OBTAINED DEPOSITED.] When money shall be de-2 posited as aforesaid, the person or persons entitled to the same may at any time 3 apply to the court making such order and obtain the same upon making satis-4 factory proof to the court of his, her or their right thereto.

Sec. 1301. PUBLIC COUNTY GUARDIAN.] The Governor of this State, by and 2 with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall, before the first Monday in De-3 cember, nineteen hundred nine, and every four years thereafter, appoint in each 4 county of this State, and as often as any vacancies may occur, a suitable person, 5 to be known as public guardian of such county, who shall hold his office for four 6 years from the first Monday of December, nineteen hundred nine, or until his 7 successor is appointed and qualified.

Sec. 1302. TO TAKE AN OATH—FORM OF.] Every person appointed as a 2 public guardian shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and 3 subscribe and file in the office of the clerk of the county court, the following oath, 4 to-wit:

5 I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will support the 6 Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Illinois, 7 and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of public guardian of 8 county, according to the best of my ability.

Sec. 1303. WHEN GUARDIAN FAILS TO QUALIFY.] Whenever any guardian, 2 appointed under the provisions of this act, shall fail to qualify as such guardian 3 at the expiration of three months from his or her appointment, it shall be the 4 duty of the court to appoint the public guardian of the county where the minor 5 resides as guardian of the minor.

Sec. 1304. PUBLIC GUARDIAN—WHEN APPOINTED BY THE COURT.]—The pub-2 lic guardian, when appointed by the court, as provided in this act, shall have 3 the same powers and his duties shall be the same as other guardians appointed 4 under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 1305. BOND OF PUBLIC GUARDIAN.] It shall be the duty of the county 2 court or probate court to require of a public guardian, before entering upon the 3 duties of his office, to enter into a bond, payable to the people of the State of 4 Illinois, in a sum of not less than five thousand dollars, with two or more se-5 curities, approved by the court, and conditioned that he will faithfully discharge 6 all the duties of his office, and the court may, from time to time, as occasion may 7 require, demand additional security of such guardian, and may require him to 8 give the usual bond required of guardians in other cases; and in default of giv-9 ing such bond within sixty days after receiving his commission, or in default 10 of giving additional security within such time as the court may fix after being 11 duly ordered by said court so to do, his office shall be deemed vacant, and upon 12 the certificate of the county judge of such fact, the Governor shall fill the va-13 cancy aforesaid.

 43 that paragraph 3 will read as follows:

44 3. That said Richard Roe is a drunkard (or spendthrift, as the case may 45 be) who is so spending, wasting and lessening his estate as to expose himself (or 46 his family, as the case may be,) to want and suffering (or some specified county, 47 town, incorporated city or village to a charge or expense for the support of him-48 self or his family, as the case may be).

 4 any person be found an idiot, insane person, distracted or feeble-minded person,

Sec. 1309. BOND—ADDITIONAL BONDS—COUNTER SECURITY—ACTION ON BOND
 2 —FORM OF BOND.] The conservator appointed shall, before entering upon the 3 duties of his office, give a bond payable to the People of the State of Illinois with 4 at least two sufficient sureties to be approved by the court in at least double the 5 amount of his ward's personal estate and six times the amount of the gross an-6 nual income of his ward's real estate: Provided, however, that if any such real 7 estate is improved or is covered, in whole or in part, with timber, or is improved 8 in part and in part covered with timber, the penal sum of such bond shall be

 10 said timber, or both, as the case may be, with such conditions, as near as may 11 be, as are provided in the case of the bonds of guardians of infants. Additional 12 bonds and counter security may be required as hereinafter provided. Bonds 13 given in pursuance of this act may be put in action in the name of the People 14 of the State of Illinois to the use of any person entitled to recover on the breach 15 thereof and damages adjudged on proceedings had thereon as in other cases of 16 penal bonds. The following shall be deemed a sufficient form of conservator's 17 bond and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other bonds may 18 be properly framed:

19 IN THE PROBATE COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

20 In the matter
 21 of Richard Roe } Conservatorship. No. 100.

22 BOND OF CONSERVATOR.

23 KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, John Doe, as principal, and Wil-24 liam Doe and Henry Doe as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the People 25 of the State of Illinois in the penal sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for 26 the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, 27 executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these 28 presents.

29 Witness our hands and seals this 10th day of February, 1908.

30 The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden 31 John Doe, who has been duly appointed by the probate court of Cook county, 32 Illinois, as the conservator of Richard Roe, shall faithfully perform all of his 33 duties as such conservator and shall faithfully account for all property which 34 may, or by the exercise of due diligence might have, come into his possession, 35 custody or control as such conservator and dispose of the same in the manner 36 required by law, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise the same is to be 37 and remain in full force and effect.

39 WILLIAM DOE. [SEAL.]

41 Approved by me this 20th day of August, 1908.

42 HENRY JONES, Judge.

Sec. 1310. CARE OF ESTATE—CUSTODY OF PERSON—CHILDREN.] Such conserva-2 tor shall have the care and management of the real and personal estate of his 3 ward, and the custody of his person unless otherwise ordered by the court, and 4 the custody and education of his children where no other guardian is appointed, 5 unless the court orders otherwise; but this act shall not be so construed as to 6 deprive the mother of the custody and education of the children without her con-7 sent, if she be a fit and competent person to have such custody and education.

Sec. 1311. INVENTORY.] The conservator shall, immediately upon his ap-2 pointment, take charge of the estate of his ward, and within sixty days after 3 such appointment return to the court a true and perfect inventory of the real 4 and personal estate of the ward, signed by him and verified by his affidavit. As 5 often as other estate shall thereafter come to his knowledge, he shall return an 6 inventory thereof within sixty days from the time the same shall come to his 7 knowledge. Such inventory shall conform, as near as may be, to the require-8 ment of this act with respect to the inventory of the estate of a deceased person.

Sec. 1312. SETTLEMENTS.] The conservator shall, at the expiration of a year 2 from his appointment, settle his accounts as conservator with the county court or 3 probate court and at least once a year thereafter, and as much oftener as the 4 court may require.

Sec. 1313. FINAL SETTLEMENT.] Such conservator shall, at the expiration of 2 his trust, pay and deliver to those entitled thereto all the money, estate and title 3 papers in his hands as conservator, or with which he is chargeable as such, in 4 such manner as shall be directed by the order or decree of any court having 5 jurisdiction thereof. Whenever any lunatic, idiot, drunkard or spendthrift shall 6 die seized or possessed of any real or personal estate, then such conservator 7 shall have full power and authority, under the certificate issued to him or to 8 her, to make final settlement and distribution of the estate of said deceased ward

9 without further certificate of administration in such time and manner as is re-10 quired by law of administrators of the estates of deceased persons. Provided, 11 this shall not apply to non-resident conservators.

Sec. 1314. MANNER OF ACCOUNTING.] On every accounting or final settle-2 ment of a conservator, he shall exhibit and file his account as such conservator, 3 setting forth specifically, in separate items, on what account expenditures were 4 made by him, and all sums received and paid out since his last accounting, and 5 on what account each was received and paid out, and showing the true balance of 6 money on hand—which account, shall be accompanied by the proper vouchers, 7 and signed by him and verified by his affidavit.

Sec. 1315. COLLECTIONS, ETC.] The conservator shall settle all accounts of 2 his ward, and demand and sue for and receive in his own name, as conservator, 3 all personal property of and demands due the ward, or with the approbation of 4 the court, compound for the same, and give a discharge to the debtor upon re-5 ceiving a fair and just dividend of his estate and effects.

Sec. 1316. PERFORMANCE OF CONTRACTS.] The conservator, by permission 2 and subject to the direction of the court which appointed him, may perform the 3 personal contracts of his ward, made in good faith and legally subsisting at the 4 time of the commencement of his disability, and which may be performed with 5 advantage to the estate of the ward.

Sec. 1317. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.] He shall appear for and represent his ward 2 in all actions and proceedings, unless another person is appointed for that pur-3 pose, as conservator or next friend; but nothing contained in this act shall im-4 pair or affect the power of any court to appoint a conservator or next friend to 5 defend the interest of said ward impleaded in such court, or interested in an 6 action or matter therein pending, nor its power to appoint or allow any person,

7 as next friend for such ward, to commence, prosecute or defend any action in 8 his behalf, subject to the direction of such court.

Sec. 1318. WHAT CONTRACTS VOID.] Every note, bill, bond or other contract 2 by an idiot, lunatic, distracted person or spendthrift, made after the finding of 3 the jury, as provided in this act, shall be void as against the idiot, lunatic, dis-4 tracted person, drunkard or spendthrift, and his estate; but the person making 5 any contract with such idiot, lunatic, distracted person or spendthrift shall be 6 bound thereby.

Sec. 1319. WHAT CONTRACTS VOIDABLE.] Every contract made with an idiot, 2 lunatic or distracted person before such finding or with a drunkard or spend-3 thrift made after the application for the appointment of a conservator, may be 4 avoided, except in favor of the person fraudulently making the same.

Sec. 1320. SWINDLING IDIOT, LUNATIC, ETC.] Whoever, by trading with, bar-2 tering, gaming, or any other device, possesses himself of any property or valu-3 able thing belonging to any idiot, lunatic or notoriously distracted person, drunk-4 ard or spendthrift, shall be deemed guilty of swindling, and upon conviction 5 thereof be fined a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000) or confined 6 in the county jail not exceeding one year, or both.

Sec. 1321. MANAGEMENT OF ESTATE.] The conservator shall manage the es-
2 tate of his ward frugally and without waste, and apply the income and profits
3 thereof, so far as the same may be necessary, to the comfort and suitable support 4 of his ward and his family, and the education of his children.

Sec. 1322. INVESTMENT OF MONEY.] It shall be the duty of the conservator 2 to put and keep his ward's money at interest, upon security to be approved by 3 the court, or invest the same, subject to the approval of the court, in the bonds 4 of municipal corporations of this state to be approved by the court, or in other bonds in which, by the terms of this act, guardians are authorized to invest the money of their wards. Personal security may be taken for loans not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100). Loans in larger amounts shall be upon real estate security. No loan shall be made for a longer time than three years, unless authorized by the court: Provided, the same may be extended from year to year, without the approval of the court.

Sec. 1323. LEASING REAL ESTATE.] The conservator may lease the real estate of the ward, upon such terms and for such length of time as the county court or probate court shall approve.

Sec. 1324. MORTGAGING REAL ESTATE.] The conservator may, by leave of the county court, mortgage the real estate of the ward for a term of years, or in fee.

Sec. 1325. PETITION TO MORTGAGE.] Before any mortgage shall be made the conservator shall petition the county court for an order authorizing such mortgage to be made, in which petition shall be set out the condition of the estate and the facts and circumstances on which the petition is founded, and a description of the premises sought to be mortgaged.

Sec. 1326. NO STRICT FORECLOSURE.] No decree of strict foreclosure shall be made upon any such mortgage, but redemption shall be allowed, as is now provided by law in cases of sales under executions upon common law judgments.

Sec. 1327. SALE OF REAL ESTATE—PETITION.] On the petition of the conservator, the county court of the county where the ward resides, or, if the ward does not reside in the state, of the county where the real estate or some part of it is situated, may order the sale of the real estate of the ward for his support and that of his family when the court shall deem it necessary, or to invest the proceeds in other real estate, or for the purpose of otherwise investing the same, or for the purpose of paying the debts of the ward or the education of the chil-

8 dren of said ward. The petition shall set forth the condition of the estate and 9 the facts and circumstances on which the petition is founded and shall be signed 10 by the conservator and verified by his affidavit.

Sec. 1328. NOTICE OF APPLICATION.] Notice of such application shall be 2 given to all persons concerned by publication in some newspaper published in 3 the county where the application is made, at least once in each week for three 4 successive weeks, or if no newspaper is published in such county, by setting up 5 written or printed notices in three of the most public places in the county at 6 least three weeks before the day on which such application is proposed to be 7 made. The ward shall be served with a copy of such notice at least ten days be-8 fore the hearing of such application. Such service may be proved in the same 9 manner as the service of a summons.

Sec. 1329. DOCKET—PRACTICE.] Such application shall be docketed as other 2 causes, and the petition may be amended, heard or continued for further notice or 3 for other cause. The practice in such cases shall be the same, as near as may 4 be, as in other cases in equity.

Sec. 1330. SALE.] The court shall direct notice of the time and place of sale 2 to be given, and may direct the sale to be made on reasonable credit, and re-3 quire such security of the conservator or purchaser as the interest of the ward 4 may require.

Sec. 1331. RETURN OF SALE—APPROVAL—TITLE.] It shall be the duty of the 2 conservator making such sale, as soon as may be, to make report of such sale 3 to the court granting the order, and, in case of the approval of such sale, the 4 court shall by its order vest in the purchaser or purchasers all the interest of the 5 ward in the estate so sold.

Sec. 1332. PROCEEDS OF SALE.] An account of all moneys and securities re-2 ceived by any conservator for the sale of real estate of his ward, shall be returned

3 on oath of such conservator to the county court or probate court of the county 4 where the certificate of conservatorship was obtained, and such money shall be 5 accounted for and subject to the order of the county court or probate court in like 6 manner as other moneys belonging to such ward. In case of sale for reinvest-7 ment in this state, the money shall be reinvested under the direction of the court.

Sec. 1333. SUFFICIENCY OF SURETIES.] It shall be the duty of the county 2 court or probate court, at each accounting of the conservator, to inquire into the 3 sufficiency of his sureties, and if, at any time, it has cause to believe that the 4 sureties of a conservator are insufficient or in failing circumstances, it shall, 5 after summoning the conservator, if he be not before the court, require him to 6 give additional security.

Sec. 1334. COUNTER SECURITY.] Upon the application of the surety of any 2 conservator, and after summoning the conservator, the court may, if it believes 3 him to be insolvent or in doubtful circumstances, require him to give counter se-4 curity to his sureties.

Sec. 1335. REMOVAL OF CONSERVATOR.] The county court or probate court 2 may remove a conservator for his failure to give bond or security or additional 3 or counter security when required, or for a failure to make an inventory or to 4 account and make a settlement, or support the ward, or when he shall have become 5 insane or have removed out of the state, or become incapable or unsuitable for the 6 discharge of his duties, or for failure to discharge any duty required of him by 7 law or the order of the court or for other good cause.

Sec. 1336. SUMMONS TO SHOW CAUSE—NOTICE.] Before removing a conserv-2 ator the court shall summon him to show cause why he should not be removed for 3 the cause alleged. If the conservator has left the state or cannot be served with 4 process, he may be notified in the same manner as non-resident defendants in 5 equity.

Sec. 1337. RESIGNATION.] When it appears proper the court may permit
 2 the conservator to resign his trust, if he first settles his accounts and delivers 3 over the estate as by the court directed.

Sec. 1338. SUCCESSOR APPOINTED—DELIVERY TO SUCCESSOR.] Upon the re-2 moval, resignation or death of a conservator, another may be appointed, who 3 shall give bond and security, and perform the duties prescribed by this act. The 4 court shall have power to compel the conservator so removed or resigned, or the 5 executor or administrator of a deceased conservator, to deliver up to such suc-6 cessor all the goods, chattels, moneys, title papers and other effects in his custody 7 or control belonging to the ward; and upon failure to so deliver the same, to 8 commit the person offending to jail until he shall comply with the order of the 9 court.

Sec. 1339. COMPENSATION.] Conservators on settlement shall be allowed such 2 fees and compensation for their services as shall seem reasonable and just to the 3 court.

Sec. 1340. RESTORATION TO REASON, ETC.] When any person, for whom a 2 conservator has been or may be appointed under the provisions of this act, shall 3 be restored to his reason, or in case such drunkard or spendthrift shall have be-4 come so reformed as to be a proper and safe person to have the care and man-5 agement of his estate, such person may apply by petition to the county court or 6 probate court of the county in which such conservator was appointed, to have 7 said conservator removed, and the care and management of his property, or so 8 much thereof as shall remain, restored to him.

Sec. 1341. NOTICE.] Notice of such intended application shall be given to 2 the conservator ten days before the day on which the application is proposed to 3 be made.

Sec. 1342. TRIAL, JUDGMENT, ETC.] It shall be the duty of the court to which

2 any such application, as provided in the foregoing section, is made, on proof 3 that said conservator has been duly notified of such application, to cause a jury 4 to be summoned to try the question whether said applicant is a fit person to have 5 the care, custody and control of his or her property and if the said jury return 6 in their verdict that such person is a fit person to have the control of such prop-7 erty as aforesaid, then the court shall enter an order fully restoring such person 8 to all the rights and privileges enjoyed before said conservator was appointed: 9 Provided, that such conservator, so removed, shall be allowed a reasonable time 10 to settle his accounts as such, and to pass over the money or property in his 11 hands, and such removal shall not invalidate any contracts made in good faith 12 by such conservator, while acting as such: Provided, further, that no application 13 shall be entertained for the removal of any conservator appointed for any person 14 under the provisions of this act, within less than one year from such appointment, 15 unless for neglect of duty or mismanagement of his trust.

Sec. 1343. ACTIONS, COLLECTIONS, ETC., BY NON-RESIDENT CONSERVATORS, ETC.]

2 The conservator, guardian, curator or committee of any non-resident idiot, luna-3 tic, insane or distracted person, spendthrift or drunkard, appointed in any of the 4 United States or territories, or any foreign country, in pursuance of the laws of 5 any such state, territory or country, may commence and prosecute in his name 6 as such conservator, guardian, curator or committee, actions for the recovery of 7 any real or personal property, or any interest therein in this state, belonging to 8 any such idiot, lunatic, insane or distracted person, spendthrift or drunkard, or 9 for any injury to such property, in any of the courts of record in this state having 10 jurisdiction in similar cases by persons in their own rights, and may collect, re-11 ceive and remove to his place of residence any personal estate of his ward.

Sec. 1344. SALE OF REAL ESTATE BY NON-RESIDENT CONSERVATOR, ETC.] It shall 2 be lawful for any such conservator, guardian, curator or committee of any non-3 resident idiot, lunatic, insane or distracted person, spendthrift or drunkard, who 4 shall obtain an order from the proper court in the state, territory or country in 5 which such conservator, guardian, curator or committee was appointed, author-6 izing him to make application for the sale of his ward's real estate or personal 7 property in this state, upon filing a certified copy of such order for record in the 8 office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in this state in which the 9 property or the major part thereof is situated, by petition to such court to obtain 10 an order authorizing such conservator, guardian, curator or committee to sell and 11 transfer any such property or interest therein, belonging to any such idiot, luna-12 tic, insane or distracted person, spendthrift or drunkard, and to make deeds and 13 conveyances thereof; which deeds and conveyances executed and acknowledged 14 in pursuance of the laws of this state, or of the state, territory or country in 15 which such conservator, guardian, curator or committee was appointed, shall be 16 effectual in law and equity to pass to the grantee or grantees therein all the right, 17 title and interest of such idiot, lunatic, insane or distracted person, spendthrift or 18 drunkard therein. The court ordering the sale may authorize any person to act 19 as auctioneer of the property, but the deed shall be executed by the conservator, 20 guardian, curator or committee.

Sec. 1345. NOTICE OF PETITION.] Notice of the time and place of presenting 2 said petition to said circuit court shall be given by publication in the nearest 3 newspaper for four successive weeks, the first of which publications shall be at 4 least forty days before the time fixed for the presentation of said petition, re-5 questing all persons interested to show cause why the prayer of said petition 6 should not be granted.

Sec. 1346. BOND.] The said circuit court may, in its discretion, require 2 such conservator, curator, guardian or committee to file a bond, with sufficient 3 securities, conditioned for the faithful application of the money which may be re-4 ceived for any such property, for the benefit and to the use of such idiot, lunatic, 5 insane or distracted person, spendthrift, or drunkard.

Sec. 1347. BOND FOR COSTS.] In all actions by non-resident conservators, 2 guardians, curators or committees they shall give a bond for costs as in cases of 3 other non-residents.

4 mitted to go at large, or is in such condition of mind or body as to be a fit subject

5 for care and treatment in a hospital or asylum for the insane: Provided, that 6 no person, idiot from birth, or whose mental development was arrested by dis-7 ease or physical injury occurring prior to the age of puberty, and no person who 8 is afflicted with simple epilepsy shall be regarded as insane, unless the manifes-9 tations of abnormal excitability, violence, or homicidal or suicidal impulses are 10 such as to render his confinement in a hospital or asylum for the insane a proper 11 precaution to prevent him from injuring himself or others.

Sec. 1349. NOT RESTRAINED OF LIBERTY.] Except as hereinafter provided, 2 from and after the passage of this act no insane person, or person supposed to be 3 insane, but who shall not have been legally adjudged to be insane, shall, by rea-4 son of his insanity or supposed insanity, be restrained of his liberty: Provided, 5 that this section shall not be construed to forbid the temporary detention of an 6 alleged lunatic, for a reasonable time, not exceeding ten days, pending a judicial 7 investigation of his mental condition.

Sec. 1350. PROCEEDINGS FOR SUPPOSED INSANITY—PETITION.] When any per-2 son shall be, or be supposed to be, insane, any resident of the county in which 3 such patient resides or is found may file with the clerk of the county court of 4 said county a petition in writing, under oath, setting forth that the person named 5 is insane and unsafe to be at large, or suffering under mental derangement, and 6 that the welfare of himself or others requires his restraint or commitment to some 7 hospital or asylum for the insane. The said petition must be accompanied by 8 the names of the witnesses (one of whom at least must be a physician having 9 personal knowledge of the case), by whom the truth of the allegations therein 10 contained may be substantiated and proved: Provided, that when it shall ap-11 pear by such petition the person alleged to be insane has not been examined by 12 a physician, the judge may appoint a qualified physician of the county to make 13 such examination and allow him compensation therefor, not exceeding five dol-14 lars, which shall be taxed and collected as is herein provided in respect to other 15 costs in proceedings in inquest of lunacy.

Sec. 1351. COUNTY JUDGE TO ISSUE WRIT—HEARING.] Upon the filing of the 2 petition aforesaid, unless the person alleged to be insane shall be brought before 3 the court without a writ, or unless an affidavit of some credible person shall be 4 filed setting forth that, in the opinion of the affiant, the physical or mental con-5 dition of the said person is such (stating the same) as to render it manifestly 6 improper that such person be brought before the court, the court shall direct the 7 clerk to issue a warrant directed to the sheriff or to any constable or to the per-8 son having custody or charge of the person alleged to be insane, commanding 9 such person to be brought before the court at such time and place as the judge 12 notified as the court shall direct.

Sec. 1352. FORMS OF PETITION AND WARRANT.] The following forms of peti-2 tion and warrant shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as suggestions 3 from which other petitions and warrants may be properly framed:

Sec. 1353. INQUESTS IN LUNACY TO BE BY JURY OR A COMMISSION OF TWO PHYSICIANS.] Inquests in lunacy shall be by jury or a commission of two licensed physicians engaged in active practice in said county, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 1354. COMMISSION OF PHYSICIANS.] When no jury is demanded and the 2 circumstances of the case are such that there appears to the court to be no occa-
3 sion for the impaneling of a jury, or that a trial by jury would for any reason 4 be inexpedient, or improper, the court shall appoint a commission of two qualified 5 physicians in regular and active practice who are residents of the county, to be 6 chosen by the court, on account of their known competency and integrity, who 7 shall make a personal examination of the patient and file with the clerk of the 8 court a report in writing verified by affidavit, of the result of their inquiries, 9 together with their conclusions and recommendations. The commissioners here-10 in provided for shall have power to administer oaths and take sworn testimony.

Sec. 1355. JURY OF SIX—QUALIFIED PHYSICIANS.] In all cases of inquest by 2 jury the jury shall consist of six persons, and one of the jurors at least must 3 be a qualified physician, and the proceedings shall conform in all respects, as 4 nearly as may be, to the ordinary practice of the county court. The rights of the 5 person whose mental condition is inquired into shall be the same as those of any 6 defendant in a civil action.

Sec. 1356. INQUESTS IN OPEN COURT OR IN CHAMBERS OR AT HOME—EXCLUSION
2 OF SPECTATORS.] Inquests in lunacy may be in open court or in chambers, or at 3 the home of the person alleged to be insane, at the discretion of the court. The 4 judge shall preside, whether the inquest is by jury or a commission, and the 5 presence of the patient shall be indispensable, and no proceedings can be had in 6 in his absence, unless otherwise provided in this act. The judge may require all 7 persons other than the patient, his friends, witnesses, licensed attorneys and of-8 ficers of the court, to withdraw from the room during the inquest.

Sec. 1357. FINDING OR VERDICT.] The jury or commission, as the case may 2 be, if they find the person in question insane, shall, in their finding or verdict, 3 also state, so far as the evidence may justify them in so doing, first, whether he 4 is or is not a fit person to be sent to a state hospital for the insane; second, his

We, the jury, find said Richard Roe to be sane.

Sec. 1358. COURT MAY SET ASIDE FINDINGS.] The court may, if not satisfied with the finding of the jury or commission, set the same aside and dismiss the proceedings or order another inquest.

Sec. 1359. But whatever order may be made in the case shall stand and continue to be binding upon all persons whom it may concern until rescinded, reversed or otherwise legally superseded or set aside.

Sec. 1360. ESTATE OF INSANE PERSON—INQUEST IN LUNACY—APPOINTMENT OF 2 CONSERVATOR—FILING RECORD IN PROBATE COURT.] If any person alleged to be in-

 9 any estate, real, personal or mixed, and is still insane, in either case it shall be 10 lawful for the court, upon petition filed for that purpose, to make an appoint-11 ment of a conservator upon the same judgment without further proceedings, and 12 exercise in respect thereto all the power contained in this act; and such conserva-

 14 conservators appointed thereunder: Provided, however, that in any county 15 wherein a probate court has been or may hereafter be established, upon the 16 filing in such court of the proper petition, together with the duly certified copy 17 of the record and the verdict of the jury, or the report of the commission of 18 physicians, and the judgment of the county court thereon, such probate court 19 may, in its discretion, without further inquest, by jury or commission of physi-20 cians, appoint such conservator; and every note, bill, bond or other contract by 21 any person adjudged insane under the provisions of this act, made after such per-22 son has been adjudged insane under this act, shall be void as against such lunatic 23 and his estate, but a person making any contract with such lunatic shall be bound 24 thereby.

Sec. 1361. JURISDICTION OF PERSONS NOT CHARGED WITH CRIME.] Jurisdiction 2 over the persons of insane persons not charged with crime is vested in the county 3 courts.

Sec. 1362. COURT TO KEEP RECORD.] Each county court shall keep a record 2 of insanity proceedings, in the form hereinafter in this act prescribed, in which 3 shall be made such entries as will, together with the papers filed, preserve a 4 perfect record of each proceeding. The original petitions, warrants and returns 5 made thereto, and findings or verdicts of commissioners or juries, shall be filed 6 with the clerk and a copy of the record, whether the person be found to be sane 7 or insane, shall in each case be furnished to the Charities Commission.

Sec. 1363. INSANE PERSON KEPT AT EXPENSE OF STATE.] All insane persons 2 admitted to any state hospital or asylum for the insane shall be maintained and 5 maintenance or treatment, shall be defrayed at their own expense, or that of the 6 county from which they were admitted.

Sec. 1364. COURT TO INQUIRE INTO PECUNIARY CONDITION OF PERSON CHARGED 2 WITH LUNACY.] It shall be the duty of the court at the time of each inquest in 3 lunacy to inquire into the pecuniary condition of the person alleged to be insane
 4 and that of the relatives who are bound by law to maintain him. Patients com-5 mitted to any state hospital or asylum for the insane shall be designated as pri-

 4 certified copy of the entries in the register and minute book pertaining to the 5 proceedings and shall deliver the same to the sheriff, or any suitable person, preferring some relative of the insane person when desired, and shall specify in the certificate that the same is delivered to the sheriff or other person for the execution of the order of the court. When necessary the clerk may also specify in the certificate that the sheriff or other person may employ one or more assistants: Provided, however, that no female patient shall be taken to the hospital or asylum by any person not her husband, father, brother or son, without the attendance of some other female of reputable character and of mature age. Upon receiving such certified copy the sheriff or other person shall convey the insane person to the hospital or asylum and shall deliver such insane person to the superintendent thereof, who, excepting as may be hereinafter otherwise provided, shall, without delay, admit such insane person as a patient in said hospital, and shall execute and deliver to such sheriff or other person a receipt therefor in the form hereinafter prescribed, which receipt shall be returned by such sheriff or other person to the clerk of the court to be filed with the other papers relating to the proceeding. The following forms of certificate of the clerk and receipt in this section provided for shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other certificates and receipts may be properly framed:

13 room for the patient recently adjudged insane: Provided, however, that, if a hos-14 pital or asylum for the chronic or incurable insane shall be established, such 15 chronic patient may be sent to such hospital or asylum for the chronic or incur-16 able insane; and provided further, that in case it shall not be found possible to 17 admit such patient to a state hospital or asylum for the insane the court where 18 such inquest is had may make such further order in the matter as may be requis-19 ite and lawful.

Sec. 1367. PRIVATE PATIENT NOT RECEIVED—EXCEPTION.] No private patient 2 shall be received into any state hospital or insane asylum for the insane, unless.
 3 at or before the time of his admission, there shall have been filed with the super-4 intendent a bond, with two good and sufficient sureties, approved by the county 5 judge, executed to the charities commission, and conditioned that the ob-6 ligors shall find the patient in suitable and sufficient clothing, while he may remain 7 in the institution, and properly pay for any articles of clothing furnished or other 8 necessary incidental expenses incurred by the institution on account of said pa-9 tient, and remove him when required by the commission; and in case of failure 10 upon the part of the commission to recover upon any bond as approved by the 11 county judge, the county shall become liable to the institution for the amount 12 due from the said obligors.

Sec. 1370. AUTHORITY TO DISCHARGE PATIENTS VESTED IN TRUSTEES.] Authority to discharge patients from either of the state institutions for the insane is vested in the charities commission who are authorized to delegate it to the superintendent, under such regulations as they may see fit to adopt. Discharges may be made for either of the following causes, namely: Because the person adjudged to be insane is not insane, or because he has recovered from the attack of insanity or because he has so far improved as to be capable of caring for himself, or because the friends of the patient request his discharge, and in the judgment of the superintendent no evil consequence is likely to follow such discharge, or because there is no prospect of further improvement under treatment, and the room occupied by an incurable and harmless patient is needed for the admission of others who are unsafe to be kept at large or probably curable. Authority is also vested in the commission to release the patients on parole for any term not exceeding three months; and, if not returned to the institution within that period, a new order of commitment from the county court shall be necessary in order to the readmission of any such paroled patient to the institution: Provided, that the court may make such order upon the old verdict, if satisfied that the patient in question is still insane. And no patient who has not recovered his reason or who is charged with crime shall be declared discharged until at least ten days after notice shall have been given to the county court having jurisdiction in the case, in order to enable the said court to make some proper order as to the disposition of the said patient, when so dis-

 26 the register and minute book pertaining to the proceeding shall be furnished to 27 the superintendent, and to the charities commission.

 6 institution are collected.

 2 shall be entitled to the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus, and the question of 3 insanity shall be decided at the hearing, and if the court shall decide that the 4 person is insane such decision shall be no bar to the issuing of the writ a second 5 time whenever it shall be alleged that such person has been restored to reason; 6 and if said person shall be adjudged sane, on presentation of a certified copy of 7 said judgment to the county court where the inquest was had, such court shall re-8 scind and set aside the judgment of insanity.

Sec. 1373. DISCHARGED—RECEIPT OF SUPERINTENDENT.] Whenever notice shall 2 have been given to any county court that any patient committed to any hospital 3 or asylum in this state, under the order of said court, has been discharged cured, 4 upon receipt of such notice signed by the superintendent the court shall enter an 5 order restoring the patient in question to all his rights as a citizen, and, if a con-6 servator of his estate shall have been appointed, the said conservator shall be re-7 moved. At any time, subsequent to the discharge of any patient, the county court 8 may hear evidence tending to show that said patient has been restored to reason 9 and, if satisfied of his recovery, may make and enter a similar order, and thereaf-10 ter the said patient shall not be liable to be again committed to any hospital or 11 asylum for the insane without a new inquest in his case.

Sec. 1374. ESCAPE.] If any patient shall escape from the hospital it shall be 2 the duty of any sheriff or officer of the peace in any county in which he may be 3 found to apprehend and detain him, and to report the same to the county court 4 of said county, who shall return him to the institution at the expense of the county 5 from which he was committed.

Sec. 1375. DEATH OF PATIENT—PROCEEDINGS.] In the event of a sudden or 2 mysterious death of any inmate of any public or private hospital or asylum for 3 the insane, a coroner's inquest shall be held, as provided by law in other cases, 4 notice of the death of a patient and the cause thereof shall, in all cases, be given 5 to the court having jurisdiction over such patient, and the fact of his death, with 6 the time, place and alleged cause, shall be entered upon the register and minute 7 book.

 8 both, at the discretion of the court in which such conviction is had.

Sec. 1377. COSTS OF PROCEEDINGS.] The costs of proceedings in inquests of 2 lunacy in case of county patients shall be defrayed from the county treasury; but 3 in case of private patients, if the person alleged to be insane is found to be insane, 4 they shall be paid by his guardian or conservator or relatives out of his estate, as 5 the court may direct. In all cases where the person alleged to be insane is found 6 not to be insane, the court may, in its discretion, require that the costs shall be 7 paid by the person who filed the petition provided for in this act and award

8 judgment against him therefor. The fees paid for jury service, attendance of 9 witnesses and execution of legal process shall be the same which are allowed by 10 law for similar services in other cases. For services as commissioner to make in-11 quests the sum of five dollars per day and the actual and necessary traveling 12 expenses shall be allowed and paid to each person so employed. But when any 13 person having a residence in this State shall be adjudged to be insane by the 14 county court of any county of which he is not a resident, the county court in the 15 county in which the said person resides shall be furnished with a transcript of 16 the record and finding in the case, and thereupon the said county shall become 17 liable for the cost of proceedings and for the cost of clothing, transportation 18 and other incidental expenses of such patient while in the institution. And when

Sec. 1425. OFFENSE ON COUNTY LINE.] Where an offense shall be committed 2 on a county line, or within one hundred rods of the same, it may be so alleged.
 3 and the trial may be in either county divided by such line; and where any offense 4 shall be committed against the person of another, and the person committing the

Sec. 1430. OFFENSE COMMITTED WITHOUT BUT CONSUMMATED WITHIN THE STATE.]

2 When the commission of an offense commenced without this state is consum-3 mated within this state the offender shall be liable to punishment therefor in this 4 state, though he was without the state at the time of the commission of the of-

5 fense charged, if he consummated the offense within this state through the inter-6 vention of any innocent or guilty agency, or any means proceeding directly or 7 indirectly from himself; and in such case he may be tried and punished in the 8 county where the offense was consummated.

Sec. 1431. OFFENSE COMMITTED ON RAILROAD CAR OR WATER CRAFT.] When any 2 offense is committed in or upon any railroad car passing over any railroad in 3 this state, or any water craft navigating any of the waters within this state, and 4 it cannot be readily determined in what county the offense was committed the of-5 fense may be charged to have been committed and the offender tried in any of the 6 counties through or along or into which such railroad car or water craft may 7 pass or come or can reasonably be determined to have been on or near the day 8 when the offense was committed.

Sec. 1432. GRAND JURY ABOLISHED.] The grand jury is hereby abolished in all 2 cases and hereafter all criminal actions prosecuted in courts of record shall be 3 prosecuted by information in the manner hereinafter provided.

Sec. 1433. INFORMATION TO BE IN WRITING—HOW FILED AND PROSECUTED.]
2 Every information shall be in writing and, when the offense specified therein is 3 punishable by death or confinement in the penitentiary, it shall, except as is 4 herein otherwise provided, be filed and prosecuted in the name of and shall be 5 signed by the Attorney General, or by the state's attorney of the county in which 6 the offense is alleged to have been committed, and, when the accused shall not 7 have been held or bound over in the manner provided by this act, or such infor-8 mation is not approved by a board of criminal investigation, or any ten or more 9 of them as hereinafter provided, it shall be verified by the oath of the Attorney 10 General, state's attorney or some other person; and, when the offense specified 11 therein is not punishable by death or confinement in the penitentiary, the infor-12 mation may be filed and prosecuted by and in the name either of the Attorney

13 General, the state's attorney of the county in which the offense is alleged to have 14 been committed, or of some other person; but when it is prosecuted by and in the 15 name of any person other than the Attorney General or the state's attorney, it 16 shall be verified by the affidavit of such person that the same is true or that the 17 same is true as he is informed and believes, and it shall only be filed after an 18 order granting leave therefor shall have been entered by the court having juris-19 diction of the offense and in which such information is proposed to be filed, and 20 such order shall not be entered unless such court is satisfied that there is prob-21 able cause for filing the same.

Sec. 1434. WHEN PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION NECESSARY—WAIVER OF EXAMINA-2 TION—FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE—SECOND PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.] No informa-3 tion in a case where the punishment may be death or confinement in the peniten-4 tiary shall be filed except where the accused has had a preliminary examination 5 as provided for in this act and such accused has been held or bound over to a 6 court of competent jurisdiction to answer the charge, unless such preliminary 7 examination is waived by the accused or his counsel, or the accused is a fugitive 8 from justice or not within the jurisdiction of the court having jurisdiction of the 9 offense alleged or charged against such accused person, or such information 10 shall have been approved by a board of criminal investigation, or any ten or 11 more of them, as hereinafter provided. In case any preliminary examination 12 has been had as herein provided and the person complained of or against has been 13 discharged for want of sufficient evidence to raise a probability of his guilt and 14 the state's attorney shall be of the opinion that he can produce sufficient evidence 15 to convict the person thus discharged, such state's attorney may, notwithstand-16 ing such discharge, cause another complaint to be made and thereupon the party 17 accused may again be arrested and examined touching the offense charged against 18 him: Provided, however, that when any such preliminary examination has been 19 held in a circuit court, or in the superior court of Cook county, or in the criminal

20 court of Cook county, no subsequent complaint shall be filed by the state's attor-21 ney, or by any other person, without leave of the court in which such examina-22 tion has been so held.

Sec. 1435. PROCEDURE AFTER PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.] When any accused 2 person has had a preliminary examination and has been held or bound over to a 3 court of competent jurisdiction to answer a criminal charge and such accused 4 person has not given or furnished bail and is in custody, the state's attorney 5 shall, within thirty days after such person has been so held or bound over to such 6 court to answer such charge, file in such court, or in some other court of com-7 petent jurisdiction, an information against such accused person and, if no infor-8 mation is filed within said period of thirty days, such accused person, being in cus-9 tody, shall be entitled to his liberty. If the state's attorney shall, upon examina-10 tion of the facts, be of the opinion that the person thus imprisoned ought not to 11 be further prosecuted and that no information should be filed, he shall forthwith 12 file with the clerk of the court to which such person is held or bound over a state-13 ment in writing that the person in custody is to be discharged, whereupon it shall 14 be the duty of such court to forthwith enter an order directed to the person hav-15 ing custody of the accused to set said accused at liberty. If any person accused of 16 any criminal offense has given bail the state's attorney shall, within thirty days 17 from the date of such accused person thus giving bail, file an information against 18 such accused person with the clerk of a court of competent jurisdiction. or, if 19 no such information be filed within that time, the state's attorney shall file a 20 statement in writing that the charge against the accused is dismissed and the court 21 shall thereupon enter an order of dismissal: Provided, however, that no dis-22 charge of any defendant or any dismissal of any proceeding as provided in this 23 section shall operate as a bar to a further prosecution; and provided, further, 24 that no state's attorney shall neglect or refuse to file such information in any 25 case in which the court in which the examination proceeding has been held has or-26 dered the filing of the same in the manner provided by this act.

Sec. 1436. REFUSAL OF STATE'S ATTORNEY TO FILE INFORMATION—POWER OF AT-

2 TORNEY GENERAL.] If, in any action, the state's attorney shall not file an infor-3 mation against an accused person who has been held or bound over for trial to a 4 court of competent jurisdiction as hereinbefore provided within thirty days after 5 such accused person has been so held or bound over, or shall neglect or refuse to 6 file an information against an accused person who is a fugitive from justice, the 7 Attorney General, if, upon examination of the facts in the case, he is of the opin-8 ion an information should be filed against such accused person, may, at any time 9 within thirty days after such neglect, refusal or failure of the state's attorney, file 10 such information in a court of competent jurisdiction and thereupon such infor-11 mation shall be prosecuted in like manner and with the same effect as if the same 12 had been filed by the state's attorney.

Sec. 1437. NOL PROS OF INFORMATION.] No information shall, upon motion or

2 request of the state's attorney, be nol prossed or dismissed, except with the con-3 sent of the court having jurisdiction of the subject-matter, and the court shall, 4 upon the allowance of such motion or request, order entered in the register and 5 minute book a minute of the reasons why such information is nol prossed or dis-6 missed.

Sec. 1438. INFORMATION NEED NOT RECITE PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.] It shall

2 be unnecessary in any information, when the offense therein specified is punish-3 able by death or confinement in the penitentiary, to recite that the defendant has 4 had a preliminary examination and been held or bound over, or that such prelim-5 inary examination has been waived, or that the defendant is a fugitive from jus-6 tice, or not within the jurisdiction of the court having jurisdiction of the offense 7 alleged or charged against him, or that the information has been approved by a 8 board of criminal investigation, or any ten or more of them, or any other fact, 9 the existence of which is made by this act necessary to justify the filing of such 10 information; but the existence of every such necessary fact shall be presumed 11 until the contrary is made to affirmatively appear upon a motion to quash such 12 information.

Sec. 1439. BOARD OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION—SELECTION—POWERS—DUTIES.]

2 There shall be in each county of this state a body to be known as the board of 3 criminal investigation, which shall consist of fifteen members who shall be se-4 lected from time to time in the manner now provided by law for the selection of 5 grand jurors, and who shall have all the powers and perform all the duties here-6 tofore possessed and performed by grand jurors, other than the finding and re-7 turn of presentments or indictments; but no board of criminal investigation 8 shall be selected or convened except as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 1440. BOARD OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION—WHEN AND HOW SUMMONED.]

2 When any court having jurisdiction to hear and determine criminal actions in 3 which the punishment may be death or confinement in the penitentiary shall be 4 of the opinion that, because of some great public emergency, or because the 5 public interest requires it, a board of criminal investigation should be convened, 6 or when the state's attorney or attorney general so requests, it shall be the 7 duty of such court to enter an order of record for the convening of such 8 board of criminal investigation and thereupon, within ten days from the 9 entry of such order, such board of criminal investigation shall be selected and 10 summoned in the same manner, as near as may be, as is now provided by law for 11 the selecting and summoning of grand jurors.

Sec. 1441. FAILURE OF MEMBER OF BOARD TO ATTEND—PENALTY.] Every per-

2 son who shall fail to attend, when lawfully summoned to appear as a member of 3 the board of criminal investigation as aforesaid, without having a reasonable ex-4 cuse, shall be considered as guilty of a criminal contempt of court and shall be 5 fined by the court before which he is summoned to appear in any sum not less 6 than five dollars ($5), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), for the use of 7 the county in which such court is held, unless good cause be shown for such de-8 fault; and it shall be the duty of the court to order a writ of attachment return-9 able forthwith against all such delinquents and upon the return thereof the court 10 shall proceed to assess said fine, unless the person or persons so attached shall 11 show good cause for such delinquency: Provided, however, that the oath or affir-12 mation of any such delinquent shall at all times be received as competent evi-13 dence.

Sec. 1442. COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS OF BOARD.] There shall be allowed 2 and paid to members of the board of criminal investigation, for their services in 3 attending court, each the sum of three dollars ($3) per day of necessary attend-4 ance at such court as members of such board of criminal investigation, and also 5 five (5) cents per mile each way for necessary travel in going to and returning 6 from the same to be paid out of the county treasury. The clerk of the court shall 7 furnish to each of such members of the board of criminal investigation aforesaid, 8 without fee, whenever he shall be discharged from further service by the court, 9 a certificate of the number of days' attendance upon such court as such member 10 of the board of criminal investigation, and, upon presentation thereof to the 11 county treasurer, he shall pay such member of the board of criminal investiga-12 tion the sum as above provided for his services.

Sec. 1443. NUMBER NECESSARY TO FILL PANEL OF BOARD AND NUMBER NECESSARY
 2 TO MAKE RECOMMENDATION.] A full panel of the board of criminal investigation 3 shall consist of fifteen, eleven of whom shall be sufficient to constitute such board 4 of criminal investigation, and the concurrence of ten of whom shall be necessary 5 to the recommendation or approval of any criminal prosecution as hereinafter 6 provided.

Sec. 1444. FOREMAN TO BE APPOINTED.] After the board of criminal investi-2 gation is impanelled it shall be the duty of the court to appoint a foreman who 3 shall have power to swear or affirm witnesses to testify before them.

Sec. 1445. OATH TO MEMBERS OF BOARD.] Before the board of criminal in-

2 vestigation shall enter upon the discharge of their duties the following oath (or 3 affirmation) shall be administered to them, to-wit:

4 You and each of you do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that 5 you will faithfully discharge the duties of members of the board of criminal in-6 vestigation of (here give name of county) county, Illinois, to the best of your 7 skill and understanding: so help you God.

Sec. 1446. PROCEDURE WHEN BOARD BELIEVE THERE SHOULD BE PROSECUTION.]

2 Whenever a board of criminal investigation, or any ten or more of them, shall be 3 satisfied from the evidence produced before them that any person or persons 4 ought to be prosecuted for any criminal offense, they shall so inform the state's 5 attorney of the county in which the said board of criminal investigation is con-6 vened and it shall thereupon become the duty of such state's attorney to pre-7 pare an information against such person or persons for such criminal offense, 8 and, upon such information being so prepared, such board of criminal investiga-9 tion, or any ten or more of them, shall make and sign at the foot thereof or 10 endorse thereon their approval thereof in substantially the following form:

11 We, the undersigned, duly impanelled and sworn as members of the board 12 of criminal investigation of the county of (or the city of 13 in the county of) in the State of Illinois, do hereby this 14 day of 19. upon our oaths approve of the foregoing informa-
15 tion.

Sec. 1447. PROCEDURE WHEN STATE'S ATTORNEY INTERESTED, ETC.] In case

2 the state's attorney shall be interested in, or disqualified or unwilling to prose-3 cute, any criminal action which may come before the board of criminal investiga-4 tion, the same may be prosecuted by the Attorney General, or the court may ap-5 point some attorney at law to act as state's attorney to prepare, sign and prose-6 cute any information, the prosecution of which is recommended or approved by 7 such board of criminal investigation, and such attorney so appointed shall 8 thereupon prosecute such information and shall be paid for his services in that 9 behalf out of the county treasury in such sum as such judge may order and 10 direct.

Sec. 1448. FORCE AND EFFECT OF INFORMATION APPROVED BY BOARD.] An in-2 formation approved by the board of criminal investigation shall be presented 3 to the court and, if the court so orders, the same shall be filed with the clerk 4 of the court in which the same is to be prosecuted and shall thereupon have the 5 same force and effect and shall be prosecuted in the same manner as an infor-6 mation filed in a case where the accused has had a preliminary examination, as 7 provided in this act, and has been held or bound over to the court of competent 8 jurisdiction to answer the charge therein set forth: Provided, however, that if, 9 in the opinion of the state's attorney or Attorney General, such information can- 10 not be successfully prosecuted, or for any good and sufficient reason ought not 11 to be prosecuted, the state's attorney or Attorney General, as the case may be, 12 may, with the approval of the court, refuse to prosecute the same, or the court, 13 upon presentation of such information, may, if in its opinion, the same ought 14 not to be filed, refuse leave to file the same.

Sec. 1449. TESTIMONY TO BE TAKEN DOWN—DEFENDANT TO HAVE RIGHT OF IN-2 SPECTION.] Whenever any criminal case is investigated by any board of criminal 3 investigation the testimony of all witnesses heard by them, when practicable, 4 shall be taken down in full upon a typewriter or in shorthand, and, in case any 5 such information shall be filed as the result of such investigation, a transcript 6 of such testimony shall be delivered to the judge presiding at the trial, one 7 carbon copy thereof to the state's attorney and the remaining carbon copy thereof 8 to the attorney of the defendant upon the entry of his appearance as such 9 attorney. In case it shall be impracticable to take down such testimony in full 10 upon a typewriter or in shorthand, the substance thereof shall be taken down

11 in longhand and copies thereof shall, as early in advance of the trial as may be 12 practicable, be delivered to the presiding judge, the state's attorney and the 13 defendant.

Sec. 1450. REQUISITES OF INFORMATION—FORM.] Every information shall 2 set forth and state the facts constituting the offense charged, and it shall be 3 deemed sufficient if such facts are so stated as to enable the court to determine 4 what is intended to be charged thereby and to that end it shall be liberally con-5 strued in favor of the people. It shall not be necessary in any information to 6 use the words "to-wit" or "then and there," but without the use of the 7 words "to-wit" allegations as to time or place or amount need not be proven 8 precisely as alleged, if such allegations, when preceded by the words "to-wit" 9 would not be required to be proven precisely as alleged, and without the words 10 "then and there" every act or fact alleged shall be deemed to be alleged as hav-11 ing occurred or existed at the time and place alleged in the information as the 12 time and place of the commission of the offense, unless the contrary shall affirm-13 atively appear from the information. Nor shall it be necessary in any informa-14 tion that any allegation intended as an allegation of the year of any act or occur-15 rence shall be preceded by the words "in the year of our Lord" or the abbrevia-16 tion "A. D." or any similar words or abbreviations, but every allegation appar-17 ently intended as an allegation as to the year of a transaction or occurrence shall 18 be presumed to be intended as an allegation that the same was had or occurred in 19 the year specified of our Lord. The words "contrary to the form of the statute 20 in such case made and provided" shall hereafter be omitted from every informa-21 tion or complaint in a criminal action, and the same shall be as valid and effec-22 tual as if those words were contained therein.

Sec. 1451. STRUCTURE OF INFORMATION.] Every information shall contain 2 first, an introduction, second, a description of the offense, and third, a conclu-3 sion, and shall be signed as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 1452. INTRODUCTION OF INFORMATION—FORMS.] The introduction of an information shall specify the court in which the same is filed, the names of the parties and the number and classification of the action, and shall recite that the officer, giving his name and his office, or the other person, giving his name, in the name and by the authority of the People of the State of Illinois, gives the court to understand and be informed, and shall be thereafter followed by the description of the offense. The following shall be deemed sufficient forms of introductions to informations and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other forms of introductions may be properly framed:

 Sec. 1453. DESCRIPTION OF OFFENSE—FORMS.] The description of the offense 2 in an information shall describe the offense committed either in the language of 3 the statute or language substantially equivalent thereto, if the same be an 4 offense created by statute, or in language sufficient to express the facts con-5 stituting the same, if the same be an offense at common law, or it may describe 6 the same in an abbreviated form as hereinafter provided for; and it shall also 7 name the person charged with the commission thereof and specify the date when, 8 and the county and state in which, the same was committed. The following shall 9 be deemed sufficient forms of descriptions of offenses in informations, when the 10 same are not abbreviated as hereinafter provided for, and shall be taken as 12 may be properly framed:

 2 Hereafter it shall not be necessary in any information for the crime of murder 3 or manslaughter to specify the form or means by which the death of the person 4 murdered was occasioned. The description of the offense in an information for 5 murder may be set forth in an information in an abbreviated form, which shall 6 express the crime by the name given thereto by law, the name of the person com-7 mitting the crime, the name of the person murdered and the day on which and 8 the county in which the crime was committed. The following shall be deemed a 9 sufficient abbreviated form of the description of the offense of murder in an in-13 State of Illinois, did murder John Doe.

14 Such description of the offense in an information shall be taken and con-

 17 and murder John Doe.

Sec. 1456. INFORMATION FOR LARCENY—ABBREVIATED FORMS.] The description

 8 If the burglarious entry were made in the night-time, and that fact be material, 9 it shall be so alleged, and if, at the time of committing the offense, the defendant 10 was found with any deadly weapon, deadly drug, or anæsthetic upon his person 11 or in his possession and that fact be material, it shall be so alleged. The follow-12 ing shall be deemed sufficient abbreviated forms of the description of the offense 13 of burglary and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other de-14 scriptions of the offense in informations may be properly framed:

Sec. 1458. DUTY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL TO PREPARE FORMS—APPROVAL OF

JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT—PUBLICATION.] It shall be the duty of the Attorney General, as soon after the taking effect of this act as may be practicable, to prepare, or cause to be prepared, abbreviated forms of informations in all criminal actions in which the descriptions of offenses may be conveniently ab-

6 breviated. Such abbreviated forms shall be modeled after those set forth in 7 the preceding sections and shall be accompanied by statements of the meaning 8 and effect thereof, and the same shall be submitted to the judges of the supreme 9 court for their examination and approval in writing. In case such forms, or 10 any of them, shall be approved by said judges or by a majority of them, the 11 Attorney General shall deliver the same with the approval of said judges to 12 the Secretary of State, who shall publish and distribute the same in printed 13 form, free of charge, to all the persons and institutions to which the Illinois 14 Reports New Series are required to be distributed, and from and after their 15 publication as aforesaid such forms shall be received and accepted in all courts 16 in this State as good and sufficient forms of descriptions of offenses in informa-17 tions.

Sec. 1459. WHEN NAME OF PROSECUTOR TO BE ENDORSED—MALICIOUS PROSECU-
 2 TION.] No information for false imprisonment or wilful and malicious mischief 3 shall be filed unless a prosecutor is endorsed thereon with his consent, or the 4 same be filed upon the information of some public officer in the necessary dis-5 charge of his duty, in which case there shall be an endorsement thereon showing 6 how the same is found, and then no prosecutor shall be required; but in a case 7 where a prosecutor is endorsed on the information and the defendant shall be 8 acquitted on trial the petit jury acquitting such defendant shall find, in addition 9 to the verdict of "not guilty," whether the prosecutor had acted maliciously by 10 instituting the prosecution or not; and whenever the petit jury shall return, 11 with a verdict of "not guilty," that the prosecutor had acted maliciously in 12 the premises, the court shall enter judgment for costs against the prosecutor, in-13 cluding a fee of ten dollars ($10) to the Attorney General or State's attorney, 14 and the same shall be collected by execution as in civil cases: Provided, how- 15 ever, that nothing herein contained shall render the prosecutor incompetent to 16 be a witness before a petit jury.

Sec. 1460. INSTRUMENT DESTROYED.] When an instrument, which is a subject of an information, has been destroyed or withheld, by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of such destruction or withholding is alleged in the information and established on trial, the accused shall not be acquitted on account of any mis-description of the instrument so withheld or destroyed.

Sec. 1461. FIXING AMOUNT OF BAIL.] When an information is filed without leave of court, or leave is given by the court to file the same, the court shall make an order fixing the amount of bail to be required of the accused, and the amount so fixed shall be indorsed upon the information.

Sec. 1462. BAILABLE OFFENSES.] All persons shall be bailable before conviction, except for capital offenses where the proof is evident or the presumption great.

Sec. 1463. HOW AMOUNT OF BAIL DETERMINED.] In a case in which the punishment provided by law is a fine only, the amount of the bail to be required of the defendant shall in no case be more than twenty per cent. in excess of the amount of the maximum fine so provided. In case the punishment is imprisonment in the county jail, a work-house or a house of correction without a fine in addition thereto, the amount of bail to be required of the defendant shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each month of the maximum imprisonment so provided. In case the punishment is both imprisonment in the county jail, the work-house or a house of correction and a fine, the amount of such bail shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each month or fractional month of such maximum imprisonment, and in addition thereto a sum not more than ten per cent. in excess of the maximum fine therein provided. In case the punishment may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, the amount of such bail shall be such sum as, in the opinion of the court, will insure the appearance of the defendant in accordance with the terms of the recognizance: Provided, however, that

16 excessive bail shall not be required and that the same shall in no case exceed 17 twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), and that when several informations 18 against the same defendant are pending in the same court at the same time, the 19 total bail required in all of said informations shall not exceed fifty thousand 20 dollars ($50,000).

Sec. 1464. DEPOSIT IN LIEU OF BAIL—FORM.] In lieu of giving bail the de-2 fendant shall, if he so elect, be permitted to deposit with the clerk of the court 3 in which the information is filed a sum in cash as security that he will personally 4 be and appear before the court in which the information is filed from day to 5 day thereafter until the final sentence or order of the court, and abide the order 6 of the court in all things and not depart the same without leave. In case the 7 punishment of the offense is a fine only, the amount of the deposit so to be re-8 quired of the defendant shall in no case be more than fifty per cent. of the 9 maximum fine provided by law. In case the punishment is imprisonment in 10 the county jail, a work-house or a house of correction without a fine in addition 11 thereto, the amount of such deposit required of the defendant shall not exceed 12 seventy-five dollars ($75) for each month of the maximum imprisonment pro-13 vided by law. In case the punishment is both imprisonment in the county jail, 14 a work-house or a house of correction and a fine, the amount of such deposit to 15 be required of the defendant shall not exceed seventy-five dollars ($75) for each 16 month of such maximum imprisonment and a further sum of not more than 17 fifty per cent. of the amount of the maximum fine. When the punishment may 18 be confinement in the penitentiary, the amount of such deposit shall be a sum 19 equal to eighty per cent. of the amount of the bail fixed by the court. Such 20 cash deposit may be declared forfeited by the court in like manner as a recogni-21 zance, and when so forfeited the same shall be paid into the county treasury.
22 When such cash deposit is made the clerk shall make and deliver to the defend-23 ant a certificate thereof, which certificate may be in substantially the following 24 form:

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

26 The People of the 27 State of Illinois } Criminal. No. 47.
 v.
 28 Richard Roe. }

CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT.

30 This is to certify that Richard Roe, the defendant in the above entitled ac-31 tion, has this day deposited with the undersigned, as clerk of the criminal court 32 of Cook county, Illinois, the sum of five hundred dollars ($500), which deposit 33 is made as security that said Richard Roe shall personally be and appear 34 before said criminal court of Cook county, Illinois, at the criminal court building 35 in Chicago, in said county, on the 17th day of February, 1908, and from day to 36 day thereafter until the final sentence or judgment of the court in said action, 37 and abide the order of the court in all things and not depart the same without 38 leave.

Sec. 1465. WHEN DEFENDANT RELEASED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE.] If, in 2 any case in which the punishment is not death or imprisonment in the peniten-3 tiary, it shall appear that the defendant is the head of a family residing with the 4 same in the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed and 5 that such defendant is a poor person who is not able to give bail, it shall be 6 the duty of the court to accept of such defendant, in lieu of bail, his own recog-7 nizance; or when, in any case in which the punishment is not death or confine-8 ment in the penitentiary, the defendant has a known place of residence in the 9 county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed, and it appears 10 probable to the court that the defendant, if released upon his own recognizance, 11 will appear at such time or times as may be required by the court, it shall be 12 the duty of the court to accept of such defendant, in lieu of bail, his own recog-
 13 nizance. Any defendant who, when released upon his own recognizance as afore-

14 said, shall fail to appear before the court at the time or times required by such 15 recognizance, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction 16 thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), 17 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding six months: Provided, 18 however, that no defendant shall be punished as aforesaid when his failure to 19 appear is for a cause which would authorize the court to set aside a forfeiture 20 of his recognizance. But no defendant shall be released upon his own recog-21 nizance under this section when, at the time of his arrest, he shall be in a state 22 of intoxication, or when his release may, in the judgment of the court or officer, 23 result in a breach of the peace.

Sec. 1466. WARRANT—FORM.] The clerk of the court in which the informa-
 2 tion is filed shall immediately issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person 3 therein accused directed to the sheriff of the county where such person then is 4 or is supposed to be, and, when deemed necessary, warrants may issue to dif-5 ferent counties at the same time or any number of warrants may be issued to the 6 sheriff of the county in which the information is filed. Any warrant so issued 7 may be executed by the sheriff, coroner or any constable of the county in which 8 the same is issued or by the bailiff or deputy bailiff of any municipal court in the 9 county in which the same is issued. Such warrant may be in substantially the 10 following form:

17 The People of the State of Illinois - GREETING to the sheriff of Cook county:

18 We hereby command you that you take the body of Richard Roe, if he shall 19 be found in your county, and him safely keep so that you may have his body

20 instanter before the criminal court of Cook county, at the criminal court building 21 in Chicago, in said county, to answer unto the People of the State of Illinois 22 for and concerning the crime of larceny with which the said Richard Roe 23 stands charged in our said court as by a certain information preferred against 24 him and filed in said court in that behalf appears.

criminal court and the seal thereof at 27 Chicago, Illinois, this 10th day of Feb-28 ruary, 1908.

29 JOHN SMITH, Clerk.

Sec. 1467. AMOUNT OF BAIL INDORSED ON WARRANT.] When the offense is 2 bailable the clerk shall indorse on the warrant the amount of the recognizance 3 or cash bail required by the order of the court and, if the court orders the war-4 rant returnable forthwith, the warrant shall require the accused to be arrested 5 and brought immediately into court.

Sec. 1468. SERVICE AND RETURN OF WARRANT—BAIL.] The sheriff or other 2 officer shall arrest the person named in the warrant, and, if the offense is bailable 3 and the writ is not returnable forthwith, let him to bail if sufficient bail is 4 offered, or, if the offense is not bailable or sufficient bail is not offered, take his 5 body to the jail of the county where the warrant is returnable and deliver him, 6 together with the warrant, to the keeper of the jail there to remain until the 7 time specified in the warrant for his bringing into court, at which time the officer 8 making the arrest, or some other officer competent to act, shall bring him before 9 the court: Provided, however, that if, after the delivery of the person arrested 10 to the keeper of the jail, he shall offer sufficient bail, the officer shall accept 11 the same and the person arrested shall be released from custody. If the warrant 12 is returnable forthwith, the accused shall be immediately brought into court, 13 when he shall either be committed, bailed or tried as the court may direct; but if 14 the court shall not be in session when the officer makes the arrest so that the 15 accused may be let to bail in open court, such officer may let him to bail condi-16 tioned for his appearance at the time when the court will be in session, if suf-17 ficient bail is offered. The sheriff or other officer taking such bail, when a 18 recognizance is taken, shall be authorized and required to administer oaths for 19 the purpose of ascertaining the sufficiency of the bail offered.

Sec. 1469. PASSING THROUGH OTHER COUNTIES.] The officer having the cus-2 tody of any prisoner may pass through any counties which lie in his route 3 between the places of arrest and the county to which he is taking the prisoner 4 and may lodge the prisoner in any jail on his route for safe custody for one night 5 or more as occasion may require.

Sec. 1470. COSTS.] The county where the information is found shall pay 2 to the officer his reasonable charges for his services in bringing an offender from 3 another county.

Sec. 1471. LETTING TO BAIL—FORM OF RECOGNIZANCE.] The method by which 2 the officer making the arrest shall let the accused to bail shall be by the accept-3 ance from the accused, or from any person for him, of the amount of cash bail 4 required and the execution in duplicate of a certificate of deposit in substantially 5 the form provided for in section fourteen hundred sixty-four (1464) of this act, 6 or by the accused entering into a recognizance, in the form required by law, in 7 the amount specified in the warrant, with one or more sufficient sureties to be 8 approved by the officer. When cash bail is accepted by the officer one copy of 9 the certificate of deposit above provided for shall be delivered to the defendant 10 and the other copy thereof, together with the cash received as bail and the 11 warrant, shall be immediately delivered to the clerk of the court in which the 12 action is pending, who shall execute and deliver to the officer a receipt for the cash 13 so delivered. When a recognizance is taken the officer shall return the same.

14 together with the warrant, into the court out of which such warrant has been 15 issued and the same shall be filed by the clerk. Such recognizance may be in 16 substantially the following form:

17 IN THE CRIMINAL COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

18	The People of the	} Criminal. No. 50.
19	State of Illinois
20	v.
21	Richard Roe.

22 RECOGNIZANCE.

23 This day personally appeared before the undersigned, sheriff of Cook 24 county, Illinois, Richard Roe, as principal, and Thomas Jones and William 25 Smith, as sureties, and jointly and severally acknowledged themselves to owe 26 and to be indebted unto the People of the State of Illinois in the penal sum of 27 one thousand dollars ($1,000) to be levied of their goods and chattels, lands and 28 tenements, respectively, in such manner as the law directs.

29 The condition of this recognizance is such that if the above bounden Richard 30 Roe shall personally be and appear before the criminal court of Cook county, at 31 the criminal court building in Chicago, in said county, on the 24th day of Febru-32 ary, 1908, and from day to day thereafter until the final sentence or order of said 33 court in the above entitled criminal action therein pending against him, and abide 34 the order of said court in all things and not depart the same without leave, then 35 this recognizance is to be void; otherwise the same is to be and remain in full 36 force and virtue.

37 Witness our hands and seals at Chicago, Illinois, this 17th day of February, 38 1908.

40 THOMAS JONES, [SEAL.]

41 WILLIAM SMITH, [SEAL.]

42 Taken, acknowledged and entered into before me this 17th day of February, 43 1908.

44 CHARLES BROWN, Sheriff.

Sec. 1472. COPY OF INFORMATION—LIST OF JURORS AND WITNESSES.] Every

2 person charged with treason, murder or other felonious crime shall be furnished, 3 previous to his arraignment, with a copy of the information and a list of the 4 jurors and witnesses; in all other cases he shall, at his request or the request of 5 his attorney, be furnished with a copy of the information and a list of the jurors 6 and witnesses.

Sec. 1473. ATTORNEY ASSIGNED TO DEFEND — COMPENSATION FROM COUNTY—

2 PUNISHMENT FOR RECEIVING OTHER COMPENSATION.] Every person charged with 3 crime shall be allowed an attorney, and when he shall state upon oath that he is 4 unable to procure an attorney, the court shall assign him a competent attorney 5 who shall conduct his defense. In all cases the attorney shall have access to per-6 sons confined and shall have the right to see and consult such persons in private.
 7 An attorney assigned to conduct the defense of an accused person, as provided in 8 this section shall be allowed a just compensation for his services to be fixed by the 9 court and payable out of the county treasury of the county in which the action is 10 commenced, upon the certificate of the presiding judge, such compensation, how-11 ever, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day or fraction 12 thereof, of work performed by such attorney in and about such defense. Before 13 any attorney shall receive such compensation he shall make and file with the clerk 14 of the court, as a part of the files of the action, an affidavit that he has not re-15 ceived and that he will not receive, either directly or indirectly, any compensa-16 tion of any kind or character from the accused person or from any other person 17 or persons, corporation or corporations, on account of such defense. If any such 18 attorney shall receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation for his services in 19 and about any such defense, whether from the accused person or from any other 20 person or persons, corporation or corporations, it shall be deemed sufficient cause 21 for striking his name from the roll of attorneys of this state.

Sec. 1474. ARRAIGNMENT--PLEA.] Upon the arraignment of a prisoner it shall 2 be sufficient, without complying with any other form, for him to declare orally by 3 himself or his attorney that he is not guilty, which plea shall be immediately en-4 tered upon the register and minute book of the court by the clerk and the same 5 shall constitute the issue between the people of the state and the prisoner. It shall 6 be unnecessary for the clerk to enter upon the register and minute book that the 7 defendant appeared or was present at such arraignment, or at any other proceed-8 ing had by the court in the action, other than the entry of the judgment of sen-9 tence by the court in case of the defendant's conviction, but the presence of the 10 defendant at each and every proceeding in the action shall be conclusively pre-11 sumed, unless the absence of the defendant at any such proceeding shall be recited 12 in a report of the proceedings settled and signed by the judge in the manner pre-13 scribed by this act.

Sec. 1475. PLEA OF GUILTY EXPLAINED--EVIDENCE TO BE HEARD WHEN.] In 2 cases where the party pleads "guilty," such plea shall not be entered until the 3 court shall have fully explained to the accused the consequences of entering such 4 plea; after which, if the party persists in pleading "guilty" such plea shall be 5 received and recorded and the court shall proceed to render judgment and execu-6 tion thereon, as if he had been found guilty by a jury. In all cases where the 7 court possesses any discretion as to the extent of the punishment, it shall be the 8 duty of the court to examine witnesses as to the aggravation and mitigation of 9 the offense. But it shall be unnecessary that the register and minute book, or any 10 other record book of the court, show the compliance with the provisions of this 11 section, but such compliance shall be presumed in all cases unless the contrary 12 shall affirmatively appear from the report of the proceedings settled and signed 13 by the judge in the manner prescribed by this act.

Sec. 1476. STANDING MUTE.] In all cases where the party on being arraigned 2 obstinately stands mute or refuses to plead, the court shall order the plea of 3 “not guilty” to be entered in the register and minute book and the trial, judg-4 ment and execution shall proceed in the same manner as it would have done if 5 the party had pleaded “not guilty.”

Sec. 1477. DISQUALIFICATION REMOVED.] No person shall be disqualified as a 2 witness in any criminal action or proceeding by reason of his interest in the 3 event of the same as a party or otherwise, or by reason of his having been con-4 victed of any crime; but such interest or conviction may be shown for the pur-5 pose of affecting his credibility: Provided, however, that a defendant in any 6 criminal action or proceeding shall only at his own request be deemed a compe-7 tent witness and his neglect to testify shall not create any presumption against 8 him, nor shall the court permit any reference or comment to be made to or 9 upon such neglect.

Sec. 1478. SUBPOENAS.] It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to issue
 2 subpoenas either on the part of the plaintiff or of the accused. Every witness 3 who shall be duly subpoenaed and shall neglect or refuse to attend any court pur-4 suant to the requisition of such subpoena shall be proceeded against and pun-5 ished for contempt of the court. Attachments against witnesses who live in a 6 different county from that where such subpoena is returnable may be served in 7 the same manner as warrants may be served out of the county from which they 8 issue. A subpoena may be served by any person who, by the terms of this act, is 9 authorized to serve a summons in any action at law. Any officer authorized to 10 serve a summons shall serve a subpoena in a criminal action when requested to 11 do so either by the state’s attorney or by the defendant, without requiring pay-12 ment therefor of his fees in advance.

Sec. 1479. MODE OF PROCEDURE IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS—TRANSCRIPT OF TESTI-
 2 MONY.] The method of procedure in criminal actions, so far as the same is not 3 expressly prescribed by this act, shall be such as may be provided for by rules to 4 be adopted by the supreme court, or, in the absence of such rules, such as has 5 heretofore prevailed. So far as may be practicable, the testimony intro-6 duced upon the trial of every criminal action shall be taken down steno-7 graphically, and, in any case in which the punishment may be death or impris-8 onment in the penitentiary, the same shall be written out in full from the steno-9 graphic notes thereof as promptly as may be conveniently done and the tran-10 script thereof, from time to time as so written out, shall be delivered to the pre-11 siding judge, one carbon copy to the state's attorney and one carbon copy to the 12 defendant. In case of the conviction of the defendant the copy delivered to the 13 presiding judge may be used by the defendant for the purpose of preparing a re-14 port of the proceedings to be settled and signed by the judge. In every criminal 15 action in which testimony is taken down stenographically and transcribed for 16 the use and convenience of the state's attorney, the transcript thereof shall be 17 furnished to the presiding judge, one carbon copy to the state's attorney and 18 one carbon copy to the defendant as promptly as the same is so transcribed. In 19 case of the conviction of the defendant in any case provided for by this section, 20 the fees for taking down the testimony and transcribing the same, as fixed by 21 this act, shall be taxed as costs against him. In any case in which the punishment 22 is not death or confinement in the penitentiary and the testimony is taken down 23 stenographically, the defendant, after the entry of a judgment of conviction, and 24 upon the suing out of a writ of error to reverse such judgment, shall, if the testi-25 mony shall not have already been transcribed, be entitled to a transcript of the 26 same, together with a carbon copy thereof, without payment in advance, to be 27 used by him in the prosecution of such writ of error, and, in case of the affirm-28 ance of the judgment, or the dismissal of the writ of error, the fees for taking 29 down the testimony and transcribing the same shall be taxed against him.

Sec. 1480. AFFIDAVIT FOR CONTINUANCE—WHEN DISCRETIONARY WITH COURT TO 2 REFUSE.] When affidavit is made for a continuance or postponement in behalf of 3 the people or any defendant in a criminal action on the ground of the absence of 4 a material witness, the state's attorney or the defendant, as the case may be, 5 shall not be required to admit the absolute truth of the matter set up in the af-6 fidavit for continuance, but only that such absent witness, if present, would testify 7 as alleged in the affidavit; and, if it is so admitted, no continuance or postponement 8 shall be granted, but the case shall go to trial and the party admitting the same 9 shall be permitted to controvert the statement contained in such affidavit by other 10 evidence, or to impeach such absent witness, the same as if he had testified in per-11 son: Provided, however, that the court may, in its discretion, require the op-12 posite party to admit the truth absolutely of any such affidavit when, from the 13 nature of the case, the court may be of opinion that the interests of justice 14 require it; and provided further, that this act shall not apply to an application 15 for a continuance made within thirty days after the filing of the information.

Sec. 1481. CERTAIN PRIVILEGES ABOLISHED.] The benefit of clergy, appeals of 2 felony, and trials by battle are forever abolished.

Sec. 1482. TRIAL DE MEDIATATE LINGUA.] In no case shall the right to a trial 2 by jury de mediatate lingua be allowed in criminal prosecutions.

Sec. 1483. CONSCIENTIOUS SCRUPLES OF JURY AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN 2 TRIALS FOR MURDER.] It shall be a cause for challenge for any juror who shall, 3 upon being examined, state that he has conscientious scruples against capital 4 punishment, or that he is opposed to the same.

Sec. 1484. PROLONGING TRIAL BEYOND TERM OF COURT.] The court in which 2 a trial for a criminal offense is pending may continue the trial thereof until the 3 verdict is rendered and judgment entered, notwithstanding the term of court dur-4 ing which the trial has commenced shall terminate prior to the rendition of the 5 verdict.

Sec. 1485. DISCHARGE FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION.] Any person committed for 2 a criminal or supposed criminal offense and not admitted to bail and not tried at 3 some term of the court having jurisdiction of the offense commencing within four 4 months of the date of commitment, or, if there is no term commencing within that 5 time, then at or before the first term commencing after said four months, shall be 6 set at liberty by the court, unless the delay shall happen on the application of the 7 prisoner, or unless the court is satisfied that due exertion has been made to pro-8 cure the evidence on the part of the people and that there is reasonable ground to 9 believe that such evidence may be procured at the next term, in which case the 10 court may continue the action to the next term. If any such person shall have 11 been admitted to bail for an alleged offense other than a capital offense, he shall 12 be entitled, on demand, to be tried at some term commencing within four months 13 after he has been admitted to bail, if there is a term of court within that time at 14 which he may be tried; if not, then at the first term after the expiration of the 15 said four months: Provided, however, that if the court shall be satisfied that due 16 exertions have been made to procure the evidence on behalf of the people and that 17 there is reasonable ground to believe such evidence may be procured at the next 18 term or at some term to commence within seventy days thereafter the court may 19 continue the cause to such term.

Sec. 1486. MANNER AND PLACE OF INFLECTING DEATH PENALTY.] Whenever any 2 person shall be sentenced to death the manner of inflicting such punishment shall 3 be by hanging by the neck until dead the person sentenced and such punishment 4 shall be inflicted within the walls of the prison of the county in which such convic-5 tion shall have taken place or within a yard or inclosure adjoining such prison.

Sec. 1487. DUTY OF SHERIFF AT EXECUTION.] It shall be the duty of the sheriff 2 or some deputy sheriff of the county to be present at such execution, and, by at 3 least three days' previous notice, to invite the presence of the judges, prosecuting 4 attorney and clerks of the courts of said county, together with two physicians and 5 twelve reputable citizens to be selected by said sheriff or his deputy, and the said 6 sheriff or deputy shall, at the request of the defendant, permit such ministers of 7 the gospel, not exceeding three, as said defendant shall name, and any of the imme-8 diate relatives of said defendant to be present at said execution, and also such of-9 ficers of the prison, deputies and constables as shall, by said sheriff or deputy, be 10 deemed expedient to have present; but no other persons than those herein men-11 tioned shall be permitted to be present at such execution, nor shall any person, 12 not a relative of the defendant, under the age of twenty-one years be allowed to 13 witness the same.

Sec. 1488. CERTIFICATE OF EXECUTION.] The sheriff or his deputy or the 2 judges attending such execution shall prepare and sign officially a certificate set-

 4 executed in conformity to the sentence of the court and the provisions of this act; 5 and shall procure to said certificate the signatures of the other public officers and 6 persons not relatives of the defendant who witnessed such execution; which cer-7 tificate shall be filed with the clerk of the court where conviction of such de-8 fendant was had.

Sec. 1489. DISPOSITION OF BODY.] The court may order, on the application 2 of any respectable surgeon or surgeons, that the body of the defendant shall, 3 after death, be delivered to such surgeon or surgeons for dissection, unless the 4 same be objected to by some relative of the convicted.

Sec. 1490. PENALTIES DETERMINED BY JURY—PENITENTIARY.] In all cases 2 where the punishment shall be confinement in the penitentiary, if the case is tried 3 by jury, the jury shall render their verdict and the court shall pronounce sen-4 tence in such manner and form as may be required by the laws in force from 5 time to time regulating the rendering of such verdict and the pronouncing of 6 such judgment in such case, or, in the absence of any such law or laws, the 7 jury shall say in their verdict for what time the offender shall be confined 8 and the court in pronouncing sentence shall designate what portion of 9 time the defendant shall be confined to solitary imprisonment and what portion 10 to hard labor.

Sec. 1491. WHEN FINES FIXED BY JURY.] When a fine is also to be inflicted the 2 jury shall fix the amount thereof. When either a fine or imprisonment in the peni-3 tentiary may be inflicted, the jury shall determine which and the time of confine-4 ment or the amount of the fine.

Sec. 1492. FORMS OF VERDICT.] When the information contains a single count, 2 or when there are several counts which are not intended to charge separate and 3 distinct offenses but are intended as charges, in different forms, of the same of-4 fense, and the jury are not authorized to fix the punishment, it shall be sufficient 5 for the jury in their verdict, if they find the defendant guilty, to say "We, the 6 jury, find the defendant guilty," and such verdict shall be construed to mean that 7 jury find the defendant guilty in manner and form as charged in the information.
 8 The jury may also, in any such case, pronounce their verdict by their foreman 9 orally in open court and if, when inquired of in open court as to their verdict, 10 their foreman shall reply "guilty," such reply shall be construed to mean that the 11 jury find the defendant guilty in manner and form as charged in the informa-12 tion. When the information contains several counts which are intended to 13 charge separate and distinct offenses, and the jury are not authorized to fix the 14 punishment, it shall be sufficient for the jury in their verdict, if they find the de-15 fendant guilty as charged in each and every count of the information, to say 16 "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty," or for their foreman to announce 17 orally as above provided a verdict of guilty; and if the jury find the defendant 18 guilty as to one or more counts of the information and not guilty as to the re-19 maining counts thereof, it shall be sufficient for the jury in their verdict to say 20 "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as to the (here insert the number or num-21 bers of the count or counts as to which the jury find the defendant guilty) count 22 (or counts, as the case may be,) and not guilty as to the remaining counts." If 23 the jury find the defendant not guilty as to all the counts of an information it shall 24 be sufficient for them in their verdict to say "We, the jury, find the defendant not 25 guilty," or for their foreman to announce orally, as above provided, a verdict of 26 not guilty. In a case in which the jury find the defendant guilty and are author-27 ized or required to fix the punishment, they shall add to their finding, if the same 28 be in writing, that the defendant is guilty the words "and we fix the punishment 29 at (here insert punishment as fixed)," or if the verdict be oral their foreman 30 shall announce the punishment as fixed by the jury. Any form of verdict shall be 31 deemed sufficient if the court is able to understand therefrom, or to ascertain by 32 inquiry of the jury at the time of the rendition of the verdict, what verdict they 33 intend to render.

Sec. 1493. PENALTIES TO BE FIXED BY THE COURT.] When the punishment may 2 be either by imprisonment in the penitentiary or by confinement in the county jail 3 with or without fine, if the jury will not inflict the punishment of imprisonment in 4 the penitentiary they shall find the accused guilty and the court shall fix the time
 5 of confinement in the jail or fine or both, as the case may require. When the ac-6 cused pleads guilty, and in all other cases not otherwise provided for, the court 7 shall fix the time of confinement or the amount of the fine or both, as the case 8 may be.

Sec. 1494. SENTENCE TO WORK-HOUSE.] Any person convicted, in a court of 2 this state having jurisdiction of any crime or misdemeanor, the punishment of 3 which is confinement in the county jail, may be sentenced by the court in which 4 such conviction is had, to labor for the benefit of the county during the term of 5 such imprisonment in the work-house, house of correction or other place pro-6 vided for that purpose by the county authorities, or by the authorities of any city 7 in such county. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the 8 imprisonment of any convict in the reform school at Pontiac as provided by law

Sec. 1495. PUNISHMENT OF OFFENDERS UNDER EIGHTEEN.] Persons under the 2 age of eighteen years shall not be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary 3 for any offense except murder, manslaughter, rape, robbery, burglary or arson.
4 In all other cases where a penitentiary punishment is or shall be provided, such 5 person under the age of eighteen years and over the age of sixteen years shall be 6 punished by confinement in the county jail for a term not exceeding eighteen 7 months at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 1496. CONVICTS UNDER CONTROL OF COUNTY BOARD.] Nothing contained in 2 this act shall prevent the county board taking such control of convicts committed 3 to the county jail and their transfer to work-houses, houses of correction or other 4 places of employment as is provided by law: Provided, however, that no such 5 transfer shall be made of any convict without the order of the court in which he 6 is convicted and in all cases a report of such transfer shall be made to the court 7 as soon as may be after the transfer and entered of record.

Sec. 1497. JUDGMENT FOR COSTS.] When any person is convicted of an of 2 fense under any statute or at common law, the court shall give judgment that the 3 offender must pay the costs of the prosecution, unless such costs shall be remit-4 ted, in whole or in part, as provided by this act.

Sec. 1498. COMMITMENT TO ENFORCE PAYMENT OF COSTS AND FINES.] When a 2 fine is inflicted the court may order, as a part of the judgment, that the offender 3 be committed to jail there to remain until the fine and costs are fully paid or he is 4 discharged according to law, or that he be committed to any work-house or house 5 of correction or other place provided for that purpose by the county authorities 6 or by the authorities of any city of such county, until the fine and costs are fully 7 paid or worked out, or he is discharged according to law. When a defendant is 8 committed to any work-house or house of correction or other place provided for 9 that purpose as aforesaid, until the fine and costs are fully paid or worked out or 10 he is discharged according to law, he shall, for every day's labor in such work-

11 house or house of correction or other place in accordance with the rules thereof, 12 be entitled to a credit of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

Sec. 1499. JUDGMENT A LIEN ON PROPERTY, REAL AND PERSONAL.] The prop-2 erty, real or personal, of every person who shall be convicted of any offense shall 3 be bound and a lien is hereby created on the property, both real and personal, of 4 every such offender, not exempt from execution or attachment, from the time of 5 filing the information at least so far as will be sufficient to pay the fine and costs of 6 prosecution. The clerk of the court in which the conviction is had shall, at the 7 end of thirty days from such conviction, issue an execution for the fine, if the 8 same remains unpaid, and all costs of conviction remaining unpaid, in which 9 execution shall be stated the date of the filing of the information. The execution 10 may be directed to the proper officer of any county in this state. The officer to 11 whom such execution is delivered shall levy the same upon all the estate, real and 12 personal, of the defendant (not exempt from execution) possessed by him on the 13 day of the arrest or filing of the information, and any such property subsequently 14 acquired; and the property so levied upon shall be advertised and sold in the same 15 manner as in civil cases with like rights to all parties who may be interested 16 therein. It shall be no objection to the selling of any property under such exe-17 cution that the body of the defendant is in custody for the fine or costs or both.

Sec. 1500. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF JUDGMENT.] If the person convicted, to-2 gether with one or more sufficient sureties, will acknowledge a judgment in favor 3 of the people of the state of Illinois for the amount of the fine and costs, or the 4 costs only, when no fine is imposed, the court shall cause the same to be entered 5 in full satisfaction of the fine and costs, or costs only, with a direction that, if the 6 judgment is not paid within five months from the time of entering the same, exe-7 cution shall be issued thereon; and the defendant shall, upon the entering of such 8 judgment, be discharged from imprisonment on account of such fine or costs, but 9 he shall not thereby be discharged from any imprisonment which is made a part

10 of his punishment not dependent upon the payment of the fine or costs. Such 11 judgment shall be a lien upon all of the real estate of the person acknowledging 12 the same from the date of its entry. If the judgment so entered is not paid within 13 five months from the entry it may be enforced by execution in the same manner 14 as other judgments at law.

Sec. 1501. DISCHARGE OF PAUPER.] Whenever it shall be made satisfactorily 2 to appear to the court, after all legal means have been exhausted, that any person 3 who is confined in jail for any fine or costs of prosecution for any criminal of-4 fense, hath no estate with which to pay such fine and costs, or costs only, it shall 5 be the duty of the said court to discharge such person from further imprison-6 ment for such fine and costs, or costs only, which discharge shall operate as a com-7 plete release of such fine and costs: Provided, however, that nothing herein shall 8 authorize any person to be discharged from imprisonment before the expiration 9 of the time for which he may be sentenced to be imprisoned as part of his punish-10 ment.

Sec. 1502. CONVEYING CONVICT TO PENITENTIARY.] When a convict shall be 2 sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary, the clerk of the court shall, within 3 the time hereinafter prescribed in this act, deliver a certified copy of the judg-4 ment to the sheriff or other proper officer of the county, who shall, without delay, 5 convey the convict to the penitentiary of the state and deliver him to the warden 6 thereof.

Sec. 1503. POWERS OF SHERIFF WHILE CONVEYING CONVICT, ETC.] The sheriff 2 while conveying any convict to the penitentiary shall have the same power to re-3 quire the aid of any citizen of this state in securing such convict or the taking 4 him, if he shall escape, as he would have in his own county, and any person who 5 shall refuse or neglect to assist such sheriff, when so required, shall be liable to 6 the same penalty as in any other case of neglect or refusal to join a posse comitatus when lawfully required.

Sec. 1504. RETURNING PRISONER FOR TRIAL.] In case of the reversal of any judgment upon which any person has been committed to the penitentiary and the granting of a new trial by the supreme court, it shall be the duty of the warden of the penitentiary, upon receiving a certified copy of such judgment from the supreme court, to deliver the person so committed to the custody of the sheriff of the county where such new trial is to be had, and of such sheriff to take and convey such person to the jail of his county, and for such services the sheriff shall be allowed and paid like fees as in the case of commitments to the penitentiary.

Sec. 1505. PUBLICATION DURING PENDENCY OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDING PROHIBITED—CONTEMPT OF COURT—PUNISHMENT.] Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, corporation or corporations, during the pendency of any criminal action or proceeding in any court of this state, to print and publish, or cause to be printed and published, any matters in any manner pertaining to such criminal action or proceeding, or to the offense therein being prosecuted, other than a correct report, either verbatim or condensed, of the proceedings in court or before the magistrate pertaining to such action or proceeding, which report shall not contain, by way of comment, headlines, pictures or otherwise, any expression of opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the person or persons charged with the criminal offense, or of the weight or credibility of the evidence, or any portion thereof, produced either for or against such accused person, or any comments, intimations or suggestions, favorable or unfavorable to such accused person, or any comments, whether favorable or unfavorable, upon the conduct of the presiding judge or magistrate of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending, or of any attorney at law in any manner connected with such action or proceeding, or of any officer of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending, as to any matter pertaining to or connected with such action or proceeding. If any person or corporation shall violate the provisions, or any of them, of this section, such person or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a criminal contempt of court and shall be punished in the manner provided by this act for the punishment of a criminal contempt.

Sec. 1506. WHEN AND BEFORE WHAT COURT PROCEEDINGS DEEMED PENDING.] For the purposes of the preceding section a criminal action or proceeding shall be deemed pending from the time of the filing of the complaint therein in the proper court, or before the proper magistrate, if any such complaint be filed; or, if no such complaint be filed, then from the time of the filing of the information therein; and the pendency of any criminal action or proceeding shall continue until the final determination of the same, either by a judgment of acquittal or discharge, or a judgment of conviction and sentence in the court of original jurisdiction in which the same is instituted, or to which the same may be removed for trial and disposition, or, if the same be instituted before a justice of the peace, until the final determination thereof by a judgment of acquittal or discharge by such justice of the peace, or by a judgment of conviction and sentence from which no appeal is prosecuted by the defendant. In case of an examination proceeding in which the defendant is held or bound over for trial in a court other than that in which such proceeding is brought, the criminal action shall be deemed pending in the court in which such trial is to be had from the time of the entry of the order so holding or binding over such defendant.

Sec. 1507. JURISDICTION OF SUCH ACTION OF CONTEMPT.] When the contempt of court provided for in the next but one preceding section is committed in respect to an action or proceeding pending in a court of record of original jurisdiction, the action of contempt for the punishment of the same shall be cognizable by the court in which such action or proceeding is pending at the time of the commission of the contempt. When such contempt is committed with respect to an

7 action or proceeding pending before a justice of the peace, the same shall be cog-8 nizable only by a court of record of original jurisdiction in the county where the 9 contempt has been committed and the same shall be prosecuted by information 10 by the state's attorney of such county or by the Attorney General.

Sec. 1508. ASSISTANTS TO STATE'S ATTORNEYS.] Whenever the business of 2 any county of this state is such that the state's attorney of such county cannot, 3 without assistance, attend properly and promptly to all the business in said 4 county which it is made by law his duty to attend to, he may appoint such num-

2. CERTIFICATE OF OFFICER OF CASH DEPOSIT.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

City of Chicago }
v. } Quasi Criminal. No. 50.

CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT.

This is to certify that Richard Roe, the defendant in the above entitled action, has deposited with the undersigned, sheriff of Cook county, Illinois, the sum of fifty dollars ($50), which deposit is made as security that said Richard Roe shall personally be and appear before the criminal court of Cook county, at the criminal court building in Chicago, in said county, on the 24th day of February, 1908, and from day to day thereafter until the final sentence or judgment of the court in the above entitled action, and shall abide the order of the court in all things and not depart the same without leave.

Dated Chicago, Illinois, February 17, 1908.

SAMUEL BROWN, Sheriff.

Sec. 1515. FORFEITURE OF RECOGNIZANCE OR CASH DEPOSIT.] Whenever any defendant, after entering into a recognizance or making a cash deposit, as aforesaid, shall fail to appear before the court as specified in the recognizance or certificate of deposit, or shall otherwise fail to comply with the conditions thereof, such re-

5 cognizance, if a recognizance shall have been entered into, may be enforced as in 6 other cases, or, if a cash deposit shall have been made, the same may be declared 7 forfeited and the same may be applied by the court, so far as the same may be 8 necessary, or so far as the same may extend, to the satisfaction of whatever judg-9 ment may be entered by the court in the action in which such deposit has been 10 made, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to the defendant. And the court 11 in such case, when the defendant fails to appear, may enter judgment against 12 him and in favor of the plaintiff for such sum as the court may find from the evi-13 dence the plaintiff ought to recover by way of fine or penalty for the violation by 14 the defendant of the ordinance of the plaintiff, and such judgment, to the extent 15 that the same is not satisfied by the deposit aforesaid, may be enforced by the 16 commitment of the defendant to the county jail, work-house or house of correction 17 as in other cases.

Sec. 1516. RETURN OF CASH DEPOSIT.] When any defendant shall make a cash 2 deposit in lieu of bail, as hereinbefore provided, and shall appear before the 3 court in accordance with the terms of such deposit and shall abide by all the 4 terms thereof, the amount thereof shall be returned to the defendant by the clerk 5 of the court at the time of the entry of final judgment.

Sec. 1517. WHEN DEFENDANT RELEASED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE.] If, upon 2 the arrest of the defendant in any quasi criminal action brought by a municipal 3 corporation to recover a fine or penalty for a violation of a municipal ordinance, 4 it shall be made to appear that the defendant is the head of a family, residing 5 with the same in the city, village or incorporated town, in which the violation of 6 the ordinance is alleged to have taken place, and that such defendant is a poor 7 person who is not able to enter into a recognizance with security, it shall be the 8 duty of the court, or of the officer, as the case may be, to accept of such defend-9 ant, in lieu of bail, his own recognizance conditioned, as near as may be, as the 10 recognizance hereinbefore provided for; or when it is made to appear that the de-

11 defendant has a known and fixed place of residence in the city, village or incorpor-12 ated town, in which the violation of the ordinance is alleged to have taken place 13 and it appears probable to the court or to the officer making the arrest, as the 14 case may be, that the defendant, if released upon his own recognizance, will ap-15 pear at such time or times as may be required by the court, it shall be the duty of 16 the court or officer, as the case may be, to accept of such defendant, in lieu of bail, 17 his own recognizance, conditioned, as near as may be, as the recognizance here-18 inbefore provided for. Any defendant who, when released upon his own recog-19 nizance, as aforesaid, shall fail to appear before the court at the time or times re-20 quired by such recognizance, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon 21 conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dol-22 lars ($100) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding two (2)
 23 months: Provided, however, that no defendant shall be punished as aforesaid 24 when his failure to appear is for a cause which would authorize the court to set 25 aside a forfeiture of his recognizance. But no defendant shall be released upon 26 his own recognizance under this section when, at the time of his arrest, he shall 27 be in a state of intoxication or when his release may, in the judgment of the court 28 or officer, result in a breach of the peace.

Sec. 1518. FAILURE OF DEFENDANT TO APPEAR WHEN SUMMONED.] In case the 2 defendant, when served with a summons in any action brought by a municipal 3 corporation to recover a fine or penalty for the violation of an ordinance of a 4 municipal corporation, shall fail to enter his appearance within the time required 5 by this act, a default may be entered against him as in other cases and judgment 6 thereon may be entered by the court against the defendant for such fine or pen-7 alty as the court may deem reasonable, and such judgment may be enforced in the 8 same manner as if the defendant had appeared and the action had been tried by 9 jury.

Sec. 1519. FORMS OF VERDICT.] When, in any such action tried by jury, only 2 one violation of an ordinance is charged, the verdict of the jury, if in favor of 3 the plaintiff, may be "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty," or, if it be in favor 4 of the defendant it may be "We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty." When, 5 in any such action, several violations of the same ordinance or of different ordi-6 nances are charged, the verdict of the jury, if in favor of the plaintiff as to all 7 the violations charged, may be "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as to all 8 the plaintiff's claims," or, if it be in favor of the defendant as to all such vio-
 9 lations, it may be "We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty." If the verdict 10 of the jury be in favor of the plaintiff as to a portion of the violations charged 11 and in favor of the defendant as to the remaining violations charged it may be 12 "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as to the (here insert the number or num-13 bers of the plaintiff's claims as to which the jury find the defendant guilty) claim 14 (or claims, as the case may be), and not guilty as to the remaining claims."

Sec. 1520. FINES AND PENALTIES TO BE FIXED BY COURT.] In all actions brought 2 to recover fines or penalties for the violation of municipal ordinances, when the 3 defendant pleads guilty or otherwise admits the violation of the ordinance, or, 4 upon the trial, either by jury or by the court without a jury, is found guilty of 5 such violation, the amount of the fine or penalty shall be fixed by the court.

Sec. 1521. METHOD OF PROCEDURE IN OTHER RESPECTS.] The methods of proce-2 dure in such actions in all particulars not expressly provided for by this act 3 shall be the same, as near as may be, as those herein provided for other actions 4 at law for the recovery of money.

15 Dated this 10th day of February, 1908.

16 WILLIAM DOE.

17 If any such action shall be commenced without filing such bond for costs the 18 justice, on motion, shall dismiss the same, unless said bond for costs shall be filed 19 within such time as shall be fixed by the justice, and, when so filed, it shall relate 20 back to the commencement of the action. The right to require security for costs 21 shall not be waived by any proceeding in such action.

Sec. 1547. CHANGE OF VENUE.] Previous to the commencement of any trial before a justice of the peace either party, or his agent or attorney, may make oath that it is the belief of such deponent that the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be, cannot have an impartial trial before such justice; whereupon it shall be the duty of the justice immediately to transmit all the papers and documents belonging to the action, together with a transcript of his docket, to the nearest justice of the peace in the same county, who is not of kin to either party, sick, absent from town or interested in the event of the action as counsel or otherwise, who shall proceed as if the action had been instituted before him. The distance as contemplated in this section shall mean to be by the nearest trav-

11 eled route. The costs of a change of venue shall abide the result of the action 12 and shall not be demanded in advance.

Sec. 1548. TRIAL BY CONSENT.] If both parties agree to have a difference de-2 cided by a justice of the peace without process he shall enter the action in his 3 docket, noting particularly such consent, and shall proceed as in other cases.

Sec. 1549. NON-APPEARANCE OF PLAINTIFF—DISMISSAL WHEN.] If the plain-2 tiff or his agent shall not appear at the time appointed for the trial and no suf-3 ficient reason shall be assigned to the justice why such plaintiff or his agent 4 does not appear, the justice shall dismiss the action and the plaintiff shall pay 5 the costs, unless the defendant shall consent that such action be continued to 6 another day.

Sec. 1550. NON-APPEARANCE OF DEFENDANT—DEFAULT—AFFIDAVIT OF CLAIM.]
2 If the defendant shall not appear at the time of trial after being served with 3 the summons or writ and no sufficient reason be assigned to the justice why he 4 does not appear, the justice shall proceed to hear and determine the action, but 5 shall not give judgment in favor of the plaintiff unless the plaintiff shall fully 6 prove his demand in the same manner as if the defendant were present and 7 denied the same. If the plaintiff in any action on a contract, express or implied, 8 for the payment of money shall file with the justice, at the time of commencing 9 such action, an affidavit showing the nature of his demand and the amount due 10 him from the defendant after allowing to the defendant all his just deduc-11 tions, credits, and set-offs, if any, he shall be entitled to judgment, in case of de-12 fault, for the amount shown to be due by such affidavit, but the justice may re-13 quire further evidence.

2 ORS—FORM.] Every action before a justice of the peace, other than a criminal 3 or quasi criminal action, shall be tried by the justice without a jury, unless the 4 plaintiff, at the time he commences the action, or the defendant, at the time he 5 appears, shall file with the justice a demand in writing of a trial by jury speci-6 fying the number of jurors demanded, which number shall be either six or twelve 7 as the party demanding a trial by jury may elect, and shall pay to the justice 8 the sum of seventy-five (75) cents to be paid to each person who may serve as a 9 juror and the further sum of twenty-five (25) cents for each juror as the fees 10 of the officer for summoning the jurors. Such demand for a trial by jury may 11 be withdrawn at any time prior to the empanelling of the jury and, if withdrawn 12 before the summoning of the jury by the officer, the amount advanced by the 13 party filing such demand as hereinbefore provided shall be refunded to such 14 party by the justice, but in case such demand shall not be withdrawn before the 15 summoning of the jury the amount thus advanced shall be paid to the jurors 16 summoned and the officer serving the jury summons. When a trial by jury is 17 demanded by either party the justice, before the time which may be fixed for 18 the trial, shall issue a writ for the summoning of the jurors which may be in 19 substantially the following form:

2 The jurors may be sworn and examined as to their qualifications, which shall 3 be the same as required of jurors in courts of record, except as is otherwise pro-4 vided in the succeeding section, and when accepted by the parties shall be sworn 5 to try the action, but they shall not be instructed as to the law by the justice, ex-6 cept as to the form of the verdict, and, when the jury agree upon the verdict, 7 judgment shall be entered by the justice in accordance therewith.

Sec. 1553. CHALLENGES OF JURORS.] If any juror summoned as aforesaid

2 shall be interested in the event of the action, or of kin to either party, or shall 3 have formed or expressed his settled opinion on the matter about to be tried, or 4 has served on a jury in any trial before a justice of the peace at any time within 5 three months, or shall for any other cause be a partial or improper juror, in that 6 case the justice shall discharge such juror at the instance of either party; and 7 when, by such discharge or the failure of any juror to attend, the jury shall not 8 be complete, the justice shall direct the constable to summon as many persons 9 from among the bystanders or other persons as shall be required to fill such jury, 10 which summons shall be verbal. Each party shall have the right to three peremp-11 tory challenges of such jurors.

Sec. 1554. TRIAL AND JUDGMENT.] When the parties shall appear and be

2 ready for trial and neither shall have demanded a trial by jury as hereinbefore 3 provided the justice shall proceed to hear their respective allegations and proofs, 4 and, if the action be upon a contract, express or implied, shall thereupon give 5 judgment against the party who shall be proved to be indebted to the other for 6 so much money in dollars and cents as shall appear to be due, including such in-7 terest as is allowed by law and costs of the action, or for the amount of damages 8 proved; but if neither party shall appear to be indebted or no damages are 9 proved the judgment shall be against the plaintiff for the costs of the action.
10 If the action is for a tort the judgment shall be for the plaintiff for damages

11 proved and costs of the action; or, if no damages are proved, the judgment shall 12 be against the plaintiff for costs.

Sec. 1555. JUDGMENT—WHEN DEFENDANTS NOT JOINTLY LIABLE.] If an action
2 be brought against two or more defendants and it shall appear upon the trial 3 that one or more of the defendants is not jointly liable with the other upon the 4 contract or cause of action sued upon, judgment shall be given against such as 5 appear to be liable and in favor of the others.

Sec. 1556. ADDED DEFENDANT—SUMMONS—FORM.] If it shall appear at any 2 time before final judgment that any other person is jointly liable with the de-3 fendant in any action before a justice, such person may be added as a party to 4 the action upon the plaintiff paying all the costs that shall be occasioned thereby 5 and the action may be continued for service upon such added defendant. The 6 summons shall describe such added defendant as impleaded with the original de-7 fendant and in other respects it shall be in like form and be served and returned 8 as an original summons. The following shall be deemed a sufficient form of sum-9 mons to an added defendant:

 2 at any time before final judgment, amend the summons and other papers in the 3 action so as to make the same conform to the true names of the plaintiffs and de-4 fendants; but this section shall not be construed to allow any proceeding against 5 a person not served with process and not appearing.

Sec. 1558. DISMISSAL AS TO ONE OR MORE DEFENDANTS.] The plaintiff may, 2 at any time before final judgment, at his own cost, dismiss the action as to one 3 or more defendants.

Sec. 1559. JUDGMENT TO BE ENTIRE IN ACTIONS ON CONTRACTS—SEPARATE
 2 CLAIMS AGAINST DIFFERENT DEFENDANTS NOT ALLOWED.] In actions on contracts, ex-3 press or implied, the justice shall give one entire judgment for the whole amount 4 proved to be due against so many of the defendants jointly as shall be proved to 5 be jointly indebted to the plaintiff. But if it shall appear to the justice that any 6 two or more of the defendants are severally indebted to the plaintiff upon sepa-7 rate and different causes of action such plaintiff shall not be allowed to bring any 8 such separate claims; nor shall he be barred by the determination of his action 9 against such joint defendants, from prosecuting his action against the respective 10 defendants for the recovery of such separate demands.

Sec. 1560. WHEN ONLY PART OF DEFENDANTS SERVED—NEW SUMMONS—FORM.]
 2 If, in any action for the recovery of money only, any summons is served on any 3 one or more but not on all the defendants, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to pro-

 5 court, and judgment may be entered and execution issued against the defendant 6 served with process and the justice of the peace shall, on the application of the 7 plaintiff, issue another summons against the defendant or defendants not served 8 with the original summons as aforesaid, to cause him or them to appear before 9 said justice of the peace at some stated time not less than five (5) nor more than 10 fifteen (15) days from the date of such summons to show cause why he or they

 12 shall, on the return showing service of such summons at least three days pre-13 vious to the time fixed for hearing the same, proceed to hear and determine the 14 matter in the same manner as if such defendant or defendants had been origi-

8 before whom the action is pending.

Sec. 1566. ACTIONS FOR WAGES—ATTORNEY'S FEE.] In actions by any 2 mechanic, artisan, miner, laborer, servant or employee for wages earned and 3 due, in which the court or jury shall find that the amount for which the action 4 is brought is justly due and that a demand has been made in writing at least 5 three days before the action was commenced for a sum not exceeding the 6 amount so found due, it shall be the duty of the justice to allow to the plain-7 tiff a reasonable attorney's fee, not less than five dollars ($5), in addition to 8 the amount found due for wages to be taxed as costs in the action. In case the 9 justice shall find and express in any judgment rendered by him that such judg-10 ment is rendered for the wages of any laborer or servant, he shall endorse such 11 finding upon the execution when issued.

Sec. 1567. CONTINUANCES.] The justice before the commencement of the 2 trial may continue an action not exceeding ten days at any one time upon consent 3 of the parties or for any good cause shown, and either party shall be entitled to 4 such continuance if it shall appear upon his oath, or that of a credible witness, 5 that he cannot safely go to trial on account of the absence of material testi-6 mony. No continuance shall be granted on the application of either party, 7 unless it shall appear that he has used due diligence to be ready for trial; nor 8 for the want of evidence, if the other party will admit the facts proposed to be 9 proved, or, if the evidence desired be the testimony of a witness, that the witness 10 if present, would testify as alleged by the party applying for the continuance; 11 and the party making such admission may controvert the facts proposed to be 12 proved by such absent witness. Either party may have the cause continued 13 for a reasonable time, not exceeding one month at any one time, for the purpose 14 of taking the deposition of a witness in like case as depositions may be taken 15 in courts of record.

Sec. 1568. WHEN ACTION NOT DISCONTINUED.] No action before a justice

2 of the peace shall be deemed discontinued by the failure of the justice to try the 3 same at the time fixed for the trial thereof, or by the failure of the justice to 4 enter an order continuing the same to a fixed date, but in case of the failure of 5 the justice to try the action at the time appointed therefor, or to enter an 6 order continuing such action, either party, at any time within thirty days there-7 after, by notice in writing to the opposite party giving the day, hour, and place 8 of the trial, may secure a trial of such action by the justice of the peace at the 9 time fixed in such notice or at such other time as may be fixed therefor by said 10 justice.

2 tendance of a witness in any action pending before a justice, it shall be the duty 3 of the justice to issue a subpoena in the following form, as nearly as the case 4 will admit:

5 BEFORE HENRY BROWN, ESQ., JUSTICE OF THE PEACE OF WILL COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

6 John Doe	} Action for Money. No. 25.
7 v.
8 Richard Roe.

9 SUBPOENA.

10 The People of the State of Illinois—GREETING to John Smith and William 11 Smith:

12 You are hereby commanded to appear before me at my office at No. 17 Main 13 Street, in Joliet, Will county, Illinois, at nine o'clock A. M., on February 20, 14 1908, then and there to testify the truth in a matter in action wherein John 15 Doe is plaintiff and Richard Roe is defendant.

16 Witness my hand and seal at Joliet, Illinois, this 18th day of February.
 17 1908.

HENRY BROWN, J. P. [SEAL.]

Sec. 1570. SERVICE OF SUBPOENA.] Any subpoena may be served by any

2 officer or other person who is authorized by this act to serve a summons and 3 the same shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the person served.

 4 When any subpœna is served by any person other than such officer the plaintiff 5 shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in the action in his favor an amount 6 equal to one-half of the fees allowed by law, to any such officer for such service.

Sec. 1571. INSERTING NAMES IN SUBPOENA.] In all cases where a justice 2 of the peace is required to issue a subpœna at the instance of either party to 3 an action, such party may insert the names of as many witnesses in such 4 subpœna, as such party may deem necessary, and such names may be inserted 5 as well after as before such subpœna is issued.

Sec. 1572. WITNESS FEES.] Each witness so summoned shall be entitled to 2 seventy-five (75) cents per day for attending each trial to be taxed with the 3 other costs of the action and paid when the judgment and costs are collected; 4 but, if more than two witnesses shall be sworn in any case to testify to one fact 5 on the same side, the party requiring such extra witnesses shall be at the 6 whole expense of securing the same; but no such fee shall be taxed by the justice 7 unless claimed by the witness attending.

Sec. 1573. DENIAL OF EXECUTION OR ENDORSEMENT.] No party to any action 2 before a justice of the peace shall be permitted to deny the execution or any 3 endorsement of any written instrument upon which the action shall be founded, 4 or which shall be offered as a set-off or acquittance for the debt demanded in 5 such action, unless the said denial be by affidavit of the party so denying the 6 execution or endorsement thereof.

Sec. 1574. EVIDENCE AS TO JOINT PLAINTIFFS, ETC.] In trials of actions upon 2 contracts, express or implied, where the action is brought by joint plaintiffs or 3 partners, or by joint payees or obligees, it shall not be necessary for the 4 plaintiff, in order to maintain any such action, to prove the right of the plain-5 tiffs to sue, or the co-partnership of the individuals named in such action, or to 6 prove the Christian or surnames of such plaintiffs, co-partners or joint payees 7 or obligees; but the names of such plaintiffs, co-partners, joint payees or obligees 8 shall be presumed to be truly set forth in the summons or writ. Nothing herein 9 contained shall prevent the defendant or defendants in any such action from 10 proving on the trial either that more persons ought to have been plaintiffs, or 11 that more persons have been made plaintiffs than have a legal right to sue, or 12 that the Christian or surname of any party is other and different from the 13 one stated in the summons or writ.

Sec. 1575. PROOF OF JOINT LIABILITY NOT NECESSARY IN FIRST INSTANCE WHEN.]

2 In actions upon contracts, express or implied, against two or more defendants 3 as joint defendants or partners, or joint obligors or payors, whether so alleged 4 or not, proof of the joint liability or partnership of the defendants, or their 5 Christian or surnames, shall not, in the first instance, be required to entitle the 6 plaintiff, or plaintiffs, to judgment, unless the defendant or defendants, or any 7 of them, shall deny the partnership or joint liability, or the execution of the in-8 strument sued on by affidavit.

Sec. 1576. WHEN CORPORATE EXISTENCE OF CORPORATION NEED NOT BE PROVEN.]

2 In actions by or against corporations it shall not be necessary to prove the 3 existence of such corporation, or that it sues or is sued by its corporate name, 4 unless, previous to the commencement of the trial, the corporate existence of 5 such plaintiff or defendant, or that its name is correctly stated, is denied in 6 writing signed by the party making such denial or by his agent or attorney, and 7 not then, if the corporation be one of whose corporate existence judicial notice 8 is to be taken in accordance with this act.

Sec. 1577. DEPOSITIONS.] Depositions in actions before justices of the 2 peace shall be taken upon like notice and in like manner, as near as may be, as 3 depositions may be taken to be used in courts of record.

Sec. 1578. JUSTICE NOT TO COLLECT CLAIM BY ACTION BEFORE HIMSELF.] No 2 action shall hereafter be brought before any justice of the peace upon any 3 claim which has been placed in his hands for collection, or with respect to the 4 collection of which he has been employed.

Sec. 1579. HEARING AND DETERMINATION OF ACTION OF ATTACHMENT.] Upon 2 the return of any attachment issued by a justice of the peace, if it shall appear 3 that the defendant has been personally served with the same, or if such de-4 fendant shall appear without such service, the justice shall proceed to hear 5 and determine the action as in cases of proceedings by summons.

Sec. 1580. CONTINUANCE FOR SERVICE OR NOTICE—POSTING NOTICE—FORM.]
2 But if it does not appear that the defendant has been served and no appearance 3 is entered by the defendant, the justice shall continue the action not less than 4 fifteen days and shall immediately prepare a notice, to be posted up at three 5 public places in the neighborhood of the justice, directed to the defendant 6 and stating the fact that an attachment has been issued and at whose instance, 7 the amount claimed to be due and the time and place fixed for the trial, and 8 that, unless the defendant shall appear at the time and place fixed for the 9 trial, judgment will be entered by default and the property attached ordered 10 to be sold to satisfy the same, which notice shall be delivered to the sheriff or 11 constable who shall post three copies of the same at three public places in the 12 neighborhood of the justice at least ten days before the day set for the trial; 13 and, if the place of residence of the defendant is stated in the affidavit for the 14 attachment, shall, at the same time, mail one copy of the notice addressed to 15 such defendant at such place of residence; and on or before that day he shall 16 return the notice delivered to him by the justice, with an endorsement thereon 17 stating the time when and the place where he posted and mailed notices as 18 herein required. The following form of notice shall be deemed sufficient and 19 shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other similar notices may 20 be properly framed:

30 and that the action will be tried before me at my office at No. 17 Main Street,

33 against you and the property attached will be ordered to be sold to satisfy the 34 same.

35 Dated February 24, 1908.

36 HENRY BROWN, J. P. [SEAL.]

Sec. 1581. CONTINUANCE FOR WANT OF NOTICE.] If notice shall not be 2 given according to law or for any other cause, the justice may continue the 3 action from time to time until proper notice shall have been given or the action 4 is ready for trial.

Sec. 1582. HEARING AFTER NOTICE—JUDGMENT—SALE OF PROPERTY.] When 2 notice shall be given of any proceeding by attachment as hereinbefore re-3 quired, the justice shall, on the day set for the trial of the action, proceed to 4 hear and determine the same as though process had been personally served 5 upon the defendant, and, if the judgment be given against the defendant, the 6 property attached, or so much thereof as will satisfy the judgment and all costs, 7 shall be sold under the execution to be issued upon such judgment.

Sec. 1583. EXCEPTIONS TO BOND.] Exceptions to the bond taken by the justice shall be taken at or before the first hearing of the action after the same shall have been returned to the justice, but the hearing of such exceptions may be adjourned for the purpose of giving notice to the constable or for other good cause.

Sec. 1584. WARRANT ACTION—ARREST OF DEFENDANT WHEN WARRANT RETURN-

In case the trial be postponed the defendant shall be allowed to enter into a recognizance for his appearance before the justice from time to time until the final determination of the action, or to make a cash deposit in lieu of such recognizance. In case the defendant shall make a cash deposit the justice shall execute and deliver to him a certificate thereof, a duplicate of which shall be executed by the justice and filed with the papers in the action and a minute thereof shall be entered by the justice in his docket. Sec. 1586. FORFEITURE OF RECOGNIZANCE OR CASH DEPOSIT.] Whenever any defendant, after entering into a recognizance or making a cash deposit as aforesaid, shall fail to appear before the justice as specified in the recognizance or certificate of deposit, or shall otherwise fail to comply with the conditions thereof, such recognizance or deposit may be declared forfeited by the justice, and, if a recognizance shall have been entered into, judgment may be entered by the justice for the amount of such recognizance in favor of the cognizee and against the cognizers therein named, and the same may be enforced by execution against the defendant, as judgments in other actions for money, or, if a cash deposit shall have been made such cash deposit may be applied in the manner hereinafter provided; but any such judgment upon a recognizance may be set aside by the justice on application being made therefor by any defendant therein at any time

13 within thirty (30) days after the service upon such defendant of an execution is-14 sued upon such judgment, or after the service upon such defendant of a notice 15 in writing of the entry of such judgment, when it is made to appear to the jus-16 tice that there was a reasonable excuse for the non-appearance of the defendant, 17 and the defendant shall appear and abide the judgment in the action in which 18 such recognizance was taken. When a cash deposit is forfeited and such forfeit-19 ure is not set aside as hereinbefore provided the amount thereof shall be applied 20 by the justice, so far as the same may be necessary, or so far as the same may 21 extend, to the satisfaction of whatever judgment may be entered by the justice in 22 the action in which such deposit has been made and the balance, if any, shall be 23 returned to the defendant, and the justice, in such case, when the defendant fails 24 to appear, may enter judgment against him and in favor of the plaintiff for such 25 sum as the justice may find from the evidence the plaintiff ought to recover, by 26 way of fine or penalty, for the violation by the defendant of the ordinance of the 27 plaintiff.

Sec. 1587. RETURN OF CASH DEPOSIT.] When any defendant shall make a cash
 2 deposit in lieu of bail as hereinbefore provided and shall appear before the jus-
 3 tice in accordance with the terms of such deposit, and shall abide by all the terms 4 thereof the amount thereof shall be returned to the defendant by the justice 5 at the time of the entry of the final judgment.

Sec. 1588. WHEN DEFENDANT RELEASED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE.] If, upon 2 the arrest of the defendant in any quasi criminal action brought by a municipal 3 corporation to recover a fine or penalty for a violation of a municipal ordi-4 nance, it shall be made to appear that the defendant is the head of a family re-5 siding with the same in the city, village or incorporated town in which the viola-6 tion of the ordinance is alleged to have taken place, and that such defendant is 7 a poor person who is not able to enter into a recognizance with security, it shall 8 be the duty of the justice or of the officer, as the case may be, to accept of such 9 defendant, in lieu of bail, his own recognizance, conditioned, as near as may be, 10 as the recognizance hereinbefore provided for; or when it is made to appear 11 that the defendant has a known and fixed place of residence in the city, village 12 or incorporated town in which the violation of the ordinance is alleged to have 13 taken place and it appears probable to the justice or to the officer making the ar-14 rest, as the case may be, that the defendant, if released upon his own recognizance, 15 will appear at such time or times as may be required by the justice, it shall be the 16 duty of the justice or officer, as the case may be, to accept of such defendant, in 17 lieu of bail, his own recognizance, conditioned, as near as may be, as the recog-18 nizance hereinbefore provided for. Any defendant who, when released upon his 19 own recognizance as aforesaid, shall fail to appear before the justice at the time 20 or times required by such recognizance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor 21 and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hun-22 dred dollars ($100) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding two 23 months: Provided, however, that no defendant shall be punished as aforesaid

 24 when his failure to appear is for a cause which would authorize the court to set
 25 aside a forfeiture of his recognizance. But no defendant shall be released upon 26 his own recognizance, under this section, when, at the time of his arrest, he shall 27 be in a state of intoxication, or when his release may, in the judgment of the jus-28 tice or officer, result in a breach of the peace.

Sec. 1589. PROCEDURE IN REPLEVIN WHEN PROPERTY HAS NOT BEEN FOUND BY 2 OFFICER.] When the property specified in the writ of replevin has not been found 3 by the officer or delivered to the plaintiff and the defendant is served with the 4 writ or enters his appearance, the plaintiff may proceed with the trial of the ac-5 tion and if, upon the trial, he shall establish his right to the property replev-6 ied, he shall be entitled to judgment against the defendant for the value there-7 of, or of his interest therein, and for such damages as he shall have sustained by 8 reason of the wrongful taking and detention of the property.

Sec. 1590. KINDS OF JUDGMENTS IN REPLEVIN.] If the plaintiff in an action 2 of replevin fails to prosecute his action with effect or suffers a non-suit or dis-3 continuance, or if the right of property is adjudged against him, judgment shall 4 be given for the return of the property and damages for the use thereof from 5 the time it was taken until the return thereof shall be made, unless the plaintiff 6 shall in the meantime have become entitled to the possession of the property, 7 when judgment may be given against him for costs and such damages as the de-8 fendant shall sustain; or, if the property was held for the payment of any money, 9 the judgment may be in the alternative that the plaintiff pay the amount for 10 which the same is rightfully held with proper damages within a given time or 11 make return of the property.

Sec. 1591. DAMAGES IN REPLEVIN.] If judgment be given for the plaintiff 2 in an action of replevin he shall recover damages for the detention of the prop-3 erty while the same was wrongfully detained by the defendant.

Sec. 1592. HOW DAMAGES IN REPLEVIN ASSESSED.] In either case provided for 2 in the two preceding sections, if the action be tried by a jury, the damages may 3 be assessed by such jury, but if the plaintiff make default or the judgment be 4 given for the defendant without a trial, or if the action be tried by the justice 5 without a jury, the damages may be assessed by the justice.

Sec. 1593. ACTION ON REPLEVIN BOND.] If, at any time, the conditions of the 2 bond required by this act to be given by the plaintiff at the time of the com-3 mencement of his action of replevin shall be broken, any person having suffered 4 damages by reason of the breach thereof may, in the name of the People of the 5 State of Illinois, for his own use, sue and maintain an action on such bond for 6 the recovery of all such damages and costs as may have been sustained by him 7 in consequence of the breach of such condition.

Sec. 1594. PROCEDURE IN ACTION ON REPLEVIN BOND WHEN MERITS NOT DETER-

2 MINED.] When the merits of the action of replevin have not been determined 3 upon the trial thereof the defendant in the action upon the replevin bond may 4 set up that fact and his title to the property in dispute in such action of re-5 plevin.

Sec. 1595. NOTICE IN REPLEVIN TO NON-RESIDENT, ETC.] When it shall appear

2 by affidavit of the plaintiff, his attorney or agent, or by the return of the officer, 3 that any defendant in an action of replevin before a justice of the peace is not a 4 resident of this state, or has departed from this state, or on due inquiry cannot 5 be found, or is concealed within this state so that process cannot be served upon 6 him, notice may be given as provided in this act in case of an attachment and with 7 like effect.

Sec. 1596. TRIAL OF RIGHT OF PROPERTY—WHEN TO BE BROUGHT—REQUISITES OF

2 JUDGMENT.] An action for the trial of the right of property may be instituted 3 before a justice of the peace in every case in which an execution or writ of attach-4 ment issued by a justice of the peace is levied by any officer upon personal prop-
5 erty within the county in which such action is proposed to be instituted. If, upon 6 the trial of the action, the jury, if the action be tried by jury, or the justice, if 7 the trial be by the justice without a jury, finds that the property in controversy 8 belongs to the plaintiff when the plaintiff is any person other than a defendant 9 in the execution or writ of attachment, or that such property is exempt from 10 such execution or attachment, judgment shall be entered in favor of the plaintiff 11 against the defendants that the plaintiff have and recover from the defendants 12 the possession of the property, together with the costs of the action, such costs 13 to be paid by the plaintiffs in the execution or attachment. If the jury or the jus-14 tice, as the case may be, finds that the property does not belong to the plaintiff 15 or is not exempt from execution or attachment, as the case may be, judgment 16 shall be entered in favor of the defendants and against the plaintiff for the costs

17 of the action and an order shall be entered that the officer proceed in the man-18 ner provided by law to subject the property to the payment of the execution al-19 ready issued, or thereafter to be issued, as the case may be.

Sec. 1597. NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT IN ACTION OF DISTRESS FOR RENT.] When it 2 shall appear by affidavit filed before the justice of the peace before whom an ac-3 tion of distress for rent is pending that the defendant is a non-resident, or has 4 departed from this state, or on due inquiry cannot be found, or is concealed with-5 in this state, and the affiant shall state the place of residence of such defendant, 6 if known, or, if not known, that upon diligent inquiry he has not been able to 7 ascertain the same, notice may be given as in an attachment action before a jus-8 tice of the peace.

Sec. 1598. PROCEEDINGS IN DISTRESS FOR RENT.] After the commencement of 2 an action of distress for rent before a justice of the peace, it shall proceed in the 3 same manner, as near as may be, as a case of attachment before such justice, ex-4 cepting as may be herein otherwise expressly provided. The defendant may avail 5 himself of any set-off or other defense which would have been proper if the ac-
 6 tion had been any form of action for rent and with like effect. If the plaintiff 7 succeeds in his action judgment shall be given in his favor for the amount which 8 shall appear to be due him. When the defendant has been served with the sum-9 mons or appears in the action, the judgment shall have the same force and effect 10 as in an action in which a summons has been served upon the defendant and exe-11 cution may issue thereon not only against the property distrained but also 12 against the other property of the defendant; but the property distrained, if 13 the same has not been replevied or released from seizure, shall be first sold.
 14 When publication of notice shall have been made as provided in this act, but the 15 defendant is not served with process and does not appear, judgment by default 16 may be entered and the plaintiff may recover the amount due him for rent at 17 the time of issuing the distress warrant and a special execution shall issue

18 against the property distrained, but no execution shall issue against any other 19 property of the defendant. If the judgment is in favor of the defendant he shall 20 recover costs and have judgment for the return of the property distrained, unless 21 the same has been replevied or released from such distress. And if a set-off is 22 interposed and it appears that a balance is due from the plaintiff to the defend-23 ant, judgment shall be rendered for the defendant for the amount thereof.

Sec. 1599. RELEASE OF PROPERTY DISTRAINED--BOND.] When any distress 2 warrant has been levied the person whose property is distrained may release the 3 same by entering into bond, in double the amount of the rent claimed, payable 4 to the landlord, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the person making the 5 levy, if the bond is tendered before the filing of a copy of the warrant as pro-6 vided in this act, or, if after, by the justice of the peace before whom the action 7 is pending, conditioned to pay whatever judgment the landlord may recover in 8 the action, with costs of the action. If the bond is taken before the filing of a 9 copy of the distress warrant such bond shall be filed therewith, and if taken 10 after the filing of a copy of the distress warrant, it shall be filed with the jus-11 tice of the peace before whom the action is pending.

Sec. 1600. PERISHABLE PROPERTY LEVIED UPON BY DISTRESS WARRANT.] If any 2 property distrained is of a perishable nature and in danger of immediate waste 3 or decay, and the same is not replevied or bonded, the landlord, or his agent or 4 attorney, may, upon giving notice to the defendant or his attorney, if either can 5 be found in the county, or, if neither can be found, without any notice, apply to 6 the justice of the peace before whom the action is pending, describing the prop-7 erty and showing that the same is so in danger, and if such justice of the peace 8 is satisfied that the property is of a perishable nature and in danger of imme-9 diate waste or decay, and if the defendant or his attorney is not served with no-10 tice, or does not appear, that he cannot be found in the county, he may issue an 11 order to the person having possession of the property directing the sale thereof

12 upon such time and such notice, terms and conditions as the justice of the peace 13 shall think to the best interest of the parties concerned. Money arising from such 14 sale shall be deposited with the justice of the peace before whom the action is 15 pending, there to abide the event of the action.

Sec. 1601. FORCIBLE DETAINER—WHEN MAINTAINABLE—PROCEDURE.] An ac-2 tion of forcible detainer may be maintained before a justice of the peace in any 3 case in which a similar action is authorized by law to be commenced in a court 4 of record, and in every such action the plaintiff may join, with his claim for pos-5 session of the premises, a claim for rent or damages, not exceeding two hundred 6 dollars ($200), for the withholding of such possession. Excepting as may be 7 otherwise prescribed by this act, the procedure in an action of forcible de-8 tainer shall be the same, as near as may be, as in other actions prosecuted before 9 justices of the peace.

Sec. 1602. JUDGMENT IN FORCIBLE DETAINER.] If, in an action of forcible de-2 tainer, it shall appear on the trial that the plaintiff is entitled to the possession 3 of the whole of the premises claimed, he shall have judgment for the possession 4 thereof and for his costs, but if it shall appear that he is entitled to the posses-5 sion of only a part of the premises claimed the judgment shall be in his favor 6 for that part only and for costs and for the residue judgment shall be in favor 7 of the defendant; or, if the plaintiff is non-suited, or it appears that the plaintiff 8 is not entitled to possession of any portion of the premises claimed, judgment 9 shall be in favor of the defendant for costs. In an action in which the plaintiff 10 also claims rent or damages, if he shall be found entitled thereto, he shall have 11 judgment for the amount to which he is found entitled, but if he is found not en-12 titled to rent or damages, judgment shall be given in favor of the defendant as 13 to such claim for rent or damages.

Sec. 1603. SEVERAL TENANTS.] Whenever there shall have been one lease for 2 the whole of certain premises and the possession thereof at the commencement

3 of the action of forcible detainer shall be divided in severalty among persons 4 with, or other than, the lessee in one or more portions or parcels separately or 5 severally held or occupied, all or so many of such persons, with the lessee, as the 6 plaintiff may elect, may be joined as defendants in one action and the recovery 7 against them with costs shall be several according as their actual holdings shall 8 respectively be found to be.

Sec. 1604. DISMISSAL AS TO PART—JUDGMENT AS TO PART.] The plaintiff may 2 at any time dismiss his action as to any one or more of the defendants, and the 3 jury or court may find any one or more of the defendants guilty and the others 4 not guilty, and the court shall thereupon render judgment according to such 5 finding.

Sec. 1605. WRIT OF RESTITUTION IN FORCIBLE DETAINER.] A writ of restitu-2 tion in any action of forcible detainer may be issued in any case after the ex-3 piration of five days after the entry of judgment, but not prior thereto.

Sec. 1606. EXECUTION FOR PLAINTIFF ON JUDGMENT FOR MONEY—FORMS.] A

 2 issued upon a judgment of a justice of the peace is returned unsatisfied, in whole 3 or in part, and it is desired by the plaintiff to have the same levied on real prop-

 8 of that court as in other cases.

Sec. 1627. SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDING.] Any judgment heretofore or here-

Sec. 1655. NON-APPEARANCE OF DEFENDANT—DEFAULT.] If the person so rec-2 ognized does not appear before the justice according to the condition of such 3 recognizance, the justice shall enter the default upon his docket, but such default 4 may be set aside by the justice for good cause shown, on the appearance of the ac-5 cused at any time to which the matter may be continued by the justice. And, in 6 case such default is not set aside as aforesaid, the justice shall certify the recog-7 nizance with a record of the default to the court having cognizance of the offense 8 and like proceedings may be had thereupon as upon the breach of the condition of 9 a recognizance for appearance before such court, or an action at law may be 10 maintained thereon.

Sec. 1656. EXAMINATION—DISCHARGE — COMMITMENT — RECOGNIZANCE.] The 2 justice, when any person charged with a criminal offense punishable by death or 3 confinement in the penitentiary or county jail, or by a fine exceeding two hundred 4 dollars ($200), is brought before him with or without a warrant, shall, as soon as 5 may be, examine the witness or witnesses in support of the prosecution, as well as 6 those who may be produced on behalf of the accused, on oath in the presence of 7 the party charged, in relation to any matter connected with such charge which the 8 justice may deem pertinent. While a witness is being examined the justice, if he 9 sees cause therefor, may exclude from the place of examination all the other 10 witnesses or direct the witnesses to be kept separate so that they cannot converse 11 with each other until they have been examined. If it appears to the justice upon 12 the whole examination that no offense has been committed, or that there is no 13 probable cause for charging the prisoner with the offense, he shall be discharged.

14 If it appears that an offense has been committed, and that there is probable 15 cause to believe the prisoner guilty, and if the offense is bailable by the justice 16 and the prisoner offers sufficient bail, a recognizance shall be taken and the pris-17 oner discharged; but if no sufficient bail is offered and the offense is not bailable 18 by the justice, the justice shall commit the prisoner to jail for trial. The recog-

Sec. 1668. FORFEITURE OF RECOGNIZANCE OR CASH DEPOSIT.] Whenever any de-2 fendant, after entering into a recognizance or making a cash deposit as aforesaid,

3 shall fail to appear before the justice as specified in the recognizance or certificate 4 of deposit, or shall otherwise fail to comply with the conditions thereof, such rec-5 ognizance or deposit may be declared forfeited by the justice, and, if a recogni-6 zance shall have been entered into, judgment may be entered by the justice for the 7 amount of such recognizance in favor of the cognizee and against the cognizors 8 therein named and the same may be enforced by execution against the defendant 9 as judgments in other actions for money, or, if a cash deposit shall have been 10 made, such cash deposit may be applied in the manner hereinafter provided; but 11 any such judgment upon a recognizance may be set aside by the justice on ap-12 plication being made therefor by any defendant therein at any time within thirty 13 (30) days after the service upon such defendant of an execution issued upon such 14 judgment, or after the service upon such defendant of a notice in writing of the 15 entry of such judgment, when it is made to appear to the justice that there was a 16 reasonable excuse for the non-appearance of the defendant and the defendant 17 shall appear and abide the judgment in the action in which such recognizance was 18 taken. When a cash deposit is forfeited and such forfeiture is not set aside as 19 hereinbefore provided, the amount thereof shall be applied by the justice, so far 20 as the same may be necessary or so far as the same may extend, to the satisfaction 21 of whatever judgment may be entered by the justice in the action in which such 22 deposit has been made and the balance, if any, shall be returned to the defendant, 23 and the justice in such case, when the defendant fails to appear, may proceed with 24 the trial of the action and may enter such sentence and judgment against the de-25 fendant and in favor of the plaintiff as, in the opinion of the justice, the evidence 26 may require, and such judgment may be enforced in the manner provided by this 27 act for the enforcement of judgments of justices of the peace in criminal actions 28 to the same extent as if the defendant had personally appeared at the trial: Pro- 29 vided, however, that such judgment shall only be enforced to the amount of the ex-30 cess thereof over and above the amount of the deposit aforesaid.

Sec. 1669. RETURN OF CASH DEPOSIT.] When any defendant shall make a cash
 2 deposit, in lieu of bail, as hereinbefore provided and shall appear before the jus-
 3 tice in accordance with the terms of such deposit and shall abide by all the condi-4 tions thereof, the amount of such deposit shall be returned to the defendant by the 5 justice at the time of the entry of the final judgment.

Sec. 1670. WHEN DEFENDANT RELEASED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE.] If, upon 2 the arrest of the defendant in any criminal action, the justice of the peace, or the 3 officer making the arrest, as the case may be, shall be satisfied that the defendant 4 is the head of a family and residing with the same in the county in which the of-5 fense is alleged to have been committed and that such defendant is a poor person 6 who is not able to enter into a recognizance with security, it shall be the duty of 7 the justice, or of the officer, as the case may be, to accept of such defendant, in 8 lieu of bail, his own recognizance, conditioned, as near as may be, as the recogni-9 zance hereinbefore provided for; or, when the justice of the peace, or the officer 10 making the arrest, as the case may be, shall be satisfied that the defendant has a 11 known and fixed place of residence in the county in which the offense is alleged to 12 have been committed, and it appears probable to the justice or to the officer mak-13 ing the arrest, as the case may be, that the defendant, if released upon his own 14 recognizance, will appear at such time or times as may be required by the justice, 15 it shall be the duty of the justice or officer, as the case may be, to accept of such de-16 fendant, in lieu of bail, his own recognizance conditioned, as near as may be, as the 17 recognizance hereinbefore provided for. Any defendant who, when released upon 18 his own recognizance as aforesaid, shall fail to appear before the justice at the 19 time or times required by such recognizance, shall be deemed guilty of a misde-20 meanor and upon conviction thereof may be punished by a fine not exceeding one 21 hundred dollars ($100) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding 22 two months: Provided, however, that no defendant shall be punished as afore-23 said when his failure to appear is for a cause which would authorize the court to 24 set aside the forfeiture of his recognizance. But no defendant shall be released 25 upon his own recognizance under this section, when, at the time of his arrest, he 26 shall be in a state of intoxication, or when his release may, in the judgment of the 27 justice or officer, result in a breach of the peace.

Sec. 1671. AMOUNT OF RECOGNIZANCE OR CASH DEPOSIT.] The amount of the 2 recognizance required in any criminal action before a justice of the peace, shall 3 be not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) 4 and the same shall be either fifty dollars ($50) or some multiple thereof. The 5 amount of cash deposit, required of the defendant in lieu of bail in a criminal 6 action before a justice of the peace, shall be the maximum fine which may be im-7 posed upon the defendant and five dollars ($5) in addition thereto, but the same 8 shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

Sec. 1672. TRIAL OF ACTION—JURY.] If, upon the trial of the action, the jus-2 tice find the defendant guilty he shall enter judgment against him for the fine 3 and costs of the action, but if he find him not guilty he shall discharge him with-4 out costs. The defendant may have the action tried by a jury upon the same con-5 ditions and the jury shall be summoned and impaneled in the same manner as in 6 civil actions before justices of the peace, but the defendant shall not be required 7 to advance the jury fees.

Sec. 1673. JURY TO DETERMINE PENALTY—JUDGMENT.] If the jury find the ac-2 cused guilty they shall assess the fine, and upon the jury returning their verdict 3 the justice shall minute the same in his docket and shall enter judgment therein 4 accordingly with costs; but if the jury return a verdict of not guilty, the justice 5 shall discharge the defendant without costs. If the judgment be against the de-6 fendant sentencing him to pay a fine and costs it shall recite the manner in which 7 the same shall be enforced as provided in the succeeding section.

Sec. 1674. EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT.] A judgment of a justice of the peace 2 against a defendant in a criminal action, when the execution thereof is not stayed 3 by appeal or otherwise as provided by this act, shall be enforced in the following 4 manner :

5 First—FINE AND COMMITMENT TO JAIL UNTIL PAYMENT.] When the sentence 6 is that the defendant pay a fine and that he stand committed to the county jail 7 until the fine and costs are paid or until he is discharged in accordance with law, 8 the justice shall deliver to the sheriff, or to some constable of the county, a certi-9 fied transcript of the entries upon his docket in the action, specifying in such cer-10 tificate that such transcript is delivered to the officer for the execution of the 11 judgment, and the sheriff, or constable, as the case may be, shall convey the de-

 6 otherwise the petition shall be dismissed. An order directing the issuance of any 7 such writ of certiorari shall be final and conclusive and shall not be subject to re-

6 out any bill of exceptions or certificate of evidence, until otherwise provided as 7 specified in the succeeding section.

Sec. 1719. SUPREME COURT TO MAKE RULE.] It shall be the duty of the su-2 preme court, as soon after the taking effect of this act as may be practicable, to 3 prescribe by rule what questions, in the actions and proceedings referred to in 4 the preceding section, shall be preserved for review without any report of the 5 proceedings settled and signed by a judge.

Sec. 1720. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS AND CERTIFICATE OF EVIDENCE ABOLISHED--RE-2 PORT OF PROCEEDINGS.] Bills of exceptions in actions at law and certificates of 3 evidence in actions in equity are hereby abolished. In lieu of the signing and 4 sealing of a bill of exceptions in an action at law, or the signing of a certificate of 5 evidence in an action in equity, as heretofore, it shall be the duty of the judge be-6 fore whom any proceedings have been had in any action or proceeding, whether 7 civil, quasi-criminal or criminal, at any time within sixty days after the entry 8 in a court of record of an order, judgment or decree in such action subject to re-

9 view upon appeal or writ of error, or within such further time as may be allowed 10 by the court upon application therefor within such sixty days or within the pe-11 riod of any extension of time thereafter granted, when either party shall so re-12 quest, to sign a report of such proceedings which report, when so signed and filed, 13 shall become a part of the record in such action. Such report shall contain such 14 a statement with respect to such proceedings as shall enable the supreme court, 15 or the appellate court, as the case may be, to properly review such decisions of 16 the lower court as are authorized by this act to be reviewed, and which cannot be 17 reviewed without such report, and as either of the parties may desire to have 18 reviewed. It shall be prepared by the party who may desire a review of the pro-19 ceedings and shall be tendered to the judge for his signature within the time 20 above specified: Provided, however, that in case of the absence of the judge from 21 the county or his incapacity to act, or in case he cannot be conveniently found, 22 such tender may be made to the clerk of the court in which the action or proceed-23 ing has been or is pending, and such clerk shall endorse thereon a certificate of 24 such tender and enter a minute thereof in the register and minute book, and the 25 same shall have the same force and effect as if such tender was made to the judge.
 26 and whenever any such tender is made to the clerk and so minuted it shall be 27 presumed that it was properly so made.

Sec. 1721. WHAT MAY BE INCLUDED IN REPORT—CONDENSATION.] Either party
 2 to an action tendering a report shall have the right to cause to be inserted 3 therein, at his option, a full and complete report of the proceedings sought to be 4 reviewed, including a stenographic report, if the proceedings or any portion 5 thereof be taken down stenographically, of all evidence introduced, all arguments 6 of counsel, all remarks of the presiding judge, all charges or instructions to ju-7 ries, and all rulings made by the court during the progress of the proceedings, or 8 he may, with the approval of the presiding judge, omit from such report such 9 portions of the proceedings as, in the opinion of the presiding judge, are un-

10 necessary to be embodied in the report for the proper review of the decisions of 11 the court, or he may condense said report into such a statement respecting the 12 proceedings and the decisions of the court during the progress thereof as, in the 13 opinion of the presiding judge, will properly and fairly present such decisions 14 for review: Provided, however, that in any case in which the evidence introduced 15 upon the trial or hearing shall have been taken down stenographically and the 16 same, if transcribed, would not exceed ten thousand words, the court shall not 17 permit a condensation thereof in a report of the proceedings against the objec-18 tion of any party to the action. But no such report shall contain any paper or 19 record entry, or any copy thereof, which, by the terms of this act, constitutes a 20 part of the record of the action or proceeding, but when any reference is neces-21 sary in any report to any such paper or record entry it shall be sufficient to 22 identify it by its name or other description and to refer to it as thus identified.

Sec. 1722. OPPOSITE PARTY MAY HAVE MATTERS INSERTED.] When any such re-2 port is tendered to the judge by any party to the action any other party to the 3 action shall have the right to have inserted in the same any other decisions of 4 the court and its proceedings pertaining thereto not included in such report, 5 which such party may desire to have reviewed by the supreme court or appellate 6 court. A party to the action within the meaning of this section, and all other 7 sections of this act pertaining to reports, shall be deemed to include any person 8 interested in such action and who, by the provisions of this act, has the right to 9 prosecute any appeal or writ of error to review an order, judgment or decree 10 entered therein.

Sec. 1723. SUPPLEMENTAL OR ADDITIONAL REPORT BY OPPOSITE PARTY.] When 2 there is tendered to and signed by the judge upon the application of any party 3 to the action a report which is not a full and complete report of the proceedings, 4 including so much thereof as has been taken down stenographically, any other 5 party to the action than the one by whom such report has been prepared and ten-

6 dered may, within ten days after notice of the signing of such report, or within 7 such further time as may be allowed therefor by the judge, tender for the signa-8 ture of the judge an additional report which may be either a full and complete 9 report of the proceedings, including so much thereof as may have been taken 10 down stenographically, or a supplemental report embracing such matters as 11 may have been omitted from the original report, and it shall be the duty of the 12 presiding judge, if such additional or supplemental report be found to be correct, 13 to sign the same and the same shall thereupon be filed as a part of the record in 14 the action. When such additional report is a full and complete report of the pro-15 ceedings, including so much thereof as has been taken down stenographically, it 16 shall supersede the previous report and shall be the only report to be considered 17 upon the determination of an appeal or writ of error.

Sec. 1724. EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY.] It shall not be necessary, in any re-2 port, to set forth an exception to any ruling of the court, but every such ruling 3 which appears to have been made against the objection or contrary to the conten-4 tion of the party complaining thereof, and which is authorized by this act to be 5 reviewed, shall be subject to such review by the supreme court or appellate court, 6 as the case may be, and in any criminal case any ruling of the court by which 7 manifest injustice has been done to the defendant shall be subject to review by 8 the supreme court notwithstanding no objection may appear to have been made 9 thereto by or on behalf of the defendant.

Sec. 1725. JUDGE NOT TO OMIT MATTER ACTUALLY OCCURRING WHEN.] No
 2 judge shall be at liberty, before signing any report, to cause to be omitted there-3 from, without the consent of the party tendering the same, any portion thereof 4 which correctly sets forth a matter actually occurring before such judge.

Sec. 1726. JUDGE TO NOTE TENDER OF REPORT.] Whenever any report shall be 2 tendered to a judge it shall be his duty to endorse thereon and sign a minute of 3 such tender and of the date thereof.

Sec. 1727. REPORT TO BE TENDERED OPPOSITE PARTY FOR INSPECTION—DUTY OF

2 OPPOSITE PARTY.] Immediately upon the tender of any report to the judge the 3 party tendering such report shall deliver the same for inspection to the opposite 4 party or to his attorney, who shall give his receipt therefor and whose duty it 5 shall be, by a separate document, to note his objections thereto and all changes 6 therein which he may desire to have made and to return such report, with said 7 objections and proposed changes and additions, to the party by whom said re-8 port has been tendered within ten days after having received the same, unless 9 further time for returning the same shall be allowed by the party who has ten-10 dered the same or by the court: Provided, however, that in case of a report of 11 proceedings pertaining to an interlocutory order, the party tendering such re-12 port shall have the right to have the same settled and signed by the judge with-13 out delay.

Sec. 1728. DUTY OF JUDGE—SIGNING REPORT—CORRECTIONS.] In case such re-

2 port shall be agreed upon by the parties or no objection shall be made thereto by 3 the party to whom the same has been delivered for inspection, the judge shall sign 4 the same, unless, upon inspection thereof, he shall be satisfied that the same is in-5 correct, in which case he shall correct the same so as to make it conform to the 6 truth and shall thereupon sign it, but no such correction shall be made by the 7 judge without notice to or the knowledge of the parties.

Sec. 1729. JUDGE TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES.] In case the parties are unable

2 to agree with respect to the report the differences between them shall be sub-3 mitted to the judge who shall thereupon settle and sign the report.

Sec. 1730. COSTS.] The party preparing any report or supplemental report

2 signed by the judge shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in his favor the ex-3 pense of preparing the same to be fixed by the judge and endorsed upon such re-4 port: Provided, however, that the allowance made by the judge for such ex-5 pense shall not in any case be less than five dollars ($5) nor more than twenty-

6 five dollars ($25) and that the same shall not be estimated from the length of 7 such report, but from the amount of work necessarily and properly performed in 8 the preparation thereof, and all such costs shall abide the final event of the action.

Sec. 1731. CORRECTION OF DEFECTIVE REPORT IN SUPREME COURT OR APPELLATE 2 COURT.] Whenever, upon the prosecution of an appeal or writ of error, it shall 3 be made to appear to the supreme court, or to the appellate court, as the case 4 may be, that any report is defective and that by reason thereof the right and jus-5 tice of the case cannot be determined therefrom, it shall have power to correct 6 the same so that the right and justice of the case may be determined therefrom 7 without any further action by the court from which the appeal or to which the 8 writ of error has been prosecuted, or to direct that such report be corrected or 9 a new report made by the judge before whom the proceedings were had so that 10 the same shall truly and correctly set forth the proceedings of the court from 11 which such appeal to or to which such writ of error is being prosecuted.

Sec. 1732. DEATH OR DISABILITY OF JUDGE—SETTLEMENT OF REPORT.] In case 2 the judge before whom any proceeding has heretofore been or may hereafter be 3 heard is, by reason of death, sickness or other disability, unable to settle and 4 sign a report of such proceedings, any other judge of the court in which such 5 proceedings have been had, may settle and sign such report whenever he shall 6 be satisfied, either from a stenographic report of the proceedings or by other suf-7 ficient means, that he can make a correct and just report of such proceedings, 8 and any such report so made shall have the same force and effect as if settled and 9 signed by the judge before whom such proceedings have been had.

Sec. 1733. REFUSAL OF JUDGE TO SIGN REPORT—POWER OF SUPREME OR APPEL-
 2 LATE COURT.] Whenever it is made to appear to the supreme court, or appellate 3 court, as the case may be, in an action pending therein upon appeal or writ of 4 error, that the judge of the court of original jurisdiction, before whom any pro-5 ceeding in such action has been had, has wrongfully refused to sign a proper

6 report of the proceedings, the court may make an order in such action requiring 7 such judge to sign such proper report and no application for a mandamus shall 8 be necessary for that purpose; and, in any such case, the supreme court, or ap-9 pellate court, as the case may be, shall not be bound by the determination of 10 such judge as to the correctness of such report, but may hear evidence and de-11 termine for itself what proceedings were actually had before such judge in such 12 court of original jurisdiction, and may either require such judge to sign such 13 report as the court may find to be correct, or may determine such appeal or writ 14 of error as if the record contained such a report of the proceedings as the court 15 may find should have been signed by such judge.

Sec. 1734. WHEN REPORT PRESUMED TO CONTAIN ALL THE EVIDENCE.] Every 2 report purporting to contain evidence introduced during the proceedings re-3 ported shall be presumed to contain all the evidence introduced during such pro-4 ceedings and pertaining thereto, unless the contrary affirmatively appears from 5 the report.

Sec. 1735. PRESUMPTION IN FAVOR OF PARTY COMPLAINING ON APPEAL OF ER-2 ROR.] In every action at law tried by jury or by the court without a jury, the 3 verdict of the jury or the finding of the court, as the case may be, and the judg-4 ment thereon, shall be presumed to have been rendered, made or entered against 5 the objection of the party complaining thereof upon appeal or writ of error, un-6 less the contrary shall affirmatively appear from the record or from such report, 7 and in every action in equity every order or decree entered by the court, either 8 upon a master's report, or upon a hearing without a master's report, shall be 9 presumed to have been entered against the objection of the party complaining 10 thereof upon appeal or writ of error, unless the contrary shall affirmatively ap-11 pear from the record or from such report, and, in general, any order, judgment 12 or decree entered in any action, which appears from the record to have been 13 clearly and manifestly contrary to the right and justice of the case, shall be

14 presumed to have been entered against the objection of the party complaining 15 thereof upon appeal or writ of error, unless the contrary shall affirmatively ap-16 pear from the record.

Sec. 1736. PURPOSE OF REPORT—LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION.] The purpose of 2 every report shall be to present the proceedings of the court in such manner as 3 shall enable the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, to prop-4 erly review the same and to render or cause to be rendered such decision with 5 respect thereto as the law and the evidence require, or as the court in which 6 the proceedings were had should have rendered, and every such report shall be 7 liberally construed to accomplish such purpose, and no presumption shall be 8 indulged to aid in sustaining a decision which would otherwise appear to be 9 contrary to law or contrary to the law and the evidence.

Sec. 1737. REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS IN APPELLATE OR SUPREME COURT.] When 2 any evidence not contained in the authenticated record is admitted or considered 3 by an appellate court or the supreme court in pursuance of the provisions of 4 this act, in any action pending therein, or any other proceedings are had in 5 either of said courts, which would not otherwise be preserved by the record 6 sufficiently for the purposes of a review by another appellate tribunal, such evi-7 dence or proceedings, or both, shall, at the request of any party to the record 8 made within thirty days after the final determination by the supreme court or 9 appellate court of such action, be set forth in a report of the proceedings of 10 the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, such report to be 11 signed by the chief justice or presiding justice of such court. The method of 12 preparing and settling such report and the effect and construction of the same 13 shall be the same, as near as may be, as is in this act prescribed with respect to 14 a report of proceedings of a court of original jurisdiction, and the same, when 15 settled and signed as aforesaid, shall be filed with the other papers in the ac-16 tion and shall constitute a part of the record thereof.

 3 under the order, judgment or decree appealed from shall be no longer stayed as 4 provided in the preceding section, such order shall not operate as a dismissal of 5 such appeal, nor shall it entitle the party in whose favor the order, judgment or 6 decree appealed from has been entered to secure the dismissal of such appeal by 7 the court appealed to; but such appeal shall be heard and determined as if no 8 such order had been entered by the court appealed from.

Sec. 1762. APPLICATION TO COURT APPEALED TO FOR RELIEF FROM ORDER.] Any

2 party appealing, who shall feel himself aggrieved by any order of the court ap-3 pealed from with respect to any such appeal bond or deposit, may apply for relief 4 therefrom to the court appealed to and thereupon the court appealed to may va-5 cate or modify the order of the court appealed from or may make such new order 6 as the court may deem proper for the protection of the rights of the parties.

Sec. 1763. SEPARATE APPEALS BY DIFFERENT PARTIES—DEPOSIT—AUTHENTICATED

2 RECORD—DOCKETING IN COURT APPEALED TO.] When separate appeals from the 3 same order, judgment or decree are taken by different parties at the same time, 4 each party prosecuting a separate appeal shall deposit with the clerk his propor-5 tionate share of the thirty dollars ($30) hereinbefore required to be deposited as 6 costs. When such separate appeals are taken by different parties at different 7 times, the clerk shall apportion said sum of thirty dollars ($30) among the sev-8 eral parties taking separate appeals and return to each party any amount de-9 posited by him over and above his proportionate share as aforesaid. In any such case the time of the filing of the authenticated record shall be determined by the parties appealing, by agreement, or, in default of such agreement, the clerk shall transmit the same to the clerk of the court appealed to immediately after the lapse of thirty days after the entry of the order, judgment or decree appealed from, unless the court appealed from or the court appealed to shall otherwise direct, and the appeals shall be docketed in the court appealed to as one case.

Sec. 1764. WHEN APPEAL BY ONE PARTY SHALL STAND AS APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR BY ANOTHER PARTY—FORM OF NOTICE.] When any party to an order, judgment or decree shall have perfected an appeal therefrom, or shall have sued out a writ of error to review the same, in the manner hereinbefore and hereinafter provided, any other party, in lieu of the prosecution of a separate appeal or writ of error, may file in the court appealed to, or from which the writ of error has been prosecuted, a notice in writing that such party intends to complain of errors prejudicial to such party in the order, judgment or decree sought to be reviewed by such appeal or writ of error, or in any other final order, judgment or decree entered in such action, and, in case of the filing of such notice, such appeal or writ of error shall not be dismissed excepting with the consent of the party filing such notice; but such notice shall not operate as a stay of proceedings in favor of the party filing the same unless such party shall execute and file in the court appealed from or the court appealed to, or the court to which, or the court from which, the writ of error is prosecuted, a bond in such sum and with such security as may be required and approved by the court conditioned, as near as may be, as an appeal bond. Upon the filing of such notice a copy thereof shall be served upon the party appealing and, when practicable, upon every other party, or group of parties, entering a separate appearance in the action, and thereupon the party filing the same shall be at liberty to complain and demand relief from errors in the proceedings to the same extent as if he had prosecuted an appeal or sued out a writ of error in said action. The notice in this section provided for may be in substantially the following form:

its discretion, permit the filing of the same after the lapse of the time so specified.

Sec. 1771. WHAT REVIEWABLE ON APPEAL.] Upon appeal from any final order, 2 judgment or decree, the court appealed to shall, at the instance of the party ap-

 5 entered in the action.

Sec. 1772. SUBSEQUENT APPEAL WHILE PRIOR APPEAL IS PENDING.] Whenever, 2 during the pendency of an appeal in the supreme court, or appellate court, an 3 appeal is taken from an order, judgment or decree entered subsequently to the 4 order, judgment or decree involved in such pending appeal, the authenticated rec-5 ord filed in such pending appeal shall, together with the order, judgment or decree 6 subsequently appealed from and other portions of the record pertaining thereto 7 duly certified by the clerk of the court appealed from, constitute the record for 8 the purposes of such subsequent appeal and the supreme court, or appellate court, 9 shall make such order with respect to the use of the same as may appear to be con-10 venient and needful; but such subsequent appeal shall be separately docketed in 11 the supreme court or appellate court.

Sec. 1773. WHEN WRIT OF ERROR MAY BE BROUGHT.] A writ of error may only 2 be brought for the reversal of a final order, judgment or decree and shall not be

 5 the order, judgment or decree complained of; but when the person thinking him-6 self aggrieved by any order, judgment or decree which may be reviewed in the 7 supreme court or appellate court shall be an infant, non compos mentis or under 8 duress when the same was entered, the time of such disability shall be excluded 9 from the computation of said two years.

 6 the name or names of the presiding judge or judges thereof before whom the 7 proceedings sought to be reviewed were had, and the names or other 8 specifications of the person or persons prosecuting the writ of error, whether 9 plaintiffs, cross-plaintiffs, defendants, cross-defendants, petitioners, claimants, 10 interveners or garnishees, and directing the clerk to issue a writ of error, and, if 11 the parties or any of them are to be summoned or otherwise notified of the pend-12 ency of the writ of error, directing the clerk to issue the summons or publish the 13 notice, as the case may be, and specifying the date on or before which the defend-14 ant is to be required to appear, which day shall be some Tuesday not less than fif-15 teen (15) nor more than thirty (30) days from the filing of the præcipe, in case 16 the parties are to be served with summons, or on some Tuesday not less than forty 17 (40) nor more than sixty (60) days after the first publication of notice, in case 18 the parties are to be notified by publication of notice. In case of the substitu-19 tion of parties as hereinafter provided for the names of the parties shall be given 20 as they appear after such substitution, and the præcipe shall state the names of 21 the original parties to the action as they appear before such substitution was 22 made, and the party suing out the writ of error shall likewise, in case of the sub-23 stitution of parties, file with the præcipe the affidavit or other proof hereinbefore 24 required. The party suing out the writ of error in other than a criminal action 25 shall also, at the time of the filing of his præcipe, and before such writ of error is

 4 præcipe for a writ of error proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the facts necessary 5 to establish such heirship, deviseeship, representative capacity or successorship

6 and thereupon the action shall proceed as if such person had been regularly sub-7 stituted as a party upon the record and such party shall thereby become a party 8 to the record, unless the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, 9 shall, upon the application of any other party thereto, otherwise direct.

Sec. 1776. PROCEDURE IN CASE OF DEATH OF OPPOSITE PARTY.] When any per-2 son shall sue out a writ of error in any action, a criminal action excepted, in which 3 any other party to the order, judgment or decree sought to be reviewed shall have

 5 officer or trustee and shall have been removed from his office or trust or for any 6 other reason shall have ceased to be such representative, officer or trustee, and a 7 successor shall have been appointed, the party suing out the writ of error shall 8 file with his præcipe for a writ of error proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the 9 facts hereinbefore stated and thereupon the heir, devisee or other legal repre-10 sentative or successor in office or trust of such deceased party, or the successor in 11 office or trust of the party to the record who shall have been removed from his 12 office or trust or ceased to be such representative, officer or trustee, shall be 13 deemed and treated as substituted as a party to the record and shall be summoned 14 or otherwise notified of the pendency of the writ of error as is in this act pro-

Sec. 1782. WHEN SUMMONS NEED NOT BE SERVED.] When any writ of error sued out of the supreme court or appellate court in any other than a criminal action is filed in the court whose final order, judgment or decree is sought to be reversed within seventy days after the entry of such order, judgment or decree, all parties to the action in which such final order, judgment or decree has been rendered, or who are bound or in any manner affected by such final order, judgment or decree, shall be affected with notice of the prosecution of such writ of error and shall be bound to enter their appearance in the court from which said writ of error has been issued within eighty days after the entry of such final order, judgment or decree, to the same extent as if they had been served with a summons issued out of the supreme court or appellate court, and in default of such appearance, they shall be bound by the proceedings of the supreme court or appellate court upon such writ of error. In any such case no order, other than one extending the time for filing the authenticated record, or copies of the printed 15 record, or briefs or arguments, or other interlocutory order preparatory to the 16 submission of the action for decision, shall be entered in the supreme court or ap-17 pellate court upon such writ of error in less than eighty days after the entry of 18 such final order, judgment or decree without such notice, if any, to the parties to 19 such writ of error as the supreme court or appellate court may deem proper.

Sec. 1783. WHEN SUMMONS TO ISSUE.] When any writ of error in any other 2 than a criminal action is sued out of the supreme court or appellate court sev-3 enty days or more after the entry of the final order, judgment or decree sought 4 to be reversed, the clerk of the supreme court or appellate court, as the case 5 may be, shall issue a summons or publish a notice, or both as may be required by 6 such præcipe. Whenever the party suing out the writ of error shall so request 7 the clerk shall issue as many summonses as such party shall specify.

Sec. 1784. SERVICE OF SUMMONS—UPON WHOM AND HOW MADE.] Service of 2 such summons shall be made upon the person or persons therein summoned in 3 the same manner as a summons issued in an action at law commenced in a circuit 4 court, but no copies of any other papers need be delivered with the copy of the 5 summons to the person: Provided, however, that, when any party shall have ap-6 peared by attorney in the court to which the writ of error is directed, service of 7 such summons may be made upon such attorney with the same effect as if made 8 upon such party.

Sec. 1785. SERVICE OF SUMMONS—BY WHOM MADE.] Such summons may be 2 served by any sheriff or deputy sheriff, coroner or deputy coroner, bailiff or dep-3 uty bailiff, of any court in the county in which such service is had, or by any per-4 son over the age of eighteen years not a party to the action.

Sec 1786. PROOF OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS.] When service of any such sum-2 mons is made by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff or 3 deputy bailiff, proof of such service may be made by the return of such officer en-

4 dorsed upon such summons and signed by him showing the time, place and man-5 ner of service. When such service is made by any person other than a sheriff, 6 deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff or deputy bailiff, proof of such 7 service shall be made by the affidavit of the person making such service endorsed 9 of residence, age and occupation of the person making such service and shall set 10 forth the date, place and manner of such service.

Sec. 1787. WHEN APPEARANCE OF PARTY SUMMONED TO BE ENTERED.] Every 2 party named in any such summons, who shall have been served with the same ten 3 (10) days or more prior to the day therein specified for his appearance, shall en-4 ter his appearance in writing in the supreme court, or appellate court, as the case 5 may be, on or before the day so specified, but in case the summons shall have been 6 served upon such party less than ten (10) days prior to the day so specified for 7 his appearance such party shall not be required to enter his appearance until on 8 or before the first Tuesday succeeding such day so specified. A party failing 9 to enter an appearance as provided in this section shall not be entitled to notice 10 of any proceedings in such writ of error, but he shall not be thereby precluded 11 from filing therein a brief and argument within the time specified in this act.

Sec. 1788. PROCEDURE IN CASE OF DEATH, ETC., OF PARTY PENDING APPEAL OR WRIT
 2 OF ERROR.] Whenever, during the pendency of an appeal or writ of error in any 3 other than a criminal action, any party thereto shall die, or, if such party be a 4 party in a representative capacity or as an officer or trustee and shall have been 5 removed from his office or trust, or for any other reason shall have ceased to be 6 such representative, officer, or trustee, and a successor shall have been ap-7 pointed, the heir, devisee or other legal representative of such deceased party, 8 or the successor in office or trust of any such party, as the case may be, shall be 9 substituted as a party upon the record in place of such party, and, unless he shall 10 enter his appearance in the action, he shall be summoned or otherwise notified

11 of the pendency of the action in such manner as the supreme court or appellate 12 court, as the case may be, shall direct.

Sec. 1789. OTHER PROCEDURE AS TO SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES TO BE REGULATED
2 BY RULES.] All other provisions than those made in this act which may be found 3 to be necessary or expedient in respect to the substitution of parties in cases of 4 appeals or writs of error shall be made by rules to be adopted, from time to time, 5 by the supreme court.

Sec. 1790. NOTIFICATION OF NON-RESIDENT AND UNKNOWN PARTIES.] When 2 there are parties to a writ of error who reside or have gone out of the state, or 3 on due inquiry cannot be found or are concealed within this State so that pro-4 cess cannot be served upon them, or whose names are unknown, they may be noti-5 fied of the pendency of the writ of error by publication of notice as hereinbefore 6 in this act provided. But no such notice by publication shall be necessary in 7 any case in which service of summons may be made upon an attorney of record 8 as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 1791. WHEN AUTHENTICATED RECORD TO BE FILED UPON WRIT OF ERROR.]
2 An authenticated record of an order, judgment or decree sought to be reversed 3 by writ of error shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme court, or 4 the appellate court, as the case may be, within twenty days after the suing out 5 of such writ of error, unless additional time for the filing of such authenticated 6 record shall be allowed by the supreme court or appellate court, or by the court 7 to which such writ of error is prosecuted: Provided, however, that when any 8 writ of error is sued out and filed in the court in which the final order, judgment 9 or decree sought to be reversed has been entered within seventy (70) days after 10 the entry of such order, judgment or decree, the time for filing the authenti-11 cated record shall extend to eighty (80) days after the entry of such final order, 12 judgment or decree and to such further time as may be allowed therefor by the 13 supreme court or appellate court.

Sec. 1792. STAY OF PROCEEDINGS UPON WRIT OF ERROR—HOW OBTAINED—

2 FORMS.] Upon the suing out of any writ of error in any other than a criminal 3 action and the filing of the same in the court in which the final order, judgment 4 or decree sought to be reversed has been entered, the court which has entered 5 such final order, judgment or decree shall, upon the application of the party 6 prosecuting such writ of error, enter an order staying proceedings thereunder un-7 til the further order of the court, or until the filing in such court of a certified 8 copy of an order, judgment or decree of the appellate court or supreme court, 9 as the case may be, affirming such order, judgment or decree, or dismissing such 10 writ of error, upon the filing in such court which has entered such final order, 11 judgment or decree, by the party suing out such writ of error, of a bond in such 12 sum and with such security as may be approved by such court, conditioned, as 13 near as may be, as is required in case of an appeal bond upon an appeal from a 14 final order, judgment or decree, or upon the making of a deposit as security as in 15 case of an appeal, or a like order staying proceedings may be made by the 16 court from which such writ of error has been prosecuted, on the filing of a like 17 bond to be approved by the court, or one of the judges thereof, or the making of 18 a like deposit of money. When the writ of error is prosecuted to review a judg-19 ment in a quasi criminal action brought by a municipal corporation for the vio-20 lation of a municipal ordinance, or in an action of contempt, the party prosecut-21 ing the writ of error may, in lieu of tendering a bond, as above provided for, 22 enter into a recognizance in such sum and with such security as may be approved 23 by such court, conditioned, as near as may be, as is required in case of recogniz-24 ance upon an appeal from a judgment in such action, or a like order staying pro-25 ceedings may be made by the court from which such writ of error has been prose-26 cuted, on the entering into of a like recognizance to be approved by the court or 27 one of the judges thereof. The following forms of bonds, certificates of deposit 28 and recognizances shall be deemed to sufficiently comply with the provisions of 29 this section and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other 30 forms of bonds and certificates may be properly framed:

24 IN THE CRIMINAL COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

25	The People of the	} Criminal. No. 23.
26	State of Illinois
27	v. Richard Roe.

28 CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT.

29 This is to certify that Richard Roe, the defendant in the above entitled ac-30 tion, has sued out of the supreme court a writ of error in the above entitled action to reverse the judgment entered therein on or about the 10th day of February, 1908, and has this day deposited with the undersigned, as clerk of the criminal court of Cook county, Illinois, the sum of eight hundred fifty dollars ($850), which said deposit is made as security that, in case the said judgment is affirmed, or the writ of error dismissed or the judgment is reversed and the action remanded by the supreme court, said Richard Roe shall surrender himself to the sheriff of Cook county within ten (10) days after a certified copy of such judgment of affirmance or dismissal or reversal and remandment shall have been filed in said criminal court.

Dated Chicago, Illinois, February 14, 1908.

HENRY THOMAS, Clerk.

Sec. 1796. DISPOSITION TO BE MADE OF DEPOSIT.] When, in any case provided for in the preceding section, the final order or judgment sought to be reversed by such writ of error is reversed by the supreme court without the action being remanded, the clerk of the court with whom said deposit has been made shall return the same to the defendant who has prosecuted such writ of error. If the order or judgment sought to be reversed by such writ of error is affirmed or the writ of error dismissed, or the order or judgment is reversed and the action remanded, by the supreme court, the clerk with whom such deposit has been made shall dispose of the same as follows:

First—WHEN DEFENDANT SURRENDERS.] In case the defendant shall have surrendered himself to the sheriff of the county in which the order or judgment so affirmed has been entered within ten days after a certified copy of such judgment of affirmance or dismissal, or of reversal and remandment, shall have been filed in the court in which the order sought to be reversed by the writ of error has been entered, or shall have otherwise complied with the conditions of such deposit, the clerk shall return such deposit to the defendant who has prosecuted such writ of error and the order or judgment shall be enforced according to the terms thereof.

19 Second—WHEN DEFENDANT DOES NOT SURRENDER.] In case the defendant shall 20 not have surrendered himself to the sheriff of the county in which the order or 21 judgment has been entered within ten days after a certified copy of such judg-22 ment of affirmance or dismissal, or of reversal and remandment, shall have been 23 filed in the court in which the order sought to be reversed by writ of error has 24 been entered, or shall not have otherwise complied with the conditions of such 25 deposit, the clerk, if the sentence of the defendant is a fine only, shall apply such 26 deposit to the payment of such fine and the costs of the action, including the costs 27 in the supreme court, and shall pay the balance thereof to the defendant on appli-28 cation of the defendant therefor; but if the sentence of the defendant is imprison-29 ment in the county jail, work-house or house of correction, with or without a fine 30 in addition thereto, the amount of such deposit shall be deemed forfeited and 31 shall be disposed of by the clerk in such manner as may be directed by the court 32 in which said order or judgment has been entered, and such order or judgment 33 shall thereupon be carried into execution as if no writ of error had been prose-34 cuted therefrom.

 Sec. 1797. STAY ORDER IN CRIMINAL ACTION FOR FELONY—FORM OF RECOGNI-2 ZANCE.] Upon the suing out of any writ of error in a criminal action in which 3 the sentence imposed upon the defendant is death or confinement in the peni-4 tentiary and the filing of such writ of error in the court in which the final order 5 or judgment sought to be reversed has been entered, the court which has entered 6 such final order or judgment shall enter an order staying the execution of such 7 sentence until the final determination of such writ of error, and, if the punish-8 ment of the defendant is not death, the court may, in its discretion, release the 9 defendant from custody during the pendency of such writ of error, upon the de-10 fendant's entering into a recognizance in such sum as may be fixed therefor by 11 the court with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the court, con-12 ditioned that, in case the order or judgment sought to be reversed is affirmed or 13 the writ of error dismissed, or the order or judgment is reversed and the action 14 remanded by the supreme court, he will, within ten days after a certified 15 copy of such judgment of affirmance, or dismissal, or reversal and remandment, 16 shall have been filed in the court in which the order sought to be reversed by 17 writ of error has been entered, surrender himself to said sheriff. If the punish-18 ment fixed by the order or judgment sought to be reversed is death the defendant 19 shall in no case be released from custody, unless or until the supreme court 20 shall otherwise direct. The recognizance hereinbefore provided for may be in 21 substantially the following form:

25	Richard Roe.

26 RECOGNIZANCE.

27 This day personally appeared before the undersigned, one of the judges 28 of the circuit court of Cook county, Illinois, Richard Roe, as principal, and 29 Thomas Jones and William Smith, as sureties, and jointly and severally acknowl-
 30 edged themselves to owe and to be indebted unto the People of the State of Illi-31 nois in the penal sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), to be levied of their goods 32 and chattels, lands and tenements, respectively, in such manner as the law di-33 rects.

34 The condition of this recognizance is such that whereas, the criminal court 35 of Cook county, Illinois, on the 10th day of February, 1908, in the above entitled 36 action therein pending, did enter a judgment sentencing the said Richard Roe to 37 confinement in the penitentiary and to pay the costs of the action, to reverse 38 which said judgment said Richard Roe has sued out a writ of error from the su-39 preme court of Illinois:

40 Now, therefore, if, in case the said judgment is affirmed or the writ of 41 error dismissed, or the judgment is reversed and the action remanded, by 42 the supreme court, said Richard Roe shall surrender himself to the sheriff of 43 Cook county within ten (10) days after a certified copy of such judgment of 44 affirmance, or dismissal, or reversal and remandment shall have been filed in 45 said criminal court, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise the same is to be 46 and remain in full force and effect.

Sec. 1798. DEFENDANT NOT TO BE TRANSFERRED TO PENITENTIARY UNTIL LAPSE
2 OF TEN DAYS.] No defendant sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary 3 shall, excepting with his consent, be conveyed to the penitentiary in pursuance 4 of the order or judgment imposing such sentence until the lapse of ten days after 5 the entry of such order or judgment, and no defendant whose sentence is other 6 than death or imprisonment in the penitentiary, if he shall be on bail at the time 7 of his conviction, shall be imprisoned by reason or in pursuance of such sen-8 tence, until the lapse of ten days after the entry of the judgment imposing such 9 sentence, unless he shall have surrendered himself to the proper officer or unless 10 he shall have been so surrendered by his surety or sureties.

Sec. 1799. DUTY OF SUPREME COURT WHEN AUTHENTICATED RECORD, BRIEFS
2 AND ARGUMENTS FILED—FORM OF RECOGNIZANCE.] Whenever, in any criminal ac-3 tion, the authenticated record and the briefs or arguments of the defendant 4 have been filed in the supreme court, it shall be the duty of the court to con-5 sider the questions presented by the record, and if, after such consideration, the 6 court are clearly of the opinion that the order or judgment to reverse which the 7 writ of error has been prosecuted ought to be affirmed and that there is no rea-8 sonable doubt of the guilt of the defendant of the offense of which he has been 9 convicted, it shall be the duty of the court to affirm such order or judgment, and 10 in such case it shall be unnecessary for the court to file any written opinion giv-11 ing its reasons for such decision. If, on the other hand, the court is of the opinion that the questions presented by the record are of such character that they should be further considered by the court and argued on behalf of the people, the action shall thereupon be heard and determined in due course as other cases pending in the court. The court may, however, in any case in which it appears that the order or judgment of the inferior court is plainly and palpably erroneous and ought to be reversed, reverse the same without further consideration thereof. The court may also, upon consideration of the case, or at any time, upon application of the defendant, enter an order directing the court to which the writ of error is prosecuted to release the defendant from custody upon his entering into a recognizance in such sum as the supreme court shall specify, and with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that he will surrender himself to the sheriff of the county in which the order or judgment sought to be reversed has been entered within ten days after the filing in the court which has entered such order, of a certified copy of the judgment of the supreme court affirming the order or judgment, or dismissing the writ of error, or reversing the order or judgment and remanding the action to such court. The recognizance in this section provided for may be in substantially the following form:

Sec. 1800. WHEN APPEAL AS OF RIGHT FROM INTERLOCUTORY ORDER, ETC., MAY 2 BE TAKEN—DEPOSIT—FORM OF NOTICE.] An appeal from an interlocutory order, 3 judgment or decree which a party is entitled to prosecute as a matter of right 4 may be taken at any time within five (5) days after the rendition of such order, 5 judgment or decree by the filing with the clerk of the court in which the order, 6 judgment or decree has been rendered of a notice of the taking of such appeal 7 and by paying to said clerk the sum of thirty dollars ($30) in cash, of which 8 amount the sum of five dollars ($5) shall be retained by said clerk as his fees 9 for the authenticated record and the remaining twenty-five dollars ($25) of said 10 amount shall be transmitted by said clerk to the clerk of the court appealed to, as the costs of such clerk, together with the authenticated record of the action in which the appeal is taken. Upon the taking of such appeal the clerk shall immediately notify the opposite parties thereof by telephone or otherwise. The following form shall be deemed a sufficient form of notice.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

16	John Doe	} Contract. No. 215.
17	v.
18	Richard Roe.

NOTICE OF APPEAL.

Notice is hereby given that the defendant has taken an appeal to the appellate court of the first district from the interlocutory order entered in the above entitled action on the 10th day of February, 1908.

Dated February 24, 1908.

WILLIAM SMITH,
Attorney for Defendant.

Sec. 1801. DAMAGES FOR FRIVOLOUS OR VEXATIOUS APPEAL.] Upon the affirmance of any such interlocutory order, judgment or decree appealed from, or the dismissal of the appeal, by the court appealed to, such court shall, if in its opinion such appeal was prosecuted frivolously or vexatiously, award the opposite party as damages a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100).

Sec. 1802. MANNER OF PERFECTING INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL NOT MATTER OF RIGHT.] An appeal from an interlocutory order, judgment or decree, which a party is not entitled to prosecute as a matter of right, may be applied for at any time within five (5) days after the rendition of such order, judgment or decree. Such application shall be made in the first instance to the court by which such order, judgment or decree has been entered and such appeal may be allowed by an order entered upon the register and minute book. It shall be unnecessary to specify in any such order any reasons for the allowance of such appeal. Upon the allowance of such appeal the party taking the same shall pay to the clerk of the court in which the order, judgment or decree has been rendered the 11 sum of thirty dollars ($30) in cash, of which amount the sum of five dollars 12 ($5) shall be retained by said clerk as his fees for the authenticated record and 13 the remaining twenty-five dollars ($25) of said amount shall be transmitted by the 14 clerk to the clerk of the court appealed to as the costs of such clerk, together with 15 the authenticated record. In case such appeal be refused by said court the order 16 of the court so refusing the appeal shall be minuted upon the register and minute 17 book and thereupon at any time within twenty (20) days thereafter application 18 for such appeal may be made to the court proposed to be appealed to, by the filing 19 in the office of the clerk of said court, by the party applying for such appeal, of a 20 motion for the allowance thereof and by his causing to be filed therein the authen-21 ticated record of the order, judgment or decree proposed to be appealed from, to-22 gether with twelve copies of the printed record and twelve copies of the printed 23 brief and argument of such party in support of the application for such appeal:

24 Provided, however, that the time for the filing of an authenticated record, printed 25 record and printed briefs and arguments may be extended either by the court 26 in which such order, judgment or decree has been entered or by the court ap-27 pealed to. The party making the application for the appeal shall also, at the 28 time of applying for such appeal, pay to the clerk of the court proposed to be 29 appealed to the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) as his fees in such appeal. For 30 the purposes of such appeal the clerk of the court proposed to be appealed from, 31 upon the payment by the party applying for the appeal of the sum of five dollars 32 ($5) as the fees of such clerk, shall prepare and transmit to the clerk of the 33 court proposed to be appealed to the authenticated record aforesaid. Upon the 34 filing of such motion, authenticated record and copies of printed record and 35 briefs and arguments, in the office of the clerk of the court proposed to be ap-36 pealed to, the clerk of said court shall notify the court thereof and the court 37 shall thereupon allow or disallow the appeal as justice may seem to require. In 38 case of the allowance of the appeal the same shall be heard and determined in 39 the same manner, as near as may be, as other cases of appeal.

Sec. 1803. APPEAL FROM INTERLOCUTORY ORDER NOT TO OPERATE AS STAY UN-

2 LESS, ETC.] No appeal from any interlocutory order shall operate as a stay of 3 proceedings in the action in which the order, judgment or decree appealed from 4 has been entered, unless the court in which such order, judgment or decree has 5 been entered, or the court to which the appeal is taken, shall grant such stay of 6 proceedings, in which case such order staying the proceedings shall be made 7 upon such terms as the court granting the same, in its discretion, may prescribe.

Sec. 1804. TIME FOR FILING INTERLOCUTORY AUTHENTICATED RECORD.] The

2 authenticated record of such interlocutory order, judgment or decree appealed 3 from, when the appeal has been allowed by the court in which such order, judg-4 ment or decree has been entered, shall be filed in the court appealed to within 5 twenty (20) days after the entry of the order, judgment or decree appealed 6 from, unless the court in which such order, judgment or decree has been entered, 7 or the court appealed to, shall, upon application made therefor within said twenty 8 days, extend the time for the filing of the same: Provided, however, that the 9 court appealed from or the court appealed to may, in its discretion, order the 10 authenticated record to be filed at an earlier date.

Sec. 1805. INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS TO BE GIVEN PRECEDENCE.] Interlocutory

2 appeals shall be given precedence over all other cases in each court appealed 3 to, excepting as may be otherwise provided by this act, and shall be determined 4 without formality and unnecessary delay. In case of the affirmance of an order, 5 judgment or decree appealed from, no written opinion need be filed, but the 6 court may, in its discretion, announce in writing its reasons for such affirmance, 7 and it shall be its duty to so announce its reasons whenever, in its opinion, 8 such announcement may aid in the speedy and proper final determination of 9 the action in the court appealed from. In case of the reversal of an order, judg-10 ment or decree appealed from the court appealed to shall file such brief state-11 ment in writing with respect to such order, judgment or decree appealed from 12 as to enable the court which has entered such order, judgment or decree to 13 correct the error therein or to avoid further errors of a similar character.

Sec. 1806. IMMEDIATE HEARING IN INJUNCTION AND RECEIVERSHIP CASES—PRO-
 2 CEDURE.] Any party prosecuting an appeal from an interlocutory order grant-3 ing an injunction or appointing a receiver shall, upon the filing in the court ap-4 pealed to of the authenticated record of the order appealed from, be entitled to 5 an immediate hearing of such appeal upon notice to the opposite party of the 6 application for such immediate hearing, if, at the time of such application, there 7 are present at the place of holding the court appealed to a majority of the 8 judges thereof, or of a branch thereof, if such court appealed to consists of 9 two or more branches; and the hearing of such appeal shall take precedence over 10 all other business then pending before the court appealed to, excepting other 11 interlocutory appeals from orders granting injunctions or appointing receivers 12 in which applications for immediate hearings have been made and granted, and, 13 for the purpose of awarding a speedy hearing of such appeal, it shall be the duty 14 of the court to immediately suspend all other business in which it may be then 15 engaged, and hear and determine such appeal. When, at the time of such ap-16 plication there are not a majority of the judges of the court appealed to, or of 17 a branch thereof, if such court appealed to consists of two or more branches, 18 present at the place of holding such court, it shall be the duty of such judges, or 19 of a majority thereof, to convene at such place for the hearing of such appeal as 20 soon as may be practicable. All requirements respecting the printing of the 21 record and the printing of briefs and arguments in every such case shall, at the 22 demand of the party appealing, be dispensed with. Upon such appeal the court 23 appealed to may, in its discretion, permit either party to introduce such ad-24 ditional evidence as the court may deem necessary for the attainment of right 25 and justice between the parties.

Sec. 1807. JUDGMENT OF COURT APPEALED TO—WHEN NOT BINDING.] No judg-2 ment of a court appealed to affirming or reversing an interlocutory order, judgment or decree shall be binding upon said court upon a review, upon appeal or writ of error, of any final order, judgment or decree subsequently rendered in such action.

Sec. 1808. COURT MAY EXPEDITE PROCEEDINGS ON INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL.] The court appealed to, whenever it deems such course necessary, may expedite the proceedings upon any interlocutory appeal to such an extent as the court may deem proper, and it shall be its duty to expedite the proceedings in all cases in which public interests are involved and a speedy decision is desirable and in any such case it may require an immediate presentation of the case by oral argument or otherwise.

Sec. 1809. TO WHAT COURTS INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS TO BE TAKEN.] All appeals from interlocutory orders, judgments and decrees in actions in which the State is interested as a party or otherwise and actions involving the validity of a statute of this State or of the United States, or the construction of the constitution of this State or of the United States, shall be taken to the supreme court, and in all other cases to the appellate courts: Provided, however, that the court from which the interlocutory appeal is to be prosecuted may, in its discretion, by special order, allow any such appeal to be taken to the supreme court, although but for such order such appeal could only be taken to an appellate court.

Sec. 1810. APPEAL FROM APPELLATE COURT TO SUPREME COURT WHEN DISCRETIONARY WITH SUPREME COURT—HOW PROSECUTED.] An appeal to the supreme court from a final order, judgment or decree of an appellate court when the allowance of such appeal is discretionary with the supreme court, may be prosecuted in the manner following:

First—NOTICE TO BE FILED IN APPELLATE COURT.] Within twenty days after the entry of the order, judgment or decree proposed to be appealed from the party proposing to appeal shall file with the clerk of the appellate court a notice

9 of his intention to prosecute such appeal, which notice may be in substantially 10 the following form:

20 Second—FILING OF AUTHENTICATED RECORD, BRIEFS AND MOTION FOR APPEAL.

21 Within thirty days after the entry of the order, judgment or decree of the ap 22 pellate court proposed to be appealed from the party proposing to appeal shall 23 cause to be filed with the clerk of the supreme court a motion for the allowance 24 of such appeal and the authenticated record of the order, judgment or decree 25 proposed to be appealed from, together with twelve copies of the printed record 26 and twelve copies of the printed brief and argument of such party in support 27 of the application for such appeal: Provided, however, that the time for the 28 filing of the authenticated record, printed record and printed briefs and argu-29 ments may be extended either by the appellate court or the supreme court or 30 by any judge of either of said courts, or by agreement of the parties to the ac 31 tion. The following form of motion for an appeal provided for by this section 32 shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from 33 which other motions for appeals may be properly framed:

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF ILLINOIS.

 35 John Doe
 v.
 36 Richard Roe. } No. 175.
 } Appeal from Appellate Court of First } District, prosecuted by plaintiff.

38 This day the plaintiff moves the court for the allowance of an appeal here-39 in from the appellate court of the first district.

40
 41
 WILLIAM SMITH,
 Plaintiff's Attorney.

42 Third--PAYMENT OF FEES.] The party making the application for the ap-43 peal shall also, at the time of applying for such appeal, pay to the clerk of the 44 supreme court the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) as his fees in such appeal.
 45 For the purpose of such appeal the clerk of the appellate court, upon the pay-46 ment by the party applying for the appeal of the sum of five dollars ($5) as the 47 fees of such clerk, shall prepare and transmit to the clerk of the supreme court 48 the authenticated record aforesaid.

Fourth--ALLOWANCE OR DISALLOWANCE OF APPEAL AND FURTHER PROCEEDINGS.]

49
 50 Upon the filing of such motion, authenticated record and copies of printed 51 record and briefs and arguments in the office of the clerk of the supreme court, 52 the clerk shall notify the court thereof and the court shall thereupon allow or 53 disallow the appeal as justice may seem to require. In case of the allowance 54 of the appeal the same shall be heard and determined in the same manner, as 55 near as may be, as in other cases of appeal.

Sec. 1811. STAY OF PROCEEDINGS UPON APPEAL FROM APPELLATE COURT TO SU-

2 PREME COURT.] The allowance by the supreme court of an appeal from an 3 order, judgment or decree of an appellate court affirming an order, judgment 4 or decree of a court of original jurisdiction, or reversing an order, judgment 5 or decree of a court of original jurisdiction and remanding the action to the 6 court of original jurisdiction for a new trial or hearing, shall operate as a stay 7 of proceedings under such order, judgment or decree of the appellate court un-8 til the final determination of such appeal in the supreme court. The allowance 9 by the supreme court of an appeal from an order, judgment or decree of an 10 appellate court reversing, in whole or in part, or modifying, an order, judg-11 ment or decree of a court of original jurisdiction and entering a final order, 12 judgment or decree in lieu thereof shall not operate as a stay of proceedings 13 under such order, judgment or decree of the appellate court unless the supreme 14 court shall so order and such order may be made by the supreme court, in its 15 discretion, either with or without the giving of security by the party appeal-16 ing.

Sec. 1812. APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR TO WRONG COURT—PROCEDURE.] No ap-2 peal from any order, judgment or decree, whether interlocutory or final, or any 3 writ of error, shall be dismissed because such appeal appears to have been taken 4 to, or such writ of error prosecuted from, the wrong court, but, in any such case, 5 it shall be the duty of the court to which the appeal has been taken, or from 6 which the writ of error has been sued out, to enter an order transferring the 7 appeal or writ of error to the proper court. When such order is entered the 8 clerk of such court shall forthwith transmit a certified copy thereof, together 9 with the authenticated record of the court below, to the clerk of the court to 10 which the appeal or writ of error is ordered transferred and such court shall 11 thereupon proceed to hear and determine such appeal or writ of error as if such 12 appeal had been prosecuted to or such writ of error prosecuted from said court 13 in the first instance, and all bonds executed, deposits made or orders entered in 14 respect to any such appeal or writ of error prior to such transfer shall be as 15 valid, binding and effectual as if said appeal had been taken to or such writ 16 of error prosecuted from the right court. Whenever any appeal shall be taken 17 to the wrong court as aforesaid the court to which the same has been wrong-18 fully taken shall, upon the dismissal of the appeal, award against the party 19 appealing and in favor of the opposite party a sum not less than twenty-five 20 dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) as costs of the appeal 21 and may enforce the payment thereof by execution or attachment: Provided, 22 however, that no such costs shall be awarded in any case when it shall appear

23 to the satisfaction of the court appealed to that such appeal was taken to such 24 court in good faith and because of an honest mistake of the party appealing, 25 or of his attorney, with respect to the jurisdiction of the court appealed to.

Sec. 1813. PROCEDURE WHEN APPELLATE COURT IMPROPERLY DISMISSES APPEAL
 2 OR WRIT OF ERROR OR ORDERS TRANSFER TO SUPREME COURT.] Whenever any appeal 3 prosecuted to or writ of error prosecuted from any appellate court shall be 4 transferred to the supreme court in conformity with the provisions of the pre-5 ceding section, or an appeal shall be prosecuted to the supreme court to review 6 an order of an appellate court dismissing an appeal or writ of error, 7 and it shall appear to the supreme court upon consideration of such 8 appeal or writ of error that such order transferring the same to the 9 supreme court, or such order dismissing the appeal or writ of error, was 10 erroneous, the supreme court shall not on that account order such appeal or writ 11 of error to be retransferred or the action remanded to the appellate court, but 12 shall, notwithstanding the error of the appellate court in so transferring the 13 same, or in so dismissing the appeal or writ of error, proceed to determine 14 such appeal or writ of error upon its merits in the same manner and with the 15 same effect as if such appeal had been rightfully taken to or such writ of error 16 rightfully prosecuted from the supreme court in the first instance.

Sec. 1814. PROCEDURE WHEN APPELLATE COURT IMPROPERLY ASSUMES JURISDIC-2 TION.] Whenever any appeal is improperly taken to or writ of error is 3 improperly prosecuted from an appellate court, and such appellate court errone-4 ously determines the same upon the merits, then, in case of an appeal to 5 the supreme court to review such determination of the appellate court, 6 the supreme court shall decide the action upon its merits as if such 7 appeal had been taken to or such writ of error prosecuted from the supreme 8 court in the first instance, and all bonds executed, deposits made or orders en-9 tered in respect to any such appeal or writ of error prior to the filing of the 10 authenticated record shall be as valid, binding and effectual as if such appeal

11 had been taken to or such writ of error prosecuted from the supreme court in 12 the first instance.

Sec. 1815. PLEA OF RELEASE OF ERRORS ABOLISHED—PROCEDURE.] The plea 2 heretofore known as the plea of release of errors is hereby abolished and in lieu 3 of such plea and of the proceedings thereunder the following method of pro-4 cedure shall be adopted: Whenever, after the rendition or entry of any order, 5 judgment or decree to reverse which an appeal or writ of error is prosecuted, 6 facts shall arise which, in the opinion of any party to such appeal or writ of 7 error, operate as a release of all or any portion of the errors which may be 8 pointed out in such order, judgment or decree, such party may present such 9 facts to the court to which such appeal or from which such writ of error is 10 prosecuted by affidavit. If such facts are, in the opinion of the court, sufficient 11 in law to operate as a release of errors and the same are not disputed by the 12 party prosecuting the appeal or writ of error, or if, upon such facts being dis-13 puted, the issues thereon are found against the party prosecuting the appeal or 14 writ of error the court shall make such order in the premises as may be neces-15 sary to give effect to such release of errors, but if such facts are not, in the 16 opinion of the court, sufficient in law to operate as a release of errors, or the same 17 are disputed by the party prosecuting the appeal or writ of error and the issues 18 thereon are found in favor of the party prosecuting the appeal or writ of error, 19 the court shall proceed to consider the order, judgment or decree sought to be re-20 versed and shall affirm, modify or reverse the same as justice may require. When-21 ever the facts relied upon as a release of errors are disputed, the court shall en-22 ter an order requiring the master in chancery, or one of the masters in chancery 23 of the county in which the order, judgment or decree sought to be reversed was 24 rendered, or such other person as may be agreed upon by the parties, to take 25 the evidence upon the issues of fact and report the same to said supreme court or 26 appellate court, and, upon such evidence being taken and reported as aforesaid, 27 the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, shall take such proceed-28 ings in respect thereto as justice may require.

Sec. 1816. MANNER OF MAKING UP AUTHENTICATED RECORDS—FORM OF CERTIFI-

2 CATE.] Upon the perfecting of any appeal from or the suing out of any writ of 3 error to a court of original jurisdiction, and, in the case of a writ of error, the

Sec. 1817. APPEALS TO OR WRITS OF ERROR FROM THE SAME COURT OR DIFFERENT

 9 in lieu of obtaining an authenticated record containing the original papers filed

Sec. 1818. AUTHENTICATED RECORD WHEN APPEAL OR WRIT AFFECTS PORTION OF 2 MATTERS IN LITIGATION.] When an appeal or writ of error only concerns a por-

 4 is not necessary for the proper determination of such appeal or writ of error by 49 tuting a part of the authenticated record.

Sec. 1820. PLACITA ABOLISHED—PRESUMPTION OF REGULARITY.] It shall be unnecessary to prefix or attach to any authenticated record the form of placita heretofore in use, but without such placita it shall be presumed that the court in which any order, judgment or decree so certified has been rendered, was properly organized and constituted, that it was held at the proper time and in the proper place and that its proceedings were in all respects regular and legal, unless the contrary shall affirmatively appear from the record.

Sec. 1821. AUTHENTICATED RECORD TO BE TRANSMITTED TO CLERK OF COURT APPEALED TO.] The record so prepared, when the clerk's fees hereinbefore provided for shall have been paid, shall be transmitted by the clerk to the clerk of the court appealed to within the time required by this Act. Before transmitting the same as aforesaid the clerk shall, if so requested by the party appealing, cause a typewritten copy thereof, or of so much thereof as may be required, to be made and delivered to such party upon payment therefor at the rate of three (3) cents for each one hundred (100) words thereof.

Sec. 1822. AUTHENTICATED RECORD TO BE REMITTED FROM APPELLATE COURT OR SUPREME COURT.] When any appeal or writ of error shall have been finally disposed of by the court to which such appeal or from which such writ of error has been prosecuted, or when, upon a further appeal from the appellate court, such appeal shall have been finally determined in the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court or the appellate court, as the case may be, shall attach to the authenticated record a certified copy of the final order, judgment or decree of the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, and return the same to the court of original jurisdiction: Provided, however, that when, after the return of any such record the same, or a copy thereof, shall be needed for the purposes of a further appeal or writ of error, or for any other purpose, by the clerk of the supreme court or appellate court, the clerk of the supreme court

13 or appellate court, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the same for such 14 purpose and the same shall be transmitted or delivered to him by the clerk of 15 the court to which the same shall have been so returned, and after such pur-16 pose shall have been accomplished the same shall be returned to the clerk of the 17 court to which it belongs.

Sec. 1823. ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR ABOLISHED.] Assignments of errors are 2 hereby abolished. In lieu of assigning errors upon the record the party prose-3 cuting an appeal or writ of error shall point out in his brief or argument in the 4 supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, the errors of which he 5 complains and the reviewing court, without further specific assignment by 6 such party, shall consider all substantial errors appearing in the record. The 7 opposite party shall likewise, without any assignment upon the record of cross-8 errors, point out in his brief or argument errors of which he complains and the 9 reviewing court shall, without further specific assignment by him, consider all 10 the errors so pointed out, and no errors not pointed out by the parties or 11 noticed by the court, of its own motion, shall thereafter be complained of in 12 such action by any party thereto, upon any subsequent appeal or writ of error 13 or otherwise, unless such party, at the time of the prosecution of such prior ap-14 peal or writ of error, be an infant or person non compos mentis, and not then 15 if such prior appeal or writ of error shall have been prosecuted on behalf of 16 such infant or person non compos mentis. In criminal actions and in actions 17 in which infants or persons non compotes mentis are parties it shall be the 18 duty of the reviewing court to consider all substantial errors appearing in the 19 record and to grant relief therefrom to the parties thereto, so far as may 20 be consistent with the provisions of this Act, whether the same shall have been 21 pointed out or not.

Sec. 1821. ALL ORDERS TO BE SUBJECT TO REVIEW AT INSTANCE OF EITHER 2 PARTY.] In every case of an appeal as well as in every case of a writ of error the party prosecuting such appeal or writ of error, or any other party to the record shall be entitled to obtain a review of every final order, judgment or decree contained in the authenticated record.

Sec. 1825. PRINTING THE RECORD UPON APPEAL FROM OR WRIT OF ERROR TO COURT OF ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.] Within five days after the expiration of the time within which the party prosecuting an appeal from or writ of error to a court of original jurisdiction is required to file or cause to be filed in the supreme court, or appellate court, as the case may be, the authenticated record of the order, judgment or decree sought to be reversed, he shall also print or cause to be printed and shall file with the clerk of the supreme court, or appellate court, as the case may be, seventeen copies of the following, which shall be known and hereinafter designated as the printed record:

The court to which the appeal or from which the writ of error is prosecuted may, also, on account of the financial condition of the parties or for other good cause, direct that such printing, in whole, or in part, may be dispensed with.

Fourth—INDEX.] A complete index of the authenticated record specifying the page or pages upon which each paper therein is to be found, and the page of the commencement of the examination, cross-examination, re-examination, or other examination, of each witness, and such other information as may be required by the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be.

Sec. 1826.  25 writ of error from the appellate court was prosecuted; the judgment, order or 26 decree entered by the appellate court to reverse which the appeal to the su-27 preme court is prosecuted; or the party may, if he so elect, print such 8 senting such arguments and citations of authorities as he may deem necessary 9 or proper, and shall also within said five days deliver three or more copies 10 thereof, together with three or more copies of the printed record hereinbefore 11 provided for, to the opposite party, or, where there are several persons com-

 13 argument, together with three or more copies of such printed record, to each 14 of said persons, or their attorneys, who have entered a separate appearance.

Sec. 1829. PRINTED BRIEFS AND ARGUMENTS OF DEFENDANT IN ERROR OR AP-
 2 PELLE.] Within fifteen days after the filing of such printed brief or argu-
 3 ment, the opposite party shall file with said clerk the same number of copies 4 of his printed answer thereto, together with a specification of any errors of 5 which he complains and such suggestions with reference thereto as he may 6 deem pertinent, and within the same time shall deliver three or more copies 7 thereof to the opposite party, or where there are several persons composing the 6 have been presented to the appellate court, or to the supreme court.

Sec. 1832. PRINTED MATTER USED IN INFERIOR COURT TO BE AVAILABLE IN 2 APPELLATE COURT OR SUPREME COURT.] Whenever, for the purpose of a trial or 3 hearing in a court of original jurisdiction, the parties to the action, or either of 5 or a proper abstract thereof, the printed copies thus printed for use in the 6 court of original jurisdiction may be used by either party in the appellate 7 court or supreme court, in case of the prosecution of an appeal or writ of 8 error, in place of the printed record hereinbefore provided for or of so much 9 thereof as may be contained in such printed copies.

Sec. 1833. WHEN ACTUAL SESSIONS OF SUPREME AND APPELLATE COURTS NECES-

 6 oral arguments. All such motions shall be in writing and the suggestions and 7 papers in support of or in opposition thereto shall likewise be in writing, un-

 12 attorney, being filed showing that such purchaser or person in possession is 13 not a resident of this State, stating his place of residence, if the same be known.
 14 or, if the same be not known, that the party making the affidavit has not upon 15 due inquiry been able to ascertain the same, or, if it appears by the affidavit of 16 the party prosecuting the writ of error, his agent or attorney, that there are 17 persons interested in the action whose names are unknown, notice may be 18 given by publication as in other cases.

Sec. 1835. NOTICE TO THIRD PERSONS OF PENDENCY OF ACTION OF PUBLIC IM-
2 PORTANCE IN SUPREME COURT.] Whenever there is pending in the supreme court 3 any action involving the validity of a statute, a constitutional amendment or a 4 municipal ordinance, or any other question the decision of which by the court 5 may, in the opinion of the court, seriously affect the rights of persons not 6 parties to the action, the court may, before the final determination thereof, re-7 quire such notice to be given of the pendency of the action, and may afford such 8 opportunity for persons to be heard who are not parties to the action as the 9 court may deem just and right.

Sec. 1836. INSPECTION OF ORIGINAL PAPERS.] Whenever, in the opinion of 2 the presiding judge of any court of original jurisdiction, an inspection of an 3 original paper in an action on appeal or writ of error shall be important to a 4 correct decision of the action, such judge may make such order for the trans-5 mission, safe keeping and return of such original papers, as to him may seem 6 proper, and the clerk of the appellate court or supreme court, as the case may 7 be, shall receive such original paper together with the authenticated record 8 and hold the same subject to such order.

Sec. 1837. DAMAGES ON DISMISSAL OF APPEALS.] When appeals from orders,

5 against the party appealing at the rate of ten (10) per cent upon the amount re-6 covered in the court below, if it do not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) and,

2 Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the supreme court or appellate 3 court, as the case may be, that any appeal or writ of error in a civil or quasi 4 criminal action has been prosecuted frivolously or vexatiously, the court may, 5 in its discretion, upon the dismissal of the appeal or writ of error, or the affirm-6 ance of the order, judgment or decree to reverse which the appeal or writ of 7 error has been prosecuted, award damages against the party appealing or pros-8 ecuting the writ of error at the rate provided for in the preceding section, if 9 such order, judgment or decree be one for the payment of money, or, in case 10 such order, judgment or decree is not one for the payment of money, such 11 award of damages may be in such an amount as the supreme court or appellate 12 court, as the case may be, shall deem just and right. Whenever it shall appear 13 to the satisfaction of the supreme court that a writ of error in a criminal ac-14 tion, other than one in which the punishment may be death or confinement in 15 the penitentiary, has been prosecuted frivolously and for the purpose of delay, 16 the court, upon the dismissal of the writ of error or the affirmance of the order 17 or judgment to reverse which the writ of error has been prosecuted, may, in its 18 discretion, award against the party prosecuting the writ of error damages to 19 such an amount, not exceeding in any case one hundred dollars ($100), as the 20 court may deem just and right, the payment of such damages to be enforced in 21 the manner provided by law for the enforcement of the payment of fines and 22 costs in criminal cases. Whenever damages are awarded as provided in this 23 section, the supreme court or appellate court shall certify the same to the court 24 of original jurisdiction from which the appeal or to which the writ of error has 25 been prosecuted and such court shall enter judgment therefor and enforce the 26 payment thereof in the manner provided by law for the enforcement of judg-27 ments of such court.

Sec. 1839. NO FINAL ORDER TO ISSUE UNTIL THIRTY DAYS EXCEPT, ETC.] No

2 order of affirmance, reversal, dismissal, or reversal and remandment, of any

3 final order, judgment or decree, in any action decided by the supreme court 4 or appellate court upon appeal or writ of error, shall be transmitted to the 5 court of original jurisdiction until the expiration of thirty days after the date 6 of the final order, judgment or decree entered by the supreme court or ap-7 pellate court therein, unless the court shall expressly otherwise order.

Sec. 1840. ORDER OF DISPOSITION OF BUSINESS.] In the disposition of busi-2 ness before the supreme court and appellate courts actions in which the people 3 are a party and in which they have a direct interest in the decision, actions of 4 habeas corpus, actions in which injunction orders have been granted, actions 5 in which receivers have been appointed, actions of mandamus, actions of quo 6 warranto and criminal actions shall, so far as may be practicable, take pre-7 cedence in the foregoing order over all other actions excepting appeals from 8 interlocutory orders, judgments and decrees. Actions other than those thus enu-9 merated shall be disposed of by the court, so far as may be practicable, in 10 the order in which the parties have completed the filing of their printed briefs 11 and arguments, excepting cases in which oral arguments are made, which cases 12 shall, so far as may be practicable, be disposed of in the order in which they 13 are argued.

Sec. 1841. REHEARINGS—HOW APPLIED FOR.] Every party to an action de-2 termined by the supreme court, upon appeal or writ of error to review a final 3 order, judgment or decree, may apply for a rehearing therein in the following 4 manner: Within fifteen days after an opinion is filed or a decision announced 5 the party desiring a rehearing shall file a notice in writing of his intention 6 to make such application with the clerk of the supreme court, and within 7 twenty-five days after the filing of the opinion of the court or the announce-8 ment of its decision shall place on file in the clerk's office twenty printed copies 9 of the petition: Provided, however, that the time for the filing of said printed 10 copies of the petition may be extended by stipulation of the parties for an addi-

11 tional period not exceeding fifteen days, upon such stipulation being filed in 12 the clerk's office within said twenty-five days, or upon an order entered by the 13 court, or an order signed by any judge thereof, granting the extension. Upon the 14 filing of any petition for a rehearing the party filing the same shall, upon de-15 mand, deliver to the opposite party, or his attorney, three or more copies there-16 of. Any appellate court may be applied to for a rehearing in substantially the 17 same manner as above provided for on application to the supreme court for a 18 rehearing: Provided, however, no such application shall be allowed in any case 19 in which the judgment of the appellate court is subject to review by appeal in 20 the discretion of the supreme court.

Sec. 1842. APPLICATION TO BE BY PETITION—NO LIMITATION UPON ARGU-
 2 MENT.] An application for a rehearing shall be made by petition to the court, 3 signed by counsel and printed, stating, as concisely and briefly as the counsel 4 preparing the same may deem practicable, the grounds upon which such re-5 hearing is applied for, with such argument in support of the application as 6 such counsel may deem pertinent and necessary. No limitation shall be placed 7 by any rule of court upon the right of counsel to present printed arguments in 8 support of the application for a rehearing.

Sec. 1843. COURT GRANTING REHEARING TO STATE POINTS—FILING OF ARGU-
 2 MENT.] When, in any case, a rehearing is granted by the supreme court, it 3 shall be the duty of the court, at the time of granting such rehearing, to file 4 a statement in writing specifying the points with respect to which further 5 argument is desired by the court. The petition for a rehearing shall stand as 6 the printed argument in such case of the party in whose favor the rehearing 7 is granted. The opposing party shall, in every such case, have twenty days from 8 the time of the granting of the rehearing to reply to the petition, and the peti-9 tioner shall have ten days to file his closing argument, and the action shall 10 then stand for final decision: Provided, however, that the time for the filing

11 of the arguments subsequent to the petition for a rehearing may be extended 12 not exceeding twenty days by the stipulation of the parties or by an order of 13 the court or of any judge thereof.

Sec. 1844. AGREED CASE.] The parties to any action or proceeding in any 2 court of record may make an agreed case containing the points of law at issue 3 between them and file the same in such court and the original of said agreed 4 case, with a certified copy of the final order, judgment or decree rendered or 5 entered thereon, may be certified by the clerk of such court to the supreme 6 court or appellate court, as the case may be, in lieu of the authenticated record 7 provided for by this Act; and upon such agreed case and the order, judgment 8 or decree rendered or entered thereon being so certified and filed in the su-9 preme court or appellate court, as the case may be, the action shall then be pro-10 ceeded with in the same manner, as near as may be, as an ordinary appeal or 11 writ of error, and the same shall be determined by the supreme court or appel-12 late court, as the case may be, according to the right and justice of the case. But 13 in every such case an affidavit shall be filed in the supreme court or appellate 14 court, as the case may be, setting forth that the matters presented by the record 15 are being litigated in good faith about a matter in actual controversy between the 16 parties and that the opinion of the supreme court or appellate court, as the case 17 may be, is not sought with any other design than to adjudicate and settle the 18 law relative to the matter in actual controversy between the parties to the 19 record.

Sec. 1845. JUDGMENTS WHICH MAY BE ENTERED ON APPEAL OR ERROR.] In 2 every case of appeal from or writ of error to a court of original jurisdiction 3 the supreme court or appellate court may render either one of the following 4 final judgments.

5 First—AFFIRMANCE.] It may affirm the order, judgment or decree of the 6 inferior court.

7 Second—REVERSAL OR MODIFICATION AND NEW ORDER, ETC.] It may reverse, in 8 whole or in part, or modify the order, judgment or decree of the inferior 9 court and enter a final order, judgment or decree in lieu thereof: Provided, 10 however, that this clause shall not apply to final judgments entered upon ver-11 dicts of juries in actions in which the parties are entitled to trials by jury 12 as a matter of right, excepting that, in any tort action, or action for the breach 13 of a promise of marriage in which the damages awarded by the jury seem to 14 be excessive, the supreme court or appellate court may, with the consent of the 15 party in whose favor the judgment has been entered, enter a remittitur and 16 affirm the judgment for the balance after deducting such remittitur, or enter a 17 new judgment for such balance after deducting such remittitur, and excepting 18 also that in any action on a contract, express or implied, other than an action 19 for a breach of promise of marriage, the supreme court or appellate court may 20 increase or decrease the amount of the judgment as hereinafter provided.

21 Third—REVERSAL AND REMANDMENT FOR NEW TRIAL OR HEARING.] It may 22 reverse the order, judgment or decree of the inferior court and remand the 23 action to such inferior court for a new trial or new hearing.

24 Fourth—DISMISSAL OF APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR.] It may dismiss the appeal 25 from or writ of error to the inferior court.

26 Fifth—TRANSFER.] It may transfer the appeal or writ of error to the ap-27 pellate court or supreme court, as the case may be.

Sec. 1846. ACTION NOT TO BE REMANDED WITH DIRECTIONS WHEN.] Neither 2 the supreme court nor any appellate court shall in any case reverse a final 3 order, judgment or decree of a court of original jurisdiction and remand the 4 action with such directions as leave no discretion to such inferior court with 5 respect to further proceedings; but in every case where the decision of the su-6 preme court or appellate court is intended by such court to be construed as a 7 final settlement of the rights of the parties so that nothing remains to be done 8 but to carry such decision into effect, the supreme court or appellate court, as 9 the case may be, shall enter the judgment or decree proper for that purpose 10 without remanding the action, and every judgment or decree of the supreme 11 court or appellate court reversing a final order, judgment or decree of a court 12 of original jurisdiction and remanding the action to such court for further pro-13 ceedings shall, excepting as may be otherwise expressly provided by this Act, 14 be construed to authorize a new trial or new hearing of the matter involved 15 in such final order, judgment or decree upon its merits, with liberty to the 16 parties to amend their pleadings, or other papers, and to introduce further 17 evidence.

Sec. 1847. PROCEDURE WHEN JUDGMENT IS AFFIRMED.] When, upon appeal 2 from or writ of error to a court of original jurisdiction, the decision of the 3 supreme court or appellate court is that a final order, judgment or decree of 4 the court of original jurisdiction be affirmed, the clerk of the supreme court or 5 appellate court, as the case may be, at the end of thirty (30) days after the entry 6 of the judgment of affirmance or, in case of a further stay of proceedings, 7 upon the termination of such stay of proceedings, shall transmit a certified 8 copy thereof attached to the authenticated record of the action, to the court of 9 original jurisdiction and upon the filing thereof in such court of original juris-10 diction the order, judgment or decree thus affirmed may be enforced or carried 11 into effect by execution or other appropriate proceeding.

Sec. 1848. PROCEDURE WHEN JUDGMENT, ETC., REVERSED AND ACTION NOT RE-
 2 MANDED.] When the decision of the supreme court or appellate court is that a 3 final order, judgment or decree of the court of original jurisdiction be reversed,

4 in whole or in part, or modified without the action being remanded for a new 5 trial or new hearing, a final judgment or decree in appropriate form shall be 6 entered in the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, and at the 7 end of thirty (30) days after the entry thereof, or, in case of a further stay of pro-8 ceedings, at the termination of such stay of proceedings, a certified copy thereof 9 attached to the authenticated record of the action shall be transmitted to the 10 court of original jurisdiction and entered upon the record of such court and, 11 if the same be a judgment or decree for money, the same shall be a lien on real 12 estate from the date of the entry thereof in the supreme court or appellate court 13 to the same extent as if the same were a judgment or decree of such court of 14 original jurisdiction, and every such final judgment or decree of the supreme 15 court or appellate court, as the case may be, shall be deemed a judgment of such 16 court of original jurisdiction and shall be enforced or carried into effect by 17 execution or other appropriate proceeding by such court of original jurisdic-18 tion in the same manner as other judgments or decrees of such court.

Sec. 1849. PROCEDURE WHEN JUDGMENT, ETC., REVERSED AND ACTION RE-
2 MANDED.] When, upon appeal from or writ of error to a court of original jurisdic-3 tion, the decision of the supreme court, or appellate court, is that a final order, 4 judgment or decree of the court of original jurisdiction be reversed and the 5 action remanded, the clerk of the supreme court or appellate court, as the case 6 may be, shall at the end of thirty (30) days after the entry thereof, or, in case of a 7 further stay of proceedings, upon the termination of such stay of proceedings, 8 transmit a certified copy thereof, together with a certified copy of the opinion of 9 the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, attached to the au-10 thenticated record of the action to the court of original jurisdiction and upon 11 the filing thereof in such court of original jurisdiction such court shall, except-12 ing as may be otherwise expressly provided by this Act, proceed to a new 13 trial or new hearing of the action upon its merits with liberty to the parties to 14 amend their pleadings or other papers and to introduce further evidence.

Sec. 1850. PROCEDURE WHEN APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR DISMISSED.] When,

2 upon appeal from or writ of error to a court of original jurisdiction, the de-3 cision of the supreme court or appellate court is that the appeal or writ of 4 error be dismissed, the clerk of the supreme court, or appellate court, as the 5 case may be, at the end of thirty (30) days after the entry of the judgment of 6 dismissal, or, in case of a further stay of proceedings, upon the termination of 7 such stay of proceedings, shall transmit a certified copy thereof, attached to the 8 authenticated record of the action, to the court of original jurisdiction, and, 9 upon the filing thereof in such court of original jurisdiction the order, judg-

 11 or writ of error was prosecuted may be enforced or carried into effect by execu-12 tion or other appropriate proceeding.

2 writ of error to a court of original jurisdiction, the decision of the supreme 3 court or appellate court is that the appeal or writ of error be transferred from 4 the supreme court to the appellate court, or from the appellate court to the su-5 preme court, as the case may be, the clerk of the supreme court, or appellate 6 court, as the case may be, immediately after the entry of the judgment of trans-

 8 of the action, to the court to which the transfer is made, and upon the filing 9 thereof in such court, such court shall proceed with the determination of the 10 appeal or writ of error in the same manner as if the appeal had been taken to 11 or writ of error prosecuted from such court.

Sec. 1852. WHEN CERTIFIED COPY, ETC., MAY BE TRANSMITTED PRIOR TO LAPSE

2 OF THIRTY DAYS.] Whenever the supreme court or appellate court shall so

 4 which render it necessary that the authenticated record should remain

 8 as the case may be, shall be transmitted to the court of original jurisdiction 9 without the authenticated record being attached thereto, and such authenti-

 6 file a brief memorandum, for the information of the parties, setting forth the 7 grounds of the decision.

Sec. 1863. CIRCUIT JUDGES TO BE ASSIGNED TO ASSIST SUPREME AND APPELLATE 2 COURTS.] The supreme court may assign, from time to time, such number of 3 judges of the circuit courts as the court may deem advisable to the duty of aid-

 6 law and questions of fact arising in appeals and writs of error.

7 Second—OPINIONS.] In the preparation of written opinions.

8 Third—GENERAL SUPERINTENDENCE.] In the performance of the duties im-9 posed upon the judges of the supreme court by this act in respect to the general 10 superintendence of the administration of justice in this State.

11 Fourth—EXAMINATION OF BOOKS.] In the examination of the books required 12 by this act to be prepared and, when approved by the judges of the supreme 13 court, to be published and distributed under the superintendence of the supreme 14 court.

15 Fifth—OTHER WORK.] In the performance of such other work as the judges 16 of the supreme court may deem proper.

Sec. 1864. JUDGES SO ASSIGNED TO ATTEND—POWERS OF JUDGES ASSIGNED TO AP-
 2 PELLATE COURTS.] Circuit judges assigned to duty as provided in the preceding 3 section shall attend the court to which they may be assigned during such periods 4 as may be fixed by the supreme court, and shall perform such work as may be 5 allotted to them by the supreme court or the appellate courts. Every judge

6 so assigned to duty shall be paid out of the state treasury, on the certificate of 7 the chief justice of the supreme court, his traveling and other reasonable and 8 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of such duty. Any three judges 9 assigned to duty as aforesaid in any appellate court may, when so ordered by 10 the supreme court, have all the powers of a branch court in the determination of 11 causes therein.

Sec. 1865. JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT AUTHORIZED TO SELECT ASSISTANTS—2 QUALIFICATIONS—SALARY—TENURE.] The judges of the supreme court are hereby 3 authorized to appoint such number of persons, not exceeding three, as they may 4 deem expedient to aid and assist said judges, in such manner as said judges 5 may deem proper, in the performance of the work imposed upon them by law.
 6 The persons so appointed shall be residents of this State and shall be persons 7 of high standing and recognized ability in the profession of the law. No person 8 shall be so appointed who shall not have attained the age of forty years, or who 9 shall have attained the age of seventy years, or whose physical condition is not 10 such as to enable him to properly and promptly perform such work as may be 11 imposed upon him by the judges of the supreme court. Every person so ap-12 pointed shall receive a salary of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per annum pay-13 able quarterly out of the State treasury, and he shall continue to hold the 14 position to which he is appointed during the pleasure of a majority of the judges 15 of the supreme court.

Sec. 1866. RULES TO BE OBSERVED IN REVIEW OF JUDGMENTS, ETC., OF COURTS
 2 OF ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.] In the review of orders, judgments and decrees of 3 courts of original jurisdiction by the Supreme Court and the appellate courts 4 the following rules shall be observed:

5 First—ALL QUESTIONS OF LAW AND FACT REVIEWABLE.] Upon the review by 6 the Supreme Court or any appellate court of any order, judgment or decree 7 of a court of original jurisdiction all the decisions of such court of original 8 jurisdiction pertaining to such judgment, order or decree, shall be reviewable, 9 whether such decisions pertain to the law or to the facts, and, upon the review by the Supreme Court of any order, judgment or decree of an appellate court; all decisions of the court of original jurisdiction shall be reviewable which were reviewable by the appellate court.

Second—WHEN VERDICT NOT TO BE SET ASIDE.] The verdict of a jury in an action in which either party is entitled to a trial by jury as a matter of right, other than a criminal action, shall not be set aside because the same may appear to the Supreme Court or appellate court to be contrary to the evidence, unless the evidence preserved in the report of the proceedings settled and signed by the presiding judge is such as to satisfy the court beyond all reasonable doubt that to permit the verdict to stand would result in a miscarriage of justice.

Third—ERROR IN ADMISSION OF EVIDENCE NOT TO BE GROUND FOR REVERSAL WHEN.] No error committed by a court of original jurisdiction in admitting evidence in an action tried by jury shall be deemed ground for the reversal of the judgment entered upon the verdict of the jury, unless it shall appear probable to the supreme court or appellate court that such error, either of itself alone or in connection with other errors which may have been committed by such court of original jurisdiction, caused the rendition of a verdict different from that which otherwise would have been rendered by such jury.

Fourth—IMPROPER REMARKS.] No improper remark or remarks made during the progress of a trial by jury, whether made by the court or by any attorney, shall be deemed sufficient ground for the reversal of the judgment entered as a result of such trial, unless it shall appear probable to the Supreme Court or appellate court that such remark or remarks, either alone or in connection with other erroneous proceedings of the court of original jurisdiction, caused the jury to render a verdict which otherwise they would not have rendered.

Fifth—REFUSAL TO ADMIT COMPETENT EVIDENCE.] No error committed by a court of original jurisdiction in a refusal to admit competent evidence in an action other than a criminal action, shall be deemed sufficient ground for the reversal of a judgment, unless it shall appear that the evidence rejected was so important that the party complaining was seriously prejudiced by the refusal of the court to admit the same, and that the admission of such evidence would probably have resulted in a different judgment; and, for the purpose of ascertaining whether such refusal to admit competent evidence should require the reversal of such judgment, the supreme court, or appellate court, as the case may be, shall have power to cause such rejected evidence to be taken before a master in chancery or other officer of the court of original jurisdiction and to be reported to the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, for its consideration in the determination of the appeal or writ of error.

Sixth—CHARGE OF THE COURT,] The charge of the court in a trial by jury shall in every case be considered as a whole, and if, when so considered, it states the law applicable to the case fairly and with reasonable accuracy, the judgment shall not be reversed because some portion or portions of the charge when considered alone, would appear to be erroneous, nor shall any error in a charge as given, or in refusing to charge as requested, be ground for reversal unless it appears probable to the Supreme Court or appellate court that the jury were misled thereby.

Seventh—ERRORS OF LAW NOT TO BE GROUND FOR REVERSAL WHEN.] No judgment in an action tried by jury shall be reversed for errors of law committed by the court of original jurisdiction after the impanelling of the jury and during the progress of the trial thereof, other than errors committed by the refusal of the court to admit competent evidence, if, in the opinion of the Supreme Court or appellate court, the verdict of the jury, notwithstanding such error, was clearly justified by the greater weight of the evidence, if the action is a civil or quasi criminal action, or that the evidence established the guilt of the defendant beyond all reasonable doubt, if the action is a criminal action.

Eighth—PRESUMPTION AS TO INTEGRITY AND SOUND JUDGMENT OF JURORS.] In the review of a trial by jury the presumption shall be indulged, in the absence of proof other than their verdict in the record to the contrary, that the jurors were men free of all legal exceptions, of approved integrity, of sound judgment, well informed and who understood the English language, and that their verdict has not been affected by irregularities, or matters, other than the law and the evidence, which ought not to affect the judgment of men of approved integrity, of sound judgment and who are well informed.

Ninth—FINDING OF COURT TO BE MERELY ADVISORY—ERRORS OF LAW.] In actions at law tried by the court without a jury the finding of the court shall be advisory merely and shall be given such weight only as may be justified from the opportunity, if any, afforded the trial judge of seeing the witnesses and hearing them testify, and such finding shall in no manner relieve the Supreme Court or the appellate court of the duty of a full and careful consideration of the evidence, and the Supreme Court or appellate court shall affirm or reverse the judgment, or modify the same according to their opinion of the right and justice of the case as shown by the evidence, without any regard to such judgment or to errors committed by the trial court during the progress of the trial: Provided, however, that errors committed by the trial court in refusing to admit competent evidence shall be ground for the reversal of the judgment, if it appears probable that the admission of such evidence would have produced a different result, or, that the evidence rejected was so important that the party complaining was seriously prejudiced by the refusal of the court to admit the same.

Tenth—FINDING OF MASTER AND DECREE TO BE MERELY ADVISORY.] The finding of a master in chancery, or the order or decree of a court of original jurisdiction, in an action in equity shall be advisory merely, and shall be given such weight only as may be justified from the opportunity, if any, afforded the master or trial judge of seeing the witnesses and hearing them testify, and no presumption shall be indulged to sustain any decree in an action in equity which appears to the Supreme Court or appellate court to be contrary to the evidence, nor shall such finding, order or decree in any manner relieve the Supreme Court or the appellate court of the duty of a full and careful consideration of the evidence.

99 Eleventh—VARIANCE.] No order, judgment or decree in any action shall 100 be reversed on account of any variance or supposed variance between the 101 statements of claims, specifications of defenses, pleadings or other papers filed 102 by the respective parties and the evidence, unless it shall appear probable that, 103 by reason of such variance, the party complaining thereof has been prevented 104 from presenting to the court of original jurisdiction additional evidence of ad-105 vantage to him in the prosecution of his claim or the establishing of his 106 defense, or has been otherwise seriously prejudiced by such variance.

107 Twelfth—WHEN REVERSAL IS FOR ERROR AS TO DAMAGES.] Whenever, in any 108 action at law for the recovery of money only, a judgment in favor of either 109 party entered upon the verdict of a jury shall be reversed by the Supreme 110 Court or any appellate court solely on account of errors in the proceedings 111 affecting the amount of damages awarded to such party, it shall be the duty of 112 the Supreme Court or appellate court, as the case may be, to remand the ac-113 tion to the court of original jurisdiction with directions to order a new trial 114 of such action and upon such new trial to submit to the jury no other ques-115 tion than the amount of damages which the evidence may entitle such party 116 to recover, and in such case it shall be the duty of the trial court to instruct 117 the jury that the liability of the opposite party has been established and that 118 the sole question for the determination of the jury is the amount to be awarded 119 as damages to the party whose judgment has been so reversed.

120 Thirteenth—WHEN OMISSION AS TO PROOF MAY BE SUPPLIED.] Whenever, 121 from an inspection of the authenticated record, it shall appear that an order, 122 judgment or decree of the court of original jurisdiction in any action, whether 123 the same be tried by jury or by the court without a jury, is erroneous solely be-124 cause of the omission of proof of some material fact or facts, which proof may 125 be made to appear to the court to have been omitted through inadvertence and 126 to be capable of being readily supplied, the Supreme Court or the appellate 127 court, as the case may be, may, in its discretion, permit such proof to be sup-128 plied in such manner as the court may deem expedient, and, upon proof to the 129 satisfaction of the court of such material fact or facts, such order, judgment or 130 decree shall be affirmed.

131 Fourteenth—CURING DEFECT IN PLEADING, WRIT, OFFICER'S RETURN, ETC.]
132 Whenever from an inspection of the authenticated record it shall appear that 133 an order, judgment or decree of the court of original jurisdiction is errone-134 ous because of some defect in some pleading, summons, writ, affidavit, offi-135 cer's return or other paper filed, or in some record entry, the Supreme Court 136 or appellate court, as the case may be, shall, if such defect be capable of re-137 moval by amendment, permit such pleading, summons, writ, affidavit, officer's 138 return or other paper, or record entry, to be amended to conform to the truth, 139 and when such amendment shall be made such defect shall not be ground for 140 the reversal of such order, judgment or decree.

141 Fifteenth—POWER OF SUPREME AND APPELLATE COURTS TO INCREASE OR DIMINISH 142 DAMAGES IN ACTIONS ON CONTRACTS TRIED BY JURY.] Whenever, upon an appeal 143 or writ of error for the review of a judgment of a court of original jurisdiction 144 in an action on a contract, express or implied, tried by jury, other than an ac-145 tion for a breach of promise of marriage, it shall appear to the appellate court 146 or the supreme court, that such judgment is erroneous only in respect to the 147 amount of damages awarded by the jury, and that the amount of damages which 148 ought to have been awarded by the jury can be ascertained or estimated by the 149 court from the evidence with as much accuracy and certainty as the same could 150 be estimated by a jury, the court shall not reverse the judgment on account of 151 such error, but shall correct the same by increasing or decreasing the amount 152 thereof to such an extent as the court may deem equitable and just and shall 153 affirm the same as so corrected.

154 Sixteenth—POWER OF SUPREME COURT IN CRIMINAL CASES.] Upon any writ 155 of error for the review of a judgment of a court of original jurisdiction in a 156 criminal action, the supreme court shall have power to mitigate the punishment 157 of any defendant as fixed by the judgment of such court of original jurisdiction 158 to such an extent as the court may deem just and right, and the supreme court

159 shall also have power in any such case, subject to such rules as the court may 160 prescribe therefor, to receive, on behalf of the defendant, additional evidence 161 bearing upon his guilt or innocence, and to render such judgment as such addi-162 tional evidence, together with the evidence contained in the authenticated rec-163 ord, may appear to justify: Provided, however, that when additional evidence 164 is introduced on behalf of the defendant, additional evidence may also be offered 165 on behalf of the people; and, provided further, that no judgment so entered by 166 the supreme court shall increase the punishment of the defendant as fixed in the 167 judgment of the court of original jurisdiction.

168 Seventeenth—WHEN JOINT JUDGMENT ERRONEOUS ONLY AS TO PORTION OF DE-169 FENDANTS.] When, upon the review of a joint judgment against several defend-170 ants, it appears that such judgment is erroneous only as to one or more but not 171 all of the defendants the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, 172 shall reverse the judgment only as to the defendant or defendants as to whom 173 the same is erroneous and shall affirm the same as to the defendant or defend-174 ants as to whom the same is not erroneous and shall make such order with re-175 spect to further proceedings in the court of original jurisdiction as may appear 176 to be necessary to the attainment of right and justice.

177 Eighteenth—GRANTING INJUNCTION ORDERS, APPOINTING RECEIVERS, OR SUSPEND-178 ING OR MODIFYING INJUNCTION OR RECEIVERSHIP ORDERS, ETC.] The supreme court, 179 or appellate court may, in its discretion, pending the final determination of any 180 appeal or writ of error, grant an injunction order or appoint a receiver, or sus-181 pend or modify an injunction order or receivership order granted by the court 182 of original jurisdiction, or may make any other order which the court of orig-
 183 inal jurisdiction might have made and for that purpose may allow the introduc-184 tion of additional evidence.

185 Nineteenth—MODIFYING ORDER, JUDGMENT OR DECREE UPON FACTS ARISING SINCE 186 THE ENTRY THEREOF.] Whenever it shall appear to the supreme court, or appel-187 late court, as the case may be, that facts have arisen since the entry, by the 188 court of original jurisdiction, of the order, judgment or decree sought to be reviewed which render it right and just that such order, judgment or decree should be varied, modified or reversed, the court may make such variation or modification of such order, judgment or decree, or may reverse the same, so that right and justice may be done between the parties and to that end the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may be, shall have power to permit such facts to be proven in such manner as the court may deem convenient.

Twentieth—GENERAL POWER OF APPELLATE AND SUPREME COURTS.] The supreme court and the appellate courts shall have power to adopt all other proceedings in addition to those hereinbefore in this section specified, either by the reception of additional evidence or otherwise, as may appear to be necessary or expedient to the determination of every appeal or writ of error according to the very right and justice of the case as the same may be made to appear to the supreme court or appellate court: Provided, however, that all such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed, from time to time, by the supreme court, and, provided further, that in an action tried by jury additional evidence shall be admitted only to the extent provided for in the preceding clauses of this section.

Sec. 1867. CERTIFYING QUESTIONS AS TO CONSTRUCTION OF THIS ACT, ETC.—
 FORM OF CERTIFICATE.] Whenever, during the pendency of any action in any circuit court, the superior court of Cook county, the criminal court of Cook county, or any city court, any question shall arise in respect to the practice or mode of procedure in such action, and the presiding judge of such court shall be in doubt as to the proper decision to make upon such question, such judge, if such question be one of law only, may, in his discretion, certify such question to the supreme court, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the supreme court to determine such question of law with all convenient speed and to cause its decision to be certified to such court of original jurisdiction. Any judge certifying any such question to the supreme court shall accompany his certificate

12 by such suggestions and citations of authorities, if any, as the respective 13 parties may request to be transmitted to the supreme court to aid the court in 14 the determination of such question, and shall allow said respective parties such 15 reasonable time as may be necessary to enable them to prepare such sugges-16 tions and citations of authorities. Such certificate may be in substantially the 17 following form:

 2 provided for by this Act the procedure in the supreme court and appellate 3 courts in cases of appeal and writs of error shall be such as may be prescribed 4 by such rules as may be adopted by the supreme court, and, when no provision 5 is made by this act or by such rules, then as nearly in accordance with the 6 methods of procedure heretofore prevailing in this state in such appeals and 7 writs of error as may be consistent with the general spirit and intention of this 8 Act.

 6 specified in the succeeding section, consist of the papers and record entries which 7 by the laws in force at the time of the taking effect of this act, constitute the 8 records thereof.

Sec. 1876. SUPREME COURT TO PRESCRIBE RULES AS TO OTHER PROCEEDINGS.] It

2 shall be the duty of the Supreme Court, as soon after the taking effect of this 3 Act as may be practicable, to prescribe by rule what papers and record entries 4 shall constitute the record in all actions and proceedings referred to in the pre-5 ceding section and the manner of making up and certifying the authenticated 6 records in such cases for the purposes of appeals and writs of error, and the 7 Supreme Court may also, by general rule, for the purpose of appeals and writs 8 of error, provide for the incorporation in the authenticated record, in any action 9 or proceeding hereinbefore specially provided for, any other paper or record entry which, in the opinion of the court, ought to constitute a part of the record of such action or proceeding. The rules provided for in this section may be prescribed by the judges of the supreme court either in term time or in vacation.

Sec. 1877. REFORMING PLEADINGS, ETC., IN PENDING ACTIONS.] In any action at law, a criminal action or a quasi criminal action commenced by warrant accepted, or in any action in equity, which action at law or in equity may be pending at the time of the taking effect of this Act, the court in which such action is pending may, at the request of either party, or of its own motion, cause the pleadings and other papers filed therein and the record entries made therein to be reformed so as to comply, as near as may be, with the provisions of this Act, and thereupon such action shall be prosecuted, and all subsequent proceedings therein, including an appeal or writ of error, shall be conducted, as if the same had been commenced and prosecuted subsequent to the taking effect of this Act, but in such case the time elapsing between the commencement of such action and such reformation of the pleadings and other papers and record entries, shall not be counted as a part of the time provided by law for the limitation of the action.

Sec. 1878. PARTIES NOT TO BE PREJUDICED BY MISTAKES IN PREPARATION OF AUTHENTICATED RECORD.] Whenever, upon the prosecution of any appeal or writ of error after the taking effect of this Act, it shall appear that the authenticated record has been improperly prepared, or is so defective that the appellate court, or supreme court, as the case may be, cannot determine therefrom the right and justice of the case, it shall be the duty of the appellate court, or supreme court, as the case may be, before finally determining the appeal or writ of error, to make such order in the action as may be necessary to enable the parties to procure the filing in such court of a proper authenticated record and, in case such proper authenticated record shall be procured and filed as aforesaid, to determine therefrom the merits of such appeal or writ of error.

Sec. 1879. VALIDITY OF JUDGMENTS, ETC., IN COLLATERAL PROCEEDING.] Every

 5 pear from the record. In determining the validity of any such final order, 6 judgment or decree in a collateral proceeding, the jurisdiction of the court over 7 the persons of the parties thereto shall be presumed unless the contrary shall 8 affirmatively appear from the record, and when, in any collateral proceeding, 9 any such final order, judgment or decree shall recite the jurisdiction of the 10 court over any party thereto, such recital shall not be held overcome by any 11 defect in the return of any officer or other proof of service of the summons 12 or writ, or in any paper pertaining to any notice by publication.

Sec. 1880. TEST OF JURISDICTION IN CASE OF APPEAL—AMENDMENT OF RECORD.]
 2 In case of the prosecution of an appeal or a writ of error, in any action or 4 judgment or decree entered against a party who has not entered his appear-5 ance in the action or otherwise submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the 6 court, no presumption shall be indulged in favor of the jurisdiction of the court 7 over the person of such party, but the judgment may be reversed upon such 8 appeal or writ of error unless such jurisdiction shall be made affirmatively to 9 appear from the proof of the service of the summons or writ or the publication 10 of the notice in the record: Provided, however, that upon the prosecution of any 11 such appeal or writ of error the court to which such appeal or from which such 12 writ of error is prosecuted shall, if such jurisdiction does not so affirmatively 13 appear, permit proof to be made of the proper service of summons or proper 14 publication of notice, and, upon such proof being made to the satisfaction of 15 the court, the court shall cause the record to be amended, and thereupon such 16 order, judgment or decree shall not be reversed on account of any defect in 17 the record of the court from which the appeal or to which the writ of error is 18 prosecuted in respect to the proof of the proper service of the summons or the 19 proper publication of the notice.

Sec. 1881. RECORD OF APPELLATE COURT.] The record of an appellate 2 court in an action commenced, or the papers and record entries in which have 3 been reformed as hereinbefore provided, after the taking effect of this Act and 5 consist of the authenticated record of the inferior court, the final judgment of 6 the appellate court and the opinion, if any, of the appellate court, together with 7 a report of the proceedings of the appellate court, when the same is necessary 8 to bring before the supreme court for review any order of the appellate court 9 based upon matters not appearing in the authenticated record of the inferior 10 court, which report may be signed by any two of the judges of the appellate 11 court.

Sec. 1882. RECORD OF SUPREME COURT IN CASE OF ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.]
2 The record of the supreme court in an action within its original jurisdiction 3 commenced therein after the taking effect of this Act shall be the same, as near 4 as may be, as the record of a like case in a circuit court.

Sec. 1883. RECORD OF SUPREME COURT UPON APPEAL FROM OR ERROR TO COURT
2 OF ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.] The record of the supreme court in an action com-3 menced, or the papers and record entries in which have been reformed as here-4 inbefore provided, after the taking effect of this Act and removed by appeal or 5 writ of error into the supreme court from a court of original jurisdiction for 6 review, shall be the same, as near as may be, as the record of a like case in 7 an appellate court.

Sec. 1884. RECORD OF SUPREME COURT UPON APPEAL FROM OR WRIT OF ERROR
2 TO APPELLATE COURT.] The record of the supreme court, in an action com-
3 menced, or the papers and record entries in which have been reformed as here-
4 inbefore provided, after the taking effect of this Act and removed by appeal

5 or writ of error into the supreme court from an appellate court for review, 6 shall consist of the authenticated record of the court of original jurisdiction 7 and the authenticated record of the appellate court in such action, which authen 8 ticated record of the appellate court shall consist of the final judgment and 9 the opinion, if any, of the appellate court, together with the report, if any, of 10 the proceedings signed by any two of the judges of the appellate court.

Sec. 1885. RECORDS OF SUPREME AND APPELLATE COURTS IN OTHER CASES.] The 2 records of the supreme court and the appellate courts of all actions and pro-3 ceedings heretofore determined, and of all actions and proceedings pending 4 therein at the time of the taking effect of this Act, shall, until otherwise pro-5 vided as specified in the succeeding section, consist of the papers and record 6 entries which, by the laws in force at the time of the taking effect of this Act, 7 constitute the records thereof.

Sec. 1886. SUPREME COURT TO PRESCRIBE RULES AS TO OTHER PROCEEDINGS.] It
 2 shall be the duty of the supreme court, as soon after the taking effect of this
 3 Act as may be practicable, to prescribe by rule what papers and record entries 4 shall constitute the records of the supreme court and of the appellate courts 5 in all actions and proceedings referred to in the preceding section and the man-6 ner of making up and certifying the authenticated records in such cases. The 7 rule provided for in this section may be prescribed by the judges of the su-8 preme court either in term time or in vacation.

Sec. 1887. FEDERAL QUESTIONS—HOW PRESERVED.] When a final order, judg-
 2 ment or decree of the supreme court of this State in any action is the result, 3 in whole or in part, of a decision with respect to which any party to the action 4 is entitled to a review by means of a writ of error from the supreme court of 5 the United States, it shall be the duty of the chief justice of the supreme court 6 of this State, or some other judge of the court thereto duly authorized by the 7 court, upon application therefor at any time within one year after the entry 8 of such final order, judgment or decree, to make and sign a certificate setting 9 forth the decision so made and such certificate shall thereupon be filed with 10 the clerk of the supreme court and shall constitute a part of the record of the 11 supreme court in such action.

Sec. 1888. ACTIONS, ETC., TO BE NUMBERED.] Every action or proceeding 2 hereafter commenced in a court of record of original jurisdiction shall be given 3 a record number, which record number shall not be changed excepting as here-4 inafter provided, and no two actions or proceedings in the same court shall 5 ever be given the same number. The record numbers of actions shall extend 6 from one (1) to one million (1,000,000). In addition to the record number of 7 an action or proceeding, it may be given a calendar number upon any written 8 or printed calendar prepared for the convenience of the court and the officers 9 thereof, but such calendar number shall not be entered in any manner upon 10 the record.

Sec. 1889. FUNCTION OF NUMBER.] The record number of an action or 2 proceeding shall not serve the purpose of indicating the order of its com-3 mencement, but shall, together with the classification of the action or proceed-4 ing and the title thereof, serve to identify it, and the files and record entries 5 thereof.

Sec. 1890. PAPER OF UNIFORM SIZE AND QUALITY TO BE USED.] There shall 2 be used in all the courts of record in this State in the preparation of all 3 præcipes and statements of claims, appearances and specifications of defenses.
 4 pleadings, summonses, writs, bonds, affidavits, depositions taken within this 5 State, certificates of administration, guardianship or conservatorship, masters' 6 reports, administrators', guardians', and conservators' reports, and all other 7 papers (excepting printed records, briefs, arguments, petitions for rehearing.
 8 and depositions taken without this State), which may be filed in any action or 9 proceeding, paper of a uniform size and quality to be prescribed, from time 10 to time, by the supreme court. Until otherwise prescribed by the supreme 11 court said paper shall be of the kind known as linen paper and shall be of 12 good quality, suitable for use in typewriting machines and the making of car-

 14 eight and one-half ($8\frac{1}{2}$) inches in width, with three (3) perforations suitable 15 for the fastening together of all papers filed in each action or proceeding, each 16 of said perforations to be one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of an inch in diameter and one to 17 be in the center five-eighths ($\frac{5}{8}$) of an inch from the top of the page and one 18 at each side thereof five-eighths ($\frac{5}{8}$) of an inch from the top of the page and 19 one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) inches from the side thereof. But the provisions of this 20 section shall not, until otherwise prescribed by the supreme court, be deemed 21 to be applicable to tax proceedings, or to special proceedings the procedure in 22 which is not expressly provided for by this Act.

Sec. 1891. ENTITLING OF PAPERS.] Every paper filed by either party, and 2 every summons or writ or other paper issued by the clerk, and every bond

 4 which the action is pending and the title, classification and number thereof. In 5 the præcipe or other paper filed by the plaintiff for the purpose of commence-6 ing his action the title shall contain the names of all the parties, both plaintiff 7 and defendant. In every paper filed by either party, and in every summons, 8 writ or other paper issued by the clerk and in every bond executed or recog-9 nizance entered into, subsequent to the commencement of the action, when there 10 is more than one plaintiff, or more than one defendant, the title shall contain 11 only the names of the first party plaintiff and of the first party defendant with 12 the usual indication by the letters "et al." that there are additional parties to 13 the action. At the time of the commencement of the action the clerk shall 14 enter upon the register and minute book, hereinafter provided for, the names 15 of all the parties thereto and when any amendment making additional parties, 16 or any intervener's claim, bill of intervention, intervening petition, supple-17 mental bill of complaint or cross-bill of complaint is filed in any action, the 18 clerk shall enter, or otherwise appropriately indicate, the names of all of the 19 additional parties made by such amendment, or the parties to such intervener's 20 claim, bill of intervention, intervening petition, supplemental bill of complaint 21 or cross-bill of complaint, as the case may be, upon the register and minute 22 book: Provided, however, that when the names of the parties to any action as 23 commenced, or the names of the additional parties made such by subsequent 24 amendment, or the names of the parties to such intervener's claim, bill of in-25 tervention, intervening petition, supplemental bill of complaint or cross-bill of 26 complaint, as the case may be, are so numerous that they cannot all be con-27 veniently entered upon the register and minute book, it shall not be necessary 28 for the clerk to enter upon the register and minute book more of said names 29 than may appear to be practicable and sufficient to clearly identify the action, 30 and in such case the clerk shall enter upon the register and minute book a 31 memorandum indicating the paper in which the names of all of the parties are 32 set forth.

Sec. 1892. BLANKS TO BE USED.] It shall be the duty of each court to re-

 3 be practicable, the use of the printed blank forms distributed by the clerk free 4 of charge as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 1893. FLAT FILING SYSTEM—NO WRITING ON BACK—EXCEPTION—FILE
 2 MARK—MARGIN.] When any paper is filed with the clerk it shall under no cir-3 cumstances be folded, but the system known as the "flat filing system" shall be 4 used in all courts of record in all actions and proceedings commenced after the 5 taking effect of this Act. No paper filed shall contain any endorsement on the 6 back thereof, but every endorsement authorized or required by this Act to be 7 made upon any paper shall be made upon the face thereof: Provided, however, 8 that an officer's return, or an affidavit of service, of a summons or writ may be

9 written upon the back thereof when the space upon the front thereof is insuffi 10 cient for that purpose. The certificate of the clerk of the filing of each paper 11 shall in all cases be upon the face thereof. All papers filed and all blank 12 forms used in the business of any court of record shall have a margin of at least 13 two inches in width on the left hand side thereof upon which there shall be no 14 other written or printed matter than the clerk's certificate of filing and such 15 other memoranda as may be required by the rules of the court.

Sec. 1894. CLERK NOT TO FILE PAPER NOT COMPLYING WITH PROVISIONS OF ACT
 2 —STRIKING PAPERS FROM FILES.] The clerk of every court of record shall enforce 3 strict compliance by parties to actions, or their attorneys, with the require-4 ments of the five next preceding sections, and shall not receive for filing any 5 paper not in compliance therewith. Any person feeling him-self aggrieved by 6 the refusal of the clerk to receive for filing any paper offered for such filing 7 may apply to the court for relief therefrom, and the court shall make such 8 verbal order in the premises as the court may deem proper. Any paper filed 9 which does not comply with the provisions of said section may be ordered 10 stricken from the files on motion of any party to the action or by the court of 11 its own motion.

Sec. 1895. FILING OF PAPERS TO BE REGISTERED.] When any paper is filed 2 in any action or proceeding a memorandum thereof, descriptive of the charac-

 4 register and minute book hereinafter provided for.

Sec. 1896. FILES NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM CLERK'S OFFICE—EXCEPTION.] No

 3 from the clerk's office excepting to be taken in charge of the clerk or some 4 deputy clerk to some court room, or to be delivered to some master in chan-5 cery, and, in such case, if the paper be taken to a court room, the clerk or deputy 6 clerk shall retain the custody or control of the same, or place the same under

7 the control of some other officer of the court, to be returned to its proper place 8 in the clerk's office when the same is no longer needed in such court room, and, 9 if the paper be delivered to a master in chancery, it shall be returned by him 10 to the clerk's office, when the same is no longer needed in his office: Provided, 11 however, that upon the bringing of any action, on a penal bond filed in any 12 action, the same may be removed from the files for the purpose of being used 13 in the action so brought, but in such case the clerk shall substitute therefor in 14 the files of the action a certified copy thereof. Any person who shall remove any 15 paper from the clerk's office, or permit the same to be so removed, in violation of 16 this section, shall be deemed guilty of a criminal contempt of court and shall be 17 punished therefor accordingly.

Sec. 1897. COPIES OF PAPERS SERVED TO BE TRUE AND COMPLETE.] Every copy 2 of a paper served by any party to an action upon any other party thereto shall 3 be true and complete, including all names signed thereto, and shall contain the 4 same specifications in this act required with respect to a paper filed, and no party 5 shall be compelled to accept service of, nor shall any costs be taxed for serving 6 any paper not a true and complete copy, as aforesaid, and not containing such 7 specifications.

Sec. 1898. EXTRA COPY OF RECORD.] Any court of record, or the superin-2 tending judge thereof, may, by rule or order, require the parties to actions to 3 file with the clerk of the court, at the time of the filing of any original paper 4 in such action, a copy thereof and may also require the officer or other person 5 returning any writ or other paper in any action to return therewith a copy 6 thereof and of the returns or other endorsements thereon. The copies so re-7 quired to be filed shall be kept by the clerk for the use of the court and its 8 officers and for the inspection of the parties to actions and other persons in 9 such manner as may be directed by such court or judge, and the same shall be 10 securely fastened together in the same manner as is provided in the succeeding 11 section with respect to the original papers.

Sec. 1899. RECORD PAPERS TO BE KEPT FASTENED TOGETHER.] The papers filed 2 from time to time in any action or proceeding shall be securely fastened to 3 gether as received by the clerk in the order in which they are so received: 4 Provided, however, that when the papers in any action are numerous or 5 voluminous they may be divided by the clerk into convenient packages. Every 6 package of such papers shall be provided with a suitable cover on which shall be 7 stated the name of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending and 8 the title, classification and number thereof.

Sec. 1900. COPY OF REGISTER AND MINUTE BOOK TO BE KEPT WITH RECORD
 2 FILES OR COPY THEREOF.] The clerk of each court of record of original jurisdic-3 tion shall keep as a part of and fastened together with the files in any action 4 which, by the terms of this Act, are parts of the record thereof, a correct 5 transcript of the entries upon the register and minute book: Provided, however, 6 that, when the parties to actions are required to file copies of papers as above 7 provided for, such copy of the entries upon the register and minute book need 8 only be kept with such copies of papers so filed.

Sec. 1901. WHEN ORDERS TO BE FILED WITH RECORD PAPERS.] Whenever, in 2 accordance with the terms of this Act, any order entered in any action, other 3 than one entered at large in a record book, is required to be written out in full 4 and signed by the presiding judge, the same shall be filed and kept by the clerk 5 with the papers filed as aforesaid and constituting a part of the record, and 6 there shall also be filed and kept by the clerk with such papers the original draft, 7 if any, signed by the judge, of any order, judgment or decree which, by the 8 terms of this Act, is required to be entered in full upon the special order book 9 hereinafter provided for.

Sec. 1902. BOOKS TO BE KEPT BY COURTS OF RECORD IN OTHER THAN INSANITY
 2 AND PROBATE MATTERS.] The clerks of courts of record, for the purpose of re-3 cording and preserving the proceedings of their respective courts in other than 4 insanity proceedings and probate matters, shall keep such of the following 5 books as shall be hereinafter directed to be kept by each of them, respectively:

6 First--REGISTER AND MINUTE BOOK. | A book to be known as REGISTER AND 7 MINUTE BOOK for the docketing of actions and proceedings and the entry in 13 or issuing, each order entered and the date when entered, and, if entered by a 14 single judge, the name of the judge by whom entered, and, if the same be of 15 such nature as to be required to be written out in full, the book and page of the 16 SPECIAL ORDER BOOK hereinafter referred to where the same may be found, if 17 the same be entered in such SPECIAL ORDER BOOK, or, if the same be not entered 18 in such SPECIAL ORDER BOOK, a memorandum indicating that the draft of the 19 same is on file with the papers in the action; and for the entry of such other 20 memoranda as the clerk may deem necessary for the information of the officers 21 of the court and the parties to or persons interested in the action, or as may be 22 required by the court. Whenever the number of actions and proceedings 23 brought in any court is such as, in the opinion of the court or of the superintend-24 ing judge thereof, to render it expedient, in lieu of the REGISTER AND MINUTE 25 BOOK to be used for every action and special proceeding, the clerk may keep for 26 the same purpose the following, or such of them as the court may deem neces-27 sary:

28 a. A LAW REGISTER AND MINUTE BOOK, for actions at law, other than crimi-

43 for the entry of such orders, judgments and decrees, in actions at law, actions 44 in equity and other proceedings, as may be required to be entered therein in full.
45 Whenever the number of cases brought in any court is such as, in the opinion 46 of the court, or of the superintending judge thereof, to render it expedient, in 47 lieu of the SPECIAL ORDER BOOK to be used for every action and proceeding, the 48 clerk may keep for the same purpose the following, or such of them as the 49 court may deem necessary, each of which shall be included within the meaning 50 of the words SPECIAL ORDER BOOK wherever the same may be used in this Act, 51 unless the contrary shall appear from the context:

52 a. A LAW ORDER BOOK, for actions at law, other than criminal actions and 53 quasi criminal actions commenced by warrant.

54 b. A CRIMINAL ORDER BOOK, for criminal actions, peace proceedings, ex-

 2 mencement of any action by a resident of this State, he shall become a non-resi-3 dent, it shall be the duty of the court, on motion of the defendant or any officer 4 of the court, to rule the plaintiff, on or before the day in such rule named, to 5 give security for the payment of costs in such action. If such plaintiff shall ne-6 glect or refuse, on or before the day in such rule named, to file an instrument 7 in writing of some responsible person, being a resident of this State, whereby 8 he shall bind himself to pay all costs which have accrued or may accrue in 9 such action, or to make a cash deposit in lieu thereof, the court shall, on motion, 10 dismiss the action.

Sec. 2027. SUCCESSFUL PARTY TO RECOVER COSTS—EXCEPTIONS.] In every ac-2 tion at law or special proceeding in any court of record the party finally success-3 ful therein shall recover all his costs of the action from the unsuccessful party, 4 with the following exceptions:

5 First—COSTS ORDERED PAID DURING PENDENCY OF ACTION.] The court may, in 6 its discretion, during the pendency of an action, order the payment of costs by 7 one party to the other party or to an officer of the court, or may otherwise im-8 pose the payment of such costs, as hereinbefore provided, and the costs paid in 9 pursuance of such order shall not be recovered by the party paying the same.

10 Second—COSTS OF APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR TO ABIDE EVENT WHEN.] When, 11 upon the prosecution of any appeal or writ of error, any order, judgment or de-12 cree is reversed, in whole or in part, or modified, and the cause is remanded 13 for a further hearing, the costs incurred by the party prosecuting such appeal 14 or writ of error shall abide the final event of the action and shall only be re-15 covered by the party prosecuting such appeal or writ of error in case the final 16 judgment or decree rendered in the action shall be in his favor, and then only to 17 such extent as the court in which the action is pending may deem equitable 18 and just.

19 Third—ACTIONS IN NAME OF PEOPLE, MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS, ETC.] In any 20 action or proceeding commenced for and on behalf of the people of this State, 21 or the Governor thereof, or for or on behalf of any county or other municipal 22 corporation of this State, or in the name of any person for the use of 23 the people of this State or of any county or municipal corporation, no costs shall 24 be recovered by the opposite party. In case the plaintiff shall be finally suc-25 cessful in any such action, there shall be taxed against the defendant and col-26 lected as a part of the judgment or decree all the costs of the action which 27 would be payable to the officers of the court, if such action were one between 28 individuals suing or defending in their individual capacities, and the costs so 29 collected shall be paid to the proper officers, but in case the defendant shall be 30 finally successful in such action no costs of any kind shall be taxed or paid, and 31 the defendant shall be repaid by all the officers of the court all costs paid by him 32 to such officers.

33 Fourth—ACTIONS AGAINST MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.] In any action or pro-34 ceeding brought by any person or corporation against any county or other 35 municipal corporation, the plaintiff, if finally successful, shall not recover any 36 judgment for costs against the defendant, but all costs paid by the plaintiff 37 to the officers of the court in such action shall be refunded to the plaintiff by 38 order of the court in which the action is determined. In case the defendant 39 shall be finally successful there shall be taxed against the plaintiff and 40 collected as a part of the judgment all the costs of the action which would 41 have been payable by the defendant to the officers of the court, if the defendant 42 were an individual defending in his individual capacity, and the costs so col-43 lected shall be paid to the proper officers.

44 Fifth—ACTIONS IN EQUITY.] In actions in equity it shall be in the discre-45 tion of the court to award costs or not, and the court in any such action may 46 apportion the costs thereof among the parties thereto in such manner as may 47 seem equitable and just.

48 Sixth—APPEALS, ETC., FROM JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.] In every case of ap-49 peal from or certiorari to a justice of the peace in which the judgment of the 50 justice of the peace shall be affirmed in part only, the court may divide the 51 costs between the parties according to the justice of the case.

52 Seventh—COSTS WHEN JURY DEMANDED AND ACTION NOT TRIED BY JURY.] When 53 either party to an action shall have filed a demand in writing of a trial by jury 54 and shall have paid the costs therefor, and such action shall be disposed of with-

55 out a trial by jury, the party having paid such costs shall not recover the same 56 from the opposite party.

57 Eighth—POOR PERSONS.] When the party against whom a final judgment 58 or decree may be rendered is a poor person whose financial circumstances, 59 as made to appear to the court, are such that the payment of costs would be 60 unduly burdensome or oppressive, and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the 61 court that the action was commenced and prosecuted, or defended, as the case 62 may be, by such person in good faith, no judgment for costs shall be rendered 63 against such poor person.

Sec. 2028. PARTY TO FILE BILL OF COSTS—VERIFICATION—NOTICE—FORM OF 2 BILL OF COSTS.] Within ten days after the entry of any final order, judgment 3 or decree awarding costs, and before the issuance of any execution thereon, 4 the party to whom costs are awarded by such final order, judgment or decree
5 shall file with the clerk of the court a bill of his costs in the action. Such bill 6 shall specify the court in which the action is pending, and the title, classification 7 and number of the action, and shall thereafter set forth each item of costs to 8 which such party may claim to be entitled, whether the same was paid or 9 accrued in a court of original jurisdiction or in a court of appellate jurisdiction.
10 Such bill shall be verified by the affidavit of such party or his attorney and a 11 copy thereof shall be served upon the party against whom the costs are 12 claimed, if such party shall have entered his appearance in the action, and proof 13 of such service shall be filed with the bill. In case neither the party to be 14 served, nor his attorney, or one of his attorneys, resides in the city in which

Sec. 2029. (CLERK TO TAX COSTS ACCORDING TO BILL—EXCEPTION.) The clerk 2 of the court shall tax the costs as set forth in such bill of costs unless, from 3 an inspection thereof, it shall appear to the clerk that the items therein are 4 in excess of the amounts provided by law, or unless the clerk shall have rea-5 son to believe that any item or items therein are fictitious, in which case the 6 clerk shall notify such party of his refusal to tax such bill of costs.

Sec. 2030. APPLICATION TO COURT.] Whenever the clerk of the court shall 2 refuse to tax a bill of costs filed as aforesaid, or any item therein, the party 3 having filed such bill may, upon notice to the opposite party, apply to the 4 court for an order that the same may be taxed, and the court, upon a hearing 5 of such application, shall make such order as justice may require.

Sec. 2031. RETAXING COSTS.] Any party against whom any bill of costs is 2 taxed as aforesaid may, upon notice to the opposite party, move the court to 3 retax such costs and, upon the hearing of such motion, the court may make such 4 order as justice may require.

Sec. 2032. AMOUNT OF COSTS NOT TO BE SPECIFIED IN JUDGMENT, ETC.] It 2 shall be unnecessary in any order, judgment or decree to specify the amount 3 of the costs which may be awarded against the party against whom an order, 4 judgment or decree is rendered, but it shall be sufficient that the costs be taxed 5 as aforesaid and upon the issuance of execution the amount thereof shall be 6 inserted in the execution. In every such case, as well as upon supplementary 7 or other proceedings to enforce the order, judgment or decree, the taxation of 8 the costs by the clerk shall be deemed and taken as a part of such order, judg-9 ment or decree.

Sec. 2033. OBJECTION TO BILL OF COSTS—WHEN TO BE MADE.] A party
2 against whom costs are taxed shall, if he or his attorney shall have received 3 a copy of the bill of costs as hereinbefore provided, be bound to object there-

4 to within five days thereafter or, in default of such objection, shall be bound by 5 such taxation of costs, unless the same shall appear upon its face to be incorrect, 6 in which case it may be corrected at any time on motion of any party to the 7 action or by the court of its own motion.

Sec. 2034. COSTS NOT RECOVERABLE BY OPPOSITE PARTY—HOW COLLECTED.]

2 Costs to be paid by either party to any officer of the court or to the steno-3 graphic and typewriting department, and not recoverable by the opposite 4 party, shall be taxed by the clerk and the clerk shall issue a fee bill and exe-5 cution therefor, or the payment of the same may be enforced by attachment, or 6 by a supplementary proceeding in the name of the county in which the action 7 is determined, which supplementary proceeding may be prosecuted regardless 8 of the amount of such costs. When in any such supplementary proceeding, it 9 shall appear that the payment of such costs was wilfully refused by the party 10 whose duty it was to pay the same, the court may, in its discretion, require such 11 party to pay double the amount of such costs.

Sec. 2035. BUREAU OF JUSTICE.] It shall be the duty of the judges of the 2 circuit court of each county, and of the judges of the superior court of Cook 3 county, whenever the business of such court is sufficient to occupy the entire 4 time of two or more judges during each year, to cause to be organized and 5 conducted under the supervision of the judges a bureau or department of such 6 court to be known as a bureau of justice, the purpose of which shall be, first, 7 to investigate claims of poor persons whose financial circumstances are such 8 that the payment of the costs and expenses of prosecuting actions would be 9 to them unduly burdensome and oppressive and who may be unable to secure 10 the services of competent lawyers; second, to assist in the prosecution of all 11 such claims as, upon investigation, may seem to be meritorious and which can-12 not be fairly adjusted by negotiation; third, to investigate cases of poor persons who may be charged with criminal or quasi criminal offenses and to secure to such persons fair and impartial trials; and fourth, generally to aid in securing justice in all the courts of said county for all persons who, because of their financial circumstances or otherwise, are unable to properly protect themselves: Provided, however, that in Cook county the judges of the circuit and superior courts may, in their discretion, organize a joint bureau of justice for said courts. The cost of conducting and maintaining such bureau of justice, including the compensation, to be fixed by the judges, of the persons employed by them for that purpose, shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county in which the same is organized on the certificate of any one or more of the judges of the court or courts for which the same is organized.

Sec. 2036. POOR PERSONS.] In any action or proceeding in any court of record of original jurisdiction the court may, in its discretion, order that an advance payment of costs may be waived in favor of any poor person whose financial circumstances, as made to appear to the court, are such that such advance payment would be unduly burdensome and oppressive.

4 hereof being that the courts of this State shall presume conclusively that it 5 is the intention of the General Assembly that all of the provisions of this 6 Act which are not, in and of themselves, invalid shall be given effect, notwith-7 standing the courts, but for the provisions of this section, might presume it to 8 be the intention of the General Assembly that the valid portions of this Act 9 should not be given effect unless the portions thereof which are invalid could 10 also be given effect.

Sec. 2038. VENUE OF AFFIDAVITS AND PAPERS.] It shall not be hereafter nec-2 essary that any paper to be filed in any action or proceeding in any court 3 of this State shall specify, in the manner heretofore customary, the county and 4 State in which such court is held or action or proceeding had, but it shall be 5 sufficient that such paper, by words at the commencement thereof or other-6 wise, shall indicate the court in which the action or proceeding is pending.
 7 When any affidavit is filed in any action or proceeding in a court of original 8 jurisdiction, it shall be presumed that such affidavit was signed and sworn to 9 within the county in which such court is held, unless the contrary shall affirma-

 2 ABBREVIATIONS "A. D.," OR WORDS, "IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD.]" It shall not 3 be necessary hereafter in any paper filed in any action or proceeding pending 4 in any court of this State to use the words, "In the year of Our Lord," or 5 the abbreviations "A. D.," for the purpose of showing that an act, trans-6 action or event occurred or took place in a year of our Lord, but without the 7 use of those words or abbreviations, words or figures manifestly intended to 8 express the year of an act, transaction or event shall be conclusively presumed 9 as intended to mean that such act, occurrence or event happened in the speci-10 fied year of Our Lord.

Sec. 2040. EFFECT OF BONDS TAKEN IN JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.] Every per-2 son executing any bond to be filed, or otherwise used, in any action or pro-3 ceeding in any court of this State, shall be conclusively presumed to have in-4 tended to execute a bond in such penalty and with such condition as was re-5 quired by law, or by the order of the court entered in such action or proceed-6 ing, and in case of the variance of any such bond, either as to penalty, con-

9 has been correctly executed in the first instance.

Sec. 2041. NEGLIGENCE, ETC., OF ATTORNEY NOT TO PREJUDICE CLIENT.] Every 2 court of this State shall hereafter protect every party to an action, who may 3 appear to have acted in good faith and to have been himself free from negli-4 gence, against the negligence, misconduct or ignorance of any attorney 5 employed by him in the conducting of such action, so far as such protection 6 can be afforded by the court without serious and manifest injustice to the 7 other party or parties to the action. In case of any such negligence, miscon-8 duct or ignorance of any attorney at law by which delay or injury may occur 9 to any party to the action, the court may make such order respecting the pay-10 ment of costs or other compensation to be made by such attorney as the facts 11 may warrant and compliance with any such order of the court may be enforced 12 by execution, attachment or other appropriate proceeding, and in every crim-13 inal case it shall be the duty of both the court of original jurisdiction and of the 14 supreme court to set aside a judgment of conviction whenever the court shall be 15 satisfied the defendant has not received a fair and impartial trial because of the 16 negligence, misconduct or ignorance of the defendant's attorney.

Sec. 2042. RULES OF PRACTICE TO BE SO CONSTRUED AS NOT TO PRODUCE INJUS-2 TICE.] The purpose of this Act is to provide methods of procedure by which, 3 in every action and proceeding, the substantive rights of the parties thereto 4 may be ascertained and enforced by a decision rendered according to the 5 very right and justice of the case and each and every provision of this 6 Act shall be liberally construed to accomplish such purpose.

Sec. 2043. WANT OF SEAL NOT TO VITIATE.] No instrument specified in this

8 officer to affix his official seal thereto, but such officer may, by leave of the court 9 out of which such summons or other writ or document has been issued, or by 10 leave of the court in which the validity of such summons or other writ or docu-11 ment is called in question, affix his official seal thereto, or the same may, by like 12 leave of court, be affixed thereto by the successor in office of such officer.

 10 court a printed copy thereof shall be mailed immediately by the clerk of such 11 court to the president and each trustee of the attorneys' association of each 12 circuit in this State: Provided, however, that the mailing of such copies shall 13 be unnecessary until such time as attorneys' associations shall be organized in 14 accordance with the provisions of this act. Any attorney at law of this State, 15 upon the adoption of any such rule, shall have the right to present to the court 16 adopting the same such suggestions in relation thereto as such attorney at law 17 may deem proper and the court shall consider all suggestions so made, and, if, 18 after consideration of such suggestions, such rules should, in the opinion of the 19 court, be rescinded or modified, the court shall rescind or modify the same ac-20 cordingly.

 12 State.

13 Third—RULES IN PLACE OF INVALID PROVISIONS.] To adopt, from time to 14 time, such rules and regulations as may be found necessary or convenient to 9 who shall thereupon proceed to fill the vacancy created by such removal. Said 10 Board and each member thereof shall have power to administer oaths and shall 13 service shall include the position of chief examiner herein provided for and all 14 officers and employees of the Civil Service Commission except special examiners.

3a. STANDARDIZATION.] The Commission shall ascertain the duties of each 2 office and place in the classified service and designate by rule the grade of each 3 position. Each grade shall comprise offices and places having substantially 4 similar duties. The Commission shall by rule indicate the lines of promotion 5 from each lower grade to a higher grade wherever the experience derived in 6 performance of the duties of such lower grade tends to qualify for perform-7 ance of duty in such higher grade. The Commission shall by rule prescribe 8 standards of efficiency for each grade and for examinations of candidates for 9 appointment thereto.

10 For the purpose of establishing uniformity of pay and title for all of-11 fices and places of employment classified in the same grade, it shall be the duty 12 of the Commission to prescribe by rule the maximum and minimum pay 13 for each grade and the title thereof and to report to the Governor annually, and 14 at such other times as he may direct, the name and address of each officer and 15 employee paid more or less than the pay prescribed for his grade or designated 16 by a title other than that prescribed for his grade by the Commission.

17 The Commission shall standardize employment in each grade and make 18 and keep a record of the relative efficiency of each officer and employee in the 19 classified service. It shall provide by rule methods for ascertaining and veri-

20 fying the facts from which such records of relative efficiency shall be made,
 21 which shall be uniform for each grade of the classified service.

3b. PERSONS NOW IN STATE SERVICE.] All persons who on the first day of 2 February, A. D. 1911, held offices or places of employment other than those ex-

 5 of this Act, and said Commission may from time to time make changes in such 6 rules.

5. PUBLICATION OF RULES—TIME OF TAKING EFFECT.] All rules made as 2 herein provided, and all changes therein, shall forthwith be printed for distribu-3 tion by the said Commission, and the Commission shall give notice of the place or 4 places where said rules may be obtained by publication in one or more daily 5 newspapers published in each of the seven largest cities in the State, according 6 to the last general census published by the United States, and in each such publi-7 cation shall be specified the date, not less than ten days subsequent to the date 8 of such publication, when said rules shall go into operation. Copies of all said 9 rules and all changes therein, duly certified by the secretary of the Commission, 10 shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

6. EXAMINATIONS.] All applicants for offices or places in said clas-2 sified service, except those mentioned in Section 11 hereof, shall be subjected 3 to examination, which shall be public, competitive and free to all persons who 4 may be lawfully appointed to any office or place in the service of the State of 5 Illinois, with limitations specified in the rules of the Commission as to resi-6 dence, age, sex, health, habits, moral character and qualifications to perform the 7 duties of the office or place to be filled, which qualifications shall be prescribed 8 by rule in advance of such examination. Such examinations shall be practical in 9 their character, and shall relate to those matters which will fairly test the relative 10 capacity of the persons examined to discharge the duties of the positions to which 11 they seek to be appointed, and may include tests of physical qualifications and 12 health, and when appropriate, of manual skill. No question in any examina-

 13 tion shall relate to political or religious opinion or affiliations. The Commis-14 sion shall control all examinations, and may, whenever an examination is to 15 take place, designate a suitable number of persons, either in or not in the of-16 ficial service of the State, to be examiners; and it shall be the duty of such ex-17 aminers, and if in the official service it shall, without extra compensation, be 18 a part of their official duty to conduct such examination as the Commission 19 may direct, and to make return or report thereof to said Commission; and the 20 Commission may at any time substitute any other person, whether or not in 21 such service, in the place of anyone so selected; and the Commission may 22 themselves at any time act as such examiners, and without appointing exam-23 iners. The examiners at any examination shall not all be members of the same 24 political party. The Commission shall, with reference to maintaining eligible 25 registers, proceed by rule to divide the entire service into two divisions; in 26 one of these divisions shall be included all offices and places of employment 27 where to certification is infrequent; in the other shall be included all other of- 28 fices and places. Such rule shall distinctly designate in which division each of- 29 fice or place falls; and as to all offices and places comprised under the first di- 30 vision above mentioned, examinations shall be held only when a vacancy ex- 31 ists, and an eligible list or register, so prepared, shall be in force only until per- 32 manent appointment has been made from such list or register; and as to all 33 other offices and places said Commission shall, by rule, provide for and shall 34 hold a sufficient number of examinations to provide a sufficient number of elig- 35 ibles on the register for each grade of position or places of employment in the 36 classified service, and if any place in the classified service becomes vacant to 37 which there is no person eligible for appointment the Commission shall imme- diately hold an examination for such place and repeat the same, if necessary, until a vacancy is filled in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Said Commission may, in its discretion, cancel such portion of such registers as has been in force for more than two years.

9. PROMOTION.] The Commission shall note of record the duties (whether imposed by law, official regulation or practice) of each office or place in the classified service. It shall thereupon by rule fix lines of promotion from such several offices and places to superior offices or places in all cases where, in the judgment of the Commission, the duties of such several positions directly tend to fit the incumbent for a superior position. In case of vacancy in superior offices or places, which cannot be filled by reinstatement, the Commission shall hold promotion examinations to fill such vacancy. Incumbents of offices or places next lower in the line so fixed shall be solely eligible for such examination unless in the judgment of the Commission, to be noted in its minutes with the grounds therefor, it is for the best interests of the service that original examination for such vacancy be held. In promotion examinations, efficiency and seniority in service shall form a part of such examination, but combined shall not carry a total number of marks to exceed one-quarter of the maximum mark attainable in such examination. All examinations for promotion shall be competitive. The method of examination, the rules governing the same, and the method of certifying shall be the same as provided for in original examination.

10. APPOINTMENTS]. Whenever a position classified under this Act is to be filled, the appointing officer shall make requisition upon said Commission, and the Commission shall certify to him the name and address of the candidate standing highest upon the register of eligibles for said position, except that in the case of laborers, when a choice by competition is impracticable, said Commission may provide by its rules that the selection shall be made by lot from among those candidates proved fit by examination. The appointing officer shall notify the Commission of each position to be filled separately and shall fill such position by the appointment of the person certified to him by said

Commission therefor, which appointment shall be on probation for a period not more than three months to be fixed by said rules. At any time during the period of probation, the appointing officer may discharge a person so certified and shall forthwith notify the Commission in writing of such discharge. If such person is not thus discharged, his appointment shall be deemed complete.

When there is no eligible list, the appointing officer may, with the authority of the Commission, make temporary appointments to remain in force only until regular appointments under the provisions of this Act can be made.

In employment of an essentially temporary and transitory nature, the appointing officer may, with the authority of the Commission, make temporary appointments to fill a vacancy, but no such authority shall be granted for a period of more than 30 days, but it may be renewed from time to time by the Commission. The Commission shall include in its annual report, and if thereto required by the Governor, in any special report, a statement of all temporary authorities granted or renewed during the year or period specified by the Governor, together with a statement of the facts in each case because of which such authority was granted.

The acceptance or refusal by an eligible person of a temporary appointment shall not affect his standing on the register for permanent appointment.

10a. TRANSFERS.] The Commission may by its rules provide for transfers of officers and employees in the classified service from positions in one office or department to positions of the same class and grade in another office or department. Transfers which are in the nature of promotions shall be governed by Section 9 of this Act, and transfers which are in the nature of demotions shall be governed by Section 12 of this Act.

 8 at the executive mansion, shall not be included in the classified state service.

12. [REMOVALS.] No officer or employee in the classified civil service 2 shall be removed or discharged except for cause, upon written charges, and after 3 an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. Such charges shall be investi-
 4 gated by or before said Civil Service Commission, or by or before some officer 5 or board appointed by said Commission to conduct such investigation. The 6 finding and decision of such Commission or of such investigating officer or board, 7 when approved by said Commission, shall be certified to the appointing officer, 8 and shall be forthwith enforced by such officer. Nothing in this Act shall 9 limit the power of any officer to suspend a subordinate, for a reasonable 10 period, not exceeding thirty days. Every such suspension shall be without pay, 11 provided, however, that the Commission shall have authority to investigate 12 every such suspension, and, in case of its disapproval thereof, it shall have 13 power to restore pay to the employee so suspended. In the course of any inves-
 14 tigation provided for in this Act each member of the commission, and of any 15 board so appointed by it, and any officer so appointed, shall have the power 16 to administer oaths and shall have power to secure by its subpoena both the 17 attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of books and pa-
 18 pers. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require such charges in case 19 of laborers or in case of persons having the custody of public money for the 20 safe keeping of which another person has given bonds.

14. EFFICIENCY—INVESTIGATIONS.] The Commission shall investigate
 2 the efficiency of all officers and employees and of all groups of officers and em-
 3 ployees in the classified service and shall report to each officer, board or other 4 authority in charge of any institution, office or department of the state gov- 5 ernment its findings and recommendations relative to increasing efficiency and 6 economy therein. In case the recommendations made by the Commission are 7 not carried into effect within a reasonable time, or in case of a difference of opin-
 8 ion with reference to such findings or recommendations between the Commis-

9 sion and the officer, board or other authority in charge of an institution, office 10 or department concerned in any such finding or recommendation, the report ac-11 companied by a note of the relevant facts shall be transmitted to the Governor 12 by the Commission. The Commission shall investigate the enforcement of this 13 Act and of the rules of the Commission, the conduct of the appointees in the 14 classified service and the methods of administration therein, and may investigate 15 the nature, tenure and compensation of all offices and places in the civil service 16 of the State. In the course of such investigation each commissioner shall have 17 power to administer oaths, and said Commission shall have power to secure by its 18 subpoena both the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of 19 books and papers.

For an Act to provide for a State Banking Board, to create a Depositors' Guarantee Fund, to provide for the collection and disbursement of the same and to repeal any Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
2 represented in the General Assembly: That a State Banking Board shall be 3 hereby created, composed of the Governor, the Auditor of Public Accounts and 4 the State Treasurer of the State of Illinois. Said board shall have the supervis-
5 ion and management of the Depositors' Guarantee Fund, hereinafter provided 6 for, and shall adopt suitable rules and regulations for the collection, management 7 and administration of the same.

Sec. 2. Said State Banking Board shall levy an assessment, against the 2 capital stock, of one per cent, of the banks' daily average deposits, less the de-3 posits of the United States and State funds, if otherwise secured, for the preced-4 ing year, upon each and every bank and trust company organized or existing 5 under the laws of this State, for the purpose of creating a Depositors' Guarantee 6 Fund. Said assessment shall be collected upon call of the State Banking Board.

7 In one year from the time the first assessment is levied and annually thereafter, 8 each bank and trust company shall report to the State Banking Board the 9 amount of its average daily deposits for the preceding year, and if they are in 10 excess of the amount on which one per cent was previously paid, said report 11 shall be accompanied by additional funds to equal one per cent of the daily 12 average excess of deposits, which shall be added to the Depositors' Guarantee 13 Fund. If the Depositors' Guarantee Fund is depleted, from any cause, it shall 14 be the duty of the State Banking Board in order to keep said fund up to one per 15 cent of the total deposits in all the said banks and trust companies, to levy a 16 special assessment, to cover such deficiency, upon their capital stock according 17 to their deposits as reported to the State Banking Board and such special as-18 sessment shall become immediately due and payable.

Sec. 3. Banks and trust companies hereafter organized shall pay into the 2 depositors' guarantee fund three per cent of the amount of their capital stock 3 when they open for business, which amount shall constitute a credit fund, sub-4 ject to adjustment on the basis of its deposits as provided for banks and trust 5 companies now existing, at the end of the year: Provided, however, that said 6 three per cent assessment shall not be required of new banks and trust com-7 panies formed by the reorganization or consolidation of banks and trust com-8 panies that have previously complied herewith.

Sec. 4. Any national bank in this State approved by the State Banking 2 Board may voluntarily avail its depositors of the protection of the depositors' 3 guarantee fund, by application to the State Banking Board, in writing, and the 4 said application may be sustained upon terms and conditions in harmony with 5 this Act, to be determined upon by the State Banking Board: Provided, that in 6 the event national banks shall be required by federal enactment to pay assess-7 ments to any depositors' guaranty fund of the federal government, and thereby 8 the deposits in national banks in the State should be guaranteed by virtue of fed-9 eral laws, the national banks having availed themselves of the benefits of this 10 Act, may withdraw therefrom and have returned to them ninety per cent of the 11 unused portion of all assessments levied upon and paid by them.

Sec. 4. Any person or copartnership, now or hereafter engaged in receiving 2 deposits of money as a bank, may, subject to the approval of the State Banking 3 Board, voluntarily avail himself or themselves of the benefits of the guarantee 4 provisions of this Act for his or their depositors by applying in writing to the 5 State Banking Board therefor and consenting to become subject to all the laws 6 of the State with reference to the examination by and the supervision of the 7 State over banks engaged in business under the laws of the State and also to 8 become subject to and comply with the provisions of this Act with reference to 9 the payment of the assessment of one per cent on the deposits of such private 10 banking institution. The State Banking Board and the Auditor of Public Ac-11 counts are hereby authorized to and empowered to do and perform all acts with 12 regard to the levy, collection and disbursement of assessments against said per-13 son or copartnership so engaged in banking and seeking to avail himself or 14 themselves of the benefits of this Act, that said State Banking Board and Audi-15 tor of Public Accounts are hereby authorized to do and perform as to banks 16 organized and doing business under the laws of the State.

Sec. 5. Whenever any bank or trust company or private banking institution 2 that may have availed itself or him or themselves of the benefits of the provis-
3 ions of this Act shall voluntarily place itself, himself or themselves, in the hands 4 of the State Auditor of Public Accounts, or, whenever any judgment shall be 5 rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction, adjudging such bank or trust com-6 pany or private banking institution insolvent, or whenever its rights or fran-7 chises to conduct a banking business under the laws of the State shall have been 8 adjudged forfeited, or whenever the State Auditor of Public Accounts shall be-9 come satisfied of the insolvency of any such bank or trust company or private 10 banking institution, he may, after due examination of its affairs, take posses-11 sion of said bank or trust company or private banking institution and its assets 12 and proceed to wind up its affairs and enforce the personal liability of its stock-13 holders, officers, directors, owners or copartners.

Sec. 6. In the event that the Auditor of Public Accounts shall take pos-2 session of any such bank or trust company or private banking institution, the 3 depositors of said bank or trust company or private banking institution, shall 4 be paid in full and when the cash available or that may be made immediately 5 available of said bank or trust company or private banking institution is in-6 sufficient to discharge its obligations to depositors the said State Banking Board 7 shall draw from the depositors' Guarantee Fund and from additional assess-8 ments, if required, as provided in Section two, the amount necessary to make up 9 the deficiency and the State shall have for the benefit of the depositors' guaran-10 tee fund a first lien upon the assets of said bank or trust company or private 11 banking institution, and all liabilities against the stockholders, officers and di-12 rectors and the owners or copartners of said bank, trust company or private bank-13 ing institution and against all other persons, corporations or firms. Such lia-14 bilities may be enforced by the State for the benefit of the Depositors' Guar-15 antee Fund.

Sec. 7. The Auditor of Public Accounts shall take possession of the books, 2 records and assets of every description of such bank or trust company or private 3 banking institution, collect debts, dues and claims belonging to it and, upon or-4 der of any court of competent jurisdiction of this State or judge thereof may sell 5 or compound all bad or doubtful debts and on like order may sell all the real or 6 personal property of such bank or trust company or private banking institu-7 tion upon such terms as the court or judge thereof may direct and may if neces-8 sary pay the debts of such bank or trust company or private banking institution 9 and enforce the liability of the stockholders, officers, directors, owners or co-10 partners: Provided, however, that bad or doubtful debts, as used in this section, 11 shall not include the liability of stockholders, officers, directors, owners or co-12 partners.

Sec. 8. The State Banking Board shall deliver to each bank, trust company 2 or private banking institution that has complied with the provisions of this Act, 3 a certificate stating that said bank or trust company or private banking institu-
 4 tion has complied with the laws of this State for the protection of bank deposit-5 ors and that safety to its depositors is guaranteed by the Depositors' Guarantee

6 Fund of the State of Illinois. Said certificate shall be conspicuously displayed 7 in the place of business of the bank, trust company or private banking institu-8 tion for which it was issued and said bank or trust company or private banking 9 institution may print or engrave upon its stationery and advertising matter 10 words to the effect that its depositors are protected by the Depositors' Guar-11 antee Fund of the State of Illinois. The printing or engraving of a false state-12 ment to the fact last before this named is hereby declared to be a felony.

Sec. 9. After the Auditor of Public Accounts shall have taken possession 2 of any bank or trust company or private banking institution which is subject to 3 the provisions of this Act the stockholders, owners or copartners thereof may 4 repair its credit, restore or substitute its reserves and otherwise place it in 5 condition so that it is qualified to do a general banking business as before it was 6 taken possession of by the Auditor of Public Accounts; but such bank, trust 7 company or private banking institution shall not be permitted to reopen its busi-8 ness until the State Banking Board, after a careful investigation of its affairs, is 9 of the opinion that its stockholders have complied with the laws, that the credit 10 and funds of the bank, trust company or private banking institution are in all 11 respects repaired, and all advances if any, made from the depositors' guarantee 12 fund fully repaid, its reserve restored or sufficiently substituted, and that it 13 should be permitted again to reopen for business; whereupon said Banking 14 Board is authorized to issue written permission for reopening of said bank, trust 15 company or private banking institution in the same manner as permission to do 16 business is granted after the incorporation thereof and thereupon said bank, 17 trust company or private banking institution may be reopened to do a general 18 banking business.

Sec. 10. The said Depositors' Guarantee Fund, when collected, shall be left 2 in the custody of the State Treasurer, who shall give bond for its safe keeping 3 and shall treat it the same as other State funds. He shall pay the same out on 4 the order of the State Banking Board.

 10 as a payment on account of the employer's liability so much of any money which

Sec. 5. This Act shall be in force from and after its passage and shall apply 2 to all contracts of employment thereafter made and entered into.

EXPLANATION OF ABOVE BILL.

This Employers' Liability Bill expands the existing remedy when negligence causes an accident; it removes certain defenses of employers which frequently prevents success in a suit even when the employer can be proved negligent.

CLAUSE 1. (1) Abolishes the defense known as the fellow servant rule, and makes the employer responsible to the person injured for the negligence of every one of his employees (instead of being responsible for only certain negligent acts of certain of his employees as at present).

The first proviso prevents contributory negligence of the injured from barring a recovery, and makes it merely diminish the amount of damages recoverable.

The next proviso prevents contributory negligence of the injured having any effect at all in cases where an employee has violated a safety statute.

CLAUSE 1. (2) Deals with the assumption of risk defense, and prevents the courts from holding as a matter of law "that through taking an employment or through knowledge of the danger, the employee agreed to assume a risk" (the jury will have to decide whether as a fact the injured did so agree). It specifically prevents the defense being used at all by the employer where the employer or his employees have been negligent.

CLAUSE 1. (3) Makes questions of negligence, contributory negligence and assumption of risk entirely questions to be decided by the jury.

CLAUSE II. (1) Prevents an employee from being held to have by contract before his accident happened, waived his rights to sue.

CLAUSE II. (2) Prevents acceptance of, or agreements to accept insurance benefits from being used as a defense to a suit.

CLAUSES III, IV, V. Are merely formal definitions and declaratory provisions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
2 represented in the General Assembly: That each and every person or persons, 3 firms, organizations or corporations, lessees or agents, engaged in transporting 4 merchandise, property, parcels, packages, money and other commodities and 5 things between points wholly within the State of Illinois, and known as or en-6 gaged in the business of express companies or carriers by express, shall be 7 deemed and are hereby declared to be common carriers and as such shall, from 8 and after the passage of this Act, be placed within the jurisdiction and under 9 the supervision and control of the Illinois Railroad and Warehouse Commission 10 in the same manner as provided by existing statutes governing railroads oper-11 ating wholly within the State of Illinois, and as provided in this Act.

Sec. 2. The Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Illinois (hereinafter called the Commission) shall have power to prescribe, promulgate and establish reasonable and just rates or schedules of maximum charges for each kind of property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages and other commodities and things to be charged for and received by express companies, or either of them, either separately or conjointly, on all such property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages, and other commodities and things which, by the contract of carriage, is to be transported separately or conjointly by such express companies or carriers by express, doing business over the line of any railroad or other carrier between points wholly within the State of Illinois, which rates or charges may be made to apply to all such express companies or express carriers, and may be changed or modified by said Commission from time to time in such manner and effect as may become necessary; also to prescribe a form of receipt for each shipment, also a form of receipt for moneys paid for charges for the transportation of any article or thing, to be given upon receipt, or upon the payment of such charges; and the said Commission shall have the same power to make and prescribe maximum rates and charges, classifications, rules and regulations for the government and control of such express companies or carriers by express as is now or may hereafter be conferred upon said Commission by law for the regulation of railroads. Said Commission may also, after hearing, on a complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, establish through routes and joint rates and classifications, also a division of such rates, to apply as the maximum to or upon shipments over two or more lines or express companies, or carriers by express between points wholly within the State of Illinois.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each and every person or persons, firms, organizations or corporations engaged in transporting property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages, commodities or things between points wholly within the State of Illinois and known as or engaged in the business of express companies, to print in clear and legible type the schedules of rates for the transportation of such property, money, parcels, and other commodities and things from 7 any point to another point on its own line, or when in connection with any 8 other express company to any point wholly within the State of Illinois when a 9 joint rate has been established, and naming all such points in such schedule, and 10 shall post and keep displayed in each office or place of business of such express 11 company, within convenient access and for the inspection and use of the public 12 during customary business hours, such printed schedules of rates and charges 13 and any amendments thereto, and shall in like manner post and display any 14 special rules or regulations, also the classification applying which may be pro-

16 shall quote rates, in writing when requested, and be responsible for the correct-17 ness of same: Provided, however, that no change in any schedule of rates or 18 charges, or classification shall become effective until they have been filed with 19 the Commission, and until after five days shall have elapsed between the dates 20 of filing and the time when such rates are to become effective if the rates are 21 to be reduced, and thirty days if the rates are to be advanced: Provided, the 22 Commission may, in its discretion and for good cause shown, allow changes 23 upon less than the notice herein specified: And provided, further, the Commis-24 sion may, upon its own motion, suspend the taking effect of any such schedule 25 or classification, pending inquiry as to its correctness or the reasonableness of 26 the rates contained in it. And it shall be unlawful for any common carrier to 27 charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation 28 for such transportation of property or for any service rendered in connection 29 therewith, between points named in its schedules or tariffs filed and 30 in effect at the time or as may be promulgated, amended or changed 31 by the Commission, nor shall such common carrier refund or remit 32 in any manner or by any device any portion of the rate or charge 33 so specified, nor extend to any shipper, person or persons, firms 34 or corporations any privileges or facility in receiving, storing, hand-35 ling or forwarding of property, or otherwise, not granted to another except 36 as may be specified in such schedules or tariffs. Any common carrier, any officer, 37 representative or agent of a carrier who knowingly violates the provisions of the 38 foregoing paragraph shall forfeit to the State of Illinois the sum of five hundred 39 dollars for each offense. Every distinct violation shall be a separate offense.

40 The forfeitures herein imposed shall be recovered by the Commission in the man-41 ner provided by law.

Sec. 4. Each and every person or persons, firms, organization or corpora-2 tion engaged in the business of transporting or carrying property, money, par-3 cels, merchandise, packages and other commodities and things, wholly within 4 the State of Illinois and known as express companies or carriers by express, 5 shall file with the Commission certified copies of all contracts or agreements 6 now existing or hereafter entered into by or between themselves and any other 7 express company, or with any railroad company operating within the State of 8 Illinois, and shall also file with said Commission printed copies of all schedules 9 and charges, tariffs, classifications, rules and regulations, together with any 10 changes or amendments thereto that may be made or promulgated from time to 11 time, also all changes in said schedules, tariffs, classifications, regulations and 12 rules as prescribed in Section 3 of this Act.

13 And it shall be the duty of the Commission and it shall have power to take 14 cognizance of all said contracts, agreements, schedules, tariffs, rates, classifica-15 tions, rules and regulations and in the event of anything found contained in 16 them or either of them deemed injurious to or inconsistent with the public wel-17 fare or which may work to the detriment of the public, communities or individu-18 als, the Commission may cause the same to be immediately inquired into, either 19 upon complaint or upon its own motion and initiative without complaint, as may 20 be deemed proper by said Commission, and it may suspend for a period of four 21 months, pending inquiry, the taking effect of any such classification, schedule of 22 rates, charges, tariffs, agreements, rules or regulations. The express company or 23 common carrier affected shall be forthwith notified and a full hearing of the cause 24 had promptly, as in other proceedings before the Commission, and all carriers 25 or others interested may be made parties. If the Commission is of the opinion 26 after such hearing and investigation that the schedules of rates, charges, tariffs, 27 agreements or classification as filed or published, or the privileges, facilities and 28 regulations published in connection therewith are unjust or unreasonable or 29 otherwise discriminatory or prejudicial, or in violation of law, it shall deter-30 mine what is and will be reasonable and just and shall prescribe the same, 31 and shall order the carrier or carriers to file and publish on or before a certain 32 day, to take effect on a certain day, schedules of charges, classification, tariffs, 33 rules or regulations in accordance with its findings and decision of the Commis-34 sion. And any carrier, any officer, representative or agent of a common carrier, 35 or any receiver, trustee, lessee or agent of either of them who knowingly fails or 36 neglects to obey any order made under the provisions of this section of the Act 37 shall forfeit to the State of Illinois the sum of one thousand dollars for each and 38 every offense, which shall be recoverable in a civil suit in the name of the State 39 of Illinois in any court of competent jurisdiction, and said Commission shall 40 have authority to prosecute such suit under the direction of the Attorney Gen-41 eral of the State of Illinois. Every distinct violation shall be a separate of-42 fense, and in case of a continuing violation, each day shall be deemed a separate 43 offense.

Sec. 5. Any shipper, shippers or other commercial organization or asso-
2 ciation, or any person, firm or corporation located within the State of Illinois 3 may file complaint with said Commission against any common carrier, wherein 4 it may be claimed they are being charged unjustly for the transportation of 5 property or other commodities or things, in such manner and form as the Com-6 mission may prescribe. And it shall be the duty of the Commission to take cog-7 nizance of such complaints and to proceed with a hearing, after due notification 8 to the common carrier or carriers so complained of, in such manner as it may 9 prescribed by its rules or practice.

10 At such hearing or hearings before the Commission, copies of contracts, 11 agreements, tariffs, schedules of charges, rules and regulations and classifications 12 that may have been filed with the Commission by such common carrier or car-13 riers, or either of them, shall be considered prima facie what they purport to 14 be in evidence or matters that may pertain to them or either of them. And the 15 Commission is empowered to enforce its orders and decisions in the manner pro-

16 vided by law, subject, however, to the right of appeal by either party to a court 17 of competent jurisdiction, the decision of the Commission to prevail pending 18 such appeal and decision by the court unless enjoined or set aside by the 19 court.

Sec. 6. Each and every express company or carrier by express as herein
2 defined, doing business within the State of Illinois, shall at all convenient times 3 during business hours accept and receive for prompt shipment to points on its 4 own line, or to points on the lines of other express companies operating within 5 the State of Illinois, or for points beyond the limits of said State, all property, 6 parcels, money, merchandise, packages, and other commodities and things 7 which may be offered to it or them or either of them for transportation by ex-
8 press by the public: Provided, that the payment of charges may be demanded 9 and received in advance of such forwarding or transportation, not in excess of 10 the rates of charges shown in the tariffs or schedules and classification herein 11 provided for in this Act, and if the destination is to points beyond the State 12 of Illinois, at a rate not in excess of that which is prescribed and adopted by 13 said express company and its connections and shown by its printed tariff or 14 schedule of rates: Provided, however, that no article which may be declared 15 under such schedules, tariffs, rules or regulations or classification as being of 16 excess bulk or weight, or a menace to the health or the safety of the public, or 17 otherwise prohibited by law, shall be required to be accepted by any such ex-18 press companies.

19 Any express company or other common carrier refusing to transport goods 20 as above provided, taking the same in the order presented, shall be liable to 21 the party injured for damages sustained by reason of its refusal and shall also 22 be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars 23 for each offense, with costs of suit and attorney's fees added, to be recovered in 24 each case by the owner of the goods, in any court having jurisdiction in the 25 county where the wrong is done, or where the common carrier resides or has its 26 agent. And each case of refusal shall be construed as a separate offense under 27 this Act.

Sec. 7. Any express company or common carrier as defined in this Act, 2 doing business in the State of Illinois, which shall charge, demand, collect or 3 receive a greater compensation than that which may be prescribed and in effect 4 by its schedules of rates and charges, tariffs and classification, or as may be pre-5 scribed by said Commission, for the transportation of any kind or class of prop-6 erty as described in this Act, shall be deemed guilty of extortion and shall forfeit 7 and pay to the State of Illinois a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for each 8 offense: Provided, that if it shall appear that such violation was not wilful, 9 said company or carrier shall have ten days within which to refund such over-10 charge or damage to the injured party, and if such refund is made the penalty 11 shall not be incurred. And said Commission shall have power and authority 12 and it shall be its duty to sue for and recover the same in the same manner as 13 may be provided by law in like suits against railroad companies.

Sec. 8. Upon demand of a shipper each receiving or forwarding express 2 company or common carrier by express shall be required to furnish a receipt or 3 other evidence in writing, in such form as may be prescribed by or approved of 4 by said Commission, stating the quantity, character, order and condition of 5 goods or articles tendered for shipment, and such goods, articles or commodi-6 ties shall be delivered in the same manner provided for by common law, in like or-7 der and condition to the consignee, the unavoidable wear and tear and deteriora-8 tion in due course of transportation only excepted, and in case such common car-9 rier shall fail or neglect to deliver goods as above required, they shall be liable to 10 the party injured for his damages, as at common law; and said express compan-11 ies shall in like manner furnish, upon demand, a receipt for the charges 12 paid upon any shipment, in such form as may be prescribed or approved of 13 by said Commission, and in case of their neglect or refusal to execute and de-14 liver a bill of lading, receipt or other memoranda in writing as herein required, 15 they shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred 16 dollars, with costs of suit and attorney's fees, recoverable in any court of compe-17 tent jurisdiction. And any and all common carriers doing business in the 18 State of Illinois, are hereby prohibited from including in any such bill of lading

19 or receipt for shipments to be made, any restriction or evasion of the common 20 law liability of such carrier.

Sec. 9. The said commission shall have authority to call upon such ex-2 press companies or carriers by express, for reports, and to investigate their 3 books in the same manner as may be provided by law for the regulation of rail-4 road companies, and the said Commission shall have power and authority to in-5 stitute suits, sue out writs and processes as may be applicable and authorized by 6 law for the regulation of railroad companies. All laws, rules and regulations 7 made and prescribed for the government of railroads, in so far as they are or 8 may be applicable, shall be of equal force against all express companies, or car-9 riers by express in this State.

Sec. 10. That in case any common carrier subject to the provisions of this 2 Act shall do, cause to be done, or permit to be done any act, matter, or thing 3 in this Act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, 4 matter or thing in this Act required to be done, such common carrier shall be 5 liable to the person or persons injured thereby for the full amount of damages 6 sustained in consequence of any such violation of the provisions of this Act, to-7 gether with a reasonable counsel or attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court in 8 every case of recovery, which attorney's fee shall be taxed and collected as part 9 of the costs in the case.

7 to life and property, it shall be the duty of such Commissioners to investigate, 8 or cause an investigation to be made, of the condition of such grade crossing or 7 more, said Board shall order and direct that such person, after becoming fifty 8 years of age and his service on such police force shall have ceased, shall be paid 9 a yearly pension equal to one-half the amount of salary attached to the rank 10 which he may have held on said police force for one year immediately prior to 11 the time of such retirement: Provided, however, the maximum of said pension 12 shall not exceed the sum of nine hundred ($900.00) dollars, and the minimum

 3 disabled, said Board shall, upon his written request, or without such request if 4 sworn to by said person and by the police sergeant, if there be one, and by two 5 practicing physicians of such three or more towns, and such Board may require 6 other evidence of disability before ordering such retirement and payment as 7 aforesaid.

Sec. 6. Whenever any member of the police force of such Board of Com-2 missioners shall lose his life while in the performance of his duty, or receive 3 injuries from which he shall thereafter die, leaving a widow, or child or chil-4 dren under the age of sixteen years, then, upon satisfactory proof of such facts 5 made to it, such Board shall order and direct that a yearly pension of one-half 6 the salary received by said member, not to exceed nine hundred ($900.00) dol-7 lars, and the minimum not less than six hundred ($600.00) dollars per year

A BILL

For an Act to require the Illinois Central Railroad Company to comply with an Act entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Illinois Central Railroad Company," approved February 10, 1851, in relation to sale of lands held in trust by said company, as provided in Section 17 of said Act and others, that said land may become taxable and bear its proper proportion of taxation.

WHEREAS, By Act of Congress, approved September 20, 1850, a grant of 2 lands was made to this State for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a 3 railroad from Chicago to Mobile; and between certain other points; and 4 WHEREAS, The General Assembly of this State, by an Act entitled, "An Act 5 to incorporate the Illinois Central Railroad Company," approved February 10, 6 1851, incorporated the Illinois Central Railroad Company and granted to said 7 company the said lands, with provision that they should be conveyed to and held 8 and sold by certain trustees provided for in said Act; and it was provided among 9 other things that the said lands should be exempt from taxation under the laws 10 of this State until sold and conveyed by the said corporation or trustees; and 11 WHEREAS, It was further expressly provided in said Act as a part of the con-

12 dition of said grant, and said exemption from taxation, that all lands remaining 13 unsold at the expiration of ten years after the completion of -the road of said 14 company, and its branches as therein specified, should be offered at public sale 15 annually until the whole should be disposed of, to the end that the same might 16 be sold to actual settlers and private parties, and become taxable at the earliest 17 possible time after the expiration of that period; and 18 WHEREAS, The said road has been completed more than fifty years and large 19 tracts of land remain unsold, and are not now nor never have been offered at 20 public sale, as contemplated and provided in Section seventeen of said Act, but 21 to the contrary and in direct violation of their charter, and the true intents and 22 purposes of said grant, thousands of acres of said land have been reserved from 23 sale by said company, part of which they farm out and lease for rent, and refuse 24 to sell the lands at any price to applicants who desire to purchase same, there-25 fore the lands are kept from being taxable, the company not paying taxes on same 26 or permitting anybody else to do so; and, further, the said company have sold 27 valuable timber from off tracts of land, realizing their full cash value for same, 28 yet holding said land at the same price as before timber was removed, which is 29 unreasonably high for land in said condition, thereby said land being kept from 30 sale, and consequently from taxation; and other lands that they, the said com-31 pany offer for sale is held unreasonably high, and is thereby kept from sale and 32 taxation, all of which, reserving large tracts of land from sale at any price, and 33 farming out same, and selling valuable timber off of others, thereby depriving 34 actual settlers of the use of same for building, etc., and holding same unreason-35 ably high, is contrary to the true intents and purposes of said grant; and fur-36 ther, the said company by these acts has diverted those lands from their proper 37 channel intended and provided in said charter and grant, and failing to offer all 38 lands at public sale annually, as expressly provided according to the true in-39 tent and meaning of said Act, has thereby deprived the State, county and muni-40 cipality of large revenues which they ought to derive from the taxation of said 41 lands, and the others of property in the vicinity of said land are compelled to 42 bear more than their portion of the burdens of taxation; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly: That it shall be the duty of the trustees named in Section fifteen of an Act entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Illinois Central Railroad Company," approved February 10, 1851, or their successors in the trust in the said Act mentioned, to offer at public sale annually all the lands by the said Act granted, and by the State conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the Illinois Central Railroad Company, and by said company conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the said trustees by deed, dated March 24, 1851, and which remain unsold, until the whole is disposed of; and for the sake of securing the speedy and proper execution of their trust pursuant to said Act, it is hereby made the duty of the said trustees and their successors upon some day during the months of October and November, 1911, and in each and every year thereafter until all said lands are disposed of, to offer at public sale at the court house in each county all such lands in such county then remaining unsold: Provided, this Act shall not be so construed as to prevent said trustees or their successors from selling any of said lands at private sale for cash or on credit by contract, as provided in an Act to amend the Act incorporating the Illinois Central Railroad Company, relating to sale of land on credit by contract, part of Section sixteen of charter, in force February 28, 1854: Provided, that no sale of land on credit by contract or otherwise shall extend over a period of four years from date of sale.

Sec. 2. Before making any sale in any county under the provisions of this Act, the trustees or their successors shall give public notice thereof by advertisement in some newspaper published in the county where the land to be sold is situated, which advertisement shall contain a description of the land and notice of the time, terms, for cash or credit and place of sale, and shall be published for at least four successive weeks prior to the first day of sale.

Sec. 3. At every such sale in any county all lands lying in such county shall be offered for sale in such quantities as will be most advantageous in promoting a fair sale thereof, and not exceeding forty acres in one tract, and shall

4 be sold to the highest and best bidder or bidders therefor, and no such lands 5 shall be reserved or withdrawn from sale when there is a bid made thereon, said 6 land shall be offered for sale in the order advertised and when any tract is put 7 up for sale the auctioneer or person selling shall cry the same for at least five 8 minutes.

Sec. 4. It is further provided that it shall be discretionary with the trust-2 tees or their successors to sell such land at public sale for cash, as provided in 3 Section sixteen of charter, approved February 10, 1851, or to sell upon credit by 4 contract, as provided in an Act to amend a part of Section sixteen of charter re-5 lating to sale of land on credit by contract or otherwise shall extend over a 6 period of four years from date of sale.

Sec. 5. Upon the making of any sale of such land for cash the said trust-2 tees or their successors shall make and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers a 3 deed of conveyance vesting the title to the lands sold in such purchaser or pur-4 chasers, so that the said land may become immediately taxable: Provided, that 5 when any such sale shall be made upon time by contract or otherwise the said 6 land so sold shall become taxable when the last payment becomes due: Pro- 7 vided, the trustees or their successors may require for deferred payments note 8 or notes to be secured by mortgage or deed of trust on said land or other lands 9 in such form and upon such terms as may be deemed best for their protection.

Sec. 6. Provided, that when any bid is made on any tract of land offered at 2 public sale, should the Illinois Central Railroad Company, by agent or other-3 wise, bid in any such tract of land for their own use or otherwise, it shall become 4 immediately taxable.

Sec. 7. Whenever sale of land is made at public sale as provided in this Act, 2 the said trustees or their successors shall at once after such sale furnish the coun-3 ty clerk of the county in which such land is located a certified statement of every 4 and each tract of land so sold, together with the name of the person to whom, 5 and the price for which, the same was sold, giving date of when first payment was 6 made on same and when last payment becomes due; also a similar list to be fur-7 nished to said county clerks upon the first day of September, 1911, and each 8 and every year thereafter upon said date, a certified list of all lands sold for cash 9 or bid in by agents or otherwise by the Illinois Central Railroad Company, that 10 the same may be entered for taxation; this Act is not to be construed as inter-11 fering with provision in Section sixteen of charter requiring reports made to 12 Auditor of State.

Sec. 8. In case the said trustees or their successors shall fail or refuse to 2 offer the said lands for sale in good faith in the manner herein provided, and 3 sell the same to the highest and best bidder or bidders, when any bid is made 4 thereon, it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney to file in the circuit court of 5 the county wherein said land lies a petition praying the court for a mandamus 6 to compel the said trustees and their successors in office to make sale pursuant 7 to the terms of this Act, and the said trustees or their successors be notified in 8 the same manner as defendants in cases of mandamus are notified; and the said 9 circuit court is hereby vested with jurisdiction to compel the said trustees or 10 their successors to offer the said lands at public sale; that the court may ascer-11 tain upon evidence heard a fair cash value of the lands subject to be sold and in 12 the order of sale fix the minimum price for which the same shall be sold, being 13 not less than three-fourths of their real cash value, and when sold the said trus-14 tees or their successors shall convey the title of same to purchaser in the manner 15 herein provided; or in case of neglect or refusal by said trustees or their suc-
16 cessors to comply with this Act, the court may appoint one or more commission-17 ers, or master in chancery, to make such sale and conveyances and to fix the 18 terms and times of sale and generally to execute all orders in the premises which 19 the court shall deem proper to insure the execution of their duties according to 20 the true intent and meaning of said section seventeen of said Act of incorpora-21 tion not inconsistent with the terms of this Act.

STERILIZATION OF MAN AND WOMAN.

Vasectomy is the term used for the sterilization of the male. The active element of the semen which impregnates passes from the testicle through a small tube from each testicle known as the vas deferens. This carries the semen to a receptacle at the base of the bladder where it is stored in reservoirs called the seminal vesicles.

Anything which blocks these tubes and prevents the semen from passing from the testicles to the reservoirs at the base of the bladder renders the male sterile. This occurs in many men who suffer from gonorrhea, and they remain childless. The operation to make them sterile consists in the simple procedure of making a small cut in the skin over each tube just above the testicles. This can be done with a local anaesthetic,—the injection of a small amount of cocaine, and it is rendered painless. The tube—the vas deferens—is easily raised up through the small cut and a small piece of the tube is removed. An individual so operated upon becomes sterile and cannot beget children. This operation, however, does not make him impotent. He still has sexual power and desire and the operation does not cause any change whatever in his sexual organs.

This operation, therefore, is a simple one, not at all like castration, and does not interfere in any way with the health or pleasure of the individual. It simply renders him sterile.

In the woman sterilization is quite as simple as that of man in principle. The Fallopian tubes which carry the egg of the female from the ovary to the uterus (womb) are exposed by a simple operation through the vagina. It is a little more difficult to perform than the corresponding operation in the man, but is free from danger. A small section of the Fallopian tube is removed which renders the woman sterile. This operation does not in any way change the organs of the female; nor does it interfere with her health or pleasure.

Over one thousand men have been sterilized by the operation described above under the law adopted by Indiana, Connecticut and California. A score or so of feeble-minded women have also been made sterile by the operation described, in Indiana.

THE TRANSMISSION OF MENTAL DEFECTS TO OFFSPRING.

It is a well known fact that insanity, feeble-mindedness and criminality may be transmitted to offspring by parents. This fact is a matter of common observation and is especially well known to physicians. It is illustrated in the history of certain families through several generations.

The Jukes family in America has been carefully traced through five generations by Dugdale. Of seven hundred and nine members of this family, seventy-six were convicted of crime; one hundred and eighty were paupers and beggars, and over one-half of the females were prostitutes.

Of seven hundred descendants of a female drunkard traced by Poellman, eighty-three were convicted of crime, including seven murders; two hundred and twenty-six were paupers and one hundred and eighty-seven were prostitutes.

Of eight thousand prisoners received at the Elmira New York Reformatory forty-three per cent were the subjects of nervous disease and thirty-seven per cent were mentally defective.

Many other examples, some of them in our own State of Illinois, could be cited.

On the other hand, as a comparison with the transmission of defective conditions, we may cite the Jonathan Edwards descendants. Among one thousand three hundred and ninety-four of the descendants of Jonathan Edwards, whose lives were traced between the years 1750 and 1900, not one was convicted of crime, pauperism or prostitution, while several hundred were prominent in educational, professional, military and political life.

The sterilization by vasectomy of males who have been judicially unfitted for citizenship, including confirmed criminals, idiots, imbeciles and rapists, has already been recognized in Indiana, Connecticut and California. The rapid increase of these classes, not merely in numbers but also in ratio to the total population, has become so important that it renders some legislative action necessary.

Inasmuch as this class of people are dependents of the State of Illinois, the legislature should consider sexual sterilization of this class of men and women as a means of checking the further propagation of the unfit.

The percentage of increase of defectives and criminals exceeds the percentage of increase of the normal and the law-abiding.

The fecundity of those who transmit their dangerous qualities to their offspring is largely responsible for this excess.

It is a preventable increase. The foregoing operation to sterilize is no longer an experiment in legislation.

The States hereinafter named have protected society from the propagation of such undesirables who are a burden and a menace to the normal and the non-criminal.

The State of Connecticut by an Act, approved August 12, 1909, has regulated the subject as follows:

“Section 1. The directors of the State Prison, and the Superintendents of the State Hospitals for the insane * * * are hereby authorized and directed to appoint for each of said institutions respectively two (2) skilled Surgeons, who, in conjunction with the Physician or Surgeon in charge at each of said institutions, shall constitute a Board, the duty of which shall be to examine such inmates of said institutions as are reported to them by the Warden, Superintendent, or Physician and Surgeon in charge, to be persons by whom procreation would be inadvisable. Such Board shall examine the physical and mental condition of such persons and their record and family history, so far as the same can be ascertained, and, if in the judgment of the majority of said Board procreation by any such person would produce children with an inherited tendency to crime, insanity, feeble-mindedness, idiocy or imbecility, and there is no probability that the condition of any such person so examined will improve to such an extent as to render procreation by any such person advisable, or if the physical or mental condition of any such person will be substantially improved thereby, then said Board shall appoint one of its members to perform the operation of vasectomy or cophorectomy, as the case may be, upon such person. Such operation shall be performed in a safe and humane manner, and the Board making such examination and the Surgeon performing such operation shall receive from the State such compensation for services rendered as the Warden of the State Prison, or the Superintendent of either of such hospitals, shall deem reasonable.

“Sec. 2. Except as authorized by this Act, every person who shall perform, encourage, assist in or otherwise promote the performance of either of the operations, described in Section 1 of this Act, for the purpose of destroying the power to procreate the human species, or any person who shall knowingly permit either of such operations to be performed upon such persons, unless the same shall be a medical necessity, shall be fined not more than one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, or imprisoned in the State prison not more than five (5) years, or both.”

By an Act, approved March 22, 1909, the State of Washington requires:

“Section 35. Whenever any person shall be adjudged guilty of carnal abuse of a female person under the age of ten (10) years, or of rape, or shall be adjudged to be a habitual criminal, the court may, in addition to such other punishment or confinement as may be imposed, direct an operation to be performed upon such person for the prevention of procreation.”

The State of Indiana by a Statute, approved March 9, 1907, adopted an Act as follows:

“PREAMBLE. Whereas heredity plays a most important part in the transmission of crime, idiocy and imbecility, Therefore, be it enacted, by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, that on and after the passage of this Act it shall be compulsory for each and every institution in the State, entrusted with the care of confirmed criminals, idiots, rapists and imbeciles, to appoint upon its staff, in addition to the regular institutional physician, two (2) skilled surgeons of recognized ability whose duty it shall be, in conjunction with the general physician of the institution, to examine the mental and physical condition of such inmates as are recommended by the institutional physician and Board of Managers. If, in the judgment of this committee of experts, and the Board of Managers, procreation is inadvisable and there is no probability of improvement of the mental condition of the inmate, it shall be lawful for the surgeons to perform such operation for the prevention of procreation as shall be decided safest and most effective, but this operation shall not be performed, except in cases that have been pronounced unimprovable: Provided, that in no case shall the consultation fee be more than three ($3.00) dollars to each expert to be paid out of the funds appropriated for the maintenance of such institution."

In addition to the foregoing legislative Acts, a number of States, such as Wisconsin, West Virginia and Connecticut, prohibit the inter-marriage or living together, or the issuing of licenses by public authorities permitting the marriage of epileptics, imbeciles, insane, feeble-minded or habitual criminals. Every person who, by law, is authorized to solemnize a marriage, is prohibited from doing so, in any of the cases enumerated.

Senator Womack introduced a bill, relating to this subject, in the Forty-sixth (46th) General Assembly, known as Senate Bill No. 249. This bill passed the Senate by a vote of thirty-five (35) ayes to eight (8) nays.

A bill is herewith presented which is believed to embody the experience both in legislation and administration of other States on the subject.

The Charities Act, in force July 1, 1909, enacted by the Forty-sixth (46th) General Assembly, requires the Board of Administration, at least once each year, to meet the Superintendents of each State Institution and members of the Charities Commission in conference. The conference shall consider in detail all questions relating to the treatment and care of the insane, epileptics, feeble-minded, delinquents and the poor, and other wards of the State, and all questions of management and improvement of institutions caring for such wards.

In pursuance of this direction the authorities named met in conference at the State Capitol, in Springfield, Illinois, on November 22, 1910. Among other matters considered was the one herein mentioned. By a resolution adopted without a dissenting vote, such legislation as that contained in the following bill was recommended for favorable consideration by the General Assembly of this State.

A BILL

For an Act to prevent the procreation of habitual criminals, idiots, feeble-minded and imbeciles.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly: That it shall be the duty of the managing officers of all public institutions of this State, entrusted with the care or custody of habitual criminals, idiots, feeble-minded and imbeciles, and they are hereby authorized and directed to obtain the advice and professional services of competent surgical assistants, who, jointly with the physician or surgeon in charge of the institution in which any of such inmates shall be, shall constitute the authority whose duty it shall be to examine such inmate or inmates of the several institutions as are deemed to be improper and inadvisable to allow to procreate. Such authority shall examine the physical and mental condition of such inmate or inmates, the history thereof so far as can be ascertained, and if, in the judgment of such authority, procreation by any such inmate or inmates

13 would produce children with an inherited tendency to crime, insanity, feeble-14 mindedness, idiocy or imbecility, and there is no probability that the condition of 15 any such inmate or inmates so examined will improve to such an extent as to ren-16 der procreation by any such inmate or inmates advisable, or if the physical or 17 mental condition of any such persons will be materially improved thereby, then 18 said authority shall report their conclusions with a recommendation to the cir-19 cuit court or any court of competent jurisdiction in and for the district from 20 which such inmate or inmates has been committed to such institution or institu-21 tions. The court shall thereupon hear and determine the matter and if satisfied 22 that the purposes of this Act will be executed by such order shall adjudge 23 that such operation shall be performed and shall appoint one of the authority 24 signing such report to perform the operation of vasectomy or ephorectomy, as 25 the case may be, upon such person. The State's attorney of the county in which 26 the hearing is had may be directed by the court to represent the State in the 27 proceedings. Such operation shall be performed in a safe and humane man-28 ner, and the surgeon performing the operation shall receive from the State such 29 compensation for the service rendered as the Board of Administration shall 30 deem reasonable.

Sec. 2. Except as authorized by this Act, every person who shall perform, 2 encourage, assist in or otherwise promote the performance of either of the op-3 erations, described in Section 1 of this Act, for the purpose of destroying the 4 power to procreate the human species, or any person who shall knowingly per-5 mit either of such operations to be performed upon such persons, unless the 6 same shall be a medical necessity, shall be fined not more than one thousand 7 ($1,000.00) dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one (1) year, 8 or both.

7 file a sufficient statement, upon the application of the Attorney General or the 8 State's Attorney, or the petition of a candidate or of any voter. Such petition 9 shall be filed in the circuit court within sixty days after such election if the state-

11 within thirty days after any payment not included in the statements so filed.

Sec. 17. All statements shall be preserved for six months after the election 2 to which they relate, shall be public records subject to public inspection, and it 3 shall be the duty of the officers having custody of the same to give certified 4 copies thereof in like manner as of other public records. The totals of each state-5 ment filed with him, with the name of the person or candidate filing it, shall be 6 published in the next annual report of the Secretary of State, the county clerk 7 or the city clerk, as the case may be.

Sec. 18. No person shall make a payment of his own money, or of another 2 person's money of any other person in connection with a nomination or election 3 in any other name than that of the person who in truth supplies such money, nor 4 shall any person knowingly receive such payment, or enter or cause the same to 5 be entered in his accounts or records in another name than that of the person 6 by whom it was actually furnished: Provided, if the money be received from 7 the treasurer of any political organization it shall be sufficient to enter the same 8 as received from said treasurer.

Sec. 19. No person shall, in order to aid or promote his nomination or 2 election, directly or indirectly, himself or through any other person, promise to 3 appoint another person, or promise to secure or aid in securing the appoint-

 5 or employment, or to any position of honor, trust, or emolument, except that 6 he may publicly announce or define what is his choice or purpose in relation to 7 any election in which he may be called to take part if elected, and if he is a 8 candidate for nomination or election as a member of the Legislative Assembly 9 he may pledge himself to vote for the people's choice for United States Sen-

Sec. 20. No holder of a public position or office other than an office filled 2 by the voters, shall pay or contribute to aid or promote the nomination or elec-

 4 be a member of a political committee for such district.

Sec. 22. No person shall invite, offer or effect the transfer of any conven-2 tion credential in return for any payment of money or other valuable thing.

Sec. 23. No person shall pay, or promise to reward another in any manner 2 or form for the purpose of inducing him to be or refrain from or cease being a 3 candidate, and no person shall solicit any payment, promise or reward from an-4 other for such purpose.

Sec. 24. No person shall demand, solicit, ask or invite any payment or con-2 tribution for any religious, political, charitable, or other cause or organization 3 supposed to be primarily or principally for the public good, from a person who 4 seeks to be or has been nominated or elected to any office; and no such candidate 5 or elected person shall make any such payment or contribution if it shall be 6 demanded or asked during the time he is a candidate for nomination or election 7 to or an incumbent of any office. No payment or contribution for any purposes 8 shall be made a condition precedent to the putting of a name on any caucus or 9 convention ballot or nomination paper or petition, or to the performance of any 10 duty imposed by law on a political committee. No person shall demand, solicit, 11 ask, or invite any candidate to subscribe to the support of any club or organiza-12 tion, to buy tickets to any entertainment or ball, or to subscribe for or pay for 13 space in any book, programme, periodical, or other publication; if any candidate 14 shall make any such payment or contribution with apparent hope or intent to in-15 fluence the result of the election, he shall be guilty of a corrupt practice; but this 16 section shall not apply to the soliciting of any business advertisement for inser-17 tion in a periodical in which such candidate was regularly advertising prior to his 18 candidacy nor to ordinary business advertising nor to his regular payment to any 19 organization, religious, charitable or otherwise, of which he may have been a 20 member, or to which he may have been a contributor for more than six months 21 before his candidacy, nor to ordinary contributions at church services.

 11 contribution from such corporation or such holders of a majority of such stock.

Sec. 26. Any person or candidate who shall either by himself or by any 2 other person, either before or after an election, or while such person or candi-

 4 pay, wholly or in part, the expenses of giving or providing any meat or drink or 5 other entertainment or provision, clothing, liquor, cigars, or tobacco, to or for 6 any person for the purpose of or with intent or hope to influence that person or 7 any other person to give or refrain from giving his vote at such election to or 8 for any candidate or political party ticket or measure before the people, or on 9 account of such person or any other person having voted or refrained from vot-10 ing for any candidate for the candidates of any political party or organization 11 or measure before the people or being about to vote to refrain from voting at 12 such election, shall be guilty of treating. Every elector who accepts or takes 13 any such meat, drink, entertainment, provision, clothing, liquors or tobacco, shall 14 also be guilty of treating, and such acceptance shall be a ground of challenge to 15 his vote and rejecting his vote on a contest.

Sec. 27. Every person who shall directly or indirectly, by himself or any 2 other person in his behalf, make use of or threaten to make use of any force, 3 coercion, violence, restraint, or undue influence, or inflict or threaten to inflict, 4 by himself or any other person, any temporal or spiritual injury, damage, harm, 5 or loss upon or against any candidate or the ticket of any political party, or any 6 measure before the people or any person who shall by abduction, duress, or any 7 fraudulent contrivance, impede or prevent the free exercise of the franchise by 10 undue influence and shall be punished as for a corrupt practice.

Sec. 28. Any candidate who before or during any election campaign makes 2 any bet or wager of anything of pecuniary value or in any manner becomes a 5 pending election, or who provides money or other valuable to be used by any 6 person in betting or wagering upon the results of an impending election, shall 7 be guilty of a corrupt practice. Any person who for the purpose of influencing 8 the result of any election, makes any bet or wager of anything of pecuniary value 9 on the result of such election in his electoral district or any part thereof, or of 10 any pending election, or on any event or contingency relating thereto shall be 11 guilty of a corrupt practice, and in addition thereto any such act shall be a 12 ground for challenge against his right to vote.

Sec. 29. It shall be unlawful for any employer, either corporation, associa-2 tion, company, firm or person, in paying the salary of wages of any of its, their 3 or his employees, to enclose their pay in "pay envelopes" upon which there is 4 written or printed any political notice, device or argument, containing any 5 threat, expressed or implied, intended or calculated to influence political opinion, 6 views or actions of such employees so paid. Nor shall it be lawful for any em-

 8 days of any election, or primary election provided by law, to put up or other-

 10 office or other establishment or places where its, their or his employees may be 11 working or be present in the course of such employment, any hand bill, notice 12 or placard containing any threat, notice or information that in case any particu-13 lar ticket or candidate shall be nominated or elected, work in its, their or his 14 place or establishment shall cease, in whole or in part, or its, their or his estab-

 16 or any other threats expressed or implied intended or calculated to influence the 17 political opinion or action of its, their or his employees. Any person or per-18 sons violating any of the provisions of this section, whether acting in his individual capacity or as an officer or agent of any corporation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 29½. No person being a candidate for a public office in this State, shall by himself or through other persons, directly or indirectly, hand out, distribute, scatter, circulate, display or post, or cause to be handed out, distributed, scattered, circulated, displayed or posted, or to give or cause to be given publication in any manner whatsoever, any card, sheet, bill, sign, board, film, or other medium of publication bearing a portrait cut of such person being a candidate, together with reading matter calculated to announce the candidacy of such person, or to present reasons or facts intended to influence persons to vote for him, for the office for which he is a candidate: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any such person or candidate from passing out and distributing from hand to hand, a white card bearing a portrait cut of such candidate, together with appropriate reading matter, which card shall not exceed in dimensions two inches in width and three inches in length, and the number of such cards to be handed out by such candidate, or any person in his behalf, shall not exceed in the aggregate the total number of votes cast for the office for which candidate is aspiring, at the last preceding general election, or municipal election, as the case may be, for such office: And provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit any such candidate or any person in his behalf from doing campaign advertising in a newspaper or periodical, in conformity with the foregoing provisions of this Act.

Sec. 30. Any person shall be deemed to be guilty of the offense of personation who at any election applies for a ballot in the name of some other person, whether it be that of a person living or dead, or of a fictitious person, or who, having voted once at an election, applies at the same election for a ballot in his own name; and on conviction thereof such person shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary at hard labor for not less than one nor more than three years.

Sec. 31. Any person shall be guilty of a corrupt practice within the meaning of this Act if he expends any money for election purposes contrary to the provisions of any statute of this State, or if he be guilty of treating, undue influence, personation, the giving or promising to give or offer of any money or valuable thing to any elector with intent to induce such elector to vote for or to refrain from voting for any candidate for public office, or the ticket of any political party or organization, or any measure submitted to the people, at any election, or to register or refrain from registering as a voter at any state, district, county, city, town, village or school district election for public offices or on public measures. Such corrupt practice shall be deemed to be prevalent when instances thereof occur in different election districts similar in character and sufficient in number to convince the court before which any case involving the same may be tried that they were general and common or were pursuant to a general scheme or plan.

Sec. 32. It shall be unlawful for any person to pay another for any loss or damage due to attendance at the polls, or in registering, or for the expense of transportation to or from the polls. No person shall pay for personal service to be performed on the day of a caucus, primary, convention, or any election, for any purpose connected therewith, tending in any way, directly or indirectly, to affect the result thereof, except for the hiring of persons whose sole duty it is to act as challengers and watch the count of official ballots. No person shall buy, sell, give or provide any political badge, button, or other insignia, to be worn at or about the polls on the day of any election, and no such political badge, button or other insignia shall be worn at or about the polls on any election day.

Sec. 33. No publisher of a newspaper or other periodical shall insert, either in its advertising or reading columns, any paid matter which is designed or tends to aid, injure or defeat any candidate or political party or organization, or measure before the people, unless it is stated therein that it is a paid advertisement, the name of the chairman or secretary, or the names of the other

6 officers of the political or other organization inserting the same, or the name 7 of some voter who is responsible therefor, with his residence and the street and 8 number thereof, if any, appear in such advertisement in the nature of a signa-9 ture. No person shall pay the owner, editor, publisher, or agent of any news-10 paper or other periodical to induce him to editorially advocate or oppose any 11 candidate for nomination or election, and no such owner, editor, publisher, or 12 agent shall accept such payment. Any person who shall violate any of the 13 provisions of this section shall be punished as for a corrupt practice.

Sec. 34. It shall be unlawful for any person at any place on the day of any 2 election to ask, solicit, or in any manner try to induce or persuade any voter on 3 such election day to vote for or refrain from voting for any candidate, or the 4 candidates or ticket of any political party or organization, or any measure sub-5 mitted to the people, and upon conviction thereof he shall be punished by fine of 6 not less than $5 nor more than $100 for the first offense, and for the second and 7 each subsequent offense occurring on the same or different election days he shall 8 be punished by fine as aforesaid, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not 9 less than five nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 35. It shall be unlawful to write, print, or circulate through the mails 2 or otherwise any letter, circular, bill, placard, or poster relating to any election, 3 or to any candidate at any election, unless the same shall bear on its face the 4 name and address of the author, and of the printer and publisher thereof; and 5 any person writing, printing, publishing, circulating, posting or causing to be 6 written, printed, circulated, posted or published any such letter, bill placard cir-7 cular or poster as aforesaid which fails to bear on its face the name and address 8 of the author and of the printer or publisher, shall be guilty of an illegal prac-9 tice, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by fine of not less than $10.00 10 nor more than $1,000.00. If any letter, circular, poster, bill, publication or pla-11 card shall contain any false statement or charges reflecting on any candidate's 12 character, morality, or integrity, the author thereof and every person printing 13 or knowingly assisting in the circulation thereof shall be guilty of political 14 criminal libel and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in 15 the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than three years. If the per-16 son charged with such crime shall prove on his trial that he had reasonable 17 ground to believe such charge was true and did believe it was true, and that he 18 was not actuated by malice in making such publication, it shall be a sufficient de-19 fense to such charge. But in that event, and as a part of such defense, the author 20 and the printer or publisher or other person charged with such crime shall also 21 prove that at least fifteen days before such letter, circular, poster, bill, or pla-22 card containing such false statement or statements was printed or circulated, he 23 or they caused to be served personally and in person upon the candidate to whom 24 it relates a copy thereof in writing, and calling his attention particularly to the 25 charges contained therein, and that, before printing, publishing or circulating 26 such charges, he received and read any denial, defense or explanation, if any, 27 made or offered to him in writing by the accused candidate within ten days 28 after the service of such charge upon the accused person.

Sec. 36. The name of a candidate chosen at a primary nominating election 2 or otherwise shall not be printed on the official ballot for the ensuing election un-3 less there has been filed by or on behalf of said candidate the statements of ac-
 4 counts and expenses relating to nominations required by this Act, as well as a 5 statement by his political agent and by his political committee or committees in 6 his behalf, if his statement discloses the existence of such agent, committee or 7 committees. The officer or board intrusted by law with the preparation of the 8 official ballots for any election shall, as far as practicable, warn candidates of the 9 danger of the omission of their names by reason of this provision, but delay in 10 making any such statement beyond the time prescribed shall not preclude its ac-11 ceptance or prevent the insertion of the name on the ballot if there is reasonable 12 time therefor after the receipt of such statements. Any such vacancy on the 13 ballot shall be filled by the proper committee of his political party in the manner 14 authorized by law, but not by the use of the name of the candidate who failed to 15 file such statements. No person shall receive a certificate of election until he 16 shall have filed the statements required by this Act.

Sec. 37. It shall be unlawful for any person to accept, receive, or pay money 2 for any valuable consideration for becoming or from refraining from becoming a 3 candidate for nomination or election, or by himself, or in combination with any 4 person or persons to become a candidate for the purpose of defeating the nom-5 ination or election of any person and not with a bona fide intent to obtain the 6 office. Upon complaint made to any circuit court, if the judge shall be convinced 7 that any person has sought the nomination, or seeks to have his name presented 8 to the voters as a candidate for nomination by any political party for any mercen-9 ary or venal consider, or motive, and that his candidacy for the nomniation 10 is not in good faith, the judge shall forthwith issue his writ of injunction restrain-11 ing the officer or officers whose duty it is to prepare the official ballots for such 12 nominating election from placing the name of such person thereon as a candidate 13 for nomination to any office. In addition thereto the court shall direct the Dis-14 trict Attorney to institute criminal proceedings against such person, or persons, 15 for corrupt practice, and upon conviction thereof, he and any person, or persons, 16 combining with him, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1000, or im-17 prisonment in the county jail for more than one year.

Sec. 38. Where, upon the trial of any action or proceeding under the pro-
 2 visions of this Act, for the contest of the right of any person declared nominated 3 or elected to any office, it appears from the evidence that the offense complained 4 of was not committed by the candidate, or with his knowledge or consent, or was 5 committed without the sanction or connivance, and that all reasonable means for 6 preventing the commisison of such offense at such election were taken by and on 7 behalf of the candidate, or that the offense or offenses complained of were 8 trivial, unimportant and limited in character, and that in all other respects his 9 participation in the election was free from such offenses or illegal acts, or that 10 any act or omission of the candidate arose from inadvertence, or from accidental 11 miscalculation, or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any 12 case does not arise from any want of good faith and under the circumstances it 13 seems to the court to be unjust, that the said candidate shall forfeit his nomina-14 tion or office or be deprived of any office of which he is the incumbent, then the 15 nomination or election of such candidate shall not by reason of such offense or 16 omission complained of be void, nor shall the candidate be removed from or de-17 prived of his office.

Sec. 39. It, upon the trial, of any action or proceeding under the provis-2 ions of this Act, for the contesting of the right of any persons declared to be 3 nominated to any office, or elected to any office, or to annul and set aside such 4 election, or to remove any person from his office, it shall appear that such per-5 son was guilty of any corrupt practice, illegal act, or undue influence in or about 6 such nomination or election, he shall be punished by being deprived of the nom-7 ination ~~for~~ office, as the case may be, and the vacancies therein shall be filled in 8 the manner provided by law. The only exception to this judgment shall be that 9 provided in Section 38 of this Act. Such judgment shall not prevent the candi-10 date or officers from being proceeded against by indictment, or criminal informa-11 tion for any such act or acts.

Sec. 40. Any action to contest the right of any person declared elected to 2 any office or to annul and set aside such election, or to remove from or deprive 3 any person of an office of which he is the incumbent, for any offence mentioned 4 in this Act, must, unless a different time be stated, be commenced within thirty 5 days after the return day of the election at which such offence was committed, 6 unless the ground of the action or proceeding is for the illegal payment of money 7 or other valuable thing subsequent to the filing of the statements prescribed by 8 this Act, in which case the action or proceeding may be commenced thirty days 9 after the discovery by the complainant of such illegal payment. A contest of 10 the nomination or office of Governor or representative or senator in congress 11 must be commenced within twenty days after the declaration of the result of 12 the election, but this shall not be construed to apply to any contest before the 13 Legislative Assembly.

Sec. 41. An application for filing a statement, payment of a claim, or cor-2 rection of an error or false recital in a statement filed, or an action or proceeding to annul and set aside the election of any person declared elected to any office, or to remove or deprive any person of his office for an offence mentioned in this Act, or any petition to excuse any person or candidate in accordance with the power of the court to excuse as provided in Section 38 of this Act, must be made or filed in the circuit court of the county in which the certificate of his nomination as a candidate for the office to which he is declared nominated or elected, is filed, or in which the incumbent resides.

Sec. 42. A candidate nominated or elected to an office, and whose nomination or election thereto has been annulled and set aside for any offense mentioned in this Act, shall not during the period fixed by law of the terms of such office, be elected or appointed to fill any office or vacancy in any office or position of trust, honor, or emolument, under the laws of the State of Illinois or of any municipality therein, any appointment, or election to any office, or position of trust, honor, or emolument made in violation of or contrary to the provisions of this Act shall be void.

Sec. 43. If any State's Attorney shall be notified by any officer or other person of any violation of any of the provisions of this Act within his jurisdiction, it shall be his duty to forthwith diligently inquire into the facts of such violation, and if there is reasonable ground for instituting a prosecution it shall be the duty of such State's Attorney to file a complaint or information in writing, before a court of competent jurisdiction, charging the accused person with such offense; if any State's Attorney shall fail or refuse to faithfully perform any duty imposed upon him by this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit his office. It shall be the duty of the State's Attorney, under penalty of forfeiture of his office, to prosecute any and all persons guilty of any violations of the provisions of this Act, the penalty of which is fine or imprisonment, or both, or removal from office.

Sec. 44. If, in any case of a contest on the ground of illegal votes, it appears that another person than the one returned had the highest number of

3 legal votes, after the legal votes have been eliminated, the court must declare 4 such person nominated or elected, as the case may be.

Sec. 45. Any elector of the State, or of any political or municipal division 2 thereof, may contest the right of any person to any nomination or office for 3 which such elector has the right to vote, for any of the following causes:

4 1. On the ground of deliberate, serious and material violation of any of 5 the provisions of this Act, or of any other provisions of the law relating to nom-6 inations or elections.

7 2. When the person whose right was contested was not, at the time of the 8 election, eligible to such office.

9 3. On account of illegal votes or an erroneous or fraudulent count or can-10 vas of votes.

Sec. 46. Nothing in the third ground of contents specified in Section 45 is 2 to be so construed as to authorize a nomination or election to be set aside on 3 account of illegal votes, unless it appear either that the candidate or nominee 4 whose right is contested had knowledge of or connived at such illegal votes, or 5 that the number of illegal votes given to the person whose right to the nomi-6 nation or office is contested, is taken from him, would reduce the number of his 7 legal votes below the number of votes given to some other person for the same 8 nomination or office, after deducting therefrom the legal votes which may be 9 shown to have been given such other person.

Sec. 47. When the reception of illegal votes is alleged as a cause of con-
2 test it shall be sufficient to state generally that in one or most specified voting 3 precincts illegal votes were given to the person whose nomination or election 4 is contested, which, if taken from him, will reduce the number of his legal votes 5 below the number of legal votes given to some other person for the same office; 6 but no testimony shall be received of any illegal votes unless the party con-7 testing such election deliver to the opposite party, at least three days before 8 such trial, a written list of the number of illegal votes and by whom given,

9 which he intends to prove on such trial. This provision shall not prevent con-10 testant from offering evidence of illegal votes not included in such statement 11 if he did not know and by reasonable diligence was unable to learn of such 12 additional illegal votes, by whom they were given, before delivering such writ-13 ten lists.

Sec. 48. Any petition contesting the right of any person to a nomination 2 or election shall set forth the name of every person whose election is contested 3 and the grounds of the contest, and shall not thereafter be amended except by 4 leave of the court, before any proceeding thereon, the petitioner shall give bond 5 to the State in such sum as the court may order, not exceeding two thousand 6 dollars, with not less than two sureties, who shall justify in the manner required 7 of sureties on bail bonds, conditional to pay all cost, disbursements and attor-
8 neys' fees that may be awarded against him if he shall not prevail. If the peti-9 tioner prevails he may recover his costs, disbursements, and reasonable attor-
10 neys' fees against the contestee. The costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees 11 in all such cases shall be in the discretion of the court, and in case 12 judgment is rendered against the petitioner, which shall also be rendered against 13 the sureties on the bond. On the filing of any such petition the clerk shall imme-14 diately notify the judge of the court and issue a citation to the persons whose 15 nomination of office is contested, citing them to appear and answer, not less than 16 three nor more than seven days, after the date of filing the petition, and the 17 courts will hear said cause and every such contest shall take precedence over 18 all other business on the court docket, and shall be tried and disposed of with 19 all convenient dispatch. The court shall always be deemed in session for the 20 trial of such cases.

Sec. 49. The petitioner (contestant) and the contestee may appear and pro-2 duce evidence at the hearing, but no person other than the petitioner and con-3 testee shall be made a party to the proceedings on such petition, and no person 4 other than such parties and their attorneys shall be heard thereon except by 5 order of the court. If more than one petition is pending, or the election of more 6 than one person is contested, the court may, in its discretion, order the cases

7 heard together and may apportion the costs of disbursements and attorneys' 8 fees between them, and shall finally determine all questions of law and fact, save 9 only that the judge may in his discretion impanel a jury to decide on questions 10 of facts. In the case of a contested nomination or election for senator or repre-11 sentative in the legislative assembly, or for senator or representative in congress, 12 the court shall forthwith certify its findings to the Secretary of State, to be by 13 him transmitted to the presiding officer of the body in question. In the case of 14 other nominations or elections the court shall forthwith certify its decision to the 15 board or official issuing certificates of nomination or election, which board or 16 official shall thereupon issue certificates of nomination or election to the person 17 or persons entitled thereto by such decision. If judgment of ouster against a de-18 fendant shall be rendered, said judgment shall award the office or nomination to 19 the person receiving the next highest number of votes, unless it shall be further 20 determined in the action, upon appropriate pleading approved by the defendant, 21 that some act has been done or committed which would have been ground in a 22 similar action against such person, had he received the highest number of votes 23 for such nomination or office, for a judgment of ouster against him; and if it 24 shall be so determined at the trial, the nomination or office shall be by the judg-25 ment of ouster against him; and if it shall be so determined at the trial, the nom-26 ination or office shall be by the judgment declared vacant, and shall thereupon 27 be filled by a new election or by appointment, as may be provided by law regard-28 ing vacancies in such nominations or office.

Sec. 50. In like manner as prescribed for the contesting of an election any 2 corporation organized under the laws of or doing business in the State of Illi-3 nois, may be brought into court on the ground of deliberate, serious and ma-4 terial violation of the provisions of this Act. The petition shall be filed in the 5 circuit court in the county where said corporation has its principal office, or 6 where the violation of law is averred to have been committed. The court, upon 7 conviction of such corporation, may impose a fine of not more than $10,000 or may 8 declare a forfeiture of the charter and franchises of the corporation if organized

9 under the laws of this State, or if it be a foreign corporation, may enjoin said 10 corporation from further transacting business in this State, or by both such fine 11 and forfeiture, or by both such fine and injunction.

Sec. 51. Whoever violates any provision of this Act, punishment for which 2 is not specially provided by law, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by 3 imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or for a fine of not 4 more than five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 52. Proceedings under this Act shall be advanced on the docket upon 2 request of either party for a speedy trial, but the court may postpone or continue 3 such trial if the ends of justice may be thereby more effectually secured, and in 4 the case of such continuance or postponement the court may impose costs in its 5 discretion as a condition thereof. No petition shall be dismissed without the con-
6 sent of the State's Attorney unless the same may be dismissed by the court. No 7 persons shall be excused from testifying or producing papers or documents will 8 tend to incriminate him; but no admission, evidence, or paper made or advanced 9 or produced by such person shall be offered or used against him in any criminal 10 or civil prosecution or any evidence that is the direct result of such evidence or 11 information that he may have so given except in a prosecution for perjury 12 committed in such testimony.

Sec. 53. Any person who shall knowingly make any false oath or affidavit 2 where an oath or affidavit is required by this law, shall be deemed guilty of per-3 jury and punished accordingly.

Sec. 54. The provisions of this Act shall extend, so far as applicable, to all 2 elections held under the Constitution of laws of this State, either general, special 3 or primary.

Sec. 55. All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this 2 Act are hereby repealed: Provided, that the repeal of such Acts or Part of Acts, 3 or any of them, shall not be construed to affect any offense committed or any 4 prosecution or proceeding instituted or pending under the law so repealed.

All such general taxes when collected shall be paid over to the treasurer of the district who is authorized to receive and receipt for the same, and all taxes authorized to be levied by the corporate authorities of any Recreation District created under this Act on the taxable property in said district shall be levied at the same time and in the same manner as taxes are now levied for city or village purposes under the laws of the State of Illinois: Provided, the aggregate amount of taxes levied for any one year, exclusive of the amount levied for the payment of bonded indebtedness and interest thereon, shall not exceed the rate of one cent on each dollar of taxable property in said district as equalized for State and county taxes for the preceding year.

A. The term, “municipal council,” as used in this Act, shall mean and embrace the common council, the board of aldermen, the board of trustees, the town or village board, or any other governing body of any town, village or city where 14 B. The term "municipality," as used in this Act, shall mean any town, 15 village or city wherein property of a public utility or any part thereof is located.

17 sive sense.

18 D. The term "perpetual franchise," as used in this Act, shall mean and 19 embrace every grant, directly or indirectly, from the State to any corporation, 20 company, individual, association of individuals, their lessees, trustees or receiv-

23 ment within this State for the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing 24 of heat, light, water or power, either directly or indirectly, to or for the public, 25 which shall continue in force until such time as the municipality shall exercise 26 its option to purchase as provided in this Act or until it shall be otherwise ter-27 minated according to law.

28 E. The term "commission" as used in this Act, shall mean the Railroad and 29 Warehouse Commission of Illinois.

Sec. 2. The Railroad and Warehouse Commission of Illinois is vested with

Sec. 3. Every public utility is required to furnish reasonably adequate ser-
2 vice and facilities. The charge made by any public utility for any heat, light, 3 water or power produced, transmitted, delivered or furnished, or for any tele-

8 the accounts of all such other business, in which case all the provisions of this 9 Act shall apply with like force and effect to the books, accounts, papers and 10 records of such other business.

Sec. 9. The commission shall prescribe the forms of all books, accounts, pa-

3 and render its books, accounts, papers and records accurately and faithfully in 4 the manner and form prescribed by the commission and to comply with all di-5 rections of the commission relating to such books, accounts, papers and records.

Sec. 10. The commission shall cause to be prepared suitable blanks for 2 carrying out the purpose of this Act, and shall, when necessary, furnish such 3 blanks to each public utility.

Sec. 11. No public utility shall keep any other books, accounts, papers or 2 records of the business transacted than those prescribed or approved by the 3 commisison.

Sec. 12. Each public utility shall have an office in one of the towns, villages 2 or cities in this State in which its property or some part thereof is located, and 3 shall keep in said office all such books, accounts, papers and records as shall be 4 required by the commission to be kept within the State. No books, accounts, 5 papers or records required by the commission to be kept within the State shall be 6 at any time removed from the State, except upon such conditions as may be pre-7 scribed by the commission.

Sec. 13. The accounts shall be closed annually on the 30th day of June and 2 a balance sheet of that date promptly taken therefrom. On or before the 30th 3 day of September following, such balance sheet, together with such other infor-4 mation as the commisison shall prescribe, verified by an officer of the public util-5 ity, shall be filed with the commission.

Sec. 14. A. The commission shall provide for the examination and audit 2 of all accounts, and all items shall be allocated to the accounts in the manner pre-3 scribed by the commission.

5 shall have authority under the direction of the commission to inspect and exam-6 ine any and all books, accounts, papers, records and memoranda kept by such 7 public utilities.

Sec. 15. A. Every public utility shall carry a proper and adequate de-2 preciation account whenever the commission after investigation shall determine 3 that such depreciation account can be reasonably required. The commission shall 4 ascertain and determine what are the proper and adequate rates of deprecia-5 tion of the several classes of property of each public utility. The rates shall 6 be such as will provide the amounts required over and above the expense of main-7 tenance, to keep such property in a state of efficiency corresponding to the 8 progress of the industry. Each public utility shall conform its depreciation ac-9 counts to such rates so ascertained and determined by the commission. The 10 commission may make changes in such rates of depreciation from time to time 11 as it may find to be necessary.

12 B. The commission shall also prescribe rules, regulations and forms of ac-13 counts regarding such depreciation which the public utility is required to carry 14 into effect.

15 C. The commission shall provide for such depreciation in fixing the rates, 16 tolls and charges to be paid by the public.

17 D. All moneys thus provided for shall be set aside out of the earnings and 18 carried in a depreciation fund. The moneys in this fund may be expended in new 19 constructions, extensions or additions to the property of such public utility, or 20 invested, and if invested the income from the investments shall also be carried 21 in the depreciation fund. This fund and the proceeds thereof shall be used for no 22 other purpose than as provided in this section and for depreciation.

Sec. 16. The commission shall keep itself informed of all new construction, 2 extensions and additions to the property of such public utilities, and shall pre-3 scribe the necessary forms, regulations and instructions to the officers and em-4 ployees of such public utilities for the keeping of construction accounts, which 5 shall clearly distinguish all operating expenses and new construction.

Sec. 17. A. Nothing in this Act shall be taken to prohibit a public utility 2 from entering into any reasonable arrangement with its customers or consumers 3 or with its employees, for the division or distribution of its surplus profits, or 4 providing for a sliding scale of charges, or other financial device that may be 5 practicable and advantageous to the parties interested. No such arrangement or 6 device shall be lawful until it shall be found by the commission, after investiga-7 tion, to be reasonable and just and not inconsistent with the purposes of this 8 Act. Such arrangement shall be under the supervision and regulation of the 9 commisison.

10 B. The commission shall ascertain, determine and order such rates, 11 charges and regulations as may be necessary to give effect to such arrange-12 ment, but the right and power to make such other and further changes in rates, 13 charges and regulations as the commission may ascertain and determine to be 14 necessary and reasonable and the right to revoke its approval and amend or 15 rescind all orders relative thereto is reserved and vested in the commission, not-16 withstanding any such arrangement and mutual agreement.

Sec. 18. Each public utility shall furnish to the commission in such form 2 and at such times as the commission shall require, such accounts, reports and 3 information as shall show in itemized detail: (1) the depreciation per unit,

 9 reserve per unit, (11) the prices per unit paid by consumers; and in addition 10 such other items, whether of a nature similar to those hereinbefore enumer-11 ated or otherwise, as the commission may prescribe in order to show com-12 pletely and in detail the entire operation of the public utility in furnishing the 13 unit of its product or service to the public.

Sec. 19. A. The commission shall publish annual reports showing its pro-
 2 ceedings and showing in tabular form the details per unit as provided in Sec-
 3 tion 18 for all the public utilities of each kind in the State, and such monthly 4 or occasional reports as it may deem advisable.

5 B. The commission shall also publish in its annual reports the value of all 6 the property actually used and useful for the convenience of the public and the 7 value of the physical property actually used and useful for the convenience of 8 the public, of every public utility as to whose rates, charges, service or regula-9 tions any hearing has been held by the commission under Sections 45 and 46, 10 or the value of whose property has been ascertained by it under Section 5.

Sec. 20. All facts and information in possession of the commission shall 2 be public, and all reports, records, files, books, accounts, papers and memoranda 3 of every nature whatsoever in their possession shall be open to inspection by 4 the public at all reasonable times except as provided in Section 21.

Sec. 21. A. Whenever the commission shall determine it to be necessary 2 in the interest of the public to withhold from the public any facts or information in its possession, such facts may be withheld for such period after the acquisition thereof not exceeding ninety days as the commission may determine.

B. No facts or information shall be withheld by the commission from the public for a longer period than ninety days, nor be so withheld for any reason whatsoever other than in the interest of the public.

Sec. 22. The commission shall ascertain and prescribe for each kind of public utility suitable and convenient, standard commercial units of product or service. These shall be lawful units for the purposes of this Act.

Sec. 23. A. The commission shall ascertain and fix adequate and serviceable standards for the measurement of quality, pressure, initial voltage or other condition pertaining to the supply of the product or service rendered by any public utility and prescribe reasonable regulations for examination and testing of such product or service and for the measurement thereof.

B. It shall establish reasonable rules, regulations, specifications and standards to secure the accuracy of all meters and appliances for measurements, and every public utility is required to carry into effect all orders issued by the commission relative thereto.

C. Nothing contained in this section shall limit in any manner any powers or authority vested in municipal corporations, as provided in Section 87.

Sec. 24. A. The commission shall provide for the examination and testing of any and all appliances used for the measuring of any product or service of a public utility.

B. Any consumer or user may have any such appliance tested upon payment of the fees fixed by the commission.

C. The commission shall declare and establish reasonable fees to be paid for testing such appliances on the request of the consumers or users, the fee to be paid by the consumer or user at the time of his request, but to be paid by the public utility and repaid to the consumer or user if the appliance be found defective or incorrect to the disadvantage of the consumer or user.

Sec. 25. The commission may purchase such materials, apparatus and 2 standard measuring instruments for such examinations and tests as it may deem 3 necessary.

Sec. 26. The commission, its agents, experts, or examiners, shall have 2 power to enter upon any premises occupied by any public utility for the purpose 3 of making the examinations and tests provided in this Act and to set up and 4 use on such premises any apparatus and appliances and occupy reasonable space 5 therefor.

Sec. 27. Every public utility shall file with the commission within a time 2 to be fixed by the commission, schedules which shall be open to public inspection, 3 showing all rates, tolls and charges which it has established and which are in 4 force at the time for any service performed by it within the State, or for any 5 service in connection therewith, or performed by any public utility controlled or 6 operated by it. The rates, tolls and charges shown on such schedules shall not 7 exceed the rates, tolls and charges in force April 1, 1911.

Sec. 28. Every public utility shall file with and as a part of such schedule 2 all rules and regulations that in any manner affect the rates charged or to be 3 charged for any service.

Sec. 29. A copy of so much of said schedules as the commission shall deem 2 necessary for the use of the public shall be printed in plain type, and kept on 3 file in every station or office of such public utility where payments are made by 4 the consumers or users, open to the public, in such form and place as to be 5 readily accessible to the public and as can be conveniently inspected.

Sec. 30. Where a schedule of joint rates or charges is or may be in force 2 between two or more public utilities, such schedules shall in like manner be 3 printed and filed with the commission and so much thereof as the commission 4 shall deem necessary for the use of the public shall be filed in every such station 5 or office as provided in Section 29.

Sec. 31. No change shall thereafter be made in any schedule, including 2 schedules of joint rates, except upon ten days' notice to the commission, and all 3 such changes shall be plainly indicated upon existing schedules, or by filing new 4 schedules in lieu thereof ten days prior to the time the same are to take effect:
5 Provided, that the commission, upon application of any public utility, may pre-6 scribe a less time within which a reduction may be made.

Sec. 32. Copies of all new schedules shall be filed as hereinbefore provided 2 in every station and office of such public utility where payments are made by 3 consumers or users ten days prior to the time the same are to take effect, un-4 less the commission shall prescribe a less time:

Sec. 33. It shall be unlawful for any public utility to charge, demand, 2 collect or receive a greater or less compensation for any service performed by 3 it within the State or for any service in connection therewith than is specified 4 in such printed schedules, including schedules of joint rates, as may at the time 5 be in force, or to demand, collect or receive any rate, toll or charge not specified 6 in such schedule. The rates, tolls and charges named therein shall be the law-7 ful rates, tolls and charges until the same are changed as provided in this Act.

Sec. 34. The commission may prescribe such changes in the form in which 2 the schedules are issued by any public utility as may be found to be expedient.

Sec. 35. The commission shall provide for a comprehensive classification of 2 service for each public utility and such classification may take into account the 3 quantity used, the time when used, the purpose for which used, and any other 4 reasonable consideration. Each public utility is required to conform its sched-5 ules of rates, tolls and charges to such classification.

Sec. 36. The commission shall have power to adopt reasonable and proper 2 rules and regulations relative to all inspections, tests, audits and investigations 3 and to adopt and publish reasonable and proper rules to govern its proceedings 4 and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings of public 5 utilities and other parties before it. All hearings shall be open to the public.

Sec. 37. The commission shall have authority to inquire into the management of the business of all public utilities and shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same is conducted, and shall have the right to obtain from any public utility all necessary information to enable the commission to perform its duties.

Sec. 38. A. The commission or any commissioner or any person or persons employed by the commission for that purpose shall, upon demand, have the right to inspect the books, accounts, papers, records and memoranda of any public utility and to examine, under oath, any officer, agent or employee of such public utility in relation to its business and affairs.

B. Any person other than one of said commissioners, who shall make such demand shall produce his authority to make such inspection.

Sec. 39. A. The commission may require, by order or subpoena to be served on any public utility in the same manner that a summons is served in a civil action in the circuit court, the production within this State at such time and place as it may designate, of any books, accounts, papers or records kept by said public utility in any office or place without the State of Illinois, or verified copies in lieu thereof, if the commission shall so order, in order that an examination thereof may be made by the commission or under its direction.

B. Any public utility failing or refusing to comply with any such order or subpoena shall, for each day it shall so fail or refuse, forfeit and pay into the State treasury a sum of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

Sec. 40. The commission is authorized to employ such engineers, examiners, experts, clerks, accountants and other assistants as it may deem necessary, at such rates of compensation as it may determine upon.

Sec. 41. A. For the purpose of making any investigation with regard to any public utility the commission shall have the power to appoint, by an order in writing, an agent whose duties shall be prescribed in such order.

4 B. In the discharge of his duties such agent shall have every power what-5 soever of an inquisitorial nature granted in this Act to the commission and the 6 same powers as a court commissioner with regard to the taking of depositions; 7 and all powers granted by law to a court commissioner relative to depositions 8 are hereby granted to such agent.

9 C. The commission may conduct any number of such investigations con-10 temporaneously through different agents, and may delegate to such agent the 11 taking of all testimony bearing upon any investigation or hearing. The decis-12 ion of the commission shall be based upon its examinations of all testimony and 13 records. The recommendations made by such agents shall be advisory only and 14 shall not preclude the taking of further testimony if the commission so order.
15 nor further investigation.

Sec. 42. A. Every public utility shall furnish to the commission all infor-2 mation required by it to carry into effect the provisions of this Act, and shall 3 make specific answers to all questions submitted by the commission.

4 B. Any public utility receiving from the commission any blanks with direc-5 tions to fill the same, shall cause the same to be properly filled out so as to an-6 swer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and in case it is un-7 able to answer any question, it shall give a good and sufficient reason for such 8 failure; and said answer shall be verified under oath by the president, secretary, 9 superintendent or general manager of such public utility and returned to the 10 commission at its office within the period fixed by the commission.

11 C. Whenever required by the commission, every public utility shall deliver 12 to the commission any or all maps, profiles, contracts, reports of engineers and 13 all documents, books, accounts, papers and records or copies of any or all of 14 the same, with a complete inventory of all its property, in such form as the com-15 mission may direct.

Sec. 43. Upon a complaint made against any public utility by any mercan-2 tile, agricultural or manufacturing society or by any body politic or municipal 3 organization or by any twenty-five persons, firms, corporations or associations,

4 that any of the rates, tolls, charges or schedules or any joint rate or rates are 5 in any respect unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, or that any regulation, 6 measurement, practice or act whatsoever affecting or relating to the production, 7 transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light or water or power or any ser-8 vice in connection therewith or the conveyance of any telephone message or any 9 service in connection therewith is in any respect unreasonable, insufficient or un-10 justly discriminatory, or that any service is inadequate or cannot be obtained, 11 the commission shall proceed, with or without notice, to make such investiga-12 tion as it may deem necessary or convenient. But no order affecting said rates, 13 tolls, charges, schedules, regulations, measurements, practice or act complained 14 of shall be entered by the commission without a formal public hearing.

Sec. 44. The commission shall, prior to such formal hearing, notify the 2 public utility complained of that a complaint has been made, and ten days after 3 such notice has been given the commission may proceed to set a time and place 4 for a hearing and an investigation as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 45. The commission shall give the public utility and the complainant, 2 if any, ten days' notice of the time and place when and where such hearing and 3 investigation will be held and such matters considered and determined. Both 4 the public utility and complainant shall be entitled to be heard and shall have 5 process to enforce the attendance of witnesses.

Sec. 46. A. If upon such investigation the rates, tolls, charges, schedules 2 or joint rates, shall be found to be unjust, unreasonable, insufficient or unjustly 3 discriminatory or to be preferential or otherwise in violation of any of the pro-4 visions of this Act, the commission shall have power to fix and order substituted 5 therefor such rate or rates, tolls, charges or schedules as shall be just and reas-6 onable.

7 B. If upon such investigation it shall be found that any regulation, meas-8 urement, practice, act, or service complained of is unjust, unreasonable, insuf-9 ficient, preferential, unjustly discriminatory or otherwise in violation of any of 10 the provisions of this Act, or if it be found that any service is inadequate or 11 that any reasonable service cannot be obtained, the commission shall have 12 power to substitute therefor such other regulations, measurements, practices, 13 service or acts and to make such order respecting, and such changes in such 14 regulations, measurements, practices, service or acts as shall be just and reason-15 able.

Sec. 47. If upon such investigation it shall be found that any rate, toll, 2 charge, schedule or joint rate or rates is unjust, unreasonable, insufficient or un-3 justly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise in violation of any of the pro-4 visions of this Act, or that any regulation, practice, act or service complained of 5 is unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential or otherwise in violation of any 6 of the provisions of this Act, or if it be found that any service is inadequate or 7 that any reasonable service cannot be obtained, the public utility found to be 8 at fault shall pay the expenses incurred by the commission upon such investi-9 gation.

Sec. 48. The commisison may, in its discretion, when complaint is made of 2 more than one rate or charge, order separate hearings thereon, and may consider 3 and determine the several matters complained of separately and at such times 4 as it may prescribe. No complaint shall at any time be dismissed because of the 5 absence of direct damage to the complainant.

Sec. 49. Whenever the commission shall believe that any rate or charge 2 may be unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory or that any service is inade-3 quate or cannot be obtained or that an investigation of any matter relating to 4 any public utility should for any reason be made, it may on its own motion, 5 summarily investigate the same with or without notice.

Sec. 50. If, after making such investigation, the commission becomes satis-2 fied that sufficient grounds exist to warrant a formal hearing being ordered as to 3 the matters so investigated, it shall furnish such public utility interested a 4 statement notifying the public utility of the matters under investigation. Then 5 days after such notice has been given the commission may proceed to set a time 6 and place for a hearing and an investigation as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 51. Notice of the time and place for such hearing shall be given to the 2 public utility and to such other interested persons as the commission shall deem 3 necessary as provided in Section 45, and thereafter proceedings shall be had and 4 conducted in reference to the matter investigated in like manner as though com-5 plaint had been filed with the commission relative to the matter investigated, and 6 the same order or orders may be made in reference thereto as if such investiga-7 tion had been made on complaint.

Sec. 52. Any public utility may make complaint as to any matter affecting 2 its own product or service with like effect as though made by any mercantile, 3 agricultural or manufacturing society, body politic or municipal organization or 4 by any twenty-five persons, firms, corporations or associations.

Sec. 53. A. Each of the commissioners and every agent provided for in 2 Section 41 of this Act for the purposes mentioned in this Act shall have power 3 to administer oaths, certify to official acts, issue subpoenas, compel the attendance 4 of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, papers, records, documents 5 and testimony.

6 B. In case of disobedience on the part of any person or persons to comply 7 with any order of the commission or any commissioner or any subpoena, or, on 8 the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be 9 lawfully interrogated before the commission or its agent, authorized as pro-10 vided in Section 41, it shall be the duty of the Circuit Court of any county or 11 the judge thereof, on application of a commissioner to compel obedience by at-12 tachment proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of the require-13 ments of a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein.

Sec. 54. A. Each witness who shall appear before the commission or its 2 agent by its order shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage now pro-3 vided for witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, which shall be audited and 4 paid by the State in the same manner as other expenses are audited and paid, 5 upon the presentation of proper vouchers sworn to by such witnesses and ap-6 proved by the chairman of the commission.

7 B. No witness subpoenaed at the instance of parties other than the com-8 mission shall be entitled to compensation from the State for attendance or 9 travel unless the commission shall certify that his testimony was material to 10 the matter investigated.

Sec. 55. The commission or any party may, in any investigation, cause the 2 depositions of witnesses residing within or without the State to be taken in the 3 manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in Circuit Courts.

Sec. 56. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had 2 before the commission or its agent on any formal investigation had and all 3 testimony shall be taken down by the stenographer appointed by the commis-4 sion.

Sec. 57. Whenever any complaint is served upon the commission under the 2 provisions of Section 64 of this Act, the commission shall, before said action is 3 reached for trial, cause a certified transcript of all proceedings had and testi-4 mony taken upon such investigation to be filed with the clerk of the Circuit 5 Court of the county where the action is pending.

Sec. 58. A transcribed copy of the evidence and proceedings or any speci-2 fic part thereof, on any investigation taken by the stenographer appointed by the 3 commission, being certified by such stenographer to be a true and correct tran-4 script in longhand of all testimony on the investigation or of a particular wit-5 ness, or of other specific part thereof, carefully compared by him with his orig-6 inal notes, and to be a correct statement of the evidence and proceedings had 7 on such investigation so purporting to be taken and transcribed, shall be re-8 ceived in evidence with the same effect as if such reporter were present and 9 testified to the fact so certified.

Sec. 59. A copy of such transcript shall be furnished on demand free of 2 cost to any party to such investigations.

Sec. 60. A. Whenever, upon an investigation made under the provisions of this Act, the commission shall find any existing rates, tolls, charges, schedules or joint rate or rates to be unjust, unreasonable, insufficient or unjustly discriminatory or to be preferential or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, the commission shall determine and by order fix reasonable rates, tolls, charges, schedules or joint rates to be imposed, observed and followed in the future in lieu of those found to be unjust, unreasonable, insufficient or unjustly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this Act.

B. Whenever, upon an investigation made under the provisions of this Act, the commission shall find any regulations, measurements, practices, acts or service to be unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential, unjustly discriminatory or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this Act; or shall find that any service is inadequate or that any service which can be reasonably demanded cannot be obtained the commission shall determine and declare and by order fix reasonable measurements, regulations, acts, practices or service to be furnished, imposed, observed and followed in the future in lieu of those found to be unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential, unjustly discriminatory, inadequate, or otherwise in violation of this Act as the case may be, and shall make such other order respecting such measurements, regulation, act, practice or service as shall be just and reasonable.

C. Whenever, upon an investigation made under the provisions of this Act, the commission shall find that any rate, toll, charge, schedule or joint rate or rates is unjust, unreasonable, insufficient or unjustly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, or that any measurement, regulation, practice, act or service complained of is unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential, unjustly discriminatory or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, or it shall find that any service is inadequate or that any service which can reasonably be demanded cannot be obtained, the commission shall ascertain and declare and by order fix the expenses

31 incurred by the commission upon such investigation and shall by such order 32 direct such public utility to pay to the State treasurer within twenty days there-33 after such expenses so incurred.

34 D. The commission shall cause a certified copy of all such orders to be de-35 livered to an officer or agent of the public utility affected thereby, and all such 36 orders shall of their own force take effect and become operative twenty days 37 after service thereof, unless a different time be provided by said order.

Sec. 61. All public utilities to which the order applies shall make such 2 changes in their schedules on file as may be necessary to make the same conform 3 to said order, and no change shall thereafter be made by any public utility in any 4 such rates, tolls or charges, or in any joint rate or rates, without the approval 5 of the commisison. Certified copies of all other orders of the commisison shall 6 be delivered to the public utility affected thereby in like manner and the same 7 shall take effect within such time thereafter as the commisison shall prescribe.

Sec. 62. The commisison may at any time, upon notice to the public utility 2 and after opportunity to be heard as provided in Section 45, rescind, alter or 3 amend any order fixing any rate or rates, tolls, charges or schedules, or any 4 other order made by the commission and certified copies of the same shall be 5 served and take effect as herein provided for original orders.

Sec. 63. All rates, tolls, charges, schedules and joint rates fixed by the com-2 misison shall be in force and shall be prima facie lawful, and all regulations, 3 practices and services prescribed by the commisison shall be in force and shall be 4 prima facie reasonable until finally found otherwise in an action brought for 5 that purpose pursuant to the provisions of Section 64.

Sec. 64. A. Any public utility and any person or corporation in interest 2 being dissatisfied with any order of the commission fixing any rate or rates, tolls, 3 charges, schedules, joint rate or rates or any order fixing any regulations, prac-4 tices, act or service may commence an action in the circuit court of Sangamon 5 county against the commission as defendant to vacate and set aside any such

6 order on the ground that the rate or rates, tolls, charges, schedules, joint rate 7 or rates, fixed in such order is unlawful, or that any such regulation, practice, act 8 or service fixed in such order is unreasonable, in which action the complaint 9 shall be served with the summons.

10 B. The answer of the commission to the complaint shall be served and filed 11 within ten days after service of the complaint, whereupon said action shall be at 12 issue and stand ready for trial upon ten days' notice to either party.

13 C. All such actions shall have precedence over any civil cause of a differ-14 ent nature pending in such court, and the circuit court shall always be deemed 15 open for the trial thereof, and the same shall be tried and determined as other 16 civil actions.

Sec. 65. Every proceeding, action or suit to set aside, vacate or amend any 2 determination or order of the commission or to enjoin the enforcement thereof 3 or to prevent in any way such order or determination from becoming effective, 4 shall be commenced, and every appeal to the courts or right of recourse to the 5 courts shall be taken or exercised within ninety days after the entry or rendition 6 of such order or determination, and the right to commence any such action, pro-7 ceeding or suit, or to take or exercise any such appeal or right of recourse to 8 the courts, shall terminate absolutely at the end of such ninety days after such 9 entry or rendition thereof.

Sec. 66. No injunction shall issue suspending or staying any order of the 2 commission, except upon application to the circuit court or presiding judge 3 thereof, notice to the commission, and hearing.

Sec. 67. A. If, upon the trial of such action, evidence shall be introduced 2 by the plaintiff which is found by the court to be different from that offered 3 upon the hearing before the commission or its authorized agent, or additional 4 thereto, the court, before proceeding to render judgment unless the parties to 5 such action stipulate in writing to the contrary, shall transmit a copy of such 6 evidence to the commission and shall stay further proceedings in said action for 7 fifteen days from the date of such transmission.

8 B. Upon the receipt of such evidence the commission shall consider the 9 same and may alter, modify, amend or rescind its order relating to such rate or 10 rates, tolls, charges, schedules, joint rate or rates, regulations, practice, act or 11 service complained of in said action, and shall report its action thereon to said 12 court within ten days from the receipt of such evidence.

Sec. 68. A. If the commission shall rescind its order complained of, the 2 action shall be dismissed; if it shall alter, modify or amend the same, such al 3 tered, modified or amended order shall take the place of the original order com-4 plained of, and judgment shall be rendered thereon as though made by the com 5 mission in the first instance.

6 B. If the original order shall not be rescinded or changed by the com-7 mission judgment shall be rendered upon such original order.

Sec. 69. Either party to said action, within sixty days after service of a 2 copy of the order or judgment of the circuit court, may appeal to the supreme 3 court. Where an appeal is taken the cause shall, on the return of the papers to 4 the supreme court, be immediately placed on the State calendar of the then pend-5 ing term and shall be assigned and brought to a hearing in the same manner as 6 other causes on the State calender.

Sec. 70. In all trials, actions and proceedings arising under the provisions 2 of this Act or growing out of the exercise of the authority and powers granted 3 herein to the commission, the burden of proof shall be upon the party adverse to 4 such commission or seeking to set aside any determination, requirement, direc-5 tion or order of said commission, to show by clear and satisfactory evidence that 6 the determination, requirement, direction or order of the commission complained 7 of is unreasonable or unlawful, as the case may be.

Sec. 71. In all actions and proceedings in court arising under this Act all 2 processes shall be served and the practice and rules of evidence shall be the same 3 as in civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. Every sheriff or other 4 officer empowered to execute civil processes shall execute any process issued under the provisions of this Act and shall receive such compensation therefor as may be prescribed by law for similar services.

Sec. 72. No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing books, accounts and papers in any proceeding based upon or growing out of any violation of the provisions of this Act on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required by him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture; but no person having so testified shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may have testified or produced any documentary evidence: Provided, that no person so testifying shall be exempted from prosecution or punishment for perjury in so testifying.

Sec. 73. Upon application of any person the commission shall furnish certified copies, under the seal of the commission, of any order made by it, which shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Sec. 74. A. No license, permit or franchise shall be granted to any person, copartnership or corporation to own, operate, manage or control any plant or equipment for the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light, water or power in any municipality where there is in operation under a perpetual franchise as provided in this Act a public utility engaged in similar service without first securing from the commission a declaration after a public hearing of all parties interested, that public convenience and necessity require such second public utility.

B. Any existing permit, license or franchise which shall contain any term whatsoever interfering with the existence of such second public utility is hereby amended in such a manner as to permit such municipality to grant a perpetual franchise for the operation of such second public utility pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

C. No municipality shall hereafter construct any such plant or equipment where there is in operation under a perpetual franchise as provided in this Act,

16 in such municipality a public utility engaged in similar service, without first 17 securing from the commission a declaration, after a public hearing of all parties 18 interested, that public convenience and necessity require such municipal 19 public utility. But nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a 20 municipality acquiring any existing plant by purchase or by condemnation as 21 hereinafter provided.

22 D. Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to prevent the granting 23 of a perpetual franchise or the construction of a municipal plant where the existing 24 public utility is operating without a perpetual franchise, as provided in 25 this Act.

Sec. 75. No license, permit or franchise to own, operate, manage or control 2 any plant or equipment for the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing 3 of heat, light, water or power shall be hereafter granted or transferred, except 4 to a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Sec. 76. Every license, permit or franchise hereafter granted to any public 2 utility shall have the effect of a perpetual franchise subject to the provisions of 3 this Act, and subject to the provision that the municipality in which the major 4 part of its property is situate may purchase the property of such public utility 5 actually used and useful for the convenience of the public at any time as provided 6 herein, paying therefor just compensation to be determined by the commission and 7 according to the terms and conditions fixed by said commission. Any such municipality 8 is authorized to purchase such property and every such public utility is 9 required to sell such property at the value and according to the terms and conditions 10 determined by the commission as herein provided.

Sec. 77. Any public utility, being at the time a corporation duly organized 2 under the laws of the State of Illinois, operating under an existing license, permit, 3 or franchise, shall, upon filing at any time prior to the expiration of such 4 license, permit or franchise and prior to December 31, 1913, with the clerk of 5 the municipality which granted such franchise and with the commission, a written 6 declaration legally executed, that it surrenders such license, permit or franchise, receive by operation of law in lieu thereof, a perpetual franchise as provided in this Act, and such public utility shall hold such franchise under all the terms, conditions and limitations of this Act. The filing of such declaration shall be deemed a waiver by such public utility of the right to insist upon the fulfillment of any contract theretofore entered into relating to any rate, charge or service regulated by this Act. After filing such written declaration with the commission, the public utility may file with the commission a certificate of the clerk of the municipality showing the fact and the date of the filing of such written declaration with such clerk, and thereupon shall receive a certificate under the hands and seal of the commission that such public utility is, on and after a day to be therein specified, the holder of such perpetual franchise, which certificate shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated.

Sec. 78. Any public utility accepting or operating under any license, permit or franchise hereafter granted shall, by acceptance of any such perpetual franchise, be deemed to have consented to a future purchase of its property actually used and useful for the convenience of the public by the municipality in which the major part of it is situate for the compensation and under the terms and conditions determined by the commission, and shall thereby be deemed to have waived the right of requiring the necessity of such taking to be established by the verdict of a jury, and to have waived all other remedies and rights relative to condemnation, except such rights and remedies as are provided in this Act.

Sec. 79. A. Any municipality shall have the power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to construct and operate a plant and equipment or any part thereof for the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light, water or power.

B. Any municipality shall have the power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to purchase by an agreement with any public utility any part of any plant: Provided, that such purchase and the terms thereof shall be approved by the commission after a hearing as provided in Sections 81 and 82.

C. Any municipality shall have the power, subject to the provisions of this

10 Act, to acquire by condemnation the property of any public utility actually used 11 and useful for the convenience of the public then operating under a license, per-12 mit or franchise existing at the time this Act takes effect, or operating in such 13 municipality without any permit or franchise.

14 D. Any municipality shall have the power, subject to the provisions of this 15 Act, to acquire by purchase as provided in this Act, the property of any public 16 utility actually used and useful for the convenience of the public operating 17 under any perpetual franchise as provided herein.

Sec. 80. If the municipality shall have determined to acquire an existing 2 plant then operated under a license, permit or franchise existing at the time this 3 Act takes effect, by a vote of a majority of the electors voting thereon at any 4 general, municipal or special election at which the question of the purchase of 5 such plant shall have been submitted, such municipality shall bring an action 6 in the Circuit Court against the public utility as defendant praying the court for 7 an adjudication as to the necessity of such taking by the municipality, in which 8 action the complaint shall be served with the summons. The public utility shall 9 serve and file its answer to such complaint within ten days after the service 10 thereof, whereupon such action shall be at issue and stand ready for trial upon 11 ten days' notice by either party. Unless the parties thereto waive a jury, the 12 question as to the necessity of the taking of such property by the municipality 13 shall be as speedily as possible submitted to a jury.

Sec. 81. If the municipality shall have determined to acquire an existing 2 plant in the manner provided in the preceding section, and the public utility 3 owning such plant shall have consented to the taking over of such plant by the 4 municipality by acceptance of a perpetual franchise as provided herein, or, in 5 case such public utility shall not have waived or consented to such taking, if 6 the jury shall have found that a necessity exists for the taking of such plant, 7 then the municipality shall give speedy notice of such determination and of such 8 consent or such verdict of a jury to the public utility and to the commission.

Sec. 82. The commission shall thereupon, after public hearing and within 2 three months from the receipt of such notice and upon notice to the munici-3 pality and the public utility interested, by order fix and determine and certify 4 to the municipal council and to the public utility just compensation to be paid 5 for the taking of the property of such public utility actually used and useful 6 for the convenience of the public and all other terms and all conditions of sale 7 and purchase which it shall ascertain to be reasonable. The compensation and 8 other terms and the conditions of the sale and purchase, thus certified by the 9 commission shall constitute the compensation and terms and conditions to be 10 paid, followed and observed in the purchase of such plant from such public 11 utility. Upon the filing of such certificate with the clerk of such municipality 12 the exclusive use of the property taken shall vest in such municipality.

Sec. 83. Any public utility or the municipality being dissatisfied with such 2 order may commence and prosecute an action in the Circuit Court to alter or 3 amend such order or any part thereof, as provided in Sections 64 to 73 inclusive, 4 and said sections so far as applicable shall apply to such action.

Sec. 84. If the plaintiff shall not establish to the full satisfaction of the 2 court that the compensation fixed and determined in such order is unlawful, or 3 that some of the terms or conditions fixed and determined therein are in some 4 particular unreasonable, the compensation, terms and conditions fixed in said 5 order shall be the compensation, terms and conditions to be paid, followed and 6 observed in the purchase of said plant from such public utility.

Sec. 85. If the plaintiff shall establish to the full satisfaction of the court 2 and the court shall adjudge that such compensation is unlawful, or that some 3 of such terms or conditions are unreasonable, the court shall remand the same 4 to the commission, with such findings of fact and conclusions of law as shall set 5 forth in detail the reasons for such judgment and the specific particulars in 6 which such order of the commission is adjudged to be unreasonable or unlawful.

Sec. 86. A. If the compensation fixed by the previous order of the commission be adjudged to be unlawful, the commission shall forthwith proceed to set a re-hearing for the re-determination of such compensation as in the first instance.

B. The commission shall forthwith otherwise alter and amend such previous order with or without a re-hearing as it may deem necessary, so that the same shall be reasonable and lawful in every particular.

Sec. 87. Every municipal council shall have power: (1) To determine by contract, ordinance or otherwise, the quality and character of each kind of product or service to be furnished or rendered by any public utility furnishing any product or service within said municipality and all other terms and conditions not inconsistent with this Act upon which such public utility may be permitted to occupy the streets, highways or other public property within such municipality and such contract, ordinance or other determination of such municipality shall be in force and prima facie reasonable. Upon complaint made by such public utility or by any qualified complainant as provided in Section 43, the commission shall set a hearing as provided in Sections 45 and 46, and if it shall find such contract, ordinance or other determination to be unreasonable, such contract, ordinance or other determination shall be void.

(2) To require of any public utility by ordinance or otherwise such additions and extensions to its physical plant within said municipality as shall be reasonable and necessary in the interest of the public, and to designate the location and nature of all such additions and extensions, the time within which they must be completed and all conditions under which they must be constructed subject to review by the commission as provided in subdivision 1 of this section.

(3) To provide for a penalty for non-compliance with the provisions of any ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(4) The power and authority granted in this section shall exist and be vested in said municipalities, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 88. A. No public utility or any agent or officer thereof, or any agent⁴ or

2 officer of any municipality constituting a public utility as defined in this Act 3 shall offer or give for any purpose to any political committee or any member or 4 employee thereof, to any candidate for or incumbent of, any office or position 5 under the constitution or laws or under any ordinance of any municipality of 6 this State, or to any person at the request, or for the advantage of all or any of 7 them, any frank or any privilege withheld from any person for any product or 8 service produced, transmitted, delivered, furnished or rendered, or to be pro-9 duced, transmitted, delivered, furnished or rendered by any public utility, or the 10 conveyance of any telephone message or communication or any free product or 11 service whatsoever.

12 B. No political committee and no member or employee thereof, no candidate 13 for and no incumbent of any office or position under the constitution or laws 14 or under any ordinance of any town or municipality of this State, shall ask for 15 or accept from any public utility or any agent or officer thereof, or any agent or 16 officer of any municipality constituting a public utility as defined in this Act, or 17 use in any manner or for any purpose any frank or privilege withheld from any 18 person, for any product or service produced, transmitted, delivered, furnished or 19 rendered, or to be produced, transmitted, delivered, furnished or rendered by 20 any public utility or the conveyance of any telephone message or communica-
 21 tion.

22 C. Any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be punished 23 by imprisonment in the State prison not more than five years nor less than one 24 year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars nor less than two hundred 25 dollars.

Sec. 89. A. If any public utility or any agent or officer thereof, or any

2 officer or any municipality constituting a public utility as defined in this Act 3 shall, directly or indirectly, by any device whatsoever or otherwise, charge, de-4 mand, collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation, a greater or less 5 compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by it in or affecting or 6 relating to the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light,

7* water or power or the conveyance of telephone messages or for any service in 8 connection therewith than that prescribed in the published schedules or tariffs 9 then in force or established as provided herein, or than it charges, demands, col-10 lects or receives from any other person, firm or corporation for a like and con-11 temporaneous service, such public utility shall be deemed guilty of unjust dis-12 crimination which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful, and upon 13 conviction thereof shall forfeit and pay into the State treasury not less than one 14 hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense; and such 15 agent or officer so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon 16 conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor 17 more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

Sec. 90. It shall be unlawful for any public utility to demand, charge, 2 collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation less compensation for 3 any service rendered or to be rendered by said public utility in consideration of 4 the furnishing by said person, firm or corporation of any part of the facilities 5 incident to the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light, 6 water or power or the conveyance of telephone messages and paying a reason-7 able rental therefor, or as requiring any public utility to furnish any part of such 8 appliances which are situated in and upon the premises of any consumer or user, 9 except telephone station equipment upon the subscribers' premises, and unless 10 otherwise ordered by the commission meters and appliances for measurements of 11 any product or service.

Sec. 91. If any public utility make or give any undue or unreasonable pref-2 erence or advantage to any particular person, firm or corporation or shall sub-3 ject any particular person, firm or corporation to any undue or unreasonable 4 prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever such public utility shall 5 be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination which is hereby prohibited and de-6 clared unlawful.

7 The furnishing by any public utility, of any product or service at the rates 8 and upon the terms and conditions provided for in any existing contract executed

9 prior to April 1, 1911, shall not constitute a discrimination within the meaning 10 specified. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this sec-11 tion shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be 12 punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one thousand 13 dollars for each offense.

Sec. 92. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation knowingly 2 to solicit, accept or receive any rebate, concession or discrimination in respect 3 to any service in or affecting or relating to the production, transmission, de-4 livery or furnishing of heat, light, water or power or the conveying of telephone 5 messages within this State, or for any service in connection therewith whereby 6 any such service shall, by any device whatsoever, or otherwise, be rendered free 7 or at a less rate than that named in the published schedules and tariffs in force 8 as provided herein, or whereby any service or advantage is received other than 9 is herein specified. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of 10 this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof 11 shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one thou-12 sand dollars for each offense.

Sec. 93. If any public utility shall do or cause to be done or permit to be 2 done any matter, act or thing in this Act prohibited or declared to be unlaw-3 ful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing required to be done by it, such 4 public utility shall be liable to the person, firm or corporation injured thereby in 5 treble the amount of damages sustained in consequence of such violation: Pro- 6 vided, that any recovery as in this section provided, shall in no manner affect a 7 recovery by the State of the penalty prescribed for such violation.

Sec. 94. A. Any officer, agent or employee of any public utility or of any 2 municipality constituting a public utility as defined in this Act who shall fail or 3 refuse to fill out and return any blanks, as required by this Act, or shall fail or 4 refuse to answer any question therein propounded, or shall knowingly or wil-5 fully give a false answer to any such question, or shall evade the answer to any 6 such question where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or who shall, 7 upon proper demand, fail or refuse to exhibit to the commission or any com-8 missioner or any person authorized to examine the same, any book, paper, ac-9 count, record, or memoranda or such public utility which is in his possession or 10 under his control, or who shall fail to properly use and keep his system of 11 accounting or any part thereof as prescribed by the commission, or who shall 12 refuse to do any act or thing in connection with such system of accounting when 13 so directed by the commission or its authorized representative, shall be deemed 14 guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine 15 or not less than one thousand dollars for each offense.

16 B. And a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one 17 thousand dollars shall be recovered from the public utility for each such offense 18 when such officer, agent or employee acted in obedience to the direction, instruc-

Sec. 95. A. If any public utility shall violate any provision of this act, or 2 shall do any act herein prohibited or shall fail or refuse to perform any duty 3 enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not been provided, or shall fail, neg-4 lect or refuse to obey any lawful requirement or order made by the commission 5 or the municipal council or any judgment or decree made by any court upon its 6 application, for every such violation, failure or refusal, such public utility shall 7 forfeit and pay into the treasury a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor 8 more than one thousand dollars for each offense.

9 B. In construing and enforcing the provisions of this section the act, 10 omission or failure of any officer, agent or other person acting for or employed 11 by any public utility acting within the scope of his employment, shall in every 12 case be deemed to be the act, omission or failure of such public utility.

Sec. 96. If any officer of any town, village or city constituting a public 2 utility as defined in this Act shall do or cause to be done or permit to be done 3 any matter, act or thing in this Act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or 4 shall omit, fail, neglect or refuse to do any act, matter or thing required by this

5 act of such officer to be done, or shall omit, fail, neglect or refuse to perform 6 any duty enjoined upon him and relating directly or indirectly to the enforce-

12 lars.

Sec. 97. A. Any person who shall destroy, injure or interfere with any 2 apparatus or appliance owned or operated by or in charge of the commission 3 or its agent shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall 4 be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or imprisonment for a 5 period not exceeding thirty days, or both.

6 B. Any public utility permitting the destruction, injury to, or interference 7 with any such apparatus or appliance, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one 8 thousand dollars for each offense.

Sec. 98. Every day during which any public utility or any officer, agent 2 or employee thereof shall fail to observe and comply with any order or direction 3 of the commission, or to perform any duty enjoined by this Act, shall consti-4 tute a separate and distinct violation of such order or direction or of this Act, 5 as the case may be.

Sec. 99. A. The commission shall have power, when deemed by it neces-2 sary to prevent injury to the business or interests of the people or any public 3 utility of this State in case of any emergency to be judged of by the commission, 4 to temporarily alter, amend, or with the consent of the public utility concerned, 5 suspend any existing rates, schedules and order relating to or affecting any pub-6 lic utility or part of any public utility in this State.

7 B. Such rates so made by the commission shall apply to one or more of the 8 public utilities in this State or to any portion thereof as may be directed by 9 the commission, and shall take effect at such time and remain in force for such 10 length of time as may be prescribed by the commission.

Sec. 100. Whenever, after hearing and investigation as provided in this 2 Act, the commission shall find that any rate, toll, charge, regulation or practice 3 for, in or affecting or relating to the production, transmission, delivery or fur-4 nishing of heat, light, water or power or the conveying of any telephone mes-5 sage or any service in connection therewith not hereinbefore specifically desig-6 nated, is unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, it shall have the power to 7 regulate the same as provided in Sections 43 to 51 and 60 to 62 inclusive.

Sec. 101. A. Every public utility shall, whenever an accident attended with 2 loss of human life occurs within this State upon its premises or directly or indi-3 rectly arising from or connected with its maintenance or operation, give im-4 mediate notice thereof to the commission.

5 B. In the event of any such accident the commission, if it deem the public 6 interest require it, shall cause an investigation to be made forthwith, which in-7 vestigation shall be held in the locality of the accident, unless for greater con-8 venience of those concerned it shall order such investigation to be held at some 9 other place; and said investigation may be adjourned from place to place as 10 may be found necessary and convenient. The commission shall seasonably no-11 tify the public utility of the time and place of the investigation.

Sec. 102. A. The commission shall inquire into any neglect or violation of 2 the laws of this State by any public utility doing business therein, or by the of-3 ficers, agents or employees thereof, or by any person operating the plant of any 4 public utility, and shall have the power and it shall be its duty to enforce the 5 provisions of this Act as well as all other laws relating to public utilities, and 6 to report all violations thereof to the Attorney General.

7 B. Upon the request of the commission it shall be the duty of the Attorney 8 General or the State's attorney of the proper county to aid in any investigation, 9 hearing or trial had under the provisions of this Act, and to institute and prose-

11 of all other laws of this State relating to public utilities and for the punishment 12 of all violations thereof.

13 C. Any forfeiture or penalty herein provided shall be recovered and suit 14 therein shall be brought in the name of the People of the State of Illinois in the 15 circuit court of Sangamon County. Complaint for the collection of any such 16 forfeiture may be made by the commission or any member thereof, and when 17 so made the action so commenced shall be prosecuted by the Attorney General.

18 D. The commission shall have authority to employ counsel in any proceed-19 ing, investigation, hearing or trial.

Sec. 103. A substantial compliance with the requirements of this Act shall 2 be sufficient to give effect to all the rules, orders, acts and regulations of the com-3 mission and they shall not be declared inoperative, illegal or void for any omis-4 sion of a technical nature in respect thereto.

Sec. 104. This Act shall not have the effect to release or waive any right
 2 of action by the State or by any person for any right, penalty or forfeiture 3 which may have arisen or which may hereafter arise, under any law of this 4 State; and all penalties and forfeitures accruing under this Act shall be cumula-5 tive and a suit for any recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any 6 other penalty.

Sec. 105. A. Unless the commission shall otherwise order, it shall be un-2 lawful for any public utility within this State to demand, collect or receive a 3 greater compensation for any service than the charge fixed on the lowest sched-
 4 ules of rates for the same service on the first day of April, 1911.

5 B. Every public utility in this State shall, within thirty days after the 6 going into effect of this Act, file in the office of the commission, copies of all 7 schedules of rates and charges, including joint rates, in force on the first day of 8 April, 1911, and all rates in force at any time subsequent to said date.

9 C. Any public utility desiring to advance or discontinue any such rate or 10 rates may make application to the commission in writing stating the advance in 11 or discontinuation of the rate or rates desired, giving the reasons for such ad 12 vance or discontinuation.

13 D. Upon receiving such application the commission shall fix a time and 14 place for hearing and give such notice to interested parties as it shall deem 15 proper and reasonable. If, after such hearing and investigation, the commis-16 sion shall find that the change or discontinuation applied for is reasonable, fair 17 and just, it shall grant the application either in whole or in part.

18 E. Any public utility being dissatisfied with any order of the commission 19 made under the provisions of this section may commence an action against it in 20 the circuit court in the manner provided in Sections 64 to 73, inclusive, of this 21 Act, which action shall be tried and determined in the same manner as is pro-22 vided in said sections.

Sec. 106. Whenever the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of Illinois is 2 required to issue notices of investigation, notices of hearing, or to certify to 3 copies of the records of the Commission, such notices of certification may be 4 issued by any member of the Commission or by the Secretary of the Commission.

Sec. 107. This Act shall not apply to any city or cities in the State of Illi-2 nois, having a population of 200,000 or more.

Sec. 108. All Acts or parts of Acts conflicting with any provisions of this 2 Act, are repealed insofar as they are inconsistent herewith.

For an Act entitled "An Act in relation to procedure in criminal cases."

3 a grand jury, and all informations and complaints, in criminal cases, shall be 4 deemed sufficiently technical and correct which state the offense in the terms 5 and language of the statute creating the offense, or so plainly that the nature 6 of the offense may be easily understood by the jury.

7 One caption will be sufficient, although the indictment contains more than

Sec. 2. The provisions hereinafter set forth shall apply to indictments, 2 informations, or complaints, in criminal cases.

3 Indictments, informations and complaints shall contain a plain and concise 4 description of the Act which constitutes the crime, or the appropriate legal 5 term descriptive of such Act, or state the offense in the terms and language

6 of the statute, without a detailed description thereof, and the circumstances of 7 the Act may be stated according to their legal effect without a full description 8 thereof.

Sec. 3. In every indictment, information or complaint where it shall be 2 requisite to state the ownership of any property whatsoever, whether real or 3 personal, which shall belong to or be in the possession of more than one per-4 son, whether such persons be partners in trade, joint tenants, parceners, ten-5 ants in common, or members of associations, joint stock associations, joint 6 stock companies or of societies, clubs or organizations, it shall be sufficient to 7 name one of such persons and to state such property to belong to the person 8 so named and another or others, as the case may be, e. g.: "the property of 9 John Smith and another;" and whenever in any indictment, information or 10 complaint it shall be necessary to mention for any purpose whatsoever any 11 partners, joint tenants, trustees, parceners, tenants in common, or members 12 of associations, joint stock companies, joint stock associations, societies, clubs 13 or organizations, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the manner aforesaid.

Sec. 4. If the name of any accused person is unknown to the grand jury, 2 informer or complainant, he may be described by a fictitious name or by any 3 other particular description with an allegation or statement that his real name 4 is unknown. A proceeding upon an indictment, information or complaint 5 against a defendant by a fictitious or erroneous name shall not be grounds for 6 abatement; but if at any subsequent stage of the proceeding his true name is 7 discovered it may be entered on the record and used in the subsequent proceed-8 ings, with a reference to the fact that he was indicted by the name mentioned 9 in the indictment.

Sec. 5. In all indictments, informations and complaints the place of the 2 commission of the crime need not be alleged unless it is an essential element 3 of the crime. The name of the city and court, or county and court, in any infor-

4 mation or complaint, or in the caption to any indictment, shall, unless other-5 wise stated, be considered as an allegation or statement in each count that the 6 Act was committed within the territorial jurisdiction of the court. All alle-7 gations of the indictment and statements contained in the information or com-8 plaint shall, unless otherwise stated, be considered to refer to the same time 9 and place, and the words, "then and there," need not be used, but the use of 10 the words, "then and there," shall not vitiate the indictment, information or 11 complaint.

Sec. 6. The means by which a crime is committed need not be alleged in 2 in the indictment or stated in the information or complaint, and whenever un-3 lawful means are an essential element of any crime it shall be sufficient to 4 aver generally that the means were unlawful.

Sec. 7. If an allegation or statement is necessary relative to an instru-2 ment, such instrument may be described by any name or designation by which 3 it is usually known or by the purport thereof without setting out the full copy 4 of fac-simile of the whole thereof, and the same may be pleaded by use of the 5 introductory words: "In substance as follows," or other words equivalent 6 thereto, and in haec verba pleading shall not be required in any case; and no 7 variance between such recital, substance or description and the instrument pro-8 duced at the trial shall be material, if the identity of the instrument is evident 9 and the purport thereof is sufficiently described to prevent prejudice to the 10 defendant. Instruments in a foreign language need not be set forth in the 11 language in which they are written, and it shall be sufficient if the substance 12 or a fair translation thereof be set forth, or so much thereof as may be neces-13 sary to show that a crime has been committed.

Sec. 8. If any allegation or statement relative to any bullion, coin, money, 2 notes, bank notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, obligations or other securi-3 ties for money of any country, state, county, city, town, bank, corporation,

4 partnership or person is necessary, it may be described as dollars or money 5 without specifying any particulars thereof, and such descriptive allegation or 6 statement shall be sustained by proof of any amount of money, whether it be 7 bullion, money, coin, notes, bank notes, or checks, drafts, bills of exchange, 8 obligations, or other securities for money as aforesaid, although the particular 9 nature thereof shall not be proved, and proof of receipt or giving of checks, 10 drafts, bills of exchange, obligations or other securities shall sustain an aver-11 ment of money.

Sec. 9. The value or price of the property need not be stated unless it is 2 an essential element of the crime. If the punishment of a crime depends upon 3 the fact that it exceeds or does not exceed a certain value, it may be described, 4 as the case may be, of more than that value of or less than that value. The 5 value of money need not be set forth in any case, but money shall be consid-6 ered to have the value of the amount of money stated, and the denominations 7 of money need not be stated in any case, and it shall not be necessary to de-8 scribe money. All allegations relating to money unless otherwise stated shall 9 be deemed to relate to lawful money of the United States of America, and the 10 word, "money," shall include coin, United States treasury notes, bank notes, 11 and all legal tender and current coin and paper money current in the United 12 States of America, unless particularly described as the money of a foreign 13 country, in which case it shall be sufficient to aver the amount of money of the 14 country where it is current of the value of a certain amount, without further 15 particularization.

Sec. 10. If an indictment, information or complaint for a crime which in-2 volves the commission or attempted commission of an injury to property, 3 describes the property with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify 4 the act, it need not allege the name of the owner.

Sec. 11. If one element of the criminality of an act is its commission in a 2 public place, and if such place is not more particularly described in the statute, 3 the act may be alleged generally to have been committed in "a public place."

Sec. 12. In an indictment, information or complaint for the larceny of any 2 animal or bird, or for any other crime in respect thereof, it may be described 3 by the name of the species by which it is commonly known, without stating its 4 age or sex, or whether it is alive or dead, or whether it is dressed for food.

Sec. 13. If it is necessary to refer in any indictment, information or com-2 plaint to the judicial proceedings in any case then or formerly pending in any 3 court, criminal, civil or military, or any proceedings before a Justice of the 4 Peace, Master in Chancery, or any other magistrate, an averment generally 5 that such proceedings were had, and that the court or magistrate had juris-6 diction shall be sufficient without setting out matter to show jurisdiction in the 7 court, officer or magistrate; and in any count reciting the former conviction of 8 the defendant for the crime of burglary, grand larceny, horse stealing, rob-9 bery, forgery, or counterfeiting, it shall be sufficient to aver generally that the 10 defendant pleaded guilty or was found guilty of any of said crimes and was 11 sentenced therefor at a certain term of court, and it shall not be necessary to 12 set forth therein the former indictment and proceeding had pursuant thereto.
 13 and a certified copy of the order of sentence of the court upon such previous 14 conviction and proof of the identity of the person accused shall sustain such 15 averment of former conviction for said offenses.

Sec. 14. If it is necessary to name any public office, or to describe or set 2 forth the name of any public body, board or official position of any kind or 3 character, or to refer to any officer holding such office, it shall be sufficient to 4 allege or state the name of the office by the name by which the public body, 5 board, office or position or officer thereof, is commonly known. It shall not be 6 necessary to aver or set out the ordinance, by-laws or resolutions of any city,

7 village, sanitary district, school board or other public body, or division of gov-8 ernment creating such public body, board, office or position; and the courts of 9 record shall take judicial notice of all ordinances of such municipalities, and 10 it shall not be necessary to aver the ordinances prescribing the powers or 11 duties of such bodies or persons holding office thereunder, but the allegation 12 or statement generally that the defendant was acting in an official position 13 named shall be sufficient, and such an allegation or statement shall be consid-14 ered as an allegation or statement that the defendant acting in the official po-15 sition named was charged with the duty of enforcement of all the laws, by-laws, 16 resolutions and ordinances within the purview of the office or position named 17 impartially and without favor in the manner required by law, and that such 18 defendant knew his duty, and that such officer had the powers and authority to 19 perform the duties of the office named at the time or times laid. A de facto 20 occupant of a de facto office shall be deemed to be an officer, as well as de facto 21 and de jure occupants of de jure offices.

22 Proof that the defendant acted as an officer in the office named shall be 23 competent and sufficient in the first instance to sustain such an allegation or 24 statement thereof, and shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of the 25 office and the occupancy, and it shall not in any case be necessary to make 26 formal record proof of appointment and qualification as such officer, whether 27 the word "acting" be used or not, and the legality of the office or the existence 28 thereof shall not be questioned in a criminal case if the accused has held him-29 self out as such an officer.

Sec. 15. An allegation that the defendant committed the act charged shall 2 be sufficient allegation that he was criminally responsible therefor.

Sec. 16. If an intent to injure or defraud is an essential element of a 2 crime, an intent to injure or defraud may be alleged or stated generally with-3 out naming the person, corporation or government intended to be injured or 4 defrauded. Proof of any intent to injure or defraud any person or body cor-5 porate shall be competent to support the allegation or statement.

Sec. 17. Different means or different intents by or with which a crime may 2 be committed may be alleged or stated in the same count in the alternative, and 3 proof of any one of such means or intents so alleged shall sustain such allega-4 tion.

Sec. 18. All allegations or statements that the crime was committed, or 2 that definite acts were done during a certain period of time next before the 3 finding of the indictment, or the filing of the information or complaint, shall 4 be sufficient allegation or statement that the crime alleged was committed, or 5 that the acts alleged were done on divers days and times within that period.

Sec. 19. The word "company," used as a part of a firm or business name, 2 unless otherwise stated, shall be deemed to import a corporate existence, and 2 it shall not be necessary to describe the same as a corporation.

Sec. 20. Presumptions and conclusions of all matters of which judicial 2 notice is taken, allegations which are not required to be proven, and ordi-3 nances, by-laws and resolutions of cities, villages, boards, sanitary districts and 4 other public bodies and boards that are printed in book or pamphlet form 5 and purport to be published by authority of the board of trustees or city coun-6 cil or other governing board or body need not be alleged; and all courts and 7 magistrates in the trial or hearing of criminal cases, whether upon preliminary 8 hearing, upon complaint or upon trial, upon information or indictment, shall 9 take judicial notice of all matters of which courts of general jurisdiction of 10 this state are required to take judicial notice by law, and all the following:

11 (1) All general ordinances of all cities in the state of Illinois, and all gen-12 eral ordinances of every public or municipal corporation situated in the state 13 of Illinois, and all ordinances of any municipal corporation remaining in force

14 after the annexation of any territory of such municipal corporation, in whole 15 or in part, to any city in the state of Illinois.

16 (2). All laws of a public nature enacted by any state or territory of the 17 United States.

18 (3) The existence of all public offices or positions in the public service, 19 whether of a city, village or other body; an indictment, information or com-20 plaint, shall not be considered defective or insufficient by reason of its failure 21 to allege or recite a special statute, or a by-law or ordinance of a city village, 22 public board or body or ruler or regulations of any public board of officers.

Sec. 21. An indictment, information or complaint shall not be considered 2 defective or insufficient because it omits to allege or state that the crime was 3 committed or the act was done "tratoriously," "feloniously," "burglariously," 4 "wilfully," "maliciously," "negligently," "corruptly," "unlawfully," or 5 otherwise similarly to describe the crime, unless such description is a statutory 6 element of the crime charged, or because it omits to allege or state that the 7 crime was committed and done "with force and arms," or against a by-law, 8 ordinance, order, rule or regulation of any public authority or body; and all ex-9 ceptions which go merely to the form of an indictment shall be made before 10 trial, and no motion in arrest of judgment or writ of error shall be sustained for 11 any matter not affecting the real merits of the offense charged in the indict-12 ment. No indictment shall be quashed for failure to allege the occupation or 13 place of residence of the accused, or by the reason of any disqualification of 14 any grand juror. The conclusion, "Contrary to the statute," in any count of 15 any information, complaint or indictment, shall, unless otherwise stated, be con-16 sidered as an allegation or statement that the act charged in the count was done 17 "feloniously," if the offense charged be a felony, or was done "unlawfully," if a 18 misdemeanor.

Sec. 22. An indictment, information or complaint shall not be quashed or be 2 considered defective or insufficient if it is sufficient to enable the defendant to 3 understand the charge and to prepare his defense, nor shall it be considered de-4 fective or insufficient for lack of any description or information which might be 5 obtained by requiring a bill of particulars as provided in Section 29, and it 6 shall not be deemed defective or insufficient because it omits to charge or state 7 that the crime was committed knowingly, and the general allegation or state-8 ment that the crime has been committed shall be deemed to be an allegation or 9 statement that the defendant committed the same knowingly. Duplicity in an 10 indictment, information or complaint shall not be ground for quashing.

Sec. 23. A defendant shall not be acquitted on the ground of variance be-2 tween the allegations and the proof, if the essential elements of the crime are 3 correctly stated, unless he is thereby materially prejudiced in his defense; and 4 he shall not be acquitted by reason of any immaterial misnomer of a third 5 party, or by reason of an immaterial mistake in the description of property or 6 the ownership thereof; by reason of failure to prove unnecessary allegations 7 or statements in the description of the crime, or by reason of any other imma-8 terial mistake in the indictment, information or complaint.

Sec. 24. The word "oath," when used in an indictment, information or 2 complaint, shall include an "affirmation."

Sec. 25. An exception or proviso which is not stated in the enacting clause 2 of a statute creating a crime, which is stated only by reference to other provis-3 ions of the statute, need not be negatived in the indictment, information or com-4 plaint, unless it is necessary for a complete definition of the crime. If any 5 statute shall prescribe a form of indictment in which an exception or proviso is 6 not negatived it shall be taken that it is not necessary for a complete definition 7 of a crime that they should be negatived. If a statute which creates a crime 8 permits an act which is therein declared to be criminal to be performed without 9 criminality under stated conditions, such conditions need not be negatived. The 10 forms set out in the schedule as a part of this Act are included within the mean-11 ing of this section.

Sec. 26. The words used in an indictment, information or complaint may be 2 construed according to their usual acceptation in common language, but if cer-3 tain words and phrases are defined by law they shall be used according to their 4 legal meaning.

Sec. 27. The grand jury may return counts for conspiracy, for a consum-2 mated felony, and for an attempt to commit a felony, growing out of the same 3 acts, in the same indictment, or separate indictments may be returned for such 4 conspiracy, felony, or attempt, and the conspiracy or attempt shall not be 5 deemed to be merged in the consummated felony if the prosecution elects to 6 proceed to trial upon counts in an indictment, or upon a separate indictment, 7 for conspiracy or attempt, and if the prosecution elects as aforesaid the ver-8 dict or finding therein shall be sufficient defense upon a plea of autrefois ac-
 9 quit or autrefois convict upon an indictment for the consummated felony. Mis-10 demeanors and felonies may be joined in the same indictment as heretofore.

Sec. 28. If any corporation shall be made defendant in any complaint, in-2 formation or indictment it may be served by summons in the same manner that 3 summons is served upon corporations in suits at law, and such corporation shall 4 within ten days after service of summons give a bond in such proceeding to the 5 People of the State of Illinois conditioned to respond to any judgment rendered 6 against it, and failure to give such bond shall ipso facto render the corporate 7 charter forfeited.

Sec. 29. The court may, in its discretion upon the arraignment of the de-2 fendant, or at any later stage of the proceedings, order the prosecution to file a 3 statement of such particulars as may be necessary to give the defendant and the 4 court reasonable knowledge of the nature and cause of the accusation.

5 If there is a material variance between the evidence and the bill of particu-6 lars the court may order the bill of particulars to be amended, and may post-7 pone the trial, which may be before the same or another jury as the court may 8 order.

Sec. 30. In a plea of autrefois acquit or autrefois convict an allegation that 2 at a certain term of a certain court, which shall be set forth, the defendant was 3 lawfully acquitted or convicted, as the case may be, of the same crime with 4 which he is again charged, verified upon oath, shall be sufficient as a plea, and the 5 prosecution may take issue therewith: Provided, however, that it shall not be 6 necessary to plead autrefois acquit or autrefois convict, and the facts in that 7 regard may be proven by the defendant under his plea of not guilty upon notice 8 to the State's attorney that his plea of not guilty includes that defense.

Sec. 31. All questions relating to the validity of statutes, the form and suf-2 ficiency of indictments, informations or complaints, and all questions heretofore 3 raised upon demurrer or special demurrer shall be presented by a motion to 4 quash in writing reciting therein the specific grounds upon which defendant re-5 lies.

Sec. 32. No judge shall have or possess the power of reprieving any person 2 convicted and sentenced to be executed, and the only person who can exercise 3 such power is the Governor or acting Governor.

Sec. 33. In all prosecutions for bigamy, abandonment of wife or children, 2 adultery, fornication, or adultery and fornication, or when the wife or hus-3 band prosecuting is an injured party, the lawful wife or husband of the de-4 fendant and all persons having knowledge of the facts in the case, shall be 5 competent witnesses.

Sec. 34. The conclusion to any complaint, information or indictment, 2 "contrary to the statute," shall include the common-law offense of one exists 3 as described therein, without a separate conclusion, "contrary to law," or 4 additional counts; but the prosecution upon such complaint, information or 5 indictment shall be upon the statute unless the state's attorney shall, before a 6 jury is sworn, elect to proceed under the common law. Conviction or acquittal 7 upon prosecution under the common law shall be a bar to subsequent prose-8 cution under the statute for the same offense.

Sec. 35. An accessory before the fact shall be charged as principal.

2 An accessory before the fact who is incapable of personally committing 3 the offense charged, whether from physical incapacity or lack of official status 4 or otherwise, may be joined with the principal, and whether so joined or not, 5 he shall be charged as a principal.

Sec. 36. The signature of the state's attorney shall not be necessary upon 2 any complaint or indictment.

Sec. 37. It shall not be necessary in any case to return an indictment into 2 open court, but it shall be sufficient if the same be filed by the foreman of the 3 grand jury with the clerk of the court, and if so filed capias shall issue from 4 the office of the clerk thereon for the arrest and detention of the person charged 5 and the indictment shall be docketed and prosecuted as if returned into open 6 court. The foreman of the grand jury may certify in any case to the clerk 7 that the administration of justice requires any indictment to be kept secret 8 until the person charged has been apprehended, in which case the clerk shall 9 issue capias without noting the cause on the docket and shall deliver the capias
10 to the sheriff, and all persons shall operate secretly until the person charged 11 be apprehended, and thereafter the cause shall proceed as in other cases.

Sec. 38. All orders sustaining motions to quash indictments when all the 2 counts thereof are quashed, and all orders directing verdicts of not guilty, or 3 granting new trials, or arresting judgment, shall be reviewable upon writ of 4 certiorari by the supreme court. Such writ in such cases shall be a writ of right 5 to the State and shall be sued by the State's attorney during the ninety days 6 next after the last day of the term at which such order was entered; and if the 7 order be reversed by the supreme court the cause shall proceed to trial or judg-8 ment below, as the case may be, within three months thereafter: Provided, 9 however, that the defendant shall not be put to trial upon the same or any other 10 indictment arising from the same act while the matter is pending in the su-11 preme court.

12 The State shall save all questions relating to the sufficiency of the evidence, 13 instructions, remarks of counsel, or otherwise involving facts, by a certificate of 14 evidence to be signed by the judge as bills of exceptions are signed, which shall 15 become a part of the record; but it shall not be necessary for the State to object 16 and except to the ruling of the court at any time. The trial court shall in the 17 order quashing the indictment, granting new trial, arresting judgment or direct-18 ing a verdict of not guilty, state the grounds for the order.

Sec. 39. In all cases where the punishment is by fine or imprisonment in the 2 penitentiary, or both, the defendant may, with the consent of the State's attorney, 3 have the right to waive in writing a trial by jury, and in case of such waiver the 4 cause may be submitted to the court as in other misdemeanors, and no peniten-5 tiary punishment shall be imposed.

Sec. 40. New trials shall not be granted and judgments shall not be reversed 2 for any defect in the form of verdict of guilty or for lack of any of the elements 3 of the offense in the verdict, if the intent of the jury is clear that a certain of-4 fense charged in the indictment is intended and a name by which the offense is 5 commonly known is used in the verdict.

6 A general verdict of guilty shall be sufficient without particularizing the 7 offense and judgment shall be entered thereon as heretofore.

Sec. 41. The provisions of this Act, and the forms hereto annexed, shall 2 apply as well to complaints and informations as to indictments, and such forms 3 shall be sufficient in cases to which they are applicable and shall be deemed to 4 be a sufficient description of the offenses set forth. In other cases, forms as 5 nearly like the forms hereto annexed as the nature of the cases and the provis-6 ions of the law will allow may be used; but any other form of indictment, in-7 formation or complaint which is authorized by law may be used.

A BILL

For an Act providing for a system of probation for adults, and authorizing courts to suspend the execution of sentence in certain cases, and for the appointment and compensation of probation officers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, 2 represented in the General Assembly: It shall be the duty of all courts having 3 jurisdiction of criminal or quasi-criminal causes to administer the laws with a 4 view to the reformation of such offenders as have not by their previous conduct 5 or by the character of their offense shown themselves to be incorrigible or 6 vicious criminals, and for this purpose such courts are hereby authorized to 7 suspend the imposition of sentence and place upon probation, during his or her 8 good behavior, any person found guilty either by confession or upon trial, of 9 larceny, embezzlement, or burglary of a place other than a business house, 10 dwelling place or habitation, or of any misdemeanor, or of the violation of any 11 municipal ordinance, whenever the court shall be of the opinion that the welfare 12 of society will be promoted thereby.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of enabling the court to determine the eligibility of any defendant to be placed upon probation, the court may by any proper method investigate and ascertain the past record and present condition of such defendant, and shall cause the result of such investigation when made, or a memorandum thereof, including a statement of the cause which, in the opinion of the court, led the defendant to commit the offense in question, to be filed or otherwise preserved.

Sec. 3. The method of placing a defendant upon probation shall be as follows: Whenever the court is satisfied from such investigation that the defendant is not an incorrigible or vicious offender and may be reformed without punishment, and that such offender is desirous of thereafter living an upright life and obeying the law, the court shall enter an order suspending the imposition of sentence and continuing said cause to such time as the court may determine, not, however, exceeding three years. Said order shall set forth in substance the conditions under which the imposition of sentence is suspended, a copy or memorandum of which shall be furnished the defendant, together with a plainly written or printed statement explaining the purpose thereof, and that any violation of such order or of any of the conditions embraced therein or removal by the defendant outside the county where such trial is had, without the consent of the court, shall subject the defendant to the full penalty of the judgment, the imposition of which has been suspended. Thereupon, such sentence shall be and remain suspended during the good behavior of the defendant and until the further order of the court.

One of such conditions shall be that such offender make restitution or reparation to the person injured by him in the commission of his offense, whenever the same can be done, within such time as the court may fix.

The court may in its discretion require the defendant to enter into recognizance with or without sureties, and in such amount as the court may fix, conditioned upon his faithful compliance with all the conditions imposed in such order, and may in general impose such reasonable and proper conditions and restrictions as will in the judgment of the court assist and encourage such offender to thereafter live an upright life and obey the law. The court may at any time change or modify such requirements, and may vacate and set aside such order and discharge the defendant whenever the court shall be satisfied that such defendant has become wholly and permanently reformed, and will thenceforth be able and willing to live an upright life and obey the law. Should the defendant at any time after the suspension of sentence and prior to his final discharge, violate any of the conditions of his probation or should he again be guilty of violation of law, the order suspending such sentence shall be set aside and judgment shall be entered upon the verdict or plea of guilty in all respects the same as if there had been no suspension thereof, unless the court shall, after investigation, be of the opinion that there are mitigating circumstances which render it proper and advisable to allow the defendant another opportunity of complying with the conditions of his probation.

Should such defendant, prior to his final discharge, remove from the State without the consent of the court, the State's Attorney of the proper county shall proceed against such defendant as a fugitive from justice and require his return from any State or Territory where he may be found.

Sec. 4. For every court having original criminal or quasi-criminal jurisdiction there shall be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided such number of competent persons to act as probation officers as may be necessary to enable the court to investigate the past record and present condition of the persons brought before it, and to exercise careful supervision over those released upon probation. The number of probation officers shall not in any county exceed one for each two hundred probationers or fraction thereof whose cases are pending and in which no final discharge has been entered. Provided, there shall be at least one probation officer in attendance upon each court of record or branch thereof trying criminal or quasi-criminal causes.

Sec. 5. Probation officers in counties having less than one million population shall be appointed by the County Judge of the respective county. The appointment of probation officers for all the courts in counties having a population of one million or more shall be made by the judges or a majority thereof of all the Courts of Record in said county acting as one body. All probation officers shall have and exercise the powers of a police officer or constable, and shall be removable at pleasure by the Judge or Judges appointing them.

Sec. 6. The Judges of all the Courts of Record in any county having a population of one million or more or a majority thereof, acting as one body, shall appoint a Chief Probation Officer for such county to act at their pleasure, and shall also appoint such assistants to such chief probation officers as may be necessary. The Chief Justices of said courts acting together shall have and exercise general supervision over all the probation officers in such county, and shall adopt such general rules for their guidance and regulation as shall best enable such probation officers to perform the duties of their office.

Sec. 7. The compensation of probation officers (except those appointed for the Municipal Court of Chicago) shall be fixed by the County Commissioners or Supervisors of the several counties for which said officers are appointed, and shall be paid by the County Treasurer upon proper warrants issued as in other cases. The compensation of probation officers appointed for the Municipal Court of Chicago shall be fixed by the Judges of said Municipal Court and shall be paid by the City Treasurer upon proper warrants. Provided, however, that the compensation paid the Chief Probation Officer in counties of the third class shall not be more than five thousand dollars nor less than three thousand dollars per annum; the compensation of the assistant probation officers shall not be more than three thousand dollars per annum nor less than two thousand dollars per annum, and the compensation of any other probation officer in counties of the third and second class shall not be more than eighteen hundred dollars nor less than nine hundred dollars per annum; that the com-

15 pensation of probation officers in counties of the first class shall not exceed the 16 sum of four dollars per day for such time as said officers shall be actually 17 engaged in the discharge of their official duties. If any probation officer is 18 required in the discharge of his duty to incur special or extraordinary expenses, 19 he shall be reimbursed therefor upon approval thereof by the court directing 20 the performance of the service in which such expense was incurred.

Sec. 8. No probation officer shall receive any compensation, gift or gratuity 2 whatsoever from any person or corporation, for doing or refraining from doing 3 any official act or any act in any way connected directly or indirectly with the 4 duties of his said office. Any probation officer violating the provisions of this 5 section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished accord-6 ingly, and shall be immediately removed by the Judge or Judges having the 7 power of removal.

Sec. 9. Upon the termination of the probation period the probation officer 2 shall report the fact to the court, and also the conduct of the probationer dur-3 ing the period of probation, and the court may thereupon discharge the proba-4 tioner from further supervision or extend the probation period, as the circum-
5 stances require: Provided, the maximum period of probation herein limited 6 shall not be exceeded.

7 When a probationer is discharged upon the expiration of the probation 8 period, or upon its earlier termination by order of the court, entry of the dis-9 charge shall be made in the records of the court, and the probationer shall be 10 entitled to a certified copy thereof.

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act, except as herein specially provided, 2 shall not be construed as in any way applying to, limiting or repealing the Ju-3 venile Court law as contained in an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the 4 treatment and control of dependent, neglected or delinquent children," approved 5 April 21, 1899, or any amendment thereto.

Sec. 11. The invalidity of any portion of this Act shall not affect the va-
2 lidity of any other portion thereof which can be given effect without such invalid 3 part.

- 1 Introduced by Mr. Reid (by request), January 25, 1911.
- 2 Read by title, ordered printed and referred to Committee on Judiciary, when appointed.

Sec. 9. It shall be unlawful to administer the oath of office or to issue a commission or certificate of election to any person elected to any public office until he has filed an account as required by this Act, and no such person shall enter upon the duties of his office until he has filed such account, nor shall he receive any salary for any period prior to the filing of the same.

Sec. 10. All such accounts shall be open to public inspection in the offices where they are filed and shall be carefully preserved there for a period of one year, and it shall be the duty of the officers having custody of the same to give certified copies in like manner as of other public records.

Within twenty days after the last day for the filing of any account required by this Act, any ten electors of the State, or of the political division thereof concerning which any such account has been filed, may present a petition to the county court of the county in which the office where such account has been filed is situated, praying for an audit of such account. The court shall thereupon direct the officer or officers with whom such account has been filed to certify the same to the court for audit, and may, in its discretion, require security to be entered for costs. The court may, in its discretion, appoint an auditor to audit said account; but the fees of such auditor shall not exceed the sum of ten dollars a day for each day actually engaged. The court or auditor shall fix a date, as early as may be convenient, for the audit; at which time the person by whom such account has been filed shall be required to be present in person to vouch his account and answer on oath or affirmation all such relevant questions concerning the same as may be put to him by the petitioners or their counsel. The auditor shall have power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to all persons whom the petitioner or the accountant may require to give evidence, and compel the production of books, papers and documents concerning such account, and he shall determine, subject to exception, all questions as to the admissibility of evidence, and shall file a copy of the evidence with his report. If, upon the audit, the court

20 shall decide that the account was false in any substantial manner, or that any 21 illegal election expenses were incurred, the costs of said audit shall be paid by 5 ment as required by law, or if it appears to any such officer that the statement 6 filed with him does not conform to law, or upon complaint in writing by a candi-7 date or by a voter that a statement filed does not conform to law or to the truth, 8 or that any person has failed to file a statement which he is by law required to 9 file, said officer shall forthwith in writing notify the delinquent person thereof 10 and further notify him to comply with this Act. The State Board of Super-12 and so notify delinquents.

Sec. 13. Upon the failure of any person to file a statement within ten days 2 after receiving notice as provided therefor by this Act, or if any statement filed 3 as in this Act required discloses any violation of any provision of this Act, the 4 State Auditor of Public Accounts, the county clerk, or the city clerk, as the 5 case may be, shall forthwith notify the State's Attorney of the county where 6 said violation occurred and shall furnish him with copies of all papers relating 7 thereto, and said State's Attorney shall forthwith enter the same in a docket 8 kept for that purpose in his office within sixty days thereafter examine every 9 such case, and if the evidence seems to him to be sufficient under the provisions 10 of this Act he shall, in the name of the State, forthwith institute such civil or 11 criminal proceedings as may be appropriate to the facts.

12 Any decision by the State's Attorney not to institute proceedings shall be 13 recorded in the said docket and the applicant notified in writing thereof. If the 14 State's Attorney shall decide not to institute such proceeding, any fifty voters 15 may file a petition with the Circuit Court in and for the county setting forth 16 the facts and praying the appointment of a special State's Attorney to institute 17 such civil or criminal proceedings as may be appropriate; which petition shall 18 be informally and promptly heard by the court, and if the court shall find that 19 the public good will be served thereby he shall appoint a special State's Attor-20 ney, who shall have exclusive charge of the matter and institute such civil or 21 criminal proceedings as he may deem appropriate and conduct the same to final 22 disposition. No voluntary discontinuance shall be made of proceedings so in-23 stituted. The court may in its discretion require the voters on whose petition 24 such appointment is made to give bond with sufficient sureties for the payment 25 of the taxable costs of such proceeding. The compensation of such special 26 State's Attorney shall be fixed by the court and shall constitute a debt against 27 the county; but the court may, in its discretion in cases where such proceedings 28 are defeated, cause the said compensation to be taxed as costs against the peti-29 tioning voters.

30 In all cases in which complaint or charge is made concerning candidates for 31 the office of State's Attorney the court shall have power to appoint such special 32 State's Attorneys.

Sec. 14. The decision of the court upon the audit herein provided for 2 shall be subject to appeal; but if the court shall decide that any candidate who 3 has been elected has incurred any illegal election expenses, or has consented to 4 the incurring of any illegal election expenses by any person or committee, the 5 court shall certify its decision to the Attorney General, if a candidate for a 6 State office, for an office in a district of more than one county, or for a member 7 of the General Assembly, or to the State's Attorney in the county, if a candi-8 date for an office in a county, city, village, incorporated town, ward or precinct, 9 who shall thereupon cause a writ of quo warranto to be issued; and if, upon 10 proceedings under such writ of quo warranto, it shall be decided that the 11 candidate in question has incurred any illegal election expenses, or has con-

12 sented to the incurring of illegal election expenses by any person or committee, 13 his election shall be declared void and his office vacant: Provided, that in the 14 case of candidates elected to the office of Senator or Representative in the Gen-15 eral Assembly, the decision of the court shall be certified to the President of 16 the Senate or to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may 17 be: And, provided further, that in the case of any candidate elected to the office 18 of Senator or of member of the House of Representatives of the United States, 19 the decision of the court shall be certified to the Governor, who shall transmit 20 the same to the Senate of the United States or the Speaker of the said House 21 of Representatives, as the case may be.

Sec. 15. If the court shall decide, upon the audit, that any person, whether 2 a candidate or not, has incurred illegal election expenses, or has otherwise vio-
 3 lated any of the provisions of this Act, after having certified its decision to the 4 Attorney General or the State's Attorney as provided in the preceding section, 5 and it shall thereupon also be the duty of such Attorney General or State's At-6 torney to institute criminal proceedings against such person.

7 Any candidate for nomination at any primary election may contest the right 8 of any other person to the nomination on the ground that at such primary elec-9 tion violations of the provisions of this Act were committed or occurred by or on 10 behalf of the person whose nomination is contested.

Sec. 16. No person shall be excused from answering any question, in any 2 proceedings under this Act, on the ground that such answer would tend to in-3 criminate him; but no such answer shall be used as evidence against such person 4 in any criminal action or prosecution whatever except in an action for perjury 5 in giving such testimony.

Sec. 17. If, upon the trial of any action or proceeding for the contesting 2 of the right of any person declared to be nominated to an office, or elected to an 3 office, or to annul and set aside such nomination or election, or to remove any person from his office, it shall be determined that such person was guilty of any violation of this Act in or about such nomination or election, or that any violation of this Act was committed in his behalf in or about such nomination or election, he shall be deprived of the nomination or office, as the case may be, and the court shall forthwith enter its decree ousting and excluding him from such nomination or office and in favor of the State or the plaintiff, as the case may be, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section, and for the costs of the proceeding, and the vacancy in such nomination or office shall thereupon be filled in the manner provided by law. But if none of the charges set forth in the petition be sustained, decree shall be rendered against the petitioner and his sureties for the costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable attorney's fees of the defendant. Such judgment shall not prevent the candidate or officer so ousted from being proceeded against by indictment or criminal proceeding for any such act or acts.

Sec. 18. In any case, if decree of ouster against the defendant shall be rendered as provided in the preceding section of this Act, said decree shall award such nomination or office to the person otherwise found entitled thereto, unless it shall be further determined in such action, upon appropriate pleading and proof, that some act has been done or committed by him or in his behalf which would have been ground in a similar action against any person who may have been declared nominated or elected to such office, for a decree of ouster against him; and if it shall be so determined at the trial, such office shall be in the decree declared vacant, and shall thereupon be filled by appointment, or a new election, as may be provided by law regarding such office.

Sec. 19. If any State's Attorney shall be notified by the Attorney General as herein provided, or by any officer or officers or other person of the commission of any offense by violation of any of the provisions of this Act within his jurisdiction, it shall be his duty forthwith to enter the same upon a docket kept in his office for that purpose, and to inquire diligently into the facts of such violation,

6 and if there is reasonable ground for instituting a prosecution it shall be the 7 duty of such State's Attorney to institute prosecution therefor.

8 In all cases in which the State's Attorney shall decide that there is not rea-9 sonable ground for instituting a prosecution, or that the evidence does not seem 10 to him sufficient under the provisions of this Act, he shall record such decision in 11 writing in such docket and notify the applicant thereof in writing. In all cases 12 in which the State's Attorney shall so decide that there is not reasonable ground, 13 or that the evidence does not seem to him to be sufficient, a Special State's At-

12 tion of any such candidate may, not later than the thirty-ninth day before said 13 nominating election, file with the Secretary of State their printed or typewritten 14 statements over their signatures, of the reasons why such candidate should not 15 be nominated, but every such statement shall be accompanied by proof, by affi-16 davit or sheriff's return, that they have caused to be served personally and in 17 person upon such candidate a true copy of such statement. Each candidate shall 18 be allowed one page of printed matter and those opposing him shall each be al-19 lowed one page of space on equal terms with him as hereinafter provided.

20 Nothing in this law shall be deemed to make any such statement or the authors 21 thereof free or exempt from any civil or criminal action or penalty, because of 22 any false, slanderous or libelous statements offered for printing or contained in 23 said pamphlet. The person or persons procuring, making, composing or offer-24 ing such statement for filing shall be deemed the authors and publishers there-25 of.

Sec. 51. Candidates for nomination shall pay for one page of space in the 2 publication herein provided for as follows: For the office of United States 3 Senator in Congress, one hundred dollars; for Representative in Congress, one

10 received for less than a full page: Provided, that not more than two additional 11 pages shall be allowed to any one candidate. All payments required by this sec-12 tion shall be made to the Secretary of State when the statement is offered to 13 him for filing, and be by him paid into the general fund in the state treasury:
14 Provided, that any payment made under this section shall be exclusive of expen-

6 the time, who shall transmit such statements and payments to the Secretary of 7 State not later than the twenty-fifth day before the primary nominating election,

Sec. 53. Not later than the twentieth day before the primary nominating 2 election, the Secretary of State shall hand to the State Printer all of such state-

7 directly oppose any candidates shall follow next after his statement. All of the 8 statements filed for and against all the candidates for nomination to each office 9 shall be printed in the order in which candidates' names are grouped under the 13 Printer to print and bind under one cover, separately for each political 14 party, the statements only of candidates to be voted for by members of that 15 party for nomination in the State, together with those in the same electoral dis-16 trict or division; that is to say, the statements and arguments of all candidates 17 seeking republican votes in a county for nomination by the Republican party to 18 state and district offices, for a district comprising one county or more, shall be 19 printed and bound under one cover, and the same with the Democratic, and any 20 other party required to nominate its candidates at said nominating election. The 21 same method shall be applied in printing the pamphlets for all other counties and 22 districts, but no picture, statement or argument for or against any candidate for 23 nomination shall be included in the copy of said pamphlet going to any county 24 where such candidate is not to be voted for. The State Printer shall begin the 25 delivery of said pamphlets to the Secretary of State as quickly as possible, and 26 not later than the twelfth day before the nominating election, printing and deliv-

28 their distance from the state capital. At the time of delivering the copy to the 29 State Printer, the Secretary of State shall order the number of copies he esti-

 6 of registration for such nominating election and again at the close of registration 7 for the general election, they shall deliver to the Secretary of State the postoffice 8 address and party registration of every voter who registers during the said in-9 terval. At least eight days before the regular primary nominating election, the 10 Secretary of State shall forward by mail to every voter who is registered as a 11 member of one of the several political parties required to nominate their candi-12 date at such nominating election, a copy of the pamphlet of his political party 13 containing the names of the candidates only to be voted for in the territory or 14 district and statements herein provided for: Provided, that in cities, counties, 15 towns or villages where no registration of electors has been made or had, a can-16 didate or political committee or party may obtain from the Secretary of State, 17 upon application, a sufficient number of such pamphlets for distribution among 18 the voters who vote in the particular territory or district applied for: And pro-19 vided further, that in such cases, upon satisfactory evidence with vouchers at-20 tached received from any such person or political party or committee, that the 21 pamphlets provided for herein have been distributed through the mails by such 22 person or political party or committee, the Secretary of State shall repay to the 23 person, political party or committee the amount so expended or advanced in 24 the distribution of such pamphlets through the mails.

25 The pages of the pamphlets required by this act shall be six by nine inches in 26 size, and the printed matter therein shall be set in eight point Roman faced type, 27 single leader, and twenty-five one pica in width, with proper heads. In the 28 foot margin of every page of the party pamphlets for nominating election shall 29 be shown the authority for the information therein, as, "This information fur-30 nished by (name of candidate or name of his friends or opponents)", as the case 31 may be. In the foot margin of every page of the pamphlet herein provided 32 for the general election shall be shown the authority for the statements thereof, 33 as, "This information furnished by (title of committee or managing agent of the 34 political party or name of the independent candidate)", as the case may be.

Sec. 55. Not later than the thirtieth day before the regular general elec-
 2 tion the State executive committee or managing officers of any political party 3 or organization having nominated candidates, but no others except independent 4 candidates, may file with the Secretary of State portrait cuts of its candidates 5 and typewritten statements and arguments for the success of its principles and 6 the election of its candidates, and opposing or attacking the principles and can-7 didates of all other parties. Not later than the twenty-eighth day before said 8 general election the Secretary of State shall deliver to the State Printer prop-9 erly compiled and prepared for printing, the said portrait cuts, statements and 10 arguments, with an order for the number of pamphlet copies of the same neces-11 sary to supply one, at least, complete as to the candidates to be voted for in any 12 county for which the same may be designed, for every registered voter within 13 the State. The State Printer shall begin delivering said pamphlets to the Secre-
 14 tary of State as soon as possible. The Secretary of State shall begin mailing 15 the pamphlets to the voters of the State in the same folders as those of the can-16 didates as soon as they are delivered to him, and shall complete the mailing on or 17 before the sixth day before said general election.

Sec. 56. All the portrait cuts, statements and arguments of all the political 2 parties and independent candidates shall be bound together in one pamphlet, 3 and no party shall have more than twenty-four pages, nor an independent candi-4 date more than two pages therein. The political parties and independents shall 5 pay to the Secretary of State for the public treasury for said pamphlet at the 6 time of filing their copy with him, at the rate of fifty dollars for each printed page 7 of space in said pamphlet used by such party or independent candidate. The 8 provisions of the preceding sections requiring estimates of the number of pamph-9 lets for each county, limitations on the candidates' names, statements and pic-10 tures to be included in the pamphlets going to each county, and the manner of 11 distribution, shall apply in like manner to the pamphlets herein provided for the 12 general election.

Sec. 57. The State Auditor of Public Accounts, the clerk in the office of the 2 Secretary of State holding the highest position in the classified civil service 3 of the Secretary of State, or in the absence of such classified service therein, the 4 first assistant in said office, and one member of the State Civil Service Commis-5 sion, not of the same political party as the State Auditor of Public Accounts and 6 who shall be designated by the State Civil Service Commission within thirty 7 days after the taking effect of this Act, are hereby made supervisors of the re-8 turns to be made under this Act, who shall hereafter be designated "super-9 visors."

10 The three supervisors shall at no time be all of the same political party.

11 The supervisors shall be provided by the Secretary of State with office room 12 in the seat of government. The Auditor shall be chairman of the supervisors 13 and the clerk from the office of the Secretary of State shall be secretary there-

 15 as follows:

16 To the Auditor $10 per day of service rendered by him as inspector; to the 17 Civil Service Commissioner and clerk from the office of the Secretary of State, 18 each $5 per day of service rendered by him as inspector. But this provision for 19 compensation shall not operate on the compensation of the said Auditor or Civil 20 Service Commissioner elected or appointed prior to their entering upon service 21 hereunder, for the term for which they were previously elected or appointed re-22 spectively.

23 The expenses necessarily incurred by the supervisors in performing the 24 duties imposed by this Act shall be audited by the State Auditor of Public Ac-25 counts, upon vouchers properly certified by him and the Secretary, and paid by 26 the State in the same manner as the expenses of the office of the State Auditor of 27 Public Accounts.

Sec. 58. The said supervisors shall prepare at the expense of the State
2 and furnish to the city and county clerks, and in cities where there is a Board 3 of Election Commissioners, to such Board blanks and forms, with the assistance 4 of the Attorney General, suitable for the statements, supplemental statements 5 and books of account required by this Act, and shall have power to change said 6 forms and to revise the same from time to time. On the receipt of lists of can-7 didates for public office before a caucus or primary, or upon the filing of nom-8 ination papers before any election, the Board of Election Commissioners in 9 such cities, and the Clerk of any other city, or the county clerk or other officer 10 with whom lists of candidates and nomination papers are required by law to be 11 filed, shall transmit to the candidate or candidates put in nomination, and to the 12 treasurers of political committees, the blanks above described. Upon the filing 13 of a nomination before a state or national election, the Secretary of State shall 14 transmit to the candidate or candidates put in nomination and to the treasurers 15 of the political committees, the blanks above described. To any person required 16 to file a statement, such blanks shall be furnished upon application therefor.

Sec. 59. The supervisors are given power to make rules to carry out the 2 purposes of this Act and change the same from time to time. All rules made as 3 herein provided and all changes therein shall forthwith be printed, for distri-4 bution by said supervisors, and said supervisors shall give public notice of the 5 place or places where said rules may be obtained by publication in one daily 6 newspaper published in each county in the State. In such published notices 7 shall be specified the date not less than thirty days subsequent to the date of 8 such publication when such rules shall go into operation.

9 The supervisors are given power and on written complaint of any fifty 10 citizens residing in any city, county, town, circuit or district, are required to in-11 vestigate the manner in which this law and said rules are administered and 12 complied with. Said investigations may be held in any public office of the State 13 or of the city, county, town, circuit or district, affected. In the course of such 14 investigations each supervisor shall have power to administer oaths; and said 15 supervisors shall have power to make and issue and serve their subpoena and to 16 secure both the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of 17 books and papers relevant to such investigations.

Sec. 60. In any case in which the supervisors shall find probable cause to 2 believe that this Act is violated they shall report the same in writing to the At-3 torney General and to the State's Attorney of the appropriate county, who 4 shall within thirty days thereafter institute appropriate civil or criminal pro-5 ceedings upon such alleged violation or certify in writing to the supervisors that 6 in their joint opinion there is not probable cause therefor. If notwithstanding 7 such opinion said supervisors shall within thirty days after the filing of such 8 opinion with the supervisors, receive the written request of fifty citizens of the 9 State (where State elections are concerned), or of the appropriate city, town, 10 county, circuit or district, requesting that proceedings be instituted, then said su-11 pervisors shall employ counsel who shall institute such proceedings as may be 12 found appropriate concerning such alleged violation. A proceeding so instituted 13 shall not be voluntarily discontinued.

Sec. 61. Said supervisors shall keep, in books provided therefor, records of 2 their proceedings and of such investigations and shall have power to employ 3 counsel to assist in the conduct of such investigation.

Sec. 62. Said supervisors shall, on or before the 15th day of January of 2 each year, make to the Governor, for transmission to the legislature, a report 3 showing their own acts, the rules in force, the practical effects thereof, the 4 forms used, the manner in which the same are filled out and filed, the practical 5 effects thereof, and shall include the total receipts and expenditures shown by 6 each statement filed in the office of the State Auditor of Public Accounts, and 7 any suggestions they may deem appropriate for the more effectual accomplish-8 ment of the purposes of this Act.

9 The Governor may require a report from said supervisors at any other 10 time.

For an Act to regulate the civil service of counties.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
2 represented in the General Assembly: That in all counties of this State con-3 taining one hundred and fifty thousand or more inhabitants, all the offices and 4 places of employment in the service of such county, and all offices and places of 5 employment the salaries or wages for which are paid in whole or in part out of 6 funds appropriated by the county board of such county, except those exempted 7 in Section 11 of this Act, shall be classified and filled in the manner hereinafter 8 provided for and not otherwise. Whenever any county not now containing one 9 hundred and fifty thousand or more inhabitants shall have attained such number 10 of inhabitants, as shown by any census hereafter taken by the United States, 11 thereupon this Act shall become applicable to such county on the first day of 12 July next succeeding the completion of the taking of such census by the United 13 States.

Sec. 2. COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED—OATH — VACANCIES — REMOVALS.] In all 2 counties of this State to which this Act is or shall become applicable, there is

3 hereby created and established a County Civil Service Commisison, hereinafter 4 called the Commission, to consist of three persons to be selected and appointed in 5 the manner following:

6 The president or chairman, as the case may be, of the county board of any 7 such county shall forthwith, upon this Act becoming operative therein, appoint, 8 with the consent of the county board, three persons, whose terms of office shall be 9 three years and until their respective successors are appointed and qualified, to 10 constitute and be known as the Board for the Selection and Appointment of Em-11 ployment Experts as Civil Service Commissioners. The terms of office of the 12 members of said Board first appointed shall begin forthwith upon their appoint-13 ment and continue for three years after the first day of July next preceeding, and 14 the term of office of their successors shall begin on the first day of July three 15 years thereafter respectively. Any appointment to fill a vacancy occurring dur-16 ing said term shall be for the unexpired portion of such term. Each member of 17 any Board for the Selection and Appointment of Employment Experts as Civil 18 Service Commissioners, shall take the oath prescribed by the Constitution and 19 serve without compensation. Any such Board may incur necessary expenses for 20 clerk hire, stationery, printing and other incidental expenses and said expenses 21 shall be allowed and paid by the county. Whenever a county civil service com-22 missioner is to be appointed under this Act as hereinafter provided, whether 23 said appointment be original or to fill a vacancy or whenever there shall be a 24 vacancy in the office of county civil service commissioner in any existing county 25 civil service commission to which this Act applies, the said Board shall convene 26 at the county seat and proceed to select and appoint county civil service commis-27 sioners, who shall hold office for a term of six years and until their respective 28 successors are duly appointed and qualified, such appointment to be made of the 29 most fit candidate for such appointment, selected upon the basis of public com-30 petition open to citizens of the State of Illinois, and of merit, experience and ex-31 port qualification to be tested by appropriate examination: Provided, however, 32 that the commissioners of any existing County Civil Service Commission in any 33 county to which this Act applies, shall continue to hold their respective offices 34 until the expiration of their several terms, unless removed in accordance with the 35 provisions of this Act. Each county civil service commissioner, before entering 36 upon the duties of his office, shall take the oath prescribed by the Constitution.

 37 Two members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum. No member of the 38 Commission shall hold any other lucrative office or employment under the 39 United States, the State of Illinois, or any municipal corporation or political 40 division thereof. No county civil service commissioner, now in office or here-41 after appointed, shall be removed except for palpable incompetence or malfeas-42 ance in office upon written charges and after an opportunity to be heard in his 43 own defense. Such charges may be filed by order of the County Board before 44 the Board for the Selection and Appointment of Employment Experts as Civil 45 Service Commissioners who shall hear and determine the same. The findings 46 and decision of said last named Board shall be final, and if such charges shall 47 be sustained the county civil service commissioner so charged shall be forthwith 48 removed from office by said Board, who shall thereupon proceed to fill the va-49 cancy created by such removal. In any proceeding provided for in this section 50 said Board, and each member thereof, shall have power to administer oaths and 51 to compel by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the pro-52 duction of books and papers.

Sec. 3. CLASSIFICATION.] The Commission shall within six months after 2 this Act goes into effect classify all offices and places of employment which this 3 Act provides shall be classified. Such classification shall be made with refer-4 ence to the duties of such offices and places for the purpose of establishing 5 grades and of fixing and maintaining standards of examinations hereinafter 6 provided for. The offices and places so classified by the Commission shall con-7 stitute the classified civil service of such county and no appointments to any of 8 such offices or places shall be made except under and according to the provi-9 sions of this Act and of the rules hereinafter mentioned. As a part of such 10 classified civil service all officers and employees of the Commission, except spe-

11 cial examiners, shall be included. Provided, however, that all attending physi-12 cians and surgeons, who serve without compensation, in any public institution 13 in such county, devoted to the care and treatment of the sick, poor and insane, 14 and who are hereby made a part of the classified civil service of such county, 15 shall be appointed for such term as the Commission shall by rule prescribe, and 16 that the physicians and surgeons usually designated as internes, who are also 17 hereby made a part of the classified civil service of such county, shall be ap-18 pointed for such term as the Commission shall by rule prescribe, and, provided 19 further, that there may also, at the discretion of such county board, be a con-20 sulting staff of physicians and surgeons, which staff shall be appointed by the 21 county board, and that such county board in its discretion may contract with 22 any training school of recognized standing for the nursing of any or all of the 23 sick, poor and insane of such county.

Sec. 3a. STANDARDIZATION.] The Commission shall ascertain the duties of 2 each office and place in the classified civil service and designate by rule the grade 3 of each position. Each grade shall comprise offices and places having substan-
 4 tially similar duties. The Commission shall by rule indicate the lines of pro-5 motion from each lower grade to a higher grade wherever the experience de-6 rived in the performance of the duties of such lower grade tends to qualify for 7 performance of duty in such higher grade. The Commission shall by rule pre-8 scribe standards of efficiency for each grade and for examinations of candidates 9 for appointment thereto.

10 For the purpose of establishing uniformity of pay and title for all offices 11 and places of employment classified in the same grade, it shall be the duty of 12 the Commission to prescribe by rule the maximum and minimum pay for each 13 grade and the title thereof and to report to the county board, annually, and at 14 such other times as it may direct, the name and address of each officer and em-15 ployee paid more or less than the pay prescribed for his grade or designated 16 by a title other than that prescribed for his grade by the Commission.

17 The Commission shall standardize employment in each grade and make and 18 keep a record of the relative efficiency of each officer and employee in the class-19 ified civil service. It shall provide by rule, methods for ascertaining and veri-20 fying the facts from which such records of relative efficiency shall be made, 21 which shall be uniform for each grade in the classified service.

Sec. 3b. PERSONS IN COUNTY SERVICE WHEN ACT APPLIES.] In any county 2 which is now, or which hereafter may become, subject to the provisions of this 3 Act, all persons who for a continuous period of not less than thirty days imme-4 diately prior to the time when this Act takes effect, or shall have become appli-5 cable, have held offices or places of employment which this Act provides shall be 6 classified, shall be included under the provisions of this Act and shall become 7 members of the classified civil service of such county, without original exami-8 nation.

Sec. 4. RULES.] The said Commission shall make rules to carry out the 2 purposes of this Act, and for examinations, appointments, transfers and remov-3 als and for maintaining and keeping records of the efficiency of officers and em-4 ployees, and groups of officers and employees, in accordance with the provi-5 sions of this Act, and said Commission may from time to time make changes in 6 in such rules.

Sec. 5. PUBLICATION OF RULES.] All rules made as herein provided and all 2 changes therein shall forthwith be printed for distribution by the Commission, 3 and it shall give notice of the places where said rules may be obtained, by publi-4 cation in one or more daily newspapers published in such county, and in each 5 such publication shall specify the date not less than ten days subsequent to the 6 date of such publication, when said rules shall go into operation.

Sec. 6. EXAMINATIONS.] All applicants for offices or places in said class-2 ified civil service, except those mentioned in Section 11 hereof, shall be subjected 3 to examination, which shall be public, competitive and free to all persons who 4 may be lawfully appointed thereto with limitations specified in the rules of the 5 Commission as to residence, age, sex, health, habits, moral character and quali-6 fications to perform the duties of the office or place to be filled, which qualifica-7 tions shall be prescribed in advance of such examination. Such examinations 8 shall be practical in their character, and shall relate to those matters which will 9 fairly test the relative capacity of the persons examined to discharge the duties 10 of the position to which they seek to be appointed, and may include tests of phys-11 ical qualifications and health and when appropriate, of manual skill. No ques-12 tion in any examination shall relate to political or religious opinions or affilia-13 tions. The Commission shall control all examinations, and may, whenever an 14 examination is to take place, designate a suitable number of persons, either in 15 or not in the official service of the county to be examiners; and it shall be the 16 duty of such examiners, and if in the official service it shall, without extra com-17 pensation, be a part of their official duty, to conduct such examination as the 18 Commission may direct, and to make return and report thereof to said Commis-19 sion; and the Commission may at any time substitute any other person, whether 20 or not in such service, in the place of any one so selected; and the Commission 21 may themselves, at any time, act as such examiners, and without appointing 22 examiners. The Commission shall, with reference to maintaining eligible rég-23 isters, proceed by rule to divide the entire service into two divisions; in one of 24 these divisions shall be included all offices and places of employment in the 25 classified service whereto certification is infrequent; in the other shall be in-26 cluded all other offices and places in the classified service. Such rule shall dis-27 tinctly designate in which division each of said offices or places falls; and as to 28 all offices and places comprised under the first division above mentioned, exam-29 ination shall be held only when a vacancy exists, and an eligible list or reg-30 ister, so prepared, shall be in force only until permanent appointment has been 31 made from such list or registers; and as to all other offices and places said 32 Commission shall, by rule, provide for and hold a sufficient number of examina-33 tions to provide a sufficient number of eligibles on the register for each grade 34 of position in the classified civil service, and if any place in the classified civil 35 service becomes vacant, to which there is no person eligible for appointment.

36 the Commission shall immediately hold an examination for such position and 37 repeat the same, if necessary, until a vacancy is filled in accordance with the 38 provisions of this Act.

39 Said Commission may, in its discretion, cancel such portion of any such 40 register as has been in force for more than two years.

Sec. 7. NOTICE OF EXAMINATIONS.] Notice of the time and place and general 2 scope of every examination and of the duties, pay and nature of the position 3 sought to be filled shall be given by the Commission by publication, for two weeks 4 preceding such examination, in a daily newspaper of general circulation pub-
5 lished in the county, and such notice shall be posted by the Commission in a con-6 spicuous place in its office for two weeks before such examination. Such further 7 notice of examinations may be given as the Commission shall prescribe.

Sec. 8. REGISTERS.] From the return or reports of examiners, or from the 2 examinations made by the Commission, the Commission shall prepare a register 3 for each grade or class of position in the classified service of the county of the 4 persons who shall attain such minimum mark as may be fixed by the Commission 5 for any part of such examination and whose general average standing upon ex-6 amination for such grade or class is not less than the minimum fixed by the rules 7 of said Commission, and who are otherwise eligible; and such persons shall take 8 rank upon the register as candidates in the order of their relative excellence as 9 determined by examination, without reference to priority of time of examination.

Sec. 9. PROMOTION.] The Commission shall note of record the duties 2 (whether imposed by law, official regulation or practice) of each office or place in 3 the classified service. It shall thereupon by rule fix lines for promotion from 4 such several offices and places to superior offices or places in all cases where, in 5 the judgment of the Commission, the duties of such several positions directly 6 tend to fit the incumbent for a superior position. In case of vacancy in superior

7 offices or places, which cannot be filled by reinstatement, the Commission shall 8 hold promotion examinations to fill such vacancy. Incumbents of offices or 9 places next lower in the line so fixed shall be solely eligible for such examination, 10 unless in the judgment of the Commission, to be noted in its minutes with the 11 grounds therefor, it is for the best interests of the service that original exam-12 ination for such vacancy be held. In promotion examinations, efficiency and sen-13 iority in service shall form a part of such examination, but combined shall not 14 carry a total number of marks to exceed one-quarter of the maximum marks at-15 tainable in such examination. All examinations for promotion shall be com-16 petitive. The method of examination, the rules governing the same, and the 17 method of certifying shall be the same as provided for in original examination.

Sec. 10. APPOINTMENTS.] Whenever a position classified under this Act is 2 to be filled, the appointing officer shall make requisition upon said Commission 3 and the Commission shall certify to him the name and address of the candidate 4 standing highest upon the register of eligibles for said position, except that in 5 case of laborers, when a choice by competition is impracticable, said Commission 6 may provide by its rules that the selection shall be made by lot from among those 7 candidates proved fit by examination. The appointing officer shall notify the 8 Commission of each position to be filled separately and shall fill such position by 9 the appointment of the person certified to him by said Commission therefor, 10 which appointment shall be on probation for a period of not more than three 11 months to be fixed by said rules. At any time during the period of probation, the 12 appointing officer may discharge a person so certified and shall forthwith notify 13 the Commission in writing of such discharge. If such person is not thus dis-14 charged, his appointment shall be deemed complete.

15 When there is no eligible list, the appointing officer may, with the authority 16 of the Commission, make temporary appointments to remain in force only until 17 regular appointments under the provisions of this Act can be made.

18 In employment of an essentially temporary and transitory nature, the ap-19 pointing officer may, with the authority of the Commission, make temporary appointments to fill a vacancy, but no such authority shall be granted for a period of more than thirty days, but it may be renewed from time to time by the Commission. The Commission shall include in its annual report, and if thereto required by the County Board, in any special report, a statement of all temporary authorities granted or renewed during the year or period specified by the County Board, together with a statement of the facts in each case because of which such authority was granted.

The acceptance or refusal by an eligible person of a temporary appointment shall not affect his standing on the register for permanent appointment.

Sec. 10a. TRANSFERS.] The Commission may by its rules provide for transfers of officers and employees in the classified service from positions in one office or department to positions of the same class and grade in another office or department. Transfers which are in the nature of promotions shall be governed by Section 9 of this Act, and transfers which are in the nature of demotions shall be governed by Section 12 of this Act.

Sec. 11. EXEMPTIONS FROM THE CLASSIFIED SERVICE.] The following offices and places of employment, in so far as there are or may be such in such counties, shall not be included within the classified civil service, namely:

All elective officers; all officers whose appointment is provided for by the Constitution; judges and officers appointed by judges of any court; the county attorney; the superintendent of public service; judges and clerks of elections: Provided, however, that election commissioners and officers and employees of any Election Commission in such county shall be included in said classified civil service.

Sec. 12. REMOVALS.] No officer or employee in the classified civil service of the county shall be removed or discharged except for cause, upon written charges, and after an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. Such charges shall be investigated by or before the Commission, or by or before some officer

5 or board appointed by the Commission to conduct such investigation. The find-6 ing and decision of the Commission or of such investigating officer or board, 7 when approved by said Commission, shall be final and shall be certified to the 8 appointing officer, and shall be forthwith enforced by such officer. Nothing in 9 this Act shall limit the power of any officer to suspend a subordinate for a 10 reasonable period, not exceeding thirty days. Every such suspension shall be 11 without pay: Provided, however, that the Commission shall have authority to 12 investigate every such suspension, and, in case of its disapproval thereof, it 13 shall have power to restore pay to the employee so suspended. In the course 14 of any investigation provided for in this Act, each member of the Commission, 15 and of any board so appointed by it, and any officer so appointed, shall have the 16 power to administer oaths and shall have power to secure by its subpoena both 17 the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of books and 18 papers. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require such charges in 19 case of laborers or in case of persons having the custody of public money for the 20 safe keeping of which another person has given bonds.

Sec. 13. REPORTS TO COMMISSION.] Immediate notice in writing shall be 2 given by the appointing power to said Commission of all appointments, per-3 manent or temporary, made in such classified civil service and of all transfers, 4 promotions, resignations or vacancies from any cause in such service and of the 5 date thereof, and a record of the same shall be kept by said Commission. When 6 any office or place of employment is created or abolished, or the compensation 7 attached thereto altered, the officer or board making such change shall immedi-8 ately report it in writing to said Commission.

Sec. 14. EFFICIENCY—INVESTIGATIONS.] The Commission shall investigate
 2 the efficiency of all officers and employees and of all groups of officers and em-
 3 ployees in the classified service and shall report to each officer, board or other 4 authority in charge of any institution, office or department of the county govern-5 ment its findings and recommendations relative to increasing efficiency and economy therein. In case the recommendations made by the Commission are not carried into effect within a reasonable time, or in case of a difference of opinion with reference to such findings or recommendations between the Commission and the officer, board or other authority in charge of an institution, office or department concerned in any such finding or recommendation, the report accompanied by a note of the relevant facts shall be transmitted to the County Board by the Commission. The Commission shall investigate the enforcement of this Act and of the rules of the Commission, the conduct of the appointees in the classified service and the methods of administration therein, and may investigate the nature, tenure and compensation of all offices and places in the civil service of the county. In the course of such investigation each commissioner shall have power to administer oaths, and said Commission shall have power to secure by its subpoena both the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and papers.

Sec. 15. REPORT OF COMMISSION.] Said Commission shall, on or before the 15th day of January of each year, make to the County Board a report showing its own action, the rules in force, the practical effects thereof and any suggestions it may approve for the more effectual accomplishment of the purposes of this Act. The County Board may require a report from said Commission at any time.

Sec. 16. OFFICERS.] The Commission shall select one of its own members to act as president and one as secretary of the Commission. The secretary shall keep the minutes of the Commission, preserve all records and perform such other duties as the Commission may direct.

Sec. 17. OFFICERS TO AID—ROOMS.] All officers of the county shall aid the Commission in all proper ways in carrying out the provisions of the Act and at any place where examinations are to be held shall allow reasonable use of public buildings for holding such examinations. The county board shall cause suitable rooms to be provided for the Commission at the expense of the county.

Sec. 18. SALARIES.] Each of said commissioners shall receive a salary of 2 not less than three thousand dollars a year.

Sec. 19. EXPENSES.] A sufficient sum of money shall be appropriated each 2 year by the county board to carry out the provisions of this Act; and the county 3 board shall allow to said commission such clerical help and such sums to operate 4 and maintain said office as shall be necessary, and the compensation of such 5 clerical help and such sums allowed shall be paid by the county as other county 6 charges. If the board shall have already made the annual appropriations for 7 county purposes for the current fiscal year, the board is authorized and required 8 to pay the salaries and expenses of the Commission for such fiscal year out of 9 the moneys appropriated for contingent purposes by said board.

10 Any person not at the time in the official service of the county, serving as a 11 member of the board of examiners or of an investigating board, shall receive com-12 pensation for every day actually and necessarily spent in the discharge of his 13 duty as an examiner or a member of the investigating board, at the rate of five 14 dollars per day, and the Commission may, in such county, also incur expenses, not 15 exceeding five thousand dollars per year, for clerk hire, printing, stationery and 16 other incidental matters.

Sec. 20. FRAUDS PROHIBITED.] No person or officer shall wilfully or cor-2 ruptly, by himself, or in co-operation with one or more persons, defeat, deceive 3 or obstruct any person in respect to his or her right of examination hereunder; 4 or corruptly or falsely mark, grade, estimate or report upon the examination or 5 proper standing of any person examined hereunder or aid in so doing; or wilfully 6 or corruptly make any false representation concerning the same or concerning 7 the person examined; or wilfully or corruptly furnish to any person any special 8 or secret information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the pros-9 pects or chances of any persons so examined, or to be examined, being appointed, 10 employed or promoted. And no applicant for any examination shall wilfully or 11 corruptly by himself, or in co-operation with one or more persons, deceive the 13 any false representations in his application for any examination, or commit any 14 fraud for the purpose of improving his prospects or chances in such examina-15 tion.

Sec. 21. NO OFFICER TO RECEIVE OR SOLICIT POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS.] No of-2 ficer or employee shall solicit, orally or by letter, or receive, or be in any manner 3 concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution

 5 whatever.

Sec. 22. NO PERSON TO SOLICIT POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS FROM OFFICERS OR EM-

 5 money or other thing of value, for any party or political purpose whatever, from 6 any member of the classified civil service. No officer, agent, clerk or employee 7 under the government of any such county, who may have charge or control of 8 any building, office or room, occupied for any purpose of said government shall 9 permit any person to enter the same for the purpose of therein soliciting or de-10 livering written solicitations for or receiving from, or giving notice to any mem-11 ber of the classified civil service of the county of any political assessments.

Sec. 24. PAYMENTS OF POLITICAL ASSESSMENTS TO PUBLIC OFFICERS PROHIB-2 ITED.] No officer or employee in the service of any such county shall, directly or 3 indirectly, give or hand over to any officer or employee in said classified civil 6 the promotion of any party or political object whatever.

Sec. 25. ABUSE OF POLITICAL INFLUENCE PROHIBITED.] No person who holds 2 any public office, or who has been nominated for, or who seeks a nomination or

Sec. 2. Capacity to buy and sell is regulated by the general law concern-2 ing capacity to contract, and to transfer and acquire property.

3 Where necessaries are sold and delivered to an infant, or to a person who 4 by reason of mental incapacity or drunkenness is incompetent to contract, he 5 must pay a reasonable price therefor.

6 Necessaries in this section mean goods suitable to the condition in life of 7 such infant or other person, and to his actual requirements at the time of de-8 livery.

Sec. 3. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any statute in that 2 behalf, a contract to sell or a sale may be made in writing (either with or with-3 out seal), or by word of mouth, or partly by word of mouth, or may be inferred 4 from the conduct of the parties.

Sec. 4. (1) A contract to sell or a sale of any goods or choses in action of 2 the value of five hundred dollars or upwards shall not be enforceable by action 3 unless the buyer shall accept part of the goods or choses in action so contracted 4 to be sold or sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to 5 bind the contract, or in part payment, or unless some note or memorandum in 6 writing of the contract or sale be signed by the party to be charged or his agent 7 in that behalf.

8 (2) The provisions of this section apply to every such contract or sale, not-9 withstanding that the goods may be intended to be delivered at some future time 10 or may not at the time of such contract or sale be actually made, procured, or 11 provided, or fit or ready for delivery, or some act may be requisite for the mak-12 ing or completing thereof, or rendering the same fit for delivery; but if the goods 13 are to be manufactured by the seller especially for the buyer and are not suitable 14 for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business, the provisions 15 of this section shall not apply.

16 (3) There is an acceptance of goods within the meaning of this section 17 when the buyer, either before or after delivery of the goods, expresses by words 18 or conduct his assent to becoming the owner of those specific goods.

Sec. 5. (1) The goods which form the subject of a contract to sell may be 2 either existing goods, owned or possessed by the seller, or goods to be manu-3 factured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract to sell, in 4 this Act called "future goods."

5 (2) There may be a contract to sell goods, the acquisition of which by the 6 seller depends upon a contingency which may or may not happen.

7 (3) Where the parties purport to effect a present sale of future goods, 8 the agreement operates as a contract to sell the goods.

Sec. 6. (1) There may be a contract to sell or a sale of an undivided 2 share of goods. If the parties intend to effect a present sale, the buyer, by 3 force of the agreement, becomes an owner in common with the owner or owners 4 of the remaining shares.

5 (2) In the case of fungible goods, there may be a sale of an undivided share 6 of a specific mass, though the seller purports to sell and the buyer to buy a defi-7 nite number, weight or measure of the goods in the mass, and though the num-8 ber, weight or measure of the goods in the mass is undetermined. By such a 9 sale the buyer becomes owner in common of such a share of the mass as the 10 number, weight or measure bought bears to the number, weight or measure of 11 the mass. If the mass contains less than the number, weight or measure bought, 12 the buyer becomes the owner of the whole mass and the seller is bound to make 13 good the deficiency from similar goods unless a contrary intent appears.

Sec. 7. (1) Where the parties purport to sell specific goods, and the 2 goods without the knowledge of the seller have wholly perished at the time when 3 the agreement is made, the agreement is void.

4 (2) Where the parties purport to sell specific goods, and the goods without 5 knowledge of the seller have perished in part or have wholly or in a material 6 part so deteriorated in quality as to be substantially changed in character, the 7 buyer may at his option treat the sale—

8 (a) As avoided, or

9 (b) As transferring the property in all of the existing goods or in so much 10 thereof as have not deteriorated, and as binding the buyer to pay the full 11 agreed price if the sale was indivisible, or to pay the agreed price for the goods 12 in which the property passes if the sale was divisible.

Sec. 8. (1) Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, and subsequently, but before the risk passes to the buyer, without any fault on the part of the seller or the buyer, the goods wholly perish, the contract is thereby avoided.

(2) Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, and subsequently, but before the risk passes to the buyer, without any fault of the seller or the buyer, part of the goods perish or the whole or a material part of the goods so deteriorate in quality as to be substantially changed in character, the buyer may at his option treat the contract—

(a) As avoided, or

(b) As binding the seller to transfer the property in all of the existing goods or in so much thereof as have not deteriorated, and as binding the buyer to pay the full agreed price if the contract was indivisible, or to pay the agreed price for so much of the goods as the seller, by the buyer's option, is bound to transfer if the contract was divisible.

Sec. 9. (1) The price may be fixed by the contract, or may be left to be fixed in such manner as may be agreed, or it may be determined by the course of dealing between the parties.

(2) The price may be made payable in any personal property.

(3) Where transferring or promising to transfer any interest in real estate constitutes the whole or part of the consideration for transferring or for promising to transfer the property in goods, this Act shall not apply.

(4) Where the price is not determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions the buyer must pay a reasonable price. What is a reasonable price is a question of fact dependent on the circumstances of each particular case.

Sec. 10. (1) Where there is a contract to sell or a sale of goods at a price or on terms to be fixed by a third person, and such third person without fault of the seller or the buyer, cannot or does not fix the price or terms, the

4 contract or the sale is thereby avoided; but if the goods or any part thereof 5 have been delivered to and appropriated by the buyer he must pay a reasonable 6 price therefor.

7 (2) Where such third person is prevented from fixing the price or terms 8 by fault of the seller or the buyer, the party not in fault may have such reme-9 dies against the party in fault as are allowed by Parts IV and V of this Act.

Sec. 11. (1) Where the obligation of either party to a contract to sell or 2 a sale is subject to any condition which is not performed, such party may refuse 3 to proceed with the contract or sale or he may waive performance of the condi-
4 tion. If the other party has promised that the condition should happen or be 5 performed, such first mentioned party may also treat the non-performance of 6 the condition as a breach of warranty.

7 (2) Where the property in the goods has not passed, the buyer may treat 8 the fulfillment by the seller of his obligation to furnish goods as described and 9 as warranted expressly or by implication in the contract to sell as a condition 10 of the obligation of the buyer to perform his promise to accept and pay for the 11 goods.

Sec. 12. Any affirmation of fact or any promise by the seller relating to 2 the goods is an express warranty if the natural tendency of such affirmation or 3 promise is to induce the buyer to purchase the goods, and if the buyer purchases 4 the goods relying thereon. No affirmation of the value of the goods, nor 5 any statement purporting to be a statement of the seller's opinion only shall be 6 construed as a warranty.

Sec. 13. In a contract to sell or a sale, unless a contrary intention ap-2 pears, there is—

3 (1) An implied warranty on the part of the seller that in case of a sale he 4 has a right to sell the goods, and that in case of a contract to sell he will have 5 a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;

6 (2) An implied warranty that the buyer shall have and enjoy quiet pos-7 session of the goods as against any lawful claims existing at the time of the sale;

8 (3) An implied warranty that the goods shall be free at the time of the 9 sale from any charge or encumbrance in favor of any third person, not declared 10 or known to the buyer before or at the time when the contract or sale is made.

11 (4) This section shall not, however, be held to render liable a sheriff, auc-12 tioneer, mortgagee, or other person professing to sell by virtue of authority in 13 fact or law goods in which a third person has a legal or equitable interest.

Sec. 14. Where there is a contract to sell or a sale of goods by description, 2 there is an implied warranty that the goods shall correspond with the descrip-3 tion, and if the contract or sale be by sample, as well as by description, it is 4 not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the 5 goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the 6 description.

Sec. 15. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any statute in that be-2 half, there is no implied warranty or condition as to the quality or fitness for 3 any particular purpose of goods supplied under a contract to sell or a sale, 4 except as follows:

5 (1) Where the buyer, expressly or by implication, makes known to the 6 seller the particular purpose for which the goods are required, and it appears 7 that the buyer relies on the seller's skill or judgment (whether he be the grower 8 or manufacturer or not), there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be 9 reasonably fit for such purpose.

10 (2) Where the goods are bought by description from a seller who deals in 11 goods of that description (whether he be the grower or manufacturer or not), 12 there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be of merchantable quality.

13 (3) If the buyer has examined the goods, there is no implied warranty as 14 regards defects which such examination ought to have revealed.

15 (4) In the case of a contract to sell or a sale of a specified article under 16 its patent or other trade name, there is no implied warranty as to its fitness for 17 any particular purpose.

18 (5) An implied warranty or condition as to quality or fitness for a par-19 ticular purpose may be annexed by the usage of trade.

20 (6) An express warranty or condition does not negative a warranty or 21 condition implied under this Act unless inconsistent therewith.

Sec. 16. In the case of a contract to sell or a sale by sample:

2 (a) There is an implied warranty that the bulk shall correspond with the 3 sample in quality.

4 (b) There is an implied warranty that the buyer shall have a reasonable 5 opportunity of comparing the bulk with the sample, except so far as otherwise 6 provided in Section 47 (3).

7 (c) If the seller is a dealer in goods of that kind there is an implied war-8 ranty that the goods shall be free from any defect rendering them unmerchant-9 able, which would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample.

Sec. 17. Where there is a contract to sell unascertained goods no property 2 in the goods is transferred to the buyer unless and until the goods are ascer-3 tained, but property in an undivided share of ascertained goods may be trans-4 ferred, as provided in Section 6.

Sec. 18. (1) Where there is a contract to sell specific or ascertained 2 goods, the property in them is transferred to the buyer at such time as the par-3 ties to the contract intend it to be transferred.

4 (2) For the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the parties, regard 5 shall be had to the terms of the contract, the conduct of the parties, usages of 6 trade and the circumstances of the case.

Sec. 19. Unless a different intention appears, the following are rules for 2 ascertaining the intention of the parties as to the time at which the property in 3 the goods is to pass to the buyer.

4 Rule 1—Where there is an unconditional contract to sell specific goods, in 5 a deliverable state, the property in the goods passes to the buyer when the con-6 tract is made, and it is immaterial whether the time of payment, or the time of 7 delivery, or both, be postponed.

8 Rule 2—Where there is a contract to sell specific goods and the seller is 9 bound to do something to the goods, for the purpose of putting them into a de-10 liverable state, the property does not pass until such thing be done.

11 Rule 3—(1) When goods are delivered to the buyer “on sale or return,” 12 or on other terms indicating an intention to make a present sale, but to give the 13 buyer an option to return the goods instead of paying the price, the property 14 passes to the buyer on delivery, but he may revest the property in the seller by 15 returning or tendering the goods within the time fixed in the contract, or, if no 16 time has been fixed, within a reasonable time.

17 (2) When goods are delivered to the buyer on approval or on trial or on 18 satisfaction, or other similar terms, the property therein passes to the buyer—

19 (a) When he signifies his approval or acceptance to the seller or does any 20 other act adopting the transaction;

21 (b) If he does not signify his approval or acceptance to the seller, but 22 retains the goods without giving notice of rejection, then if a time has been fixed 23 for the return of the goods, on the expiration of such time, and if no time has 24 been fixed, on the expiration of a reasonable time. What is a reasonable time 25 is a question of fact.

26 Rule 4—(1) Where there is a contract to sell unascertained or future 27 goods by description, and goods of that description and in a deliverable state 28 are unconditionally appropriated to the contract, either by the seller with the 29 assent of the buyer, or by the buyer with the assent of the seller, the property 30 in the goods thereupon passes to the buyer. Such assent may be expressed or 31 implied, and may be given either before or after the appropriation is made.

32 (2) Where, in pursuance of a contract to sell, the seller delivers the goods 33 to the buyer, or to a carrier or other bailee (whether named by the buyer or 34 not) for the purpose of transmission to or holding for the buyer, he is pre-35 sumed to have unconditionally appropriated the goods to the contract, except 36 in the cases provided for in the next rule and in section 20. This presumption is 37 applicable, although by the terms of the contract, the buyer is to pay the price 38 before receiving delivery of the goods, and the goods are marked with the words 39 “collect on delivery” or their equivalents.

40 Rule 5—If the contract to sell requires the seller to deliver the goods to the 41 buyer, or at a particular place, or to pay the freight or cost of transportation 42 to the buyer, or to a particular place, the property does not pass until the goods 43 have been delivered to the buyer or reached the place agreed upon.

Sec. 20. (1) Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, or where 2 goods are subsequently appropriated to the contract, the seller may, by the terms 3 of the contract or appropriation, reserve the right of possession or property in 4 the goods until certain conditions have been fulfilled. The right of possession or 5 property may be thus reserved notwithstanding the delivery of the goods to the 6 buyer or to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer.

7 (2) Where goods are shipped, and by the bill of lading the goods are de-8 liverable to the seller or his agent, or to the order of the seller or of his agent, 9 the seller thereby reserves the property in the goods. But if, except for the form 10 of the bill of lading, the property would have passed to the buyer on shipment 11 of the goods, the seller’s property in the goods shall be deemed to be only for 12 the purpose of securing performance by the buyer of his obligations under the 13 contract.

14 (3) Where goods are shipped, and by the bill of lading the goods are de-15 liverable to the order of the buyer or of his agent, but possession of the bill of

16. Lading is retained by the seller or his agent, the seller thereby reserves a right to 17 the possession of the goods as against the buyer.

18 (4) Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price and trans-19 mits the bill of exchange and the bill of lading together to the buyer to secure 20 acceptance or payment of the bill of exchange, the buyer is bound to return the 21 bill of lading if he does not honor the bill of exchange, and if he wrongfully 22 retains the bill of lading he acquires no added right thereby. If, however, the 23 bill of lading provides that the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to the order 24 of the buyer, or is indorsed in blank, or to the buyer by the consignee named 25 therein, one who purchases in good faith, for value, the bill of lading, or goods 26 from the buyer will obtain the property in the goods, although the bill of ex-27 change has not been honored, provided that such purchaser has received deliv-28 ery of the bill of lading indorsed by the consignee named therein, or of the 29 goods, without notice of the facts making the transfer wrongful.

Sec. 21. In the case of sale by auction—

2 (1) Where goods are put up for sale by auction in lots, each lot is the sub-3 ject of a separate contract of sale.

4 (2) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer announces its 5 completion by the fall of the hammer, or in other customary manner. Until such 6 announcement is made, any bidder may retract his bid; and the auctioneer may 7 withdraw the goods from sale unless the auction has been announced to be with-8 out reserve.

9 (3) A right to bid may be reserved expressly by or on behalf of the seller.

10 (4) Where notice has not been given that a sale by auction is subject to a 11 right to bid on behalf of the seller, it shall not be lawful for the seller to bid 12 himself or to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on his behalf, or 13 for the auctioneer to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on behalf 14 of the seller or knowingly to take any bid from the seller or any person em-15 ployed by him. Any sale contravening this rule may be treated as fraudulent 16 by the buyer.

Sec. 22. Unless otherwise agreed, the goods remain at the seller's risk 2 until the property therein is transferred to the buyer, but when the property 3 therein is transferred to the buyer the goods are at the buyer's risk whether de-4 livery has been made or not, except that—

5 (a) Where delivery of the goods has been made to the buyer, or to a bailee 6 for the buyer, in pursuance of the contract and the property in the goods has 7 been retained by the seller merely to secure performance by the buyer of his ob-8 ligations under the contract, the goods are at the buyer's risk from the time of 9 such delivery.

10 (b) Where delivery has been delayed through the fault of either buyer or 11 seller the goods are at the risk of the party in fault as regards any loss which 12 might not have occurred but for such fault.

Sec. 23. (1) Subject to the provisions of this act, where goods are sold by 2 a person who is not the owner thereof, and who does not sell them under the 3 authority or with the consent of the owner, the buyer acquires no better title to 4 the goods than the seller had, unless the owner of the goods is by his conduct 5 precluded from denying the seller's authority to sell.

6 (2) Nothing in this act, however, shall affect—

7 (a) The provisions of any factors' acts, recording acts, or any enactment 8 enabling the apparent owner of goods to dispose of them as if he were the true 9 owner thereof.

10 (b) The validity of any contract to sell or sale under any special common 11 law or statutory power of sale or under the order of a court of competent jur-12 isdiction.

Sec. 24. Where the seller of goods has a voidable title thereto, but his title 2 has not been avoided at the time of the sale, the buyer acquires a good title to 3 goods, provided he buys them in good faith, for value, and without notice of the 4 seller's defect of title.

Sec. 25. Where a person having sold goods continues in possession of the 2 goods, or of negotiable documents of title to the goods, the delivery or transfer 3 by that person, or by an agent acting for him, of the goods or documents of title 4 under any sale, pledge, or other disposition thereof, to any person receiving and 5 paying value for the same in good faith and without notice of the previous 6 sale, shall have the same effect as if the person making the delivery or transfer 7 were expressly authorized by the owner of the goods to make the same.

Sec. 26. Where a person having sold goods continues in possession of the 2 goods, or of negotiable documents of title to the goods and such retention of pos-3 session is fraudulent in fact or is deemed fraudulent under any rule of law, a 4 creditor or creditors of the seller may treat the sale as void.

Sec. 27. A document of title in which it is stated that the goods referred to 2 therein will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in 3 such document is a negotiable document of title.

Sec. 28. A negotiable document of title may be negotiated by delivery,—

2 (a) Where by the terms of the document the carrier, warehouseman or 3 other bailee issuing the same undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or 4 (b) Where by the terms of the document the carrier, warehouseman or 5 other bailee issuing the same undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a 6 specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the document has 7 indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

8 Where by the terms of a negotiable document of title the goods are deliver-9 able to bearer or where a negotiable document of title has been indorsed in blank 10 or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other speci-11 fied person, and in such case the document shall thereafter be negotiated only 12 by the indorsement of such indorsee.

Sec. 29. A negotiable document of title may be negotiated by the indorse-2 ment of the person to whose order the goods are by the terms of the document 3 deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified per-4 son. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the in-5 dorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person.
 6 Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

Sec. 30. If a document of title which contains an undertaking by a carrier, 2 warehouseman or other bailee to deliver the goods to the bearer, to a specified 3 person or order, or to the order of a specified person, or which contains words 4 like import, has placed upon it the words "not negotiable," "non-negotiable" or 5 the like, such a document may nevertheless be negotiated by the holder and is a 6 negotiable document of title within the meaning of this act. But nothing in this 7 act contained shall be construed as limiting or defining the effect upon the obli-8 gations of the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing a document of 9 title of placing thereon the words "not negotiable," "non-negotiable," or the 10 like.

Sec. 31. A document of title which is not in such form that it can be nego-
 2 tiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser 3 or donee. A non-negotiable document cannot be negotiated and the indorse-4 ment of such a document gives the transferee no additional right.

Sec. 32. A negotiable document of title may be negotiated—2 (a) By the owner thereof, or 3 (b) By any person to whom the possession or custody of the document 4 has been entrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the document the bailee 5 issuing the document undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the per-6 son to whom the possession or custody of the document has been entrusted, or 7 if at the time of the entrustment the document is in such form that it may 8 be negotiated by delivery.

Sec. 33. A person to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly 2 negotiated acquires thereby,

3 (a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the document to him 4 had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value and also 5 title to the goods as the person to whose order the goods were to be delivered 6 by the terms of the document had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in 7 good faith for value, and 8 (b) The direct obligation of the bailee issuing the document to hold pos-9 session of the goods for him according to the terms of the document as fully as 10 if such bailee had contracted directly with him.

Sec. 34. A person to whom a document of title has been transferred, but 2 not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the 3 goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor.

4 If the document is non-negotiable, such person also acquires the right to 5 notify the bailee who issued the document of the transfer thereof, and thereby 6 to acquire the direct obligation of such bailee to hold possession of the goods 7 for him according to the terms of the document.

8 Prior to the notification of such bailee by the transferor or transferee of a 9 non-negotiable document of title, the title of the transferee to the goods and the 10 right to acquire the obligation of such bailee may be defeated by the levy of an 11 attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by 12 a notification to such bailee by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from 13 the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

Sec. 35. Where a negotiable document of title is transferred for value by 2 delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the 3 transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the 4 document unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect 5 as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Sec. 36. A person who for value negotiates or transfers a document of title by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a document of title unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

- 4 (a) That the document is genuine;
- 5 (b) That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it;
- 6 (c) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or
- 7 worth of the document, and
- 8 (d) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods and that the goods
- 9 are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose, whenever such warranties
- 10 would have been implied if the contract of the parties had been to transfer with-
- 11 out a document of title the goods represented thereby.

Sec. 37. The indorsement of a document of title shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the bailee who issued the document or previous indorsers thereof to fulfill their respective obligations.

Sec. 38. The validity of the negotiation of a negotiable document of title is not impaired by the fact that the negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the document was induced by fraud, mistake or duress to entrust the possession or custody thereof to such person, if the person to whom the document was subsequently negotiated paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake or duress.

Sec. 39. If goods are delivered to a bailee by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner and a negotiable document of title is issued for them they cannot thereafter, while in the possession of such bailee, be attached by garnishment or otherwise or be levied upon under an execution unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined. The bailee shall in no

7 case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the docu-8 ment is surrendered to him or impounded by the court.

Sec. 40. A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable document of 2 title shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction by in-3 junction and otherwise in attaching such document or in satisfying the claim by 4 means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which can-5 not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

Sec. 41. It is the duty of the seller to deliver the goods, and of the buyer 2 to accept and pay for them, in accordance with the terms of the contract to sell 3 or sale.

Sec. 42. Unless otherwise agreed, delivery of the goods and payment of 2 the price are concurrent conditions; that is to say, the seller must be ready and 3 willing to give possession of the goods to the buyer in exchange for the price 4 and the buyer must be ready and willing to pay the price in exchange for pos-5 session of the goods.

Sec. 43. (1) Whether it is for the buyer to take possession of the goods 2 or for the seller to send them to the buyer is a question depending in each case on 3 the contract, express or implied, between the parties. Apart from any such con-4 tract, express or implied, or usage of trade to the contrary, the place of deliv-5 ery is the seller's place of business if he have one, and if not his residence; but 6 in case of a contract to sell or a sale of specific goods, which to the knowledge 7 of the parties when the contract or the sale was made were in some other place, 8 then that place is the place of delivery.

9 (2) Where by a contract to sell or a sale the seller is bound to send the 10 goods to the buyer, but no time for sending them is fixed, the seller is bound to 11 send them within a reasonable time.

12 (3) Where the goods at the time of sale are in possession of a third per-13 son, the seller has not fulfilled his obligation to deliver to the buyer unless and 14 until such third person acknowledges to the buyer that he holds the goods on the 15 buyer's behalf; but as against all others than the seller the buyer shall be re-16 garded as having received delivery from the time when such third person first 17 has notice of the sale. Nothing in this section, however, shall affect the opera-18 tion of the issue or transfer of any document of title to goods.

19 (4) Demand or tender of delivery may be treated as ineffectual unless 20 made at a reasonable hour. What is a reasonable hour is a question of fact.

21 (5) Unless otherwise agreed, the expenses of and incidental to putting 22 the goods into a deliverable state must be borne by the seller.

Sec. 44. (1) Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods 2 less than he contracted to sell, the buyer may reject them, but if the buyer ac-3 cepts or retains the goods so delivered, knowing that the seller is not going to 4 perform the contract in full, he must pay for them at the contract rate. If, how-5 ever, the buyer has used or disposed of the goods delivered before he knows that 6 the seller is not going to perform his contract in full, the buyer shall not be liable 7 for more than the fair value to him of the goods so received.

8 (2) Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods larger than 9 he contracted to sell, the buyer may accept the goods included in the contract and 10 reject the rest, or he may reject the whole. If the buyer accepts the whole of the 11 goods so delivered he must pay for them at the contract rate.

12 (3) Where the seller delivers to the buyer the goods he contracted to sell 13 mixed with goods of a different description not included in the contract, the 14 buyer may accept the goods which are in accordance with the contract and re-15 ject the rest, or he may reject the whole.

16 (4) The provisions of this section are subject to any usage of trade, spe-17 cial agreement, or course of dealing between the parties.

Sec. 45. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, the buyer of goods is not bound to 2 accept delivery thereof by instalments.

3 (2) Where there is a contract to sell goods to be delivered by stated instal-

4 ments, which are to be separately paid for, and the seller makes defective de-5 liveries in respect of one or more instalments, or the buyer neglects or refuses to 6 take delivery of or pay for one or more instalments, it depends in each case on 7 the terms of the contract and the circumstances of the case, whether the breach 8 of contract is so material as to justify the injured party in refusing to proceed 9 further and suing for damages for breach of the entire contract, or whether the 10 breach is severable, giving rise to a claim for compensation, but not to a right 11 to treat the whole contract as broken.

Sec. 46. (1) Where, in pursuance of a contract to sell or a sale, the seller 2 is authorized or required to send the goods to the buyer, delivery of the goods 3 to a carrier, whether named by the buyer or not, for the purpose of transmis-4 sion to the buyer is deemed to be a delivery of the goods to the buyer, except 5 in the cases provided for in section 19, Rule 5, or unless a contrary intent ap-6 pears.

7 (2) Unless otherwise authorized by the buyer, the seller must make such 8 contract with the carrier on behalf of the buyer as may be reasonable, having 9 regard to the nature of the goods and the other circumstances of the case. If 10 the seller omit so to do, and the goods are lost or damaged in course of transit, 11 the buyer may decline to treat the delivery to the carrier as a delivery to him-12 self, or may hold the seller responsible in damages.

13 (3) Unless otherwise agreed, where goods are sent by the seller to the 14 buyer under circumstances in which the seller knows or ought to know that 15 it is usual to insure, the seller must give such notice to the buyer as may enable 16 him to insure them during their transit, and, if the seller fails to do so, the goods 17 shall be deemed to be at his risk during such transit.

Sec. 47. (1) Where goods are delivered to the buyer, which he has not 2 previously examined, he is not deemed to have accepted them unless and un-3 til he has had a reasonable opportunity of examining them for the purpose of 4 ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

5 (2) Unless otherwise agreed, when the seller tenders delivery of goods to 6 the buyer, he is bound, on request, to afford the buyer a reasonable opportunity 7 of examining the goods for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in con-8 formity with the contract.

9 (3) Where goods are delivered to a carrier by the seller, in accordance 10 with an order from or agreement with the buyer, upon the terms that the goods 11 shall not be delivered by the carrier to the buyer until he has paid the price, 12 whether such terms are indicated by marking the goods with the words "collect 13 on delivery," or otherwise, the buyer is not entitled to examine the goods before 14 payment of the price in the absence of agreement permitting such examination.

Sec. 48. The buyer is deemed to have accepted the goods when he inti-
2 mates to the seller that he has accepted them, or when the goods have been de-3 livered to him, and he does any act in relation to them which is inconsistent with 4 the ownership of the seller, or when, after the lapse of a reasonable time, he 5 retains the goods without intimating to the seller that he has rejected them.

Sec. 49. In the absence of express or implied agreement of the parties, 2 acceptance of the goods by the buyer shall not discharge the seller from liabil-3 ity in damages or other legal remedy for breach of any promise or warranty in 4 the contract to sell or the sale. But, if, after acceptance of the goods, the buyer 5 fail to give notice to the seller of the breach of any promise or warranty within a 6 reasonable time after the buyer knows, or ought to know of such breach, the 7 seller shall not be liable therefor.

Sec. 50. Unless otherwise agreed, where goods are delivered to the buyer, 2 and he refuses to accept them, having the right so to do, he is not bound to re-3 turn them to the seller, but it is sufficient if he notifies the seller that he refuses 4 to accept them.

Sec. 51. When the seller is ready and willing to deliver the goods, and requests the buyer to take delivery, and the buyer does not within a reasonable time after such request take delivery of the goods, he is liable to the seller for any loss occasioned by his neglect or refusal to take delivery, and also for a reasonable charge for the care and custody of the goods. If the neglect or refusal of the buyer to take delivery amounts to a repudiation or breach of the entire contract, the seller shall have the rights against the goods and on the contract hereinafter provided in favor of the seller when the buyer is in default.

Sec. 52. (1) The seller of goods is deemed to be an unpaid seller within the meaning of this act—

(a) When the whole of the price has not been paid or tendered.

(b) When a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument has been received as conditional payment, and the condition on which it was received has been broken by reason of the dishonor of the instrument, the insolvency of the buyer, or otherwise.

(2) In this part of this Act the term “seller” includes an agent of the seller to whom the bill of lading has been indorsed, or a consignor or agent who has himself paid, or is directly responsible for, the price, or any other person who is in the position of a seller.

Sec. 53. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, notwithstanding that the property in the goods may have passed to the buyer, the unpaid seller of goods, as such, has—

(a) A lien on the goods or right to retain them for the price while he is in possession of them;

(b) In case of the insolvency of the buyer, a right of stopping the goods in transitu after he has parted with the possession of them;

(c) A right of resale as limited by this Act.

(d) A right to rescind the sale as limited by this Act.

10 (2) Where the property in goods has not passed to the buyer, the unpaid 11 seller has, in addition to his other remedies, a right of withholding delivery 12 similar to and coextensive with his rights of lien and stoppage in transitu where 13 the property has passed to the buyer.

Sec. 54—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the unpaid seller of 2 goods who is in possession of them is entitled to retain possession of them until 3 payment or tender of the price in the following cases, namely:

4 (a) Where the goods have been sold without any stipulation as to credit;

5 (b) Where the goods have been sold on credit, but the term of credit has 6 expired;

7 (c) Where the buyer becomes insolvent.

8 (2) The seller may exercise his right of lien notwithstanding that he is 9 in possession of the goods as agent or bailee for the buyer.

Sec. 55. Where an unpaid seller has made part delivery of the goods he 2 may exercise his right of lien on the remainder, unless such part delivery has been 3 made under such circumstances as to show an intent to waive the lien or right 4 of retention.

Sec. 56—(1) The unpaid seller of goods loses his lien thereon—

2 (a) When he delivers the goods to a carrier or other bailee for the pur-3 pose of transmission to the buyer without reserving the property in the goods 4 or the right to the possession thereof;

5 (b) When the buyer or his agent lawfully obtains possession of the goods;

6 (c) By waiver thereof.

7 (2) The unpaid seller of goods, having a lien thereon, does not lose his 8 lien by reason only that he has obtained judgment or decree for the price of the 9 goods.

Sec. 57. Subject to the provisions of this Act, when the buyer of goods is 2 or becomes insolvent, the unpaid seller who has parted with the possession of 3 the goods has the right of stopping them in transitu, that is to say, he may 4 resume possession of the goods at any time while they are in transit, and he 5 will then become entitled to the same rights in regard to the goods as he would 6 have had if he had never parted with the possession.

Sec. 58—(1) Goods are in transit within the meaning of Section 57—

2 (a) From the time when they are delivered to a carrier by land or water, or 3 other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer, until the buyer, or 4 his agent in that behalf, takes delivery of them from such carrier or other 5 bailee;

6 (b) If the goods are rejected by the buyer, and the carrier or other bailee 7 continues in possession of them, even if the seller has refused to receive them back.

8 (2) Goods are no longer in transit within the meaning of Section 57,

9 (a) If the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, obtains delivery of the goods 10 before their arrival at the appointed destination;

11 (b) If, after the arrival of the goods at the appointed destination, the car-12 rier or other bailee acknowledges to the buyer or his agent that he holds the 13 goods on his behalf and continues in possession of them as bailee for the buyer 14 or his agent; and it is immaterial that a further destination for the goods may 15 have been indicated by the buyer;

16 (c) If the carrier or other bailee wrongfully refuses to deliver the goods 17 to the buyer or his agent in that behalf.

18 (3) If goods are delivered to a ship chartered by the buyer, it is a question 19 depending on the circumstances of the particular case, whether they are in the 20 possession of the master as a carrier or as agent of the buyer.

21 (4) If part delivery of the goods has been made to the buyer, or his agent 22 in that behalf, the remainder of the goods may be stopped in transitu, unless 23 such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an agreement with the buyer to give up possession of the whole of the goods.

Sec. 59—(1) The unpaid seller may exercise his right of stoppage in transitu either by obtaining actual possession of the goods or by giving notice of his claim to the carrier or other bailee in whose possession the goods are. Such notice may be given either to the person in actual possession of the goods or to his principal. In the latter case the notice, to be effectual, must be given at such time and under such circumstances that the principal, by the exercise of reasonable diligence may prevent a delivery to the buyer.

(2) When notice of stoppage in transitu is given by the seller to the carrier, or other bailee in possession of the goods, he must redeliver the goods to, or according to the directions of, the seller. The expenses of such delivery must be borne by the seller. If, however, a negotiable document of title representing the goods has been issued by the carrier or other bailee, he shall not be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to the seller unless such document is first surrendered for cancellation.

Sec. 60—(1) Where the goods are of a perishable nature, or where the seller expressly reserves the right of resale in case the buyer should make default, or where the buyer has been in default in the payment of the price an unreasonable time, an unpaid seller having a right of lien or having stopped the goods in transitu may resell the goods. He shall not thereafter be liable to the original buyer upon the contract to sell or the sale or for any profit made by such resale, but may recover from the buyer damages for any loss occasioned by the breach of the contract or the sale.

(2) Where a resale is made, as authorized in this section, the buyer acquires a good title as against the original buyer.

(3) It is not essential to the validity of a resale that notice of an intention to resell the goods be given by the seller to the original buyer. But where the right to resell is not based on the perishable nature of the goods or upon an express provision of the contract or the contract or the sale, the giving or failure to give such notice shall be relevant in any issue involving the question whether 16 the buyer had been in default an unreasonable time before the resale was made.

17 (4) It is not essential to the validity of a resale that notice of the time and 18 place of such resale should be given by the seller to the original buyer.

19 (5) The seller is bound to exercise reasonable care and judgment in mak-20 ing a resale, and subject to this requirement may make a resale either by public 21 or private sale.

Sec. 61—(1) An unpaid seller having a right of lien or having stopped the 2 goods in transitu, may rescind the transfer of title and resume the property in 3 the goods, where he expressly reserved the right to do so in case the buyer 4 should make default, or where the buyer has been in default in the payment of 5 the price an unreasonable time. The seller shall not thereafter be liable to the 6 buyer upon the contract to sell or the sale, but may recover from the buyer 7 damages for any loss occasioned by the breach of the contract or the sale.

8 (2) The transfer of title shall not be held to have been rescinded by an 9 unpaid seller until he has manifested by notice to the buyer or by some other 10 overt act should be communicated to the buyer, but the giving or failure to give 11 notice to the buyer of the intention to rescind shall be relevant in any issue 12 involving the question whether the buyer had been in default an unreasonable 13 time before the right of rescission was asserted.

Sec. 62. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the unpaid seller's right of 2 lien or stoppage in transitu is not affected by any sale, or other disposition of 3 the goods which the buyer may have made, unless the seller has assented 4 thereto.

5 If, however, a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods, no 6 seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the right of any pur-7 chaser for value in good faith to whom such document has been negotiated, 8 whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the car-9 rier, or other bailee who issued such document, of the seller's claim to a lien or 10 right of stoppage in transitu.

Sec. 63—(1) Where, under a contract to sell or a sale, the property in the goods has passed to the buyer, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay for the goods according to the terms of the contract or the sale, the seller may maintain an action against him for the price of the goods.

(2) Where, under a contract to sell or a sale, the price is payable on a day certain, irrespective of delivery or of transfer of title, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay such price, the seller may maintain an action for the price, although the property in the goods has not passed, and the goods have not been appropriated to the contract. But it shall be a defense to such an action that the seller at any time before judgment in such action has manifested an inability to perform the contract or the sale on his part or an intention not to perform it.

(3) Although the property in the goods has not passed, if they cannot readily be resold for a reasonable price, and if the provisions of Section 64 (4) are not applicable, the seller may offer to deliver the goods to the buyer, and if the buyer refuses to receive them, may notify the buyer that the goods are thereafter held by the seller as bailee for the buyer. Thereafter the seller may treat the goods as the buyer's and may maintain an action for the price.

Sec. 64—(1) Where the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to accept any pay for the goods, the seller may maintain an action against him for damages for non-acceptance.

(2) The measure of damages is the estimated loss directly and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from the buyer's breach of contract.

(3) Where there is an available market for the goods in question, the measure of damages is, in the absence of special circumstances, showing proximate damage of a greater amount, the difference between the contract price and the market or current price at the time or times when the goods ought to have been accepted, or, if no time was fixed for acceptance, then at the time of the refusal to accept.

12 (4) If, while labor or expense of material amount are necessary on the 13 part of the seller to enable him to fulfill his obligations under the contract to 14 sell or the sale, the buyer repudiates the contract or the sale, or notifies the 15 seller to proceed no further therewith, the buyer shall be liable to the seller for 16 no greater damages than the seller would have suffered if he did nothing to-17 wards carrying out the contract or the sale after receiving notice of the buyer's 18 repudiation or countermand. The profit the seller would have made if the con-19 tract of the sale had been fully performed shall be considered in estimating 20 such damages.

Sec. 65. Where the goods have not been delivered to the buyer, and the 2 buyer has repudiated the contract to sell or sale, or has manifested his ina-3 bility to perform his obligations thereunder, or has committed a material breach 4 thereof, the seller may totally rescind the contract or the sale by giving notice 5 of his election so to do to the buyer.

Sec. 66. Where the property in the goods has passed to the buyer and 2 the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods, the buyer may 3 maintain any action allowed by law to the owner of goods of similar kind when 4 wrongfully converted or withheld.

Sec. 67—(1) Where the property in the goods has not passed to the buyer, 2 and the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods, the buyer 3 may maintain an action against the seller for damages for non-delivery.

4 (2) The measure of damages is the loss directly and naturally resulting 5 in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach of contract.

6 (3) Where there is an available market for the goods in question, the 7 measure of damages, in the absence of special circumstances showing proximate 8 damages of a greater amount, is the difference between the contract price and 9 the market or current price of the goods at the time or times when they ought 10 to have been delivered, or, if no time was fixed, then at the time of the refusal 11 to deliver.

Sec. 68. Where the seller has broken a contract to deliver specific or as-2 certain goods, a court having the powers of a court of equity may, if it thinks 3 fit, on the application of the buyer, by its judgment or decree direct that the 4 contract shall be performed specifically, without giving the seller the option of 5 retaining the goods on payment of damages. The judgment or decree may be 6 unconditional, or upon such terms and conditions as to damages, payment of 7 the price and otherwise, as to the court may seem just.

Sec. 69—(1) Where there is a breach of warranty by the seller, the buyer 2 may, at his election,

3 (a) Accept or keep the goods and set up against the seller the breach of 4 warranty by way of recoupment in diminution or extinction of the price;

5 (b) Accept or keep the goods and maintain an action against the seller 6 for damages for the breach of warranty;

7 (c) Refuse to accept the goods, if the property therein has not passed, 8 and maintain an action against the seller for damages for the breach of war-9 ranty;

10 (d) Rescind the contract to sell or the sale and refuse to receive the goods, 11 or if the goods have already been received, return them or offer to return them 12 to the seller and recover the price or any part thereof which has been paid.

13 (2) When the buyer has claimed and been granted a remedy in any one of 14 these ways, no other remedy can thereafter be granted.

15 (3) Where the goods have been delivered to the buyer, he cannot rescind 16 the sale if he knew of the breach of warranty when he accepted the goods, or if 17 he fails to notify the seller within a reasonable time of the election to rescind, 18 or if he fails to return or to offer to return the goods to the seller in substantially 19 as good condition as they were in at the time the property was transferred to 20 the buyer. But if deterioration or injury of the goods is due to the breach of 21 warranty, such deterioration or injury shall not prevent the buyer from return-22 ing or offering to return the goods to the seller and rescinding the sale.

23 (4) Where the buyer is entitled to rescind the sale and elects to do so, the 24 buyer shall cease to be liable for the price upon returning or offering to return 25 the goods. If the price or any part thereof has already been paid, the seller shall 26 be liable to repay so much thereof as has been paid, concurrently with the return 27 of the goods, or immediately after an offer to return the goods in exchange for 28 repayment of the price.

29 (5) Where the buyer is entitled to rescind the sale and elects to do so, if 30 the seller refuses to accept an offer of the buyer to return the goods, the buyer 31 shall thereafter be deemed to hold the goods as bailee for the seller, but subject 32 to a lien to secure the repayment of any portion of the price which has been 33 paid, and with the remedies for the enforcement of such lien allowed to an unpaid 34 seller by Section 53.

35 (6) The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the loss directly 36 and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from the breach of 37 warranty.

38 (7) In the case of breach of warranty of quality, such loss, in the absence 39 of special circumstances showing proximate damage of a greater amount, is the 40 difference between the value of the goods at the time of delivery to the buyer 41 and the value they would have had if they had answered to the warranty.

Sec. 70. Nothing in this Act shall affect the right of the buyer or the seller 2 to recover interest or special damages in any case where by law interest or spe-3 cial damages may be recoverable, or to recover money paid where the consid-4 eration for the payment of it has failed.

Sec. 71. Where any right, duty or liability would arise under a contract to 2 sell or a sale by implication of law, it may be negatived or varied by express 3 agreement or by the course of dealing between the parties, or by custom, if the 4 custom be such as to bind both parties to the contract or the sale.

Sec. 72. Where any right, duty or liability is declared by this Act, it may,
 2 unless otherwise by this Act provided, be enforced by action.

Sec. 73. In any case not provided for in this Act, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall continue to apply to contracts to sell and to sales of goods.

Sec. 74. This Act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the laws of those states which enact it.

Sec. 75. The provisions of this Act relating to contracts to sell and to sales do not apply, unless so stated, to any transaction in the form of a contract to sell or a sale which is intended to operate by way of mortgage, pledge, charge, other security.

Sec. 76—(1) In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires—

“Action,” includes counter-claim, set-off and suit in equity.

“Document of title to goods” includes any bill of lading, dock warrant, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, or any other document used in the ordinary course of business in the sale or transfer of goods, as proof of the possession or control of the goods, or authorizing or purporting to authorize the possessor of the document to transfer or receive, either by indorsement or by delivery, goods represented by such document.

19 “Fault” means wrongful act or default.

20 “Fungible goods” means goods of which any unit is from its nature or by 21 mercantile usage treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

23 after the making of the contract of sale.

47 it is in fact done honestly, whether it be done negligently or not.

52 or not.

53 (4) Goods are in a "deliverable state" within the meaning of this Act 54 when they are in such a state that the buyer would, under the contract, be

Sec. 76a. None of the provisions of this Act shall apply to any sale, or to 2 any contract to sell, made prior to the taking effect of this Act.

Sec. 76b. Nothing in this Act or in any repealing clause thereof shall be 2 construed to repeal or limit any of the provisions of the Act to make uniform 3 the law of warehouse receipts, or of the Act to make uniform the law of bills of 4 lading.

Sec. 77.—All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby 2 repealed except as provided in Section 76b.

Sec. 78. This Act may be cited as the Uniform Sales Act.

6 such pupils shall be paid by the district in which they reside, from any funds 7 not otherwise appropriated, but in no case shall the tuition per pupil exceed the 8 per capita cost of maintaining the high school selected. The parent, or guar-9 dian, shall select the high school to be attended, subject to the approval of the 10 school directors of the home district: Provided, however, that the high school

12 application of this Act shall not relate to districts that provide work in the 13 ninth and tenth grades, except to pupils that have completed the work of such 14 grades.

- 1 Introduced by Mr. Chipperfield, February 1, 1911.
- 2 Read by title, ordered printed and referred to Committee on Appropriations.

5 cessor;

6 WHEREAS, the Auditor of Public Accounts is not authorized to draw a war-7 rant on the State Treasurer in compliance with the aforesaid resolution for the 8 payment of the salary of the said Guy C. Scott from the date of the death of 9 the said Guy C. Scott until the qualification of his successor in office; now, 10 THEREFORE, the following is proposed:

A BILL

Scott, late Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
2 represented in the General Assembly: That the sum of two thousand four hun 3 dred and forty-eight dollars and forty-one cents ($2,448.41), the amount found
